Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Our Opening Song is a Scripture Song from the Book of

Psalms 34:11, 13-14 (KJV)

Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. Depart from evil, and do well;
Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. Seek peace, and pursue it. (3 xs)

Psalms 34: 11, 13 and 14

I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

Lesson #213 “The Foreshadowing of the Cross” Part 5

Matthew 16:24 (KJV)

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any [man] will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

*This Sabbath boys and girls, we will end with part 5 of our lesson entitled,
“The Foreshadowing of the Cross” in our lesson book, Desire of Ages!*

Luke 9:23 (KJV)

And he said to [them] all, If any [man] will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

Matthew 16:25 (KJV)

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

Matthew 16:26 (KJV)

For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

Matthew 16:27 (KJV)

For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

Matthew 16:28 (KJV)

Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

Revelation 2:10 (KJV)

Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast [some] of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #45, pages 416-418

Jesus now explained to His disciples that His own life of self-abnegation was an example of what theirs should be. Calling about Him, with the disciples, the people who had been lingering near, He said, "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me." The cross was associated with the power of Rome. It was the instrument of the most cruel and humiliating form of death. The lowest criminals were required to bear the cross to the place of execution; and often as it was about to be laid upon their shoulders, they resisted with desperate violence, until they were overpowered, and the instrument of torture was bound upon them. But Jesus bade His followers take up the cross and bear it after Him. To the disciples His words, though dimly comprehended, pointed to their submission to the most bitter humiliation,--submission even unto death for the sake of Christ. No more complete self-surrender could the Saviour's words have pictured. But all this He had accepted for them. Jesus did not count heaven a place to be desired while we were lost. He left the heavenly courts for a life of reproach and insult, and a death of shame. He who was rich in heaven's priceless treasure, became poor, that through His poverty we might be rich. We are to follow in the path He trod. {DA 416.3}

Question: What did the Saviour say after calling about Him, with the disciples, the people who had been lingering near? And, what did the cross stand for, and associated with?

Answer: He said, "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me." And, the cross was associated with the power of Rome. It was the instrument of the most cruel and humiliating form of death.

Song: *Let's learn our first scripture song together dear ones from the book of Luke!

Luke 9:23-25 (KJV) Margin

And he said to [them] all, If any [man] will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.
For whosoever will save his life shall lose it:
but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.
For what is a man advantaged,
if he gain the whole world, and lose himself,
or be cast away?
If any [man] will come after me, let him deny himself,
and take up his cross daily,
and follow me. (2 xs)

Love for souls for whom Christ died means crucifixion of self. He who is a child of God should henceforth look upon himself as a link in the chain let down to save the world, one with Christ in His plan of mercy, going forth with Him to seek and save the lost. The Christian is ever to realize that he has consecrated himself to God, and that in character he is to reveal Christ to the world. The self-sacrifice, the sympathy, the love, manifested in the life of Christ are to reappear in the life of the worker for God. {DA 417.1}

Question: What does the crucifixion of self means? And, what is the Christian ever to realize and reveal to the world?

Answer: Love for souls for whom Christ died, for He who is a child of God should henceforth look upon himself as a link in the chain let down to save the world; one with Christ in His plan of mercy, seek and save the lost. And, he has consecrated himself to God, in character he is to reveal Christ to the world.

“Whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for My sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.” Selfishness is death. No organ of the body could live should it confine its service to itself. The heart, failing to send its lifeblood to the hand and the head, would quickly lose its power. As our lifeblood, so is the love of Christ diffused through every part of His mystical body. We are members one of another, and the soul that refuses to impart will perish. And “what is a man profited,” said Jesus, “if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?” {DA 417.2}

Question: Why is selfishness death and what example do we have in our body that proves this important truth design by our Creator? And, what is as our lifeblood diffused through every part of our Saviour's mystical body?

Answer: No organ of the body could live should it confine its service to itself. The heart, failing to send its lifeblood to the hand and the head, would quickly lose its power. And, is the love of Christ.

Beyond the poverty and humiliation of the present, He pointed the disciples to His coming in glory, not in the splendor of an earthly throne, but with the glory of God and the hosts of heaven. And then, He said, “He shall reward every man according to his works.” Then for their encouragement He gave the promise, “Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in His kingdom.” But the disciples did not comprehend His words. The glory seemed far away. Their eyes were fixed upon the nearer view, the earthly life of poverty, humiliation, and suffering. Must their glowing expectations of the Messiah's kingdom be relinquished? Were they not to see their Lord exalted to the throne of David? Could it be that Christ was to live a humble, homeless wanderer, to be despised, rejected, and put to death? Sadness oppressed their hearts, for they loved their Master. Doubt also harassed their minds, for it seemed incomprehensible that the Son of God should be subjected to such cruel humiliation. They questioned why He should voluntarily go to Jerusalem to meet the treatment which He had told them He was there to receive. How could He resign Himself to such a fate, and leave them in greater darkness than that in which they were groping before He revealed Himself to them? {DA 417.3}

Question: What did the Saviour do to lift the disciples beyond the poverty and humiliation of the present, and what did He say to them for their encouragement? And, why did His glory seem far away?

Answer: He pointed the disciples to His coming in glory, not in the splendor of an earthly throne, but with the glory of God and the hosts of heaven. And, their eyes were fixed upon the nearer view, the earthly life of poverty, humiliation, and suffering.

In the region of Caesarea Philippi, Christ was out of the reach of Herod and Caiaphas, the disciples reasoned. He had nothing to fear from the hatred of the Jews or from the power of the Romans. Why not work there, at a distance from the Pharisees? Why need He give Himself up to death? If He was to die, how was it that His kingdom was to be established so firmly that the gates of hell should not prevail against it? To the disciples this was indeed a mystery. {DA 418.1}

Question: What did the disciples reason about Christ being out of the reach of Herod and Caiaphas? And, what was to them a mystery indeed?

Answer: He had nothing to fear from the hatred of the Jews or from the power of the Romans. And, if their Saviour was to die, how was it that His kingdom was to be established so firmly that, “the gates of hell should not prevail against it.”

They were even now journeying along the shores of the Sea of Galilee toward the city where all their hopes were to be crushed. They dared not remonstrate with Christ, but they talked together in low, sorrowful tones in regard to what the future would be. Even amid their questionings they clung to the thought that some unforeseen circumstance might avert the doom which seemed to await their Lord. Thus they sorrowed and doubted, hoped and feared, for six long, gloomy days. {DA 418.2}

Question: Why were the disciples’ journey along the shores of the Sea of Galilee toward the city so solemn? And, what were the disciples hoping for in sorrowful tones, in regard to what the future would be?

Answer: They arrive where all their hopes were to be crushed. And, amid their questionings they clung to the thought that some unforeseen circumstance might avert the doom which seemed to await their Lord.

Song: *Let’s learn our last song scripture song together dear ones from the book of Romans!

Roman 11:33-34, 36 (KJV)

O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God!
how unsearchable [are] his judgments,
and his ways past finding out!
For who hath known the mind of the Lord?
or who hath been his counsellor?
For of him, and through him, and to him, [are] all things:
to whom [be] glory for ever.
Amen.

It's Story Time!

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled,
“Sons and Daughters of God”

Chapter 5-He Submitted to Parental Authority

And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them.
Luke 2:51. {SD 129.1}

Jesus claimed His sonship to the Eternal. . . . His first visit to the temple had awakened new impulses. All earthly obligations were, for the time, lost sight of; but with the knowledge of His divine mission, and of His union with God, He did not resist the authority of His parents. At their request He returned with them as a faithful, obedient son, and aided them in their life of toil. He buried in His own heart the secret of His future mission, waiting submissively until the period of His public ministry should commence before announcing to the world that He was the Messiah. He submitted to parental restraint, for the period of eighteen years after He had acknowledged that He was the Son of God, and lived the simple, common life of a Galilean, working at the carpenter's trade. . . . For thirty years He submitted to parental restraint. . . .
{SD 129.2}

It is common for children, even of Christian parents, when not over twelve years old, to feel that they must be allowed to follow their own desires. And parents are ready to be led by their children, rather than to lead them. . . . For this reason many youth come up with habits of selfishness and idleness. They are vain, proud, and headstrong. {SD 129.3}

When we look upon His patient self-denial, His shrinking from all notoriety, devoting Himself to His daily labor in a humble sphere, what a beautiful light is shed about His life! How clearly is pointed out the path in which children and youth should walk! . . . Jesus was no less the Son of God in His lowly home, in His submission to His parents, than when God spoke from His eternal throne, saying, "This is my beloved Son." {SD 129.4}

The life of Christ assures a blessing forever upon a life of cheerful submission to parental restraint and a life of physical and mental industry. {SD 129.5}

Next Week: We will begin a new chapter in our lesson entitled, “He Was Transfigured” of our book “Desire of Ages”

Closing Prayer – request one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer.

Next Sabbath: Chapter 46 “He Was Transfigured” Sabbath January 21, 2017.

Have a Blessed Sabbath dear one, and enjoy your activities. God Bless!
