Chapter 54
“The Good Samaritan” Part 3*

Sabbath June 9, 2018

Our Opening Song is entitled,

“Here are my Hands!”

Here are my hands help them serve.
Let my mouth speak Your Words.
And my ears to hear Your Voice,
Got my feet to follow Your Path,
Got my eyes to see,
all that You want me to be!
And I will obey You with all my heart.
And I will obey You with all my heart.

Our Opening Verse for our Review Lessons is from,

Psalms 100:2-4 (KJV)

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.

Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

*Know ye that the LORD he [is] God:
[it is] he [that] hath made us, and not we ourselves;
[we are] his people, and the sheep of his pasture.*

*Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
[and] into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him,
[and] bless his name.*

“If thou meet thine enemy’s ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.

If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him.” Exodus 23:4, 5.

But in the man wounded by robbers, Jesus presented the case of a brother in suffering. How much more should their hearts have been moved with pity for him than for a beast of burden! (Next Slide Please)

“a great God, a mighty, and a terrible,” “doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger.”

The message had been given them through Moses that the Lord their God, “a great God, a mighty, and a terrible,” “doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger.”

Wherefore He commanded, “Love ye therefore the stranger.”

“Thou shalt love him as thyself.”
Deuteronomy 10:17-19;
Leviticus 19:34.

{DA 500.1}

Love you therefore the stranger: for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

—Deuteronomy 10:19

Desire of Ages, p.500

Job had said,

“The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors to the traveler.”

And when the two angels in the guise of men came to Sodom, Lot bowed himself with his face toward the ground, and said, “Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant’s house, and tarry all night.”

Continuing:

With all these lessons the priest and the Levite were familiar, but they had not brought them into practical life. Trained in the school of national bigotry, they had become selfish, narrow, and exclusive. When they looked upon the wounded man, they could not tell whether he was of their nation or not. They thought he might be of the Samaritans, and they turned away. {DA 500.2}

In their action, as Christ had described it,
the lawyer saw nothing contrary to what he had been taught concerning the requirements of the law.

But now another scene was presented:
{DA 503.1}

Desire of Ages, p.503

A certain Samaritan, in his journey,
came where the sufferer was,
and when he saw him,
he had compassion on him.
He did not question whether the stranger was a Jew or a Gentile.
If a Jew, the Samaritan well knew that,
were their condition reversed,
the man would spit in his face,
and pass him by with contempt.
But he did not hesitate on account of this.

Desire of Ages, p.503

He did not consider that he himself might be in danger of violence by tarrying in the place. It was enough that there was before him a human being in need and suffering. He took off his own garment with which to cover him. The oil and wine provided for his own journey he used to heal and refresh the wounded man. He lifted him on his own beast, and moved slowly along with even pace, so that the stranger might not be jarred, and made to suffer increased pain.

Desire of Ages, p.503

Continuing: He brought him to an inn, and cared for him through the night, watching him tenderly. In the morning, as the sick man had improved, the Samaritan ventured to go on his way. But before doing this, he placed him in the care of the innkeeper, paid the charges, and left a deposit for his benefit; and not satisfied even with this, he made provision for any further need, saying to the host, “Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.” {DA 503.2}

Desire of Ages, p.503

The story ended, Jesus fixed His eyes upon the lawyer, in a glance that seemed to read his soul, and said, “Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?” Luke 10:36, {DA 503.3}

The lawyer would not, even now, take the name Samaritan upon his lips, and he made answer, “He that showed mercy on him.” Jesus said, “Go, and do thou likewise.” {DA 503.4}

Desire of Ages, p.503

Thus the question,
“Who is my neighbor?”
is forever answered.
Christ has shown that our neighbor does not mean merely one of the church or faith to which we belong.
It has no reference to race,
color, or class distinction.
Our neighbor is every person who needs our help.
Our neighbor is every soul who is wounded and bruised by the adversary.
Our neighbor is everyone who is the property of God.

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

Before we hear your questions dear ones!

*Let's take a few minutes to review what you have read last Sabbath from Part 1 of our Lesson entitled,
"The Good Samaritan" Part 3
in our study book Desire of Ages!*

Let's consider this verse for our Review Section! Taking from 1 Peter 3:15 (KJV)

*But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts:
and [be] ready always to [give] an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:*

Chapter 6-Careful Habits Ensure Good Health

I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord.

Jeremiah 30:17. {SD 172.1}

The mind does not wear out nor break down so often on account of diligent employment and hard study, as on account of eating improper food at improper times, and of careless inattention to the laws of health. . . . Irregular hours for eating and sleeping sap the brain forces.

The apostle Paul declares that he who would be successful in reaching a high standard of godliness must be temperate in all things. Eating, drinking, and dressing all have a direct bearing upon our spiritual advancement. {SD 172.2}

Health is a blessing which few appreciate. . . . Many eat at all hours, regardless of the laws of health. Then gloom covers the mind. How can men be honored with divine enlightenment when they are so reckless in their habits, so inattentive to the light which God has given in regard to these things. . . . (Next Slide)

Life is a holy trust, which God alone can enable us to keep, and to use to His glory.
But He who formed the wonderful structure of the body will take special care to keep it in order if men do not work at cross-purposes with Him.

{SD 172.3}

Health, life, and happiness are the result of obedience to physical laws governing our bodies.
If our will and way are in accordance with God's will and way; if we do the pleasure of our Creator, He will keep the human organism in good condition, and restore the moral, mental, and physical powers, in order that He may work through us to His glory. . . .

If we co-operate with Him in this work, health and happiness, peace and usefulness, are the sure result.

{SD 172.4}

He did not die for us in order that we might become slaves to evil habits, but that we might become the sons and daughters of God, serving Him with every power of the being.

{SD 172.5}

My dear young friends, advance step by step, until all your habits shall be in harmony with the laws of life and health.

{SD 172.6}

I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord.
Jeremiah 30:17. (KJV)
