“Lazarus, Come Forth”
Part 5

Sabbath January 26, 2019

Our Opening Hymn is entitle, “Turn Your Eyes upon Jesus”

1- O soul, are you weary and troubled?
No light in the darkness you see?
There’s a light for a look at the Savior,
And life more abundant and free! Refrain

Refrain: Turn your eyes upon Jesus, Look full in His wonderful face,
And the things of earth will grow strangely dim,
In the light of His glory and grace.

2- Through death into life everlasting
He passed, and we follow Him there;
O’er us sin no more hath dominion—
For more than conqu’rors we are! Refrain

3- His Word shall not fail you—He promised;
Believe Him, and all will be well:
Then go to a world that is dying,
His perfect salvation to tell! Refrain

our lesson entitled, “Lazarus, Come Forth” in our study book Desire of Ages!*

John 11:25 (KJV)

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

John 11:26 (KJV)

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

John 11:27 (KJV)

She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

John 11:28 (KJV)

And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

John 11:29 (KJV)

As soon as she heard [that], she arose quickly, and came unto him.

John 11:30 (KJV)

Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

John 11:32 (KJV)

Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

John 11:33 (KJV)

When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

John 11:34 (KJV)

And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

John 11:35 (KJV)

Jesus wept.

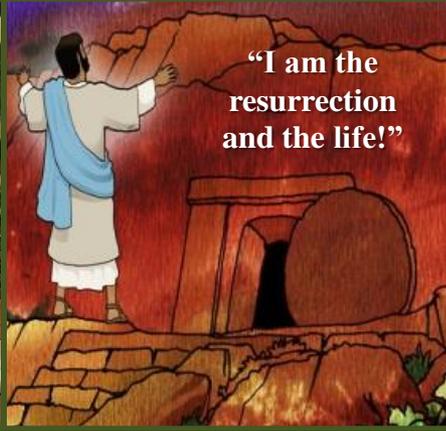

Desire of Ages, p.530

Still seeking to give a true direction to her faith, Jesus declared, “I am the resurrection, and the life.” In Christ is life, original, unborrowed, underived. “He that hath the Son hath life.”
1 John 5:12.

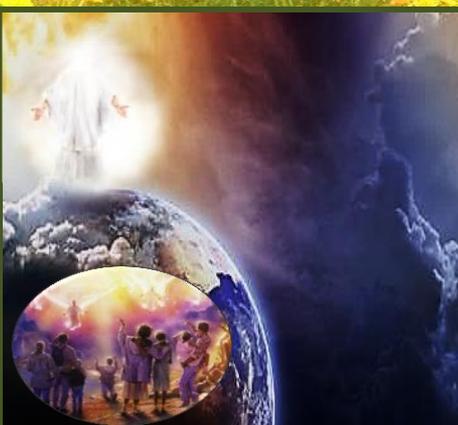

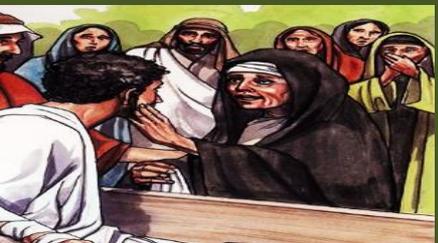

The divinity of Christ is the believer’s assurance of eternal life. “He that believeth in Me,” said Jesus, “though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die. Believest thou this?”

Christ here looks forward to the time of His second coming.

Continuing:

Then the righteous dead shall be raised incorruptible, and the living righteous shall be translated to heaven without seeing death.

The miracle which Christ was about to perform, in raising Lazarus from the dead, would represent the resurrection of all the righteous dead.

By His word and His works He declared Himself the Author of the resurrection. He who Himself was soon to die upon the cross stood with the keys of death, a conqueror of the grave, and asserted His right and power to give eternal life.

{DA 530.3}

Question:

Boys & girls, what did Jesus declare seeking to give a true direction to Martha's faith? And, what did the miracle which He was about to perform, in raising Lazarus from the dead represents?

Answer

“I am the resurrection, and the life.”
“He that believeth in Me,”
“though he were dead,
yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth
and believeth in Me shall never die.
And, it would represent the resurrection
of all the righteous dead.

John 3:16

Son of God

She confessed her faith in His divinity!

To the Saviour's words,
"Believest thou?"
Martha responded,
"Yea, Lord: I believe that Thou art the Christ,
the Son of God,
which should come
into the world."
She did not comprehend in all their significance the words spoken by Christ, but she confessed her faith in His divinity, and her confidence that He was able to perform
whatever it pleased Him to do.

Question:

Boys & girls, after Martha responds, what did she do?
And, why did she deliver her Message as quietly as possible?

Answer

She went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.” And, she delivered it as quietly as possible; for the priests and rulers were prepared to arrest Jesus when opportunity offered.

Desire of Ages, p.533

“Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.”

On hearing the message,
Mary rose hastily,
and with an eager look
on her face left the room.
Thinking that she had gone to the grave to weep,
the mourners followed her.
When she reached the place
where Jesus was waiting,
she knelt at His feet,
and said with quivering lips,
“Lord, if Thou hadst been here,

Chapter 6-Joseph Chose Life's Best, Samson Did Not

For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. Galatians 6:8. {SD 187.1}

Few temptations are more dangerous or more fatal to young men than the temptation to sensuality and none if yielded to will prove so decidedly ruinous to soul and body for time and eternity. The welfare of his entire future is suspended upon the decision of a moment. Joseph calmly casts his eyes to heaven for help, slips off his loose outer garment, leaving it in the hand of his tempter and while his eye is lighted with determined resolve in the place of unholy passion, he exclaims, "How can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?" The victory is gained; he flees from the enchanter; he is saved. {SD 187.2}

Samson in his peril had the same source of strength as had Joseph. He could choose the right or the wrong as he pleased. But instead of taking hold of the strength of God, he permitted the wild passions of his nature to have full sway.

The reasoning powers were perverted, the morals corrupted.

God had called Samson to a position of great responsibility, honor, and usefulness; but he must first learn to govern by first learning to obey the laws of God. ... Samson, under ... temptations, which he had brought upon himself, gave loose rein to passion.

The path which he entered upon he found to end in shame, disaster, and death.

What a contrast to the history of Joseph! {SD 187.3}

Amidst the snares to which all are exposed, they need strong and trustworthy defenses on which to rely. . . . The shield of grace can preserve all unconquered by the temptations of the enemy, though surrounded with the most corrupting influences.

By firm principle, and unwavering trust in God, their virtue and nobleness of character can shine, and, although surrounded with evil, no taint need be left upon their virtue and integrity.

{SD 187.4}

For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. Galatians 6:8. (KJV)
