Jesus heard what had been done; and finding him soon after, He said, "Dost thou believe on the Son of God?" {DA 474.4}

For the first time the blind man looked upon the face of his Restorer. Before the council he had seen his parents troubled and perplexed; he had looked upon the frowning faces of the rabbis; now his eyes rested upon the loving, peaceful countenance of Jesus. Already, at great cost to himself, he had acknowledged Him as a delegate of divine power; now a higher revelation was granted him. {DA 474.5}

Question: What did Jesus do after He heard what have been done to the young man? And, what was the reaction for the first time when the blind man looked upon the face of his Restorer?

Answer: Finding him soon after, He said, "Dost thou believe on the Son of God?" And, now his eyes rested upon the loving, peaceful countenance of Jesus.

{Step to Christ page 52}

To the Saviour's question, "Dost thou believe on the Son of God?" the blind man replied by asking, "Who is He, Lord, that I might believe on Him?" And Jesus said, "Thou hast both seen Him, and it is He that talketh with thee." The man cast himself at the Saviour's feet in worship. Not only had his natural sight been restored, but the eyes of his understanding had been opened. Christ had been revealed to his soul, and he received Him as the Sent of God. {DA 475.1}

Question: What was the answer to the Saviour's question, "Dost thou believe on the Son of God?" And what was His reply to the blind man, and the blind man's reaction?

Answer: The blind man replied by asking, "Who is He, Lord, that I might believe on Him?" And Jesus said, "Thou hast both seen Him, and it is He that talketh with thee." The man cast himself at the Saviour's feet in worship.

Song: Let's learn another beautiful hymn together dear one entitled, "Sitting at the feet of Jesus!"

Sitting at the feet of Jesus,
1. Sitting at the feet of Jesus, Oh, what words I hear Him say! Happy place! so near, so precious! May it find me there each day. 2. Sitting at the feet of Jesus, I would look upon the past; For His love has been so gracious, It has won my heart at last. 3. Sitting at the feet of Jesus, Where can mortal be more blest? There I lay my sins and sorrows And, when weary, find sweet rest.	4. Sitting at the feet of Jesus, There I love to weep and pray, While I from His fullness gather Grace and comfort every day. 5. Bless me, O my Savior, bless me, As I sit low at Thy feet. Oh, look down in love upon me; Let me see Thy face so sweet. 6. Give me, Lord, the mind of Jesus; Make me holy as He is. May I prove I've been with Jesus, Who is all my righteousness.

A group of Pharisees had gathered near, and the sight of them brought to the mind of Jesus the contrast ever manifest in the effect of His words and works. He said, "For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind." Christ had come to open the blind eyes, to give light to them that sit in darkness. He had declared Himself to be the light of the world, and the miracle just performed was in attestation of His mission. The people who beheld the Saviour at His advent were favored with a fuller manifestation of the divine presence than the world had ever enjoyed before. The knowledge of God was revealed more perfectly. But in this very revelation, judgment was passing upon men. Their character was tested, their destiny determined. {DA 475.2}

Question: What did Jesus mean as He said, "For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind?"

Answer: Christ had come to open the blind eyes, to give light to them that sit in darkness. He had declared Himself to be the light of the world, and the miracle just performed was in attestation of His mission.

Question: What were the people who beheld the Saviour at His advent more favored with? And, what was passing upon men in this very revelation?

Answer: A fuller manifestation of the divine presence than the world had ever enjoyed before. And, judgment was passing upon men. Their character was tested, their destiny determined.

The manifestation of divine power that had given to the blind man both natural and spiritual sight had left the Pharisees in yet deeper darkness. Some of His hearers, feeling that Christ's words applied to them, inquired, "Are we blind also?" Jesus answered, "If ye were blind, ye should have no sin" If God had made it impossible for you to see the truth, your ignorance would involve no guilt. "But now ye say, We see." You believe yourselves able to see, and reject the means through which alone you could receive sight. To all who realized their need, Christ came with infinite help. But the Pharisees would confess no need; they refused to come to Christ, and hence they were left in blindness,--a blindness for which they were themselves guilty. Jesus said, "Your sin remaineth." {DA 475.3}

Question: What did the manifestation of divine power that had been given to the blind man both natural and spiritual sight left? And, what the Jesus answers?

Answer: It had left the Pharisees in yet deeper darkness. Some of His hearers, feeling that Christ's words applied to them, inquired, "Are we blind also?" And, "If ye were blind, ye should have no sin" If God had made it impossible for you to see the truth, your ignorance would involve no guilt. "But now ye say, We see."

Question: What has Christ came to do for all who realized their need? And, what did He say to the Pharisees which they were themselves guilty for their blindness?

Answer: He (Christ) came with infinite help. But the Pharisees would confess no need; they refused to come to Christ, and hence they were left in blindness. And, Jesus said, "Your sin remaineth." {DA 475.3}

The same power that Christ exercised when He walked visibly among men is in His word (2 xs)

The (same 2 xs) power

In them He is speaking to us individually, as directly as if we could listen to His voice.

It is in these promises that Christ communicates to us His grace and power.

They are leaves from that tree which is "for the healing of the nations." (2 xs)

Received, assimilated, they are to be the strength of the character, the inspiration and sustenance of the life.

Nothing besides can impart the courage and faith which give vital energy (2 xs) to the whole being.

Chapter 5-We Follow Christ in the Communion Service

After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

1 Corinthians 11:25. {SD 158.1}

Christ was standing at the point of transition between two economies and their two great festivals. . . . As He ate the Passover with His disciples, He instituted in its place the service that was to be the memorial of His great sacrifice. The national festival of the Jews was to pass away forever. The service which Christ established was to be observed by His followers in all lands and through all ages. . . . Till He shall come the second time in power and glory, this ordinance is to be celebrated. {SD 158.2}

It is at these, His own appointments, that Christ meets His people, and energizes them by His presence. . . . All who come with their faith fixed upon Him will be greatly blessed. All who neglect these seasons of divine privilege will suffer loss. Of them it may appropriately be said, “Ye are not all clean.” . . . {SD 158.3}

But the Communion service was not to be a season of sorrowing. This was not its purpose. . . . They are not to recall the differences between them and their brethren. The preparatory service has embraced all this. . . . Now they come to meet with Christ. They are not to stand in the shadow of the cross, but in its saving light. They are to open the soul to the bright beams of the Sun of Righteousness. With hearts cleansed by Christ's most precious blood, in full consciousness of His presence, although unseen, they are to hear His words, “Peace I leave with you.” . . . {SD 158.4}

The Communion service points to Christ's second coming. It was designed to keep this hope vivid in the minds of the disciples. . . . In their tribulation they found comfort in the hope of their Lord's return. Unspeakably precious to them was the thought, “As often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come.” {SD 158.5}

Next Week: We will begin a new chapter of our lesson entitle, “The Divine Shepherd” of our book “Desire of Ages”

Closing Prayer – request one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer.

Next Sabbath: Chapter 52 “The Divine Shepherd” Sabbath August 12, 2017.

I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.
