Chapter 59
“Priestly Plottings”
Part 3*

Sabbath April 13, 2019

*Our Opening Song is a Scripture
Song from the Book of “Jude!”*

Verse 24

Now unto him
that is able to keep you from falling, (2 xs)
and to present [you] faultless
before the presence of his glory
with exceeding joy,

Verse 25

To the only wise God our Saviour,
[be] glory and majesty,
dominion and power,
both now and for ever.
Amen.

Our Opening Verses for our Review Lessons is from,
Isaiah 1:18 (KJV)

Come now, and let us reason together, (2 xs)
Margin (That's what God said) saith the LORD:
though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow;
though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.
Come now, and let us reason together, (2 xs)

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

Before we hear your questions dear ones!

*Let's take a few minutes to review
what you have read last Sabbath from*

Part 1 of our Lesson entitled,

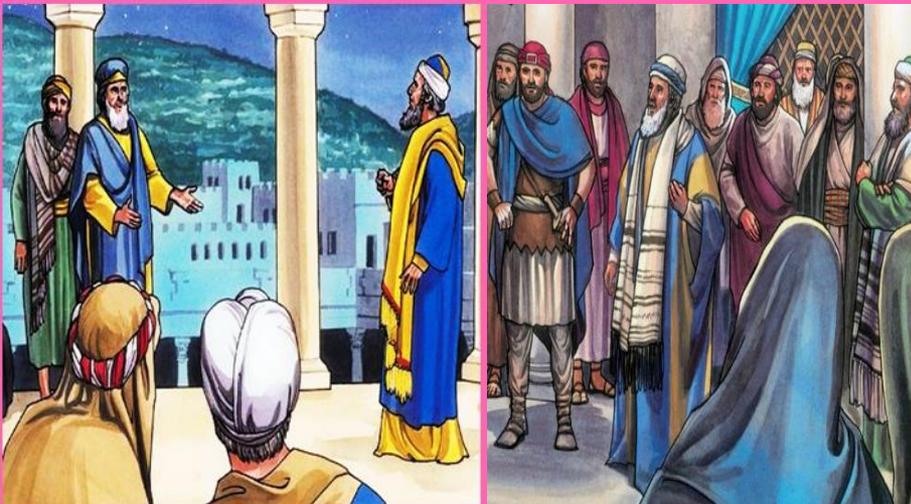

“Priestly Plottings” Part 3

in our study book Desire of Ages!

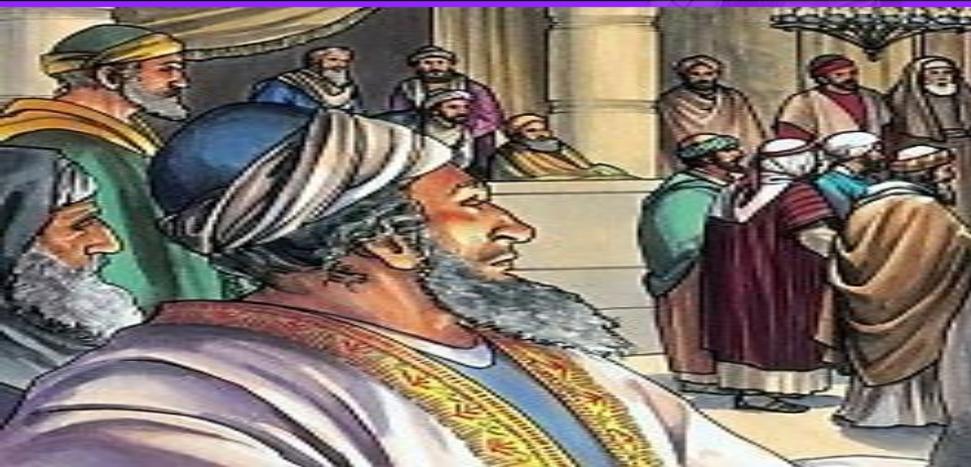

Desire of Ages, p.541

Satan told them that in order to maintain their authority, they must put Jesus to death. This counsel they followed. The fact that they might lose the power they then exercised, was, they thought, sufficient reason for coming to some decision. With the exception of a few who dared not speak their minds, the Sanhedrin received the words of Caiaphas as the words of God. Relief came to the council; the discord ceased. They resolved to put Christ to death at the first favorable opportunity. (Next Slide Please)

Desire of Ages, p.541

In rejecting the proof of the divinity of Jesus, these priests and rulers had locked themselves in impenetrable darkness. They had come wholly under the sway of Satan, to be hurried by him over the brink of eternal ruin. Yet such was their deception that they were well pleased with themselves. They regarded themselves as patriots, who were seeking the nation's salvation. {DA 541.1}

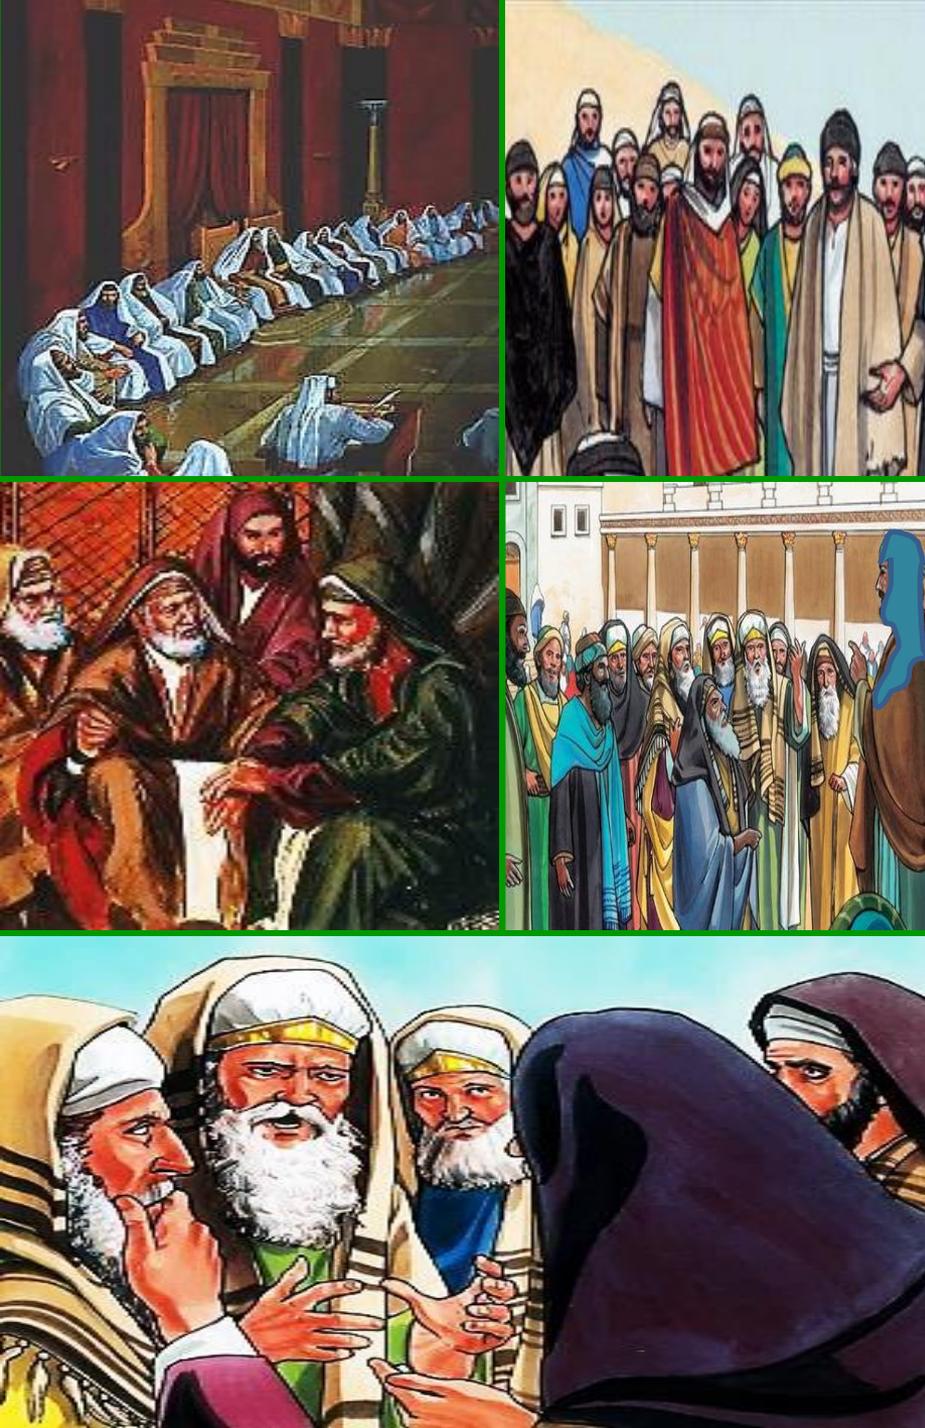

Desire of Ages, p.541

The Sanhedrin feared, however, to take rash measures against Jesus, lest the people should become incensed, and the violence meditated toward Him should fall upon themselves.

On this account the council delayed to execute the sentence they had pronounced.

The Saviour understood the plotting of the priests. He knew that they longed to remove Him, and that their purpose would soon be accomplished.

But it was not His place to hasten the crisis, and He withdrew from that region, taking the disciples with Him.

Thus by His own example Jesus again enforced the instruction He had given to the disciples, “When they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another.”

Matthew 10:23.

There was a wide field in which to work for the salvation of souls; and unless loyalty to Him required it, the Lord’s servants were not to imperil their lives.

labor to the world

Jesus had now given three years of public labor to the world. His example of self-denial and disinterested benevolence was before them. His life of purity, of suffering and devotion, was known to all. Yet this short period of three years was as long as the world could endure the presence of its Redeemer. {DA 541.3}

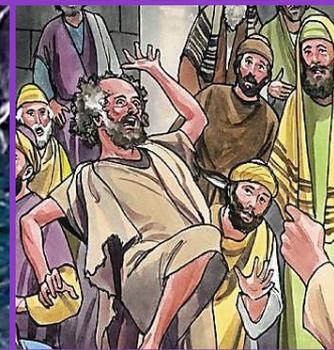

Desire of Ages, p.541

His life had been one of persecution and insult. Driven from Bethlehem by a jealous king, rejected by His own people at Nazareth, condemned to death without a cause at Jerusalem, Jesus, with His few faithful followers, found a temporary asylum in a strange city.

He who was ever touched by human woe, who healed the sick, restored sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, and speech to the dumb, (Next Slide Please)

Continuing: who fed the hungry and comforted the sorrowful, was driven from the people He had labored to save. He who walked upon the heaving billows, and by a word silenced their angry roaring, who cast out devils that in departing acknowledged Him to be the Son of God, who broke the slumbers of the dead, who held thousands entranced by His words of wisdom, was unable to reach the hearts of those who were blinded by prejudice and hatred, and who stubbornly rejected the light.

to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you

POEMS

"THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD: I SHALL NOT WANT."

Advent Review, and Sabbath Herald, Vol. 10 (1857)

{May 14, 1857 UrSe-(Uriah Smith/Resident Editor), ARSH 14.1 – 14.7}

- 1) THE Lord of hosts' my portion now,
In him I will rejoice:
Though waves, and storms, my path surround,
I hear my Saviour's voice.
- 2) He says, Fear not, ye trembling soul,
That stormy path I've trod;
I know its dangers, and control
Affliction's frowning rod.
- 3) Fight on, you soon shall conqueror be;
Thy strength, Omnipotence,
My wisdom, goodness, mercy, see,
Thy Captain and defense.
Tis not in earth, or hell, to harm
The temple where I dwell.
In safety stand, nor heed the alarm;
Thy wall's Immanuel.

- 4) My God, my hope, my life, my all,
Set up thy kingdom here;
Let not the world's delusive calls
Divert me from thy fear.
- 5) Lord, I believe; assist my faith,
Be Simon's favor, mine;
O leave me not in unbelief,
Nor let my love decline.
- 6) My heart! that loathsome enemy.
Wash white in Jesus' blood;
While to the world I'm crucified,
And lose myself in God.

“Sons and Daughters of God”

Narrated by
Our Dear Brother Graves

Chapter 7-To Walk in His Way

The way of the Lord is strength to the upright: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity. Proverbs 10:29. {SD 192.1}

If from the beginning we had walked in the counsel of God, thousands more would have been converted to the present truth. But many have made crooked paths for their feet.

My brethren, make straight paths, lest the lame be turned out of the way.

Let no one follow a crooked path that some one else has made, for thus you would not only go astray yourself, but would make this crooked path plainer for some one else to follow.

Determine that as for yourself, you will walk in the path of obedience.

Know for a certainty that you are standing under the broad shield of Omnipotence.

{Next Slide}

Realize that the characteristics of Jehovah must be revealed in your life, and that in you a work must be accomplished that will mold your character after the divine similitude.

Yield yourself to the guidance of Him who is the Head over all. {SD 192.2}

We are doing our work for the judgment. Let us be learners of Jesus.

We need His guidance every moment. At every step we should inquire, "Is this the way of the Lord?" not, "Is this the way of the man who is over me?" We are to be concerned only as to whether we are walking in the way of the Lord.

{SD 192.3}

God will honor and uphold every true-hearted, earnest soul who is seeking to walk before Him in the perfection of Christ's grace. He will never leave nor forsake one humble, trembling soul. Shall we believe that He will work in our hearts? that if we allow Him to do so, He will make us pure and holy, by His rich grace qualifying us to be laborers together with Him? Can we with keen, sanctified perception appreciate the strength of His promises, and appropriate them, not because we are worthy, but because by living faith we claim the righteousness of Christ?

{SD 192.4}

There is nothing so great and powerful as God's love for those who are His children. {SD 192.5}

The way of the Lord is strength to the upright:
but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

Proverbs 10:29 (KJV)
