Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #51, pages 464-466

“That was the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.” The world has had its great teachers, men of giant intellect and wonderful research, men whose utterances have stimulated thought, and opened to view vast fields of knowledge; and these men have been honored as guides and benefactors of their race. But there is One who stands higher than they. “As many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God.” “No man hath seen God at any time; the only-begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, He hath declared Him.” John 1:12, 18. We can trace the line of the world's great teachers as far back as human records extend; but the Light was before them. As the moon and the stars of the solar system shine by the reflected light of the sun, so, as far as their teaching is true, do the world's great thinkers reflect the rays of the Sun of Righteousness.

Question: Who is the One that stands higher than the world's great teachers; men of giant intellect, men whose utterances have stimulated thought, and opened to view vast fields of knowledge?

Answer: The only-begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father Sun of Righteousness Jesus Christ. Every gem of thought, every flash of the intellect, is from the Light of the world.

Continuing: Every gem of thought, every flash of the intellect, is from the Light of the world. In these days we hear much about "higher education." The true "higher education" is that imparted by Him "in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." "In Him was life; and the life was the light of men." Colossians 2:3; John 1:4. "He that followeth Me," said Jesus, "shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." {DA 464.4}

Question: What in these days we hear much about? And, what is the true "higher education" that is imparted by Him (Jesus)?

Answer: We hear much about "higher education." And, the true "higher education" is that imparted by Him "in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." "In Him was life; and the life was the light of men."

In the words, "I am the light of the world," Jesus declared Himself the Messiah. The aged Simeon, in the temple where Christ was now teaching, had spoken of Him as "a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of Thy people Israel." Luke 2:32. In these words he was applying to Him a prophecy familiar to all Israel. By the prophet Isaiah, the Holy Spirit had declared, "And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth." Isaiah 49:6. This prophecy was generally understood as spoken of the Messiah, and when Jesus said, "I am the light of the world," the people could not fail to recognize His claim to be the Promised One. {DA 465.1}

Question: In the words, "I am the light of the world," what did Jesus declare Himself to be? And, who declared this truth in the paragraph?

Answer: The Messiah. And, the aged Simeon, in the temple where Christ was now teaching and the prophet Isaiah, the Holy Spirit had declared that He will restore the preserved of Israel and be given for a light to the Gentiles.

Isaiah 49:6 (KJV)

And he said,
It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant
to raise up the tribes of Jacob,
and to restore the preserved of Israel:
I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles,
that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

Isaiah 49 verse 6

And he said,
It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant
to raise up the tribes of Jacob,
and to restore the preserved of Israel:
I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles,
that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

Isaiah 49 verse 6

To the Pharisees and rulers this claim seemed an arrogant assumption. That a man like themselves should make such pretensions they could not tolerate. Seeming to ignore His words, they demanded, “Who art Thou?” They were bent upon forcing Him to declare Himself the Christ. His appearance and His work were so at variance with the expectations of the people, that, as His wily enemies believed, a direct announcement of Himself as the Messiah would cause Him to be rejected as an impostor. {DA 465.2}

Question: Why did the Pharisees and rulers, seeming to ignore Christ words, demand, “Who art Thou?” And, what was the reason behind this?

Answer: They were bent upon forcing Him to declare Himself the Christ. And, the wily enemies believed, a direct announcement of Himself as the Messiah would cause Him to be rejected as an impostor.

But to their question, “Who art Thou?” Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even [the same] that I said unto you from the beginning.” John 8:25. That which had been revealed in His words was revealed also in His character. He was the embodiment of the truths He taught. “I do nothing of Myself,” He continued; “but as My Father hath taught Me, I speak these things. And He that sent Me is with Me: the Father hath not left Me alone; for I do always those things that please Him.” He did not attempt to prove His Messianic claim, but showed His unity with God. If their minds had been open to God's love, they would have received Jesus. {DA 465.3} Question: What was Jesus' respond to their question, “Who art Thou?” And, did He attempt to prove His Messianic claim to them?

Answer: Jesus saith unto them, Even [the same] that I said unto you from the beginning.” And, no! But showed His unity with God; if their minds had been open to God's love, they would have received Jesus.

John 8:8, 6, 7 (KJV)

Then said Jesus unto them,
When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am [he],
and [that] I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.
And he that sent me is with me:
the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.
the Father hath not left me alone;
6:57 Margin. As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father:
8:50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.
7:18 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory:
but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.
no unrighteousness is in him
When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am [he],
and [that] I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.
And he that sent me is with me:
the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

From John 8, 6 and 7

Among His hearers many were drawn to Him in faith, and to them He said, “if ye continue in My word, then are ye My disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” {DA 466.1}

These words offended the Pharisees. The nation's long subjection to a foreign yoke, they disregarded, and angrily exclaimed, “We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest Thou, Ye shall be made free?” Jesus looked upon these men, the slaves of malice, whose thoughts were bent upon revenge, and sadly answered, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.” They were in the worst kind of bondage,—ruled by the spirit of evil. {DA 466.2}

Question: Did all Christ' hearers reject Him and His words? And, who was offended by what Jesus said to the many hearers drawn to Him by faith?

Answer: No! Many were drawn to Him in faith, and to them He said, “if ye continue in My word, then are ye My disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” And, the Pharisees who were in the worst kind of bondage,—ruled by the spirit of evil!

Chapter 5-In Recognizing God as the Giver of All Gifts

Blessed [be] the Lord, [who] daily loadeth us [with benefits, even] the God of our salvation.
Selah. Psalm 68:19. {SD 152.1}

Under the Jewish economy, on the birth of children an offering was made to God, by His own appointment. Now we see parents taking special pains to present gifts to their children upon their birthdays; they make this an occasion of honoring the child, as though honor were due to the human being. . . . For life, health, food, and clothing, no less than for the hope of eternal life, we are indebted to the Giver of all mercies; and it is due to God to recognize His gifts, and to present our offerings of gratitude to our greatest benefactor. These birthday gifts are recognized in heaven. {SD 152.2}

If Christian parents had accustomed their children to present offerings to God in acknowledgment of His great gift of salvation to men, how different would be the character of the young. Their minds would have been called away from themselves to the blessed Saviour. They would have been taught to feel that He loved them, and that He is the source of all blessing; that He is their hope of happiness and eternal life. {SD 152.3}

If this kind of education had been given to our children, we should today see far less selfishness, far less envy and jealousy; we should have more manly young men and womanly young women. We should see the youth coming up with moral strength, with pure principles, with well-balanced minds and lovely characters, because the Model would be ever before them; they would be impressed with the importance of copying the excellence of Jesus, the Pattern. . . . God wants the youth and those of mature age to look to Him, to believe in Jesus Christ whom He has sent, and to have Him abiding in the heart; then a new life will quicken every faculty of the being. The divine Comforter will be with them, to strengthen them in their weakness, and guide them in their perplexity. . . . It will make plain to them the path of life. {SD 152.4}

Next Week: We will continue with part 3 of our lesson entitle, “The Light of Life” of our book “Desire of Ages”

Closing Prayer – request one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer.
