Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Hymn # Open Mine Eyes, Dear Saviour
Open mine eyes, dear Savior, I thirst in the noontide heat, I pine for refreshing waters That murmur so cool and sweet.	Open mine eyes, dear Savior, I faint 'neath the burning sky, And here, in a lonely desert, For water in vain I cry.	Whence is the voice that calleth? And what do mine eyes behold? O Savior, my prayer is answered, 'Tis answered a hundred fold.
Open mine eyes, dear Savior, now, Open mine eyes to see The well of Thy full salvation That sparkles and flows for me.	Open mine eyes, dear Savior, I know that the well is near; But O that my strength were stronger, Its mission more bright and clear.	Praise to Thy Name, dear Savior mine, Joyfully now I see The well of Thy full salvation That sparkles and flows for me.

Lesson #159: “Who Are my Brethren?” Part 2

Matthew 12:31 (KJV)

Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy [against] the [Holy] Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

*This week boys and girls, we will continue with Part 2 in our lesson entitled,
 “Who Are my Brethren?” in our study book Desire of Ages!*

Matthew 12:32 (KJV)

And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the [world] to come.

Matthew 12:34 (KJV)

O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

Luke 11:24 (KJV)

When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

Luke 11:26 (KJV)

Then goeth he, and taketh [to him] seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last [state] of that man is worse than the first.

Matthew 12:36 (KJV)

But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

Matthew 12:37 (KJV)

For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #33, pages 323 – 324

Closely connected with Christ's warning in regard to the sin against the Holy Spirit is a warning against idle and evil words. The words are an indication of that which is in the heart. "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." But the words are more than an indication of character; they have power to react on the character. Men are influenced by their own words. Often under a momentary impulse, prompted by Satan, they give utterance to jealousy or evil surmising, expressing that which they do not really believe; but the expression reacts on the thoughts. They are deceived by their words, and come to believe that true which was spoken at Satan's instigation. Having once expressed an opinion or decision, they are often too proud to retract it, and try to prove themselves in the right, until they come to believe that they are. It is dangerous to utter a word of doubt, dangerous to question and criticize divine light. The habit of careless and irreverent criticism reacts upon the character, in fostering irreverence and unbelief. Many a man indulging this habit has gone on unconscious of danger, until he was ready to criticize and reject the work of the Holy Spirit. Jesus said, "Every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned." {DA 323.1}

Question: what does the scripture state that is an indication of that which is in the heart? And, more of an indication of character, what power do words have?

Answer: "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." And, they have power to react on the character, for men are influenced by their own words.

Question: what does Satan often prompt one to utter under a momentary impulse? And, what are the dangers they come to believe once they've expressed an opinion or decision they're too proud to retract?

Answer: They give utterance to jealousy or evil surmising, expressing that which they do not really believe; but the expression reacts on the thoughts. And, to utter a word of doubt, dangerous to question and criticize divine light; the habit of careless and irreverent criticism reacts upon the character, in fostering irreverence and unbelief.

Song: Let's learn a beautiful scripture and song together dear ones, from the book of Philippians!

Philippians 4:8 (KJV)

Finally, brethren,
whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things [are] honest,
whatsoever things [are] just, whatsoever things [are] pure,
whatsoever things [are] lovely,
whatsoever things [are] of good report;
if [there be] any virtue, and if [there be] any praise, think on these things.
Philippians 4:8

Then He added a warning to those who had been impressed by His words, who had heard Him gladly, but who had not surrendered themselves for the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. It is not only by resistance but by neglect that the soul is destroyed. "When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man," said Jesus, "he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there." {DA 323.2}

Question: what added warning does Jesus leave to those who had been impressed by His words, who had heard Him gladly, but who had not surrendered themselves for the indwelling of the Holy Spirit?

Answer: That the soul is destroyed it is not only by resistance but by neglect. "When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man," said Jesus, "he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

There were many in Christ's day, as there are today, over whom the control of Satan for the time seemed broken; through the grace of God they were set free from the evil spirits that had held dominion over the soul. They rejoiced in the love of God; but, like the stony-ground hearers of the parable, they did not abide in His love. They did not surrender themselves to God daily, that Christ might dwell in the heart; and when the evil spirit returned, with "seven other spirits more wicked than himself," they were wholly dominated by the power of evil. {DA 323.3}

Question: How was Satan's control over many in Christ's day, as even today, broken? And, what will happen if the evil spirit returns and the dear soul has not surrendered themselves to God daily?

Answer: Through the grace of God they were set free from the evil spirits that had held dominion over the soul by daily abiding in His love Christ dwell in the heart. And, "seven other spirits more wicked than himself," they were wholly dominated by the power of evil.

Song: Let's learn another scripture song together dear ones, from the book of James!

James 4:7-8 (KJV)

Submit yourselves therefore to God.
Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.
Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you.
Cleanse [your] hands, [ye] sinners;
and purify [your] hearts, [ye] double minded.
Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you.
Submit yourselves therefore to God.
James chapter 4 verses 7 and 8

When the soul surrenders itself to Christ, a new power takes possession of the new heart. A change is wrought which man can never accomplish for himself. It is a supernatural work, bringing a supernatural element into human nature. The soul that is yielded to Christ becomes His own fortress, which He holds in a revolted world, and He intends that no authority shall be known in it but His own. A soul thus kept in possession by the heavenly agencies is impregnable to the assaults of Satan. But unless we do yield ourselves to the control of Christ, we shall be dominated by the wicked one. We must inevitably be under the control of the one or the other of the two great powers that are contending for the supremacy of the world. It is not necessary for us deliberately to choose the service of the kingdom of darkness in order to come under its dominion. We have only to neglect to ally ourselves with the kingdom of light. If we do not cooperate with the heavenly agencies, Satan will take possession of the heart, and will make it his abiding place. The only defense against evil is the indwelling of Christ in the heart through faith in His righteousness. Unless we become vitally connected with God, we can never resist the unhallowed effects of self-love, self-indulgence, and temptation to sin. We may leave off many bad habits, for the time we may part company with Satan; but without a vital connection with God, through the surrender of ourselves to Him moment by moment, we shall be overcome. Without a personal acquaintance with Christ, and a continual communion, we are at the mercy of the enemy, and shall do his bidding in the end. {DA 324.1}

Question: What happens when the soul surrender itself to Christ? And, is it a natural work?

Answer: A new power takes possession of the new heart. A change is wrought which man can never accomplish for himself. And, no! It is a supernatural work, bringing a supernatural element into human nature. The soul that is yielded to Christ becomes His own fortress, which He holds in a revolted world, and He intends that no authority shall be known in it but His own.

Question: What is the only defense against evil? And, can we resist unless we become vitally connected to God?

Answer: Is the indwelling of Christ in the heart through faith in His righteousness. And, no! Unhallowed effects of self-love, self-indulgence, and temptation to sin; may leave off many bad habits, for the time. we may part company with Satan; but without a vital connection with God, through the surrender of ourselves to Him moment by moment, we shall be overcome.

Song: Let's learn our two last song scripture songs dear ones, from the book of Ezekiel!

Ezekiel 36:26-27 (KJV)

A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you:
and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do [them].
and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.
And they shall know that I the LORD

It's Story Time!

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitle, “Sons and Daughters of God”
Chapter 3-We are to Consider Nature's Lessons
Narrated by our dear Brother Graves!

And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin. Matthew 6:28. {SD 75.1}

Natural science is God's storehouse from which every student in the school of Christ may draw. The ways of God in natural philosophy, and the mysteries connected with His dealings with man, are a treasury from which all may draw. {SD 75.2}

The flowers of the field, in their endless variety, are always ministering to the delight of the children of men. God Himself nourishes every root, that He may express His love to all who will be softened and subdued by the works of His hands. We need no artificial display. God's love is represented by the beautiful things of His creation. {SD 75.3}

Christ sought to draw the attention of His disciples away from the artificial to the natural: “If God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith!” Why did not our heavenly Father carpet the earth with brown or gray? He chose the color that was most restful, the most acceptable to the senses. How it cheers the heart and refreshes the weary spirit to look upon the earth, clad in its garments of living green! Without this covering the air would be filled with dust, and the earth would appear like a desert. Every spire of grass, every opening bud and blooming flower is a token of God's love, and should teach us a lesson of faith and trust in Him. Christ calls our attention to their natural loveliness, and assures us that the most gorgeous array of the greatest king that ever wielded an earthly scepter was not equal to that worn by the humblest flower. You who are sighing for the artificial splendor which wealth alone can purchase, for costly paintings, furniture, and dress, listen to the voice of the divine Teacher. He points you to the flower of the field, the simple design of which cannot be equalled by human skill. {SD 75.4}

Next Week We will continue with chapter 3 in our lesson entitle, “Who Are My Brethren?” of our book “Desire of Ages”

Luke 6:45 (KJV)

A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.
