Lackest”
Part 3*

Sabbath October 20, 2018

*Our Opening Hymn is entitle,
“I’ Rather Have Jesus”
#327*

1- I’d rather have Jesus than silver or gold;
I’d rather be His than have riches untold;
I’d rather have Jesus than houses or land;
I’d rather be led by His nail-pierced hand:

Refrain:

Than to be the king of a vast domain or be held in sin’s dread sway!
I’d rather have Jesus than anything this world affords today.

2- I’d rather have Jesus than men’s applause;
I’d rather be faithful to His dear cause;
I’d rather have Jesus than world-wide fame;
I’d rather be true to His holy name:

3- He’s fairer than lilies of rarest bloom;
He’s sweeter than honey from out the comb;
He’s all that my hungering spirit needs –
I’d rather have Jesus and let Him lead:

Luke 18:23 (KJV)

And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

Matthew 25:23 (KJV)

His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

Hebrew 12:2 (KJV)

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of [our] faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

The Rich Young Ruler

Mark 10:17-22

Exodus 20:1-20

Crucified with Christ.

Raised with Christ as a new person in Christ.

My sins were laid on Christ

GOD'S GRACE

Christ's dealing with the young man is presented as an object lesson. God has given us the rule of conduct which every one of His servants must follow. It is obedience to His law, not merely a legal obedience, but an obedience which enters into the life, and is exemplified in the character. {Next Slide Please}

Desire of Ages, p.523

God has set His own standard of character for all who would become subjects of His kingdom. Only those who will become co-workers with Christ, only those who will say, Lord, all I have and all I am is Thine, will be acknowledged as sons and daughters of God. All should consider what it means to desire heaven, and yet to turn away because of the conditions laid down. {Next Slide Please}

And, is this law merely a legal obedience?

Encouraging Quotes

Desire of Ages Page 668, Paragraph 3 (SOP)

All true obedience comes from the heart.

It was heart work with Christ.

And if we consent,

He will so identify Himself with our thoughts and aims,
so blend our hearts and minds into conformity to His will,
that when obeying Him we shall be but carrying out our own impulses.

The will, refined and sanctified,
will find its highest delight in doing His service.

When we know God as it is our privilege to know Him,
our life will be a life of continual obedience.

Through an appreciation of the character of Christ,
through communion with God,
sin will become hateful to us.

{Desire of Ages 668}

Desire of Ages, p.523

The ruler's possessions were entrusted to him that he might prove himself a faithful steward; he was to dispense these goods for the blessing of those in need.

So God now entrusts men with means, with talents and opportunities, that they may be His agents in helping the poor and the suffering.

He who uses his entrusted gifts as God designs becomes a co-worker with the Saviour.

He wins souls to Christ, because he is a representative of His character.

{DA 523.2}

Question:

Boys & girls, who and why were the ruler's possessions entrusted to him? And, does God still entrust men with means, with talents and opportunities today for the same reasons?

If you know the answers
to these questions,
*bubble up, dear ones!

Answer

By God! That he might prove himself a faithful steward; he was to dispense these goods for the blessing of those in need. And, Yes! So, they may be His agents in helping the poor and the suffering. He who uses his entrusted gifts as God designs becomes a co-worker with the Saviour.

To those who,
like the young ruler,
are in high positions
of trust and have
great possessions,
it may seem too great a
sacrifice to give up all
in order to follow Christ.
But this is the rule
of conduct
for all who would become His disciples.

Nothing short of obedience can be accepted. Self-surrender is the substance of the teachings of Christ.

Often it is presented and enjoined in language that seems authoritative, because there is no other way to save man than to cut away those things which, if entertained, will demoralize the whole being.
{DA 523.3}

I surrender all,
I surrender all;
All to Thee,
my blessed Savior,
I surrender all.

Question:

Boys & girls, what is the rule of conduct for all who would become Jesus' disciples even to those who are in high positions of trust and have great possessions? And, is there any other way to save man than to cut away those things and why?

to these questions

O soul, are you weary and troubled?
No light in the darkness you see?
There's a light for a look at the Savior,
And life more abundant and free! Refrain

Through death into life everlasting
He passed, and we follow Him there;
O'er us sin no more hath dominion—
For more than conqu'rors we are! Refrain

His Word shall not fail you—He promised;
Believe Him, and all will be well:
Then go to a world that is dying,
His perfect salvation to tell! Refrain

Turn your eyes upon Jesus,
Look full in His wonderful face,
And the things of earth will grow strangely dim,
In the light of His glory and grace.

Chapter 6-To Accept the Light God Sends

O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me;
let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles. Psalm 43:3
{SD 182.1}

The Lord Jesus came to our world full of mercy, life, and light, ready to save those who should come unto Him. But He can save no one against his will. God does not force the conscience; He does not torture the body that He may compel men to compliance with His law.

All this work is after the order of Satan. . . . {SD 182.2}

The Lord has made it apparent that He proffers to the sinner the privilege of cooperating with God. He gives light, and furnishes evidence of the truth. (Next Slide)

He makes plain what are His requirements, and it is left with the sinner as to whether he will accept the truth, and receive grace and power by which he may comply with every condition, and find rest in giving willing service to Jesus Christ, who has paid the price of his redemption. If the sinner hesitates, and fails to appreciate the light that has reached his intellect and stirred the emotions of his soul, and refuses to render obedience to God, the light grows dim, has less and less force, and finally vanishes from his view. Those who fail to appreciate the first rays of light, will not heed more decided evidences of the truth. If the tender appeals of God fail to meet with a response in the heart of the sinner, the first impressions made upon his mind lose their significance, and he is finally left in darkness. (Next Slide)

The invitation is full of love. The light is as bright when he finally refuses it, as when it first dawned upon his soul; but through rejection of light, his soul becomes full of darkness, and does not realize what is the peril of disregarding the light.

Christ says to such a soul, "Yet a little while is the light with you." {SD 182.3}

Today make your calling and election sure. Peter gives a copy of the best life insurance policy in the world. He says: "Grace and peace be multiplied unto you ... according as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness." {SD 182.4}

O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me; let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles. Psalm 43:3 (KJV)
