

Children Sabbath School Lesson #125 for 5-2-2015
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

SABBATH DAY!
Sabbath day of rest and cheer! Day divine, to me so dear! Come, O come to old and young, Gath'ring all for prayer and song. Now the week of toil is o'er, And in peace we sit once more At our Father's ample board, Listening to His gracious Word.	Lord, our God, we seek Thy face, Bless us with Thy saving grace; May Thy heralds everywhere Clear Thy Gospel truth declare. Let Thy mighty Word hold sway Over men on earth today; Our poor souls, good Shepherd, Feed, Into pastures green us lead.	May, O Lord, the day be near, When we pass from trials here Into Thine eternal rest, In the mansions of the blest... May, O Lord, the day be near, When we pass from trials here Into Thine eternal rest, In the mansions of the blest...

Opening Prayer – requesting one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer

Lesson #125: “At Capernaum”, Part 5

Isaiah 27:5 (KJV)

Or let him take hold of my strength, [that] he may make peace with me; [and] he shall make peace with me.

*This week boys and girls, we continue with part 5 in our lesson entitle,
 “At Capernaum” of our study book Desire of Ages!*

Isaiah 49:24 (KJV)

Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered?

Isaiah 49:25 (KJV)

But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

1 Kings 8:57 (KJV)

The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us:

Psalms 27:9 (KJV)

Hide not thy face [far] from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

Psalms 27:14 (KJV)

Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD.

Luke 4:38 (KJV)

And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

Luke 4:43 (KJV)

And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

Luke 4:44 (KJV)

And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #26, page 258 - 260

Every man is free to choose what power he will have to rule over him. None have fallen so low, none are so vile, but that they can find deliverance in Christ. The demoniac, in place of prayer, could utter only the words of Satan; yet the heart's unspoken appeal was heard. No cry from a soul in need, though it fail of utterance in words, will be unheeded. Those who will consent to enter into covenant relation with the God of heaven are not left to the power of Satan or to the infirmity of their own nature. They are invited by the Saviour, "Let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me; and he shall make peace with Me." Isaiah 27:5.

The spirits of darkness will battle for the soul once under their dominion, but angels of God will contend for that soul with prevailing power. The Lord says, "Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? . . . Thus saith the Lord, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children." Isaiah 49:24, 25. {DA 258.6}

Question: Who can find deliverance in Christ no matter how they have fallen? And, by what words they are invited by the Saviour?

Answer: Everyone can! None have fallen so low, none are so vile. And, "Let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me; and he shall make peace with Me."

Song: Let's learn a beautiful scripture song together dear ones, from the book of Luke!

Luke 1:68-79 (KJV)

Blessed [be] the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,
And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David;
As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:
That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;
To perform the mercy [promised] to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;
The oath which he swore to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear,
In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.
And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins, Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, To give light to them that sit in darkness and [in] the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

While the congregation in the synagogue were still spellbound with awe, Jesus withdrew to the home of Peter for a little rest. But here also a shadow had fallen. The mother of Peter's wife lay sick, stricken with a "great fever." Jesus rebuked the disease, and the sufferer arose, and ministered to the wants of the Master and His disciples. {DA 259.1}

Tidings of the work of Christ spread rapidly throughout Capernaum. For fear of the rabbis, the people dared not come for healing upon the Sabbath; but no sooner had the sun disappeared below the horizon than there was a great commotion. From the homes, the shops, the market places, the inhabitants of the city pressed toward the humble dwelling that sheltered Jesus. The sick were brought upon couches, they came leaning upon staffs, or, supported by friends, they tottered feebly into the Saviour's presence. {DA 259.2}

Question: How did Jesus heal the mother of Peter's wife stricken with a "great fever."? And, where, with great commotion, did these multitudes come from when the sun set below the horizon?

Answer: Jesus rebuked the disease, and the sufferer arose, and ministered to the wants of the Master and His disciples. And, from the homes, the shops, the market places, the inhabitants of the city pressed toward the humble dwelling that sheltered Jesus.

Hour after hour they came and went; for none could know whether tomorrow would find the Healer still among them. Never before had Capernaum witnessed a day like this. The air was filled with the voice of triumph and shouts of deliverance. The Saviour was joyful in the joy He had awakened. As He witnessed the sufferings of those who had come to Him, His heart was stirred with sympathy, and He rejoiced in His power to restore them to health and happiness. {DA 259.3}

Not until the last sufferer had been relieved did Jesus cease His work. It was far into the night when the multitude departed, and silence settled down upon the home of Simon. The long, exciting day was past, and Jesus sought rest. But while the city was still wrapped in slumber, the Saviour, "rising up a great while before day, . . . went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed." {DA 259.4}

Question: What had awakened a joyful heart in the Saviour as He witnessed the sufferings of those who had come to Him? And, what did our Saviour do while the city was still wrapped in slumber?

Answer: The voice of triumph and shouts of deliverance that filled the air. His heart was stirred with sympathy, and He rejoiced in His power to restore them to health and happiness. And, He, "rising up a great while before day, . . . went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed."

Thus were spent the days in the earthly life of Jesus. He often dismissed His disciples to visit their homes and rest; but He gently resisted their efforts to draw Him away from His labors. All day He toiled, teaching the ignorant, healing the sick, giving sight to the blind, feeding the multitude; and at the eventide or in the early morning, He went away to the sanctuary of the mountains for communion with His Father. Often He passed the entire night in prayer and meditation, returning at daybreak to His work among the people. {DA 259.5}

Question: How did Jesus spent the days of His earthly life in labor? And, what did he do at the eventide or in the early morning?

Answer: All day He toiled, teaching the ignorant, healing the sick, giving sight to the blind, feeding the multitude; and at the eventide or in the early morning, He went away to the sanctuary of the mountains for communion with His Father.

Song: Let's learn a hymn together dear ones, entitle, "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer"!

"The Beautiful Garden of Prayer" http://www.cyberhymnal.org/htm/b/e/beautgar.htm
There's a garden where Jesus is waiting, There's a place that is wondrously fair, For it glows with the light of His presence. 'Tis the beautiful garden of prayer.	There's a garden where Jesus is waiting, And I go with my burden and care, Just to learn from His lips words of comfort In the beautiful garden of prayer.
Oh, the beautiful garden, the garden of prayer! Oh, the beautiful garden of prayer! There my Savior awaits, and He opens the gates To the beautiful garden of prayer.	There's a garden where Jesus is waiting, And He bids you to come, meet Him there; Just to bow and receive a new blessing In the beautiful garden of prayer.

Early in the morning, Peter and his companions came to Jesus, saying that already the people of Capernaum were seeking Him. The disciples had been bitterly disappointed at the reception which Christ had met hitherto. The authorities at Jerusalem were seeking to murder Him; even His own townsmen had tried to take His life; but at Capernaum He was welcomed with joyful enthusiasm, and the hopes of the disciples kindled anew. It might be that among the liberty-loving Galileans were to be found the supporters of the new kingdom. But with surprise they heard Christ's words, "I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent." {DA 260.1}

Question: Despite the authorities at Jerusalem seeking to murder the Saviour as well as His own townsmen trying to take His life, how was He received at Capernaum by the people?

Answer: He was welcomed with joyful enthusiasm, and the hopes of the disciples kindled anew. It might be that among the liberty-loving Galileans were to be found the supporters of the new kingdom.

Song: Let's learn a beautiful song together dear ones, from the book of John!

John 9:4 (KJV) I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. John 9 verse 4

It's Story Time!

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled, “Sons and Daughters of God”
Chapter 2- The Law is Truth and Righteousness
Narrated by our dear Brother Graves!

Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth. Psalm 119:142.
{SD 41.1}

God sent truth into our world in untarnished glory, beauty, and perfection, and placed it in contrast with error. Neither men nor devils were able to detect a flaw in the character of Christ; but the revelation of the true Light which lighteth every man that cometh into the world, placed darkness in such contrast, that men would not receive the light. . . . There is no natural enmity between evil angels and evil men; both are evil through transgression of the law of God, and evil will always league against God. Fallen men and fallen angels enter into a desperate companionship. . . . {SD 41.2}

The purity and holiness of the character of Christ stirred up the very worst passions of the human heart. . . . His perfect obedience to the commandments of God was a continual rebuke to a sensual and perverse generation. His spotless character was shedding light into the midst of the moral darkness of the world.... {SD 41.3}

Those who become the sons of God cannot avoid coming into conflict with the hosts of apostasy. . . . Through the merits of the Redeemer, God accepts the efforts of sinful man in keeping His law, which is holy, just, and good. {SD 41.4}

Those who truly unite with Christ will be found doing the same work that Christ did while on the earth,—they will be found magnifying the law and making it honorable. . . . When the advocates of truth reveal the efficiency of truth in their life and character, a blow is struck against the kingdom of Satan. {SD 41.5}

The character of God is righteousness and truth; such is the nature of His law. Says the psalmist, "Thy law is the truth;" "all thy commandments are righteousness." . . . Such a law, being an expression of the mind and will of God, must be as enduring as its Author.
{SD 41.6}

Next Week We will end our lesson with part 6 in our study, “At Capernaum” of our book “Desire of Ages”

Closing Prayer – request one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer.

Next Sabbath: Chapter 26 “At Capernaum” Part 6 Sabbath May 9, 2015.

Have a Blessed Sabbath dear one, and enjoy your activities. God Bless!
