

Chapter 58
“Lazarus, Come Forth”
Part 4

Sabbath January 12, 2019

Our Opening Hymn is entitle, “Turn Your Eyes upon Jesus”

1- O soul, are you weary and troubled?
No light in the darkness you see?
There’s a light for a look at the Savior,
And life more abundant and free! Refrain

Refrain: Turn your eyes upon Jesus, Look full in His wonderful face,
And the things of earth will grow strangely dim,
In the light of His glory and grace.

2- Through death into life everlasting
He passed, and we follow Him there;
O’er us sin no more hath dominion—
For more than conqu’rors we are! Refrain

3- His Word shall not fail you—He promised;
Believe Him, and all will be well:
Then go to a world that is dying,
His perfect salvation to tell! Refrain

John 11:25 (KJV)

Jesus said unto her,
I am the resurrection,
and the life: he that
believeth in me,
though he were dead, yet shall
he live:

*This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 4 of our lesson entitled, “Lazarus, Come Forth” in our study book Desire of Ages!*

John 11:19 (KJV)

And many of the Jews
came to Martha and Mary,
to comfort them
concerning their brother.

John 11:20 (KJV)

Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but
Mary sat [still] in the house.

John 11:21 (KJV)

Then said Martha unto Jesus,
Lord, if thou hadst been here,
my brother had not died.

John 11:22 (KJV)

But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt
ask of God, God
will give [it] thee.

John 11:23 (KJV)

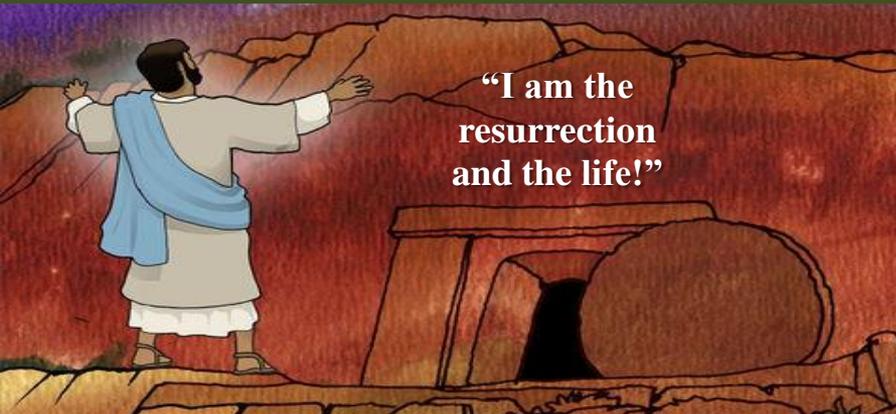

Jesus saith unto her,
Thy brother shall rise again.

John 11:24 (KJV)

Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

Desire of Ages, p.529

In delaying to come to Lazarus, Christ had a purpose of mercy toward those who had not received Him. He tarried, that by raising Lazarus from the dead He might give to His stubborn, unbelieving people another evidence that He was indeed “the resurrection, and the life.” He was loath to give up all hope of the people, the poor, wandering sheep of the house of Israel. His heart was breaking because of their impenitence. {Next Slide Please}

Desire of Ages, p.529

Continuing:

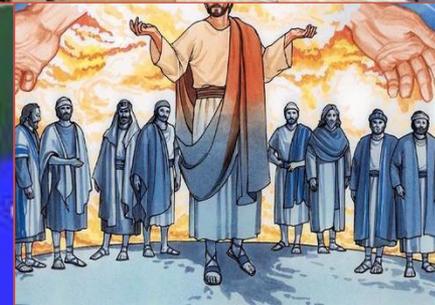

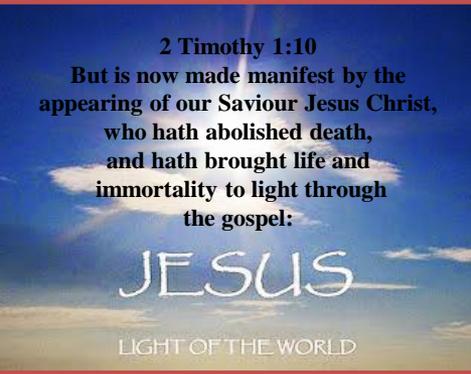

In His mercy He purposed to give them one more evidence that He was the Restorer, the One who alone could bring life and immortality to light.

This was to be an evidence that the priests could not misinterpret.

This was the reason of His delay in going to Bethany.

This crowning miracle, the raising of Lazarus, was to set the seal of God on His work and on His claim to divinity.

{DA 529.1}

Question:

Boys & girls, what purpose did Christ have in His delay to come to Lazarus? And what did He tarry for in order to give His unbelieving people?

If you know the answers to these questions,
*Please raise your hands Dear ones!

Answer

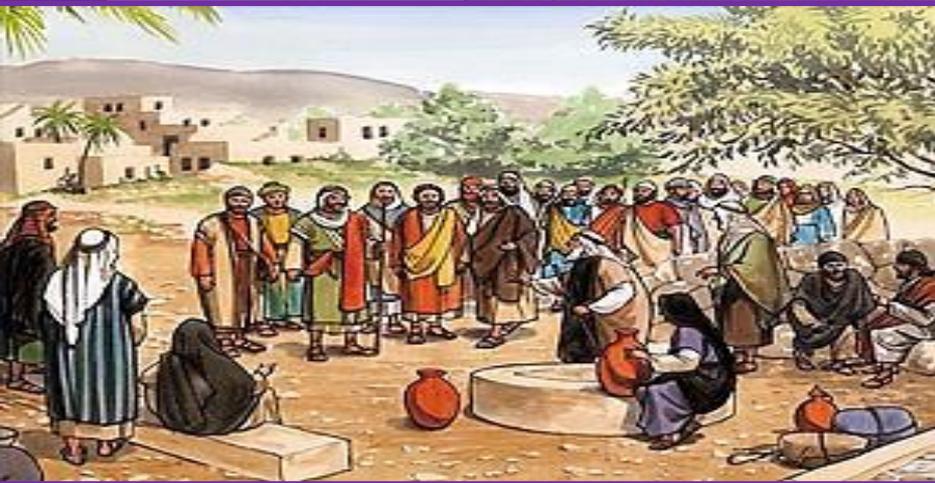

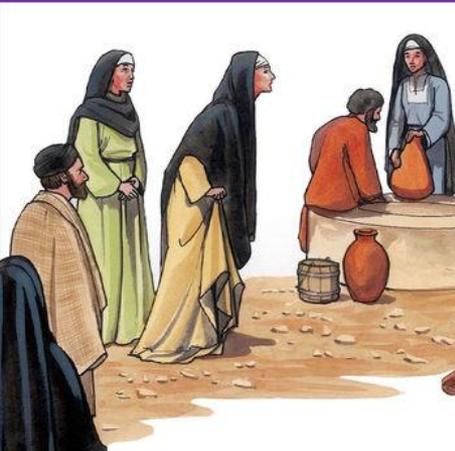

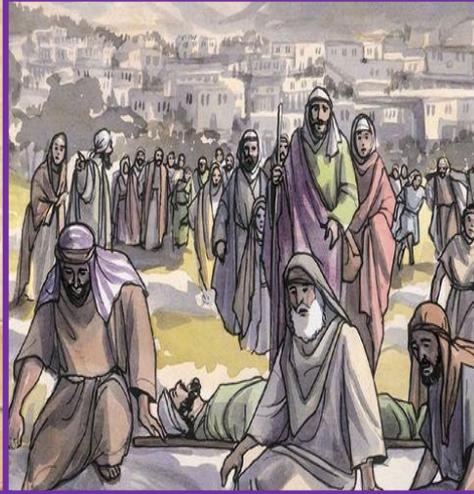

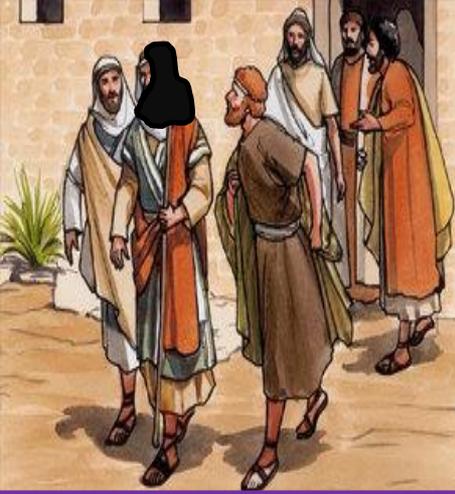

He had a purpose of mercy toward those who had not received Him. He tarried, that by raising Lazarus from the dead He might give to His stubborn, unbelieving people another evidence that He was indeed “the resurrection, and the life.”

Desire of Ages, p.529

On His journey to Bethany, Jesus, according to His custom, ministered to the sick and the needy. Upon reaching the town He sent a messenger to the sisters with the tidings of His arrival. Christ did not at once enter the house, but remained in a quiet place by the wayside. The great outward display observed by the Jews at the death of friends or relatives was not in harmony with the spirit of Christ.

{Next Slide Please}

Desire of Ages, p.529

Continuing:

He heard the sound of wailing
from the hired mourners, and He did not wish to meet the sisters in the scene of confusion.

Among the mourning friends were relatives of the family, some of whom held high positions of responsibility in Jerusalem.

Among these were some of Christ's bitterest enemies.
Christ knew their purposes,
and therefore

He did not at once make Himself known.

{DA 529.2}

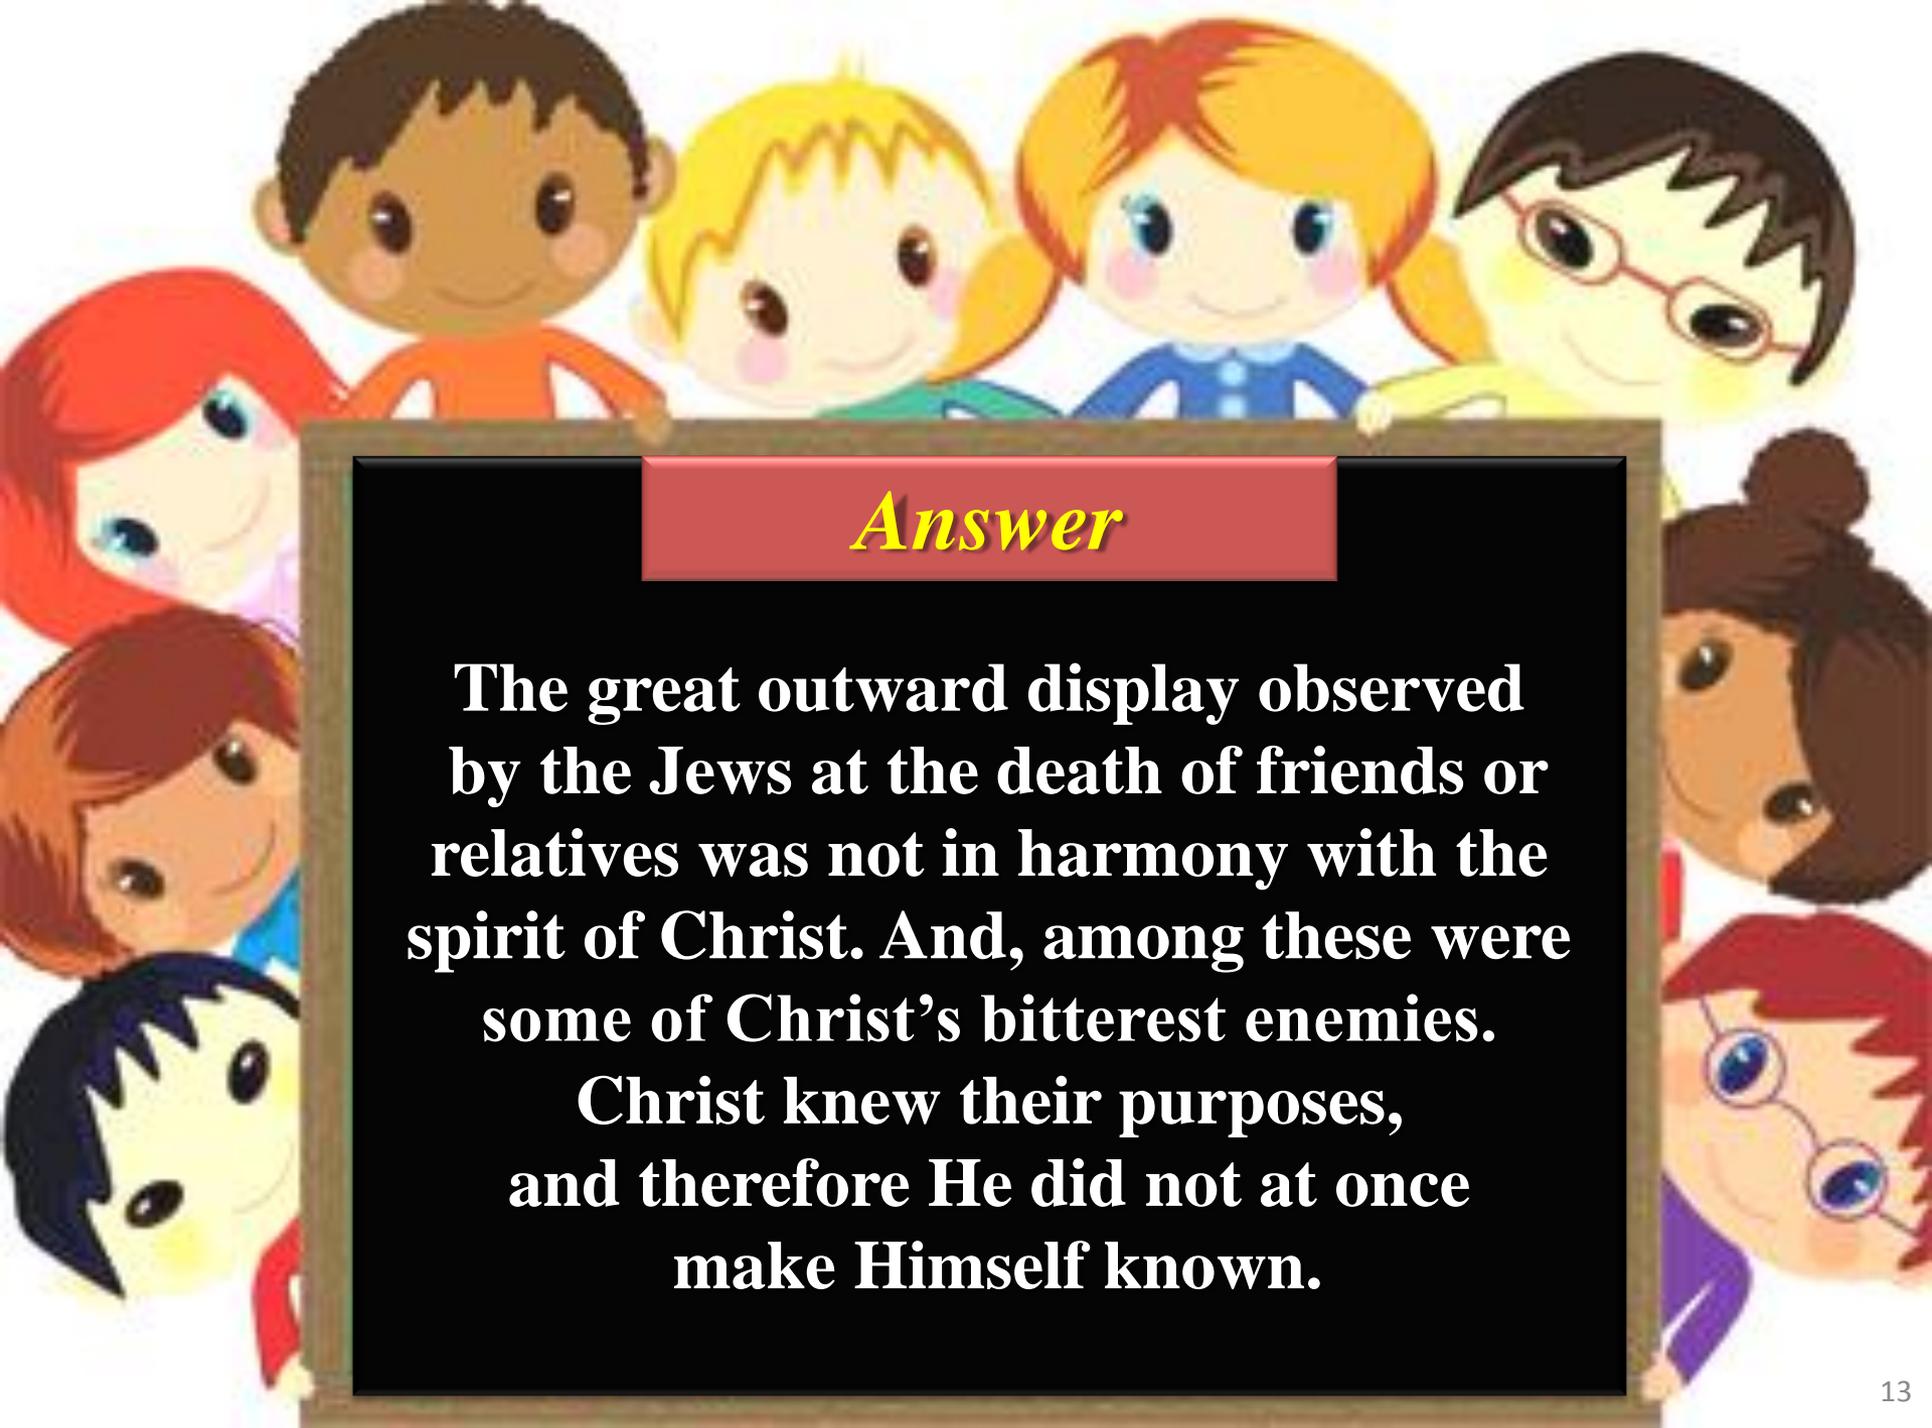

Question:

Boys & girls, why didn't Christ at once enter the house, but remained in a quiet place by the wayside? And, why didn't He wish to meet the sisters in the scene of confusion where the sound of wailing was from the hired mourners?

If you know the answers to these questions,
*Please raise your hands Dear ones!

A colorful illustration of several diverse children of various ethnicities and ages, smiling and looking towards the center. They are positioned around a central blackboard-like frame. The children include a boy with dark skin and hair, a girl with blonde hair, a girl with red hair, a girl with dark hair and glasses, a girl with brown hair, a girl with dark hair and glasses, and a girl with red hair and glasses.

Answer

The great outward display observed by the Jews at the death of friends or relatives was not in harmony with the spirit of Christ. And, among these were some of Christ's bitterest enemies.

Christ knew their purposes, and therefore He did not at once make Himself known.

The message was given to Martha so quietly that others in the room did not hear.

Absorbed in her grief, Mary did not hear the words.

Rising at once, Martha went out to meet her Lord, but thinking that she had gone to the place where Lazarus was buried, Mary sat still in her sorrow, making no outcry.

{DA 529.3}

Question:

Boys & girls, what did Mary not hear while absorbed in her grief?
And, what was the message given to her about and what did she do afterward?

If you know the answers to these questions,
*Please raise your hands Dear ones!

Answer

The message given to Martha so quietly others in the room did not hear.

And, Martha went out to meet her Lord, but thinking that she had gone to the place where Lazarus was buried, Mary sat still in her sorrow, making no outcry.

Desire of Ages, p.529

Martha hastened to meet Jesus,
her heart agitated
by conflicting emotions.
In His expressive face
she read the same tenderness and love that had always been there.
Her confidence in Him
was unbroken,
but she thought of her dearly
loved brother,
whom Jesus also had loved.
(Next Slide Please)

With grief surging in her heart because Christ had not come before, yet with hope that even now He would do something to comfort them, she said, “Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.” Over and over again, amid the tumult made by the mourners, the sisters had repeated these words. {DA 529.4}

Question:

Boys & girls, what did Martha read on Jesus' expressive face as she hastened to meet Him with a heart agitated by conflicting emotions? And, what did she say to Him with grief surging in her heart because He had not come before?

If you know the answers to these questions,

Please raise your hands Dear ones!

Answer

In His expressive face she read the same tenderness and love that had always been there. And, she said, “Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.” Over and over again, amid the tumult made by the mourners, the sisters had repeated these words.

Desire of Ages, p.529

With human and divine pity Jesus looked into her sorrowful, careworn face. Martha had no inclination to recount the past; all was expressed by the pathetic words, “Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.”

But looking into that face of love, she added, “I know, that even now, whatsoever Thou wilt ask of God, God will give it Thee.”

{DA 529.5}

Question:

Boys & girls, how did Jesus react to her question? And, and what words did she add looking into her Saviour's face of love?

If you know the answers to these questions

Please raise your hands

Dear little ones!

Answer

With human and divine pity
Jesus looked into her sorrowful, careworn face.
And, she added, “I know, that even now,
whatsoever Thou wilt ask of God,
God will give it Thee.”

Desire of Ages, p.530

Jesus encouraged her faith, saying, “Thy brother shall rise again.”

His answer was not intended to inspire hope of an immediate change.

He carried Martha’s thoughts beyond the present restoration of her brother, and fixed them upon the resurrection of the just. This He did that she might see in the resurrection of Lazarus a pledge of the resurrection of all the righteous dead, and an assurance that it would be accomplished by the Saviour’s power. {DA 530.1} Martha answered, “I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.” {DA 530.2}

Question:

Boys & girls, how did Jesus encourage her faith by not intending to inspire hope of an immediate change?

And, why did He do it and what was her answer?

If you know the answers to these questions,

Please raise your hands

Dear ones!

Answer

“Thy brother shall rise again.”

He carried her thoughts beyond the present restoration of her brother, and fixed them upon the resurrection of the just.

And, that she might see in the resurrection of Lazarus a pledge of the resurrection of all the righteous dead accomplished by the His power.

And she answered, “I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

Let's learn our last beautiful song together dear entitle, “Lest Ye Sorrow” from the book of 1 Thessalonians

Scripture Singer- Heaven

Lest Ye Sorrow

I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep,
lest you sorrow as others who have no hope.

If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so
God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus.

For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep.

For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, and with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God will resounding lou...dly

He is coming soon!

And the dead in Christ will rise first.

Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air.

And thus we shall always be with the Lord. (2 xs)

Will always be with the Lord!

Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

Gather around little ones!

It's Story time!

Chapter 6-Discretion

Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee.

Proverbs 2:11. {SD 186.1}

By your choice words and a consistent course of action, by your propriety, your earnest piety, make a telling confession of your faith, determined that Christ shall occupy the throne in the soul temple; and lay your talents without reserve at His feet to be employed in His service. . . .

Make it the law of your life from which no temptation or side interest shall cause you to turn, to honor God.

{SD 186.2}

In this fast age, reeking with corruption, you are not safe unless you stand guarded.

Virtue and modesty are rare. I appeal to you as followers of Christ, making an exalted profession, to cherish the precious, priceless gem of modesty.

This will guard virtue. {SD 186.3}

Holiness of heart will never lead to impure actions. . . . The truth of heavenly origin never degrades the receiver . . .; on the contrary, it sanctifies the believer, refines his taste, elevates and ennobles him, and brings him into a close connection with Jesus.

It leads him to regard the apostle Paul's injunction to abstain from even the appearance of evil, lest his “good should be evil spoken of.” {SD 186.4}

This is a subject to which we must give heed. We must guard against the sins of this degenerate age. We must stand aloof from everything that savors of undue familiarity.

God condemns it. It is forbidden ground, upon which it is unsafe to set the feet.

Every word and action should tend to elevate, refine, and ennoble the character. {SD 186.5}

My good name is capital of far more value to me than gold or silver. Let me preserve it untarnished. If men assail that name, it shall not be because I have given them occasion to do so, but for the same reason that they spoke of evil of Christ,--because they hated the purity and holiness of His character; for it was a constant rebuke to them. {SD 186.6}

Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee.
