

Children Sabbath School Lesson #122 for 4-4-2015
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

SABBATH DAY!
Sabbath day of rest and cheer! Day divine, to me so dear! Come, O come to old and young, Gath'ring all for prayer and song.	Lord, our God, we seek Thy face, Bless us with Thy saving grace; May Thy heralds everywhere Clear Thy Gospel truth declare.	May, O Lord, the day be near, When we pass from trials here Into Thine eternal rest, In the mansions of the blest...
Now the week of toil is o'er, And in peace we sit once more At our Father's ample board, Listening to His gracious Word.	Let Thy mighty Word hold sway Over men on earth today; Our poor souls, good Shepherd, Feed, Into pastures green us lead.	May, O Lord, the day be near, When we pass from trials here Into Thine eternal rest, In the mansions of the blest...

Opening Prayer – requesting one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer

Lesson #122: “At Capernaum”, Part 2

Isaiah 50:4 (KJV)

The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to [him that is] weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

*This week boys and girls, we continue with part 2 in our lesson entitled,
 “At Capernaum” of our study book Desire of Ages!*

Proverbs 15:23 (KJV)

A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word [spoken] in due season, how good [is it]!

Matthew 6:26 (KJV)

Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

Matthew 6:28 (KJV)

And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

Mark 1:21 (KJV)

And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

Mark 1:22 (KJV)

And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

Luke 4:33 (KJV)

And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

Luke 4:34 (KJV)

Saying, Let [us] alone; what have we to do with thee, [thou] Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #26, page 254 - 255

Yet He was earnest, rather than vehement. He spoke as one who had a definite purpose to fulfill. He was bringing to view the realities of the eternal world. In every theme God was revealed. Jesus sought to break the spell of infatuation which keeps men absorbed in earthly things. He placed the things of this life in their true relation, as subordinate to those of eternal interest; but He did not ignore their importance. He taught that heaven and earth are linked together, and that a knowledge of divine truth prepares men better to perform the duties of everyday life. He spoke as one familiar with heaven, conscious of His relationship to God, yet recognizing His unity with every member of the human family. {DA 254.1}

Question: What did Jesus seek to break from them? And, how did He place the things of this life?

Answer: the spell of infatuation which keeps men absorbed in earthly things. And, their true relation, as subordinate to those of eternal interest; but He did not ignore their importance.

His messages of mercy were varied to suit His audience. He knew "how to speak a word in season to him that is weary" (Isaiah 50:4); for grace was poured upon His lips, that He might convey to men in the most attractive way the treasures of truth. He had tact to meet the prejudiced minds, and surprise them with illustrations that won their attention. Through the imagination He reached the heart. His illustrations were taken from the things of daily life, and although they were simple, they had in them a wonderful depth of meaning. The birds of the air, the lilies of the field, the seed, the shepherd and the sheep,--with these objects Christ illustrated immortal truth; and ever afterward, when His hearers chanced to see these things of nature, they recalled His words. Christ's illustrations constantly repeated His lessons. {DA 254.2}

Question: How did Jesus suit His audience when He spoke? And, how did the Saviour meet the prejudiced minds of His hearers?

Answer: He knew "how to speak a word in season to him that is weary"; for grace was poured upon His lips, that He might convey to men in the most attractive way the treasures of truth. And, He had tact to meet prejudiced minds, and surprise them with illustrations that won their attention. Through the imagination He reached the heart.

Christ never flattered men. He never spoke that which would exalt their fancies and imaginations, nor did He praise them for their clever inventions; but deep, unprejudiced thinkers received His teaching, and found that it tested their wisdom. They marveled at the spiritual truth expressed in the simplest language. The most highly educated were charmed with His words, and the uneducated were always profited. He had a message for the illiterate; and He made even the heathen to understand that He had a message for them. {DA 254.3}

Question: What has Christ never done? And, what did these thinkers marveled at?

Answer: Flattered men. He never spoke that which would exalt their fancies and imaginations, nor did He praise them for their clever inventions; but deep, unprejudiced thinkers received His teaching. And, the spiritual truth expressed in the simplest language. The most highly educated were charmed with His words, and the uneducated were always profited.

His tender compassion fell with a touch of healing upon weary and troubled hearts. Even amid the turbulence of angry enemies He was surrounded with an atmosphere of peace. The beauty of His countenance, the loveliness of His character, above all, the love expressed in look and tone, drew to Him all who were not hardened in unbelief. Had it not been for the sweet, sympathetic spirit that shone out in every look and word, He would not have attracted the large congregations that He did. The afflicted ones who came to Him felt that He linked His interest with theirs as a faithful and tender friend, and they desired to know more of the truths He taught. Heaven was brought near. They longed to abide in His presence that the comfort of His love might be with them continually. {DA 254.4}

Question: How was Christ surrounding amid the turbulence of angry enemies around Him? And, how did He draw to Him all who were not hardened in unbelief?

Answer: He was surrounded with an atmosphere of peace. And, with the beauty of His countenance, the loveliness of His character, above all, the love expressed in look and tone; had it not been for the sweet, sympathetic spirit that shone out in every look and word, He would not have attracted the large congregations that He did.

Song: Let's learn a beautiful song together dear ones entitle, "Lord I Want To Know You More"!

Lord I Want To Know You More

Just the time I feel, that I've been caught in the mire of self
Just the time I feel, my mind's been bought by worldly wealth
That's when the breeze begins to blow, I know the Spirit's call
And all my worldly wanderings, just melt into His love

Lord, I want to know You more, deep within my soul I want to know you
Lord, I want to know You, to feel your heart and know Your mind
Looking in Your eyes, stirs up within me
Cries that say, "I want to know You, Lord, I want to know You, more

And when my daily deeds ordinarily lose life and song
My heart begins to bleed, sensitivity to Him is gone
I've run the race but set my own pace and face a shattered soul
Now, the gentle arms of Jesus, warm my hunger to behold

Lord, I want to know You more, deep within my soul I want to know You
Lord, I want to know You, to feel Your heart and know Your mind
Looking in Your Words, stirs up within me
Cries that say, "I want to know You"

And I would give my final breath
To know You in Your death and resurrection
Lord, I want to know You more
Lord, I want to know You, more
Lord, I want to know You more

Jesus watched with deep earnestness the changing countenances of His hearers. The faces that expressed interest and pleasure gave Him great satisfaction. As the arrows of truth pierced to the soul, breaking through the barriers of selfishness, and working contrition, and finally gratitude, the Saviour was made glad. When His eye swept over the throng of listeners, and He recognized among them the faces He had before seen, His countenance lighted up with joy. He saw in them hopeful subjects for His kingdom. When the truth, plainly spoken, touched some cherished idol, He marked the change of countenance, the cold, forbidding look, which told that the light was unwelcome. When He saw men refuse the message of peace, His heart was pierced to the very depths. {DA 255.1}

Jesus in the synagogue spoke of the kingdom He had come to establish, and of His mission to set free the captives of Satan. He was interrupted by a shriek of terror. A madman rushed forward from among the people, crying out, "Let us alone; what have we to do with Thee, Thou Jesus of Nazareth? art Thou come to destroy us? I know Thee who Thou art; the Holy One of God." {DA 255.2}

Question: What made Jesus' countenance lighted up with joy? And, what happened to the Saviour when He saw men refuse the message of peace?

Answer: When His eye swept over the throng of listeners, and He recognized among them the faces He had before seen? And, His heart was pierced to the very depths.

Song: Let's learn a beautiful scripture song together dear ones, from the book of Matthew!

Matthew 6:33 (KJV)

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness;
and all these things shall be added unto you.

Allelu, Alleluia!

(In French) Cherchez d'abord le royaume de Dieu et sa justice,
Et toutes choses vous seront données en plus.

Allelu, Alleluia!

It's Story Time!

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitle, “Sons and Daughters of God”
Chapter 2- We Obey the Father's Law of Love
Narrated by our dear Brother Graves!
The Commandments are Sure

All his commandments are sure. They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness. Psalm 111:7, 8. {SD 38.1}

Adam and Eve, at their creation, had a knowledge of the law of God. It was printed on their hearts, and they understood its claims upon them. The law of God existed before man was created. It was adapted to the condition of holy beings; even angels were governed by it. After the fall, the principles of righteousness were unchanged. Nothing was taken from the law; not one of its holy precepts could be improved. And as it has existed from the beginning, so will it continue to exist throughout the ceaseless ages of eternity. {SD 38.2}

Our duty to obey this law is to be the burden of this last message of mercy to the world. God's law is not a new thing. It is not holiness created, but holiness made known. It is a code of principles expressing mercy, goodness, and love. It presents to fallen humanity the character of God, and states plainly the whole duty of man. {SD 38.3}

The law of love being the foundation of the government of God, the happiness of all intelligent beings depends upon their perfect accord with its great principles of righteousness. God desires from all His creatures the service of love--service that springs from an appreciation of His character. He takes no pleasure in a forced obedience; and to all He grants freedom of will, that they may render Him voluntary service. {SD 38.4}

"All His commandments are sure...." Whatever is built upon the authority of man will be overthrown; but that which is founded upon the rock of God's immutable word shall stand forever. {SD 38.5}

The sacred statutes which Satan has hated and sought to destroy, will be honored throughout a sinless universe. {SD 38.6}

Next Week We will continue with part 2 of our lesson entitle, “At Capernaum” in our study book “Desire of Ages”

Closing Prayer – request one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer.

Next Sabbath: Chapter 26 “At Capernaum” Part 3 Sabbath April, 2015.

Have a Blessed Sabbath dear one, and enjoy your activities. God Bless!
