

Children Sabbath School Lesson #229 for 5-6-2017
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Our Opening Song is a Scripture Song from,
“The Book of Psalms 100:1-4 (KJV)

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.
Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.
Know ye that the LORD he [is] God:
[we are] his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, [and] into his courts with praise:
be thankful unto him, [and] bless his name.

(Memory Verse)

[it is] he [that] hath made us, and not we ourselves;

Opening Prayer – requesting one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer

Lesson #229 “At the Feast of Tabernacles” Part 4

John 4:14 (KJV)

But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

This Sabbath boys and girls, we will end with part 4 of our lesson entitled,
“At the Feast of Tabernacles” in our lesson book, Desire of Ages!

John 7:14 (KJV)

Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

John 7:15 (KJV)

And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

John 7:16 (KJV)

Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

John 4:15 (KJV)

The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

John 7:37 (KJV)

In the last day, that great [day] of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

John 7:38 (KJV)

He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

John 7:39 (KJV)

(But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet [given]; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

Revelation 22:17 (KJV)

And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #49, pages 453-454

All wondered at His knowledge of the law and the prophecies; and the question passed from one to another, "How knoweth this Man letters, having never learned?" No one was regarded as qualified to be a religious teacher unless he had studied in the rabbinical schools, and both Jesus and John the Baptist had been represented as ignorant because they had not received this training. Those who heard them were astonished at their knowledge of the Scriptures, "having never learned." Of men they had not, truly; but the God of heaven was their teacher, and from Him they had received the highest kind of wisdom. {DA 453.1}

As Jesus spoke in the temple court, the people were held spellbound. The very men who were the most violent against Him felt themselves powerless to do Him harm. For the time, all other interests were forgotten. {DA 453.2}

Question: Why did the question pass from one to another, "How knoweth this Man letters, having never learned?"

Answer: Those who heard them were astonished at their knowledge of the Scriptures and of the law and the prophecies.

John 8:31-32 (KJV)

Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him,
If ye continue in my word, [then] are ye my disciples indeed; (2 xs)
And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free (2 xs) and the truth shall make you free.
Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him,
If ye continue in my word, [then] are ye my disciples indeed; (2 xs)
and the truth shall make you free. (2 xs)

Day after day He taught the people, until the last, "that great day of the feast." The morning of this day found the people wearied from the long season of festivity. Suddenly Jesus lifted up His voice, in tones that rang through the courts of the temple: {DA 453.3}

Question: What happened suddenly after this day found the people wearied from the long season of festivity?

Answer: Suddenly Jesus lifted up His voice, in tones that rang through the courts of the temple.

"If any man thirst, let him come unto Me, and drink. He that believeth on Me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water." The condition of the people made this appeal very forcible. They had been engaged in a continued scene of pomp and festivity, their eyes had been dazzled with light and color, and their ears regaled with the richest music; but there had been nothing in all this round of ceremonies to meet the wants of the spirit, nothing to satisfy the thirst of the soul for that which perishes not. Jesus invited them to come and drink of the fountain of life, of that which would be in them a well of water, springing up unto everlasting life. {DA 453.4}

Question: What will be result to him that believeth on Jesus, as the scripture hath said, “If any man thirst, let him come unto Me, and drink?” And, what did all the continued scenes of pomp and festivity dazzled the eyes with light and color and the ears with the richest music, not meet for the soul?

Answer: Out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. And, there had been nothing in all this round of ceremonies to meet the wants of the spirit, nothing to satisfy the thirst of the soul for that which perishes not.

The priest had that morning performed the ceremony which commemorated the smiting of the rock in the wilderness. That rock was a symbol of Him who by His death would cause living streams of salvation to flow to all who are athirst. Christ's words were the water of life. There in the presence of the assembled multitude He set Himself apart to be smitten, that the water of life might flow to the world. In smiting Christ, Satan thought to destroy the Prince of life; but from the smitten rock there flowed living water. As Jesus thus spoke to the people, their hearts thrilled with a strange awe, and many were ready to exclaim, with the woman of Samaria, “Give me this water, that I thirst not.” John 4:15. {DA 454.1}

Question: What was the symbol of the ceremony which commemorated the smiting of the rock in the wilderness, which the priest performed that morning?

Answer: That rock was a symbol of Him who by His death would cause living streams of salvation to flow to all who are athirst.

It is the first and highest duty of every rational being to learn from the Scriptures what is truth, and then to walk in the light and encourage others to follow his example.
We should day by day study the Bible diligently,
weighing every thought and comparing scripture with scripture.
With divine help we are to form our opinions for ourselves as we are to answer for ourselves before God.

Great Controversy Page 598

Jesus knew the wants of the soul. Pomp, riches, and honor cannot satisfy the heart. “If any man thirst, let him come unto Me.” The rich, the poor, the high, the low, are alike welcome. He promises to relieve the burdened mind, to comfort the sorrowing, and to give hope to the despondent. Many of those who heard Jesus were mourners over disappointed hopes, many were nourishing a secret grief, many were seeking to satisfy their restless longing with the things of the world and the praise of men; but when all was gained, they found that they had toiled only to reach a broken cistern, from which they could not quench their thirst. Amid the glitter of the joyous scene they stood, dissatisfied and sad. That sudden cry, “If any man thirst,” startled them from their sorrowful meditation, and as they listened to the words that followed, their minds kindled with a new hope. The Holy Spirit presented the symbol before them until they saw in it the offer of the priceless gift of salvation. {DA 454.2}

Question: What are the promises Jesus will give, when He said “if any man thirst, let him come unto Me?”

Answer: He promises to relieve the burdened mind, to comfort the sorrowing, and to give hope to the despondent; as they listened to the words, their minds kindled with a new hope.

Encouraging Quotes DA - Desire of Ages, Page 668, Paragraph 3(SOP)

All true obedience comes from the heart.
It was heart work with Christ. And if we consent,
He will so identify Himself with our thoughts and aims, so blend our hearts and minds into conformity to His will,
that when obeying Him we shall be but carrying out our own impulses.
The will, refined and sanctified, will find its highest delight in doing His service.
When we know God as it is our privilege to know Him,
our life will be a life of continual obedience.
Through an appreciation of the character of Christ,
through communion with God, sin will become hateful to us.
{Desire of Ages 668}

The cry of Christ to the thirsty soul is still going forth, and it appeals to us with even greater power than to those who heard it in the temple on that last day of the feast. The fountain is open for all. The weary and exhausted ones are offered the refreshing draught of eternal life. Jesus is still crying, “If any man thirst, let him come unto Me, and drink.” “Let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” “Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.”

Revelation 22:17; John 4:14. {DA 454.3}

Question: Is the cry of Christ to the thirsty soul only for those in the past? And, to who is the fountain of life is offered and open for?

Answer: No! It's still going forth, and it appeals to us with even greater power than to those who heard it in the temple on that last day of the feast. And, the fountain is open for all. The weary and exhausted ones are offered the refreshing draught of eternal life.

Isaiah 41:17-18 (KJV)

[When] the poor and needy seek water, and [there is] none,
[and] their tongue faileth for thirst,
I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them. (2 xs)
I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys:
I will make the wilderness a pool..... of water, and the dry land springs..... of water.
Isaiah 41:17 and 18

Chapter 5-He Was Misunderstood and Often Stood Alone

I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people [there was] none with me:
Margin Isaiah 63:3. {SD 145.1}

What a support Christ would have found in His earthly relatives if they had believed in Him as one from heaven, and had co-operated with Him in doing the work of God! Their unbelief cast a shadow over the earthly life of Jesus. It was part of the bitterness of that cup of woe which He drained for us. . . . With their short measuring line they could not fathom the mission which He came to fulfill, and therefore could not sympathize with Him in His trials. Their coarse, unappreciative words showed that they had no true perception of His character, and did not discern that the divine blended with the human. They often saw Him full of grief; but instead of comforting Him, their spirit and words only wounded His heart. . . . {SD 145.2}

These things made His path a thorny one to travel. So pained was Christ by the misapprehension in His own home that it was a relief to Him to go where it did not exist. Often He could find relief only in being alone, and communing with His heavenly Father. {SD 145.3}

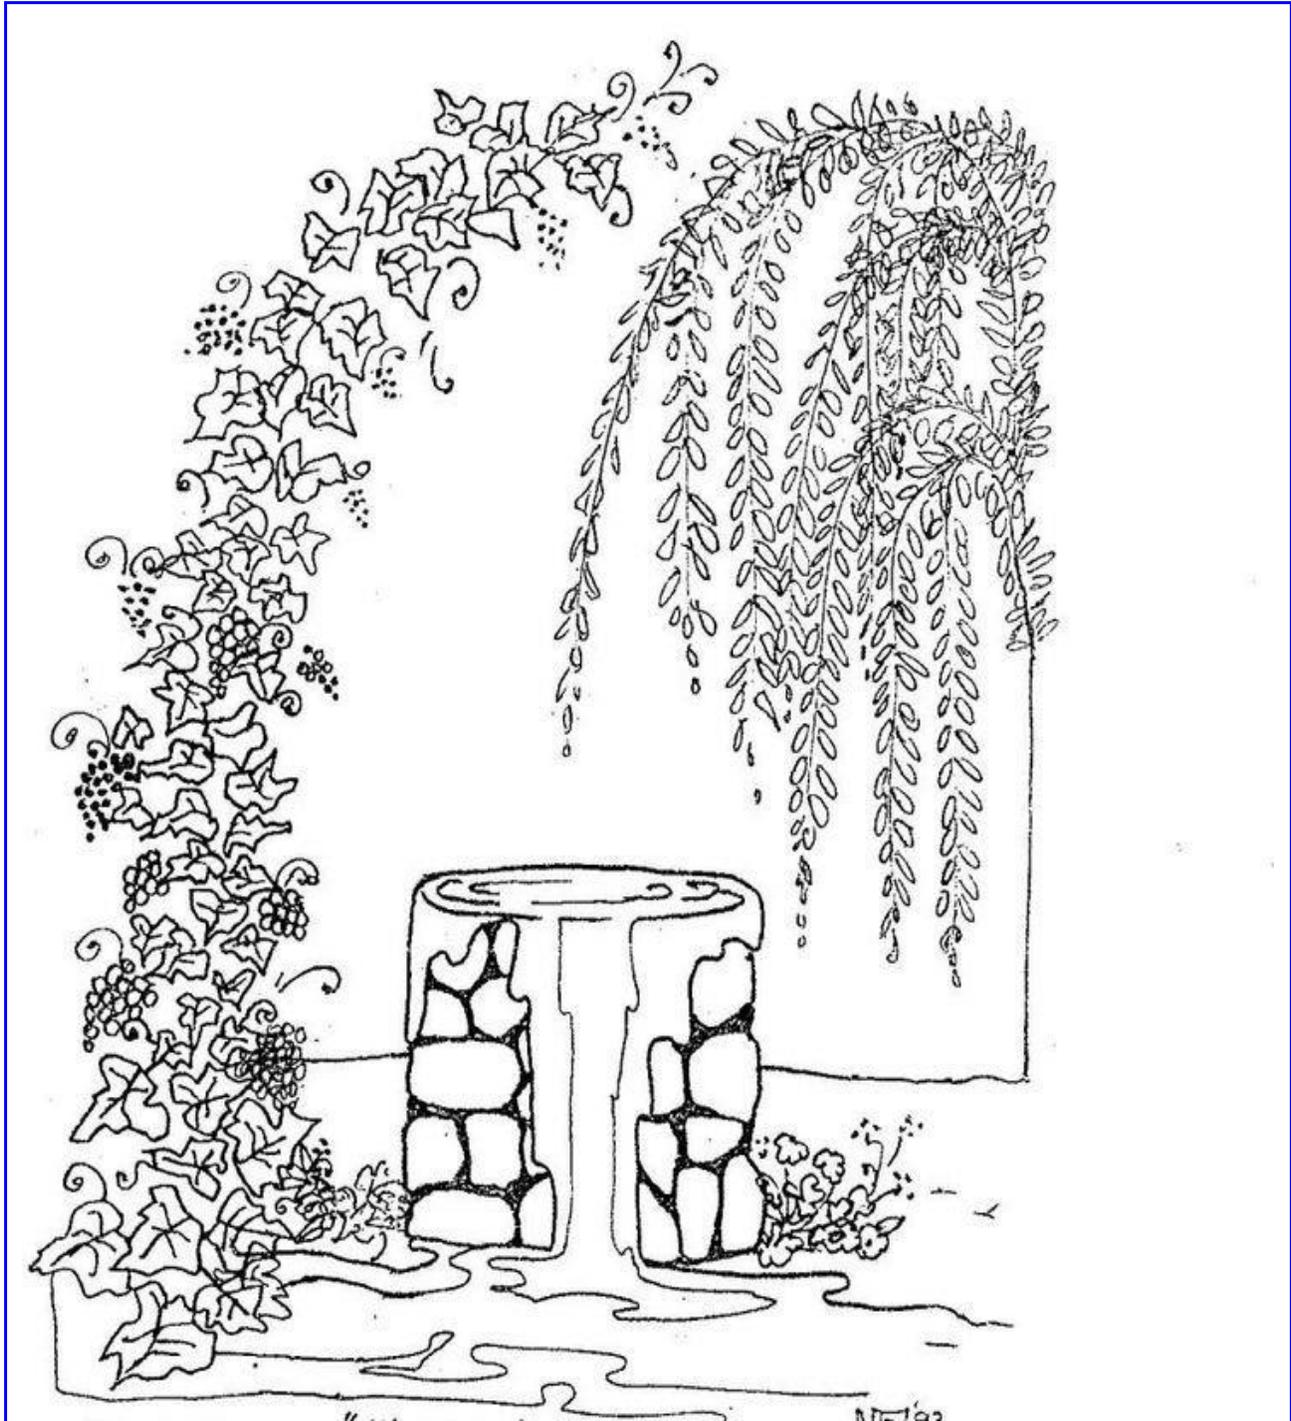

Those who are called to suffer for Christ's sake, who have to endure misapprehension and distrust, even in their own home, may find comfort in the thought that Jesus has endured the same. He is moved with compassion for them. He bids them find companionship in Him, and relief where He found it, in communion with the Father. Those who accept Christ as their personal Saviour are not left as orphans to bear the trials of life alone. He receives them as members of the heavenly family; He bids them call His Father their Father. They are His “little ones,” dear to the heart of God, bound to Him by the most tender and abiding ties. He has toward them an exceeding tenderness, as far surpassing what our father or mother has felt toward us in our helplessness as the divine is above the human. {SD 145.4}
