“The Good Samaritan”
Part 4*

Sabbath June 23, 2018

Our Opening Song is entitled,

“Here are my Hands!”

Here are my hands help them serve.
Let my mouth speak Your Words.
And my ears to hear Your Voice,
Got my feet to follow Your Path,
Got my eyes to see,
all that You want me to be!
And I will obey You with all my heart.
And I will obey You with all my heart.

Our Opening Verse for our Review Lessons is from,

Psalms 100:2-4 (KJV)

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.

*Serve the LORD with gladness:
come before his presence with singing.*

*Know ye that the LORD he [is] God:
[it is] he [that] hath made us, and not we ourselves;
[we are] his people, and the sheep of his pasture.*

*Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
[and] into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him,
[and] bless his name.*

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

Before we hear your questions dear ones!

*Let's take a few minutes to review
what you have read last Sabbath from Part 1 of our Lesson entitled,
"The Good Samaritan" Part 4
in our study book Desire of Ages!*

Desire of Ages, p.503

In the story of the good Samaritan, Jesus gave a picture of Himself and His mission. Man had been deceived, bruised, robbed, and ruined by Satan, and left to perish; but the Saviour had compassion on our helpless condition. He left His glory, to come to our rescue. He found us ready to die, and He undertook our case. He healed our wounds. He covered us with His robe of righteousness. (Next Slide Please)

GOD'S PLAN OF Salvation

Hebrews 9:22
(KJV)
And almost all things are
by the law purged with blood;
and without shedding of blood is no remission.

Desire of Ages, p.503

Continuing:

He opened to us a refuge of safety, and made complete provision for us at
His own charges.

He died to redeem us.

Pointing to His own example,
He says to His followers,
“These things I command you,
that ye love one another.”

“As I have loved you, that ye also love one another.”

John 15:17; 13:34.

Love
One Another

*A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you,
so you must love one another.*

John 13:34-35

Desire of Ages, p.504

“What shall I do?”

The lawyer's question to Jesus had been, "What shall I do?" And Jesus, recognizing love to God and man as the sum of righteousness, had said, "This do, and thou shalt live." The Samaritan had obeyed the dictates of a kind and loving heart, and in this had proved himself a doer of the law. Christ bade the lawyer, "Go, and do thou likewise." Doing, and not saying merely, is expected of the children of God. "He that saith he abideth in Him ought himself also so to walk, even as He walked."
1 John 2:6. {DA 504.1}

Desire of Ages, p.504

The lesson is no less needed in the world today than when it fell from the lips of Jesus. Selfishness and cold formality have well-nigh extinguished the fire of love, and dispelled the graces that should make fragrant the character. Many who profess His name have lost sight of the fact that Christians are to represent Christ.

Unless there is practical self-sacrifice for the good of others, in the family circle, in the neighborhood, in the church, and wherever we may be, then whatever our profession, we are not Christians. {DA 504.2}

2 Corinthians 5:20 "Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God."

Proverbs 21:13
(KJV)

Whoso stoppeth his ears
at the cry of the poor,
he also shall cry himself,
but shall not be heard.

Continuing:
They look upon their mistakes and errors, until they are driven almost to desperation.
These souls we are not to neglect.

If we are Christians,
we shall not pass by on the other side, keeping as far as possible from the very ones who most need our help.

When we see human beings in distress, whether through affliction or through sin,
we shall never say,
This does not concern me.

{DA 504.3}

“He united divinity with humanity, in order that humanity might become a partaker of the divine nature, and that men might become laborers together with God.”
 {The Home Missionary December 1, 1894 par. 7}

Hebrews 4:15 (KJV)
 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as [we are, yet] without sin.

Desire of Ages, p.504

Christ has linked His interest with that of humanity, and He asks us to become one with Him for the saving of humanity.

“Freely ye have received,” He says, “freely give.”

Matthew 10:8.

Sin is the greatest of all evils, and it is ours to pity and help the sinner.

There are many who err, and who feel their shame and their folly. They are hungry for words of encouragement.

Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils:

Jesus said to his disciples, “Freely you have received, freely give.”
 (Matthew 10:8)

My sins were laid on Christ

These are the sweetest words I have ever heard!

Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:2

Desire of Ages, p.504

“Ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness.” Galatians 6:1. By faith and prayer press back the power of the enemy. Speak words of faith and courage that will be as a healing balsam to the bruised and wounded one. Many, many, have fainted and become discouraged in the great struggle of life, when one word of kindly cheer would have strengthened them to overcome. Never should we pass by one suffering soul without seeking to impart to him of the comfort wherewith we are comforted of God. {DA 504.4}

Desire of Ages, p.505

All this is but a fulfillment of the principle of the law,—the principle that is illustrated in the story of the good Samaritan, and made manifest in the life of Jesus.

His character reveals the true significance of the law, and shows what is meant by loving our neighbor as ourselves.

And when the children of God manifest mercy, kindness, and love toward all men, they also are witnessing to the character of the statutes of heaven. They are bearing testimony to the fact that “the law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul.” Psalm 19:7.

Desire of Ages, p.505

And whoever fails to manifest this love is breaking the law which he professes to revere. For the spirit we manifest toward our brethren declares what is our spirit toward God. The love of God in the heart is the only spring of love toward our neighbor. “If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?” Beloved, “if we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and His love is perfected in us.”
1 John 4:20, 12. {DA 505.1}

*Let's consider this verse for our

1 Peter 3:15 (KJV)*

of the hope that is in you

Chapter 6-We Are to Be Clean Inwardly and Outwardly

Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. Ezekiel 36:25

In order to be acceptable in God's sight, the leaders of the people were to give strict heed to the sanitary condition of the armies of Israel, even when they went forth to battle. Every soul, from the commander-in-chief to the lowest soldier in the army, was sacredly charged to preserve cleanliness in his person and surroundings; for the Israelites were chosen by God as His peculiar people. They were sacredly bound to be holy in body and spirit. They were not to be careless or neglectful of their personal duties. In every respect they were to preserve cleanliness. They were to allow nothing untidy or unwholesome in their surroundings, nothing which would taint the purity of the atmosphere.

{SD 173.2}.

The Ten Commandments, spoken by Jehovah from Sinai, cannot live in the hearts of persons of disorderly, filthy habits. If ancient Israel could not so much as listen to the proclamation of that holy law, unless they had obeyed the injunction of Jehovah, and had cleansed their clothing, how can that sacred law be written upon the hearts of persons who are not cleanly in person, in clothing, or in their houses?

It is impossible. {SD 173.3}

Heaven is a clean and holy place. God is pure and holy. All who come into His presence should take heed to His directions, and have the body and the clothing in a pure, clean condition, thus showing respect to themselves and to Him.

The heart must also be sanctified. Those who do this will not dishonor His sacred name by worshiping Him while their hearts are polluted and their apparel is untidy.

God sees these things. He marks the heart-preparation, the thoughts, the cleanliness . . . of those who worship Him.

{SD 173.4}

Angels are impressed with the things which they behold in the outward surroundings of God's people. {SD 173.5}

Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean:
from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

Ezekiel 36:25. (KJV)
