Our Opening Verses for our Review Lessons is from,

Psalms 100:2-4 (KJV)

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.

Serve the LORD with gladness:

come before his presence with singing.

Know ye that the LORD he [is] God:

[it is] he [that] hath made us, and not we ourselves;

[we are] his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,

[and] into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him,

[and] bless his name.

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

Before we hear your questions dear ones!

*Let's take a few minutes to review
what you have read last Sabbath from Part 1 of our Lesson entitled,
“Not With Outward Show”
in our study book Desire of Ages!*

Desire of Ages, p.506

Some of the Pharisees had come to Jesus demanding “when the kingdom of God should come.”

More than three years had passed since John the Baptist gave the message that like a trumpet call had sounded through the land,

“The kingdom of heaven is at hand.” Matthew 3:2.

And as yet these Pharisees saw no indication of the establishment of the kingdom. Many of those who rejected John, and at every step had opposed Jesus, were insinuating that His mission had failed. {DA 506.1}

And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:
Luke 17:20 (KJV)

Jesus answered,
“The kingdom of God cometh not with outward show; [margin]: neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.”
The kingdom of God begins in the heart.
Look not here or there for manifestations of earthly power to mark its coming.
{DA 506.2}

And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:

DEUTERONOMY 6:6

Desire of Ages, p.506

“The days will come,”
He said, turning to His disciples,
“when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man,
and ye shall not see it.”

Because it is not attended by worldly pomp, you are in danger of failing to discern the glory of My mission. You do not realize how great is your present privilege in having among you, though veiled in humanity, Him who is the life and the light of men. The days will come when you will look back with longing upon the opportunities
you now enjoy to walk and talk with the Son of God.

{DA 506.3}

Desire of Ages, p.506

Because of their selfishness and earthliness, even the disciples of Jesus could not comprehend the spiritual glory which He sought to reveal unto them.

It was not until after Christ's ascension to His Father, and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the believers, that the disciples fully appreciated the Saviour's character and mission.

After they had received the baptism of the Spirit, they began to realize that they had been in the very presence of the Lord of glory.

Continuing:

As the sayings of Christ were brought to their remembrance, their minds were opened to comprehend the prophecies, and to understand the miracles which He had wrought. The wonders of His life passed before them, and they were as men awakened from a dream. They realized that “the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the Only-begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.” John 1:14. (Next Slide Please)

Desire of Ages, p.506

Continuing:

Christ had actually come from God to a sinful world to save the fallen sons and daughters of Adam.

The disciples now seemed, to themselves, of much less importance than before they realized this.

They never wearied of rehearsing His words and works.

His lessons, which they had but dimly understood, now came to them as a fresh revelation. The Scriptures became to them a new book.

{DA 506.4}

Desire of Ages, p.507

As the disciples searched the prophecies that testified of Christ, they were brought into fellowship with the Deity, and learned of Him who had ascended to heaven to complete the work He had begun on earth.

They recognized the fact that in Him dwelt knowledge which no human being, unaided by divine agency, could comprehend.

They needed the help of Him whom kings, prophets, and righteous men had foretold. With amazement they read and reread the prophetic delineations of His character and work.

Desire of Ages, p.507

How dimly had they comprehended the prophetic scriptures!
how slow they had been in taking in the great truths which testified of Christ! Looking upon Him in His humiliation, as He walked a man among men, they had not understood the mystery of His incarnation, the dual character of His nature. Their eyes were holden, so that they did not fully recognize divinity in humanity
But after they were illuminated by the Holy Spirit, how they longed to see Him again, and to place themselves at His feet!

I HAVE YET MANY THINGS TO SAY UNTO YOU, BUT YE CANNOT BEAR THEM NOW.

JOHN 16:12

John 16:13 (KJV)
Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come,
he will guide you into all
truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, [that] shall he
speak: and he will show
you things to come.

Continuing: How they wished that they might come to Him, and have Him explain the scriptures which they could not comprehend! How attentively would they listen to His words! What had Christ meant when He said, “I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now”? John 16:12. How eager they were to know it all! They grieved that their faith had been so feeble, that their ideas had been so wide of the mark, that they had so failed of comprehending the reality.

Let's consider this verse for our Review Section! Taking from 1 Peter 3:15 (KJV)

*But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts:
and [be] ready always to [give] an answer
to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you
with meekness and fear:*

“Sons and Daughters of God”

Narrated by Our Dear Brother Graves

Chapter 6-Daniel Blessed for Choosing the Best

And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat. Daniel 1:15.

{SD 174.1}

The youth should stand in a position where their hearts may be wholly the Lord's; where they are honoring God with their strength. God will then honor them by giving them knowledge and wisdom. Thus did Daniel in the courts of Babylon, standing true to principle amid the corruptions of the heathen. "Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank." {SD 174.2}

Daniel and his companions knew not what would be the result of their decision; they knew not but that it would cost them their lives; but they determined to keep the straight path of strict temperance even when in the courts of licentious Babylon.

{SD 174.3}

By the example of Daniel and his fellows in Babylon, we see that it is impossible to reach the standard which that Lord would have His children reach, and practise an easy, accommodating kind of religion that leaves principle out, and is controlled by circumstances. Youth who would serve the God of heaven, cannot engage in worldly merriment, eat of enervating luxuries, or drink strong drink because it is set before them by the honored or wealthy men of the world, whom they fear to offend by refusing their favors. They may think that they have been especially honored, and that courtesy demands the acceptance of the favors proffered them; but loyalty to God must take the precedence, and fear to offend the Lord of heaven must control the Christian. The king of Babylon thought that he was bestowing great favors upon Daniel and his fellows; but they had respect unto God's commandments more than unto the favor of the king. . . . God honored Daniel, and He will honor every youth who takes the course that Daniel took in honoring God.

{SD 174.4}

And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

Daniel 1:15 (KJV)
