What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

*Before we hear your questions dear ones!
Let's take a few minutes to review
what you have read last Sabbath from Part 1 of our Lesson entitled,
"The Law of the New Kingdom"
in our study book Desire of Ages!*

Desire of Ages, p.547

The time of the Passover was drawing near, and again Jesus turned toward Jerusalem. In His heart was the peace of perfect oneness with the Father's will, and with eager steps He pressed on toward the place of sacrifice. But a sense of mystery, of doubt and fear, fell upon the disciples.

The Saviour “went before them:
and they were amazed;
and as they followed,
they were afraid.”

{DA 547.1

Desire of Ages, p.547

Again Christ called the twelve about Him, and with greater definiteness than ever before,

He opened to them

His betrayal and sufferings.

“Behold,” He said, “we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

For He shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on: and they shall scourge Him, and put Him to death: and the third day He shall rise again. And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.”

{DA 547.2}

Desire of Ages, p.547

“The kingdom of heaven is at hand”

Had they not just before proclaimed everywhere, “The kingdom of heaven is at hand”? Had not Christ Himself promised that many should sit down with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of God?

Had He not promised to all who had left aught for His sake a hundredfold in this life, and a part in His kingdom?

And had He not given to the twelve the special promise of positions of high honor in His kingdom,--to sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel?

Desire of Ages, p.547

Even now He had said that all things written in the prophets concerning Him should be fulfilled.

And had not the prophets foretold the glory of the Messiah's reign?

In the light of these thoughts, His words in regard to betrayal, persecution, and death seemed vague and shadowy.

Whatever difficulties might intervene, they believed that the kingdom was soon to be established.

{DA 547.3}

John, the son of Zebedee, had been one of the first two disciples who had followed Jesus.

He and his brother James had been among the first group who had left all for His service.

Gladly they had forsaken home and friends that they might be with Him; they had walked and talked with Him; they had been with Him in the privacy of the home, and in the public assemblies.

Desire of Ages, p.548

He had quieted their fears,
delivered them from danger,
relieved their sufferings,
comforted their grief,
and with patience and tenderness had taught them, till their hearts seemed linked with His, and in the ardor of their love they longed to be nearest to Him in His kingdom.
At every possible opportunity,
John took his place next the Saviour, and James longed to be honored with as close connection with Him.

{DA 548.1}

Desire of Ages, p.548

Their mother was a follower of Christ, and had ministered to Him freely of her substance.

With a mother's love and ambition for her sons, she coveted for them the most honored place in the new kingdom. For this she encouraged them to make request.

{DA 548.2}

Together the mother and her sons came to Jesus, asking that He would grant a petition on which their hearts were set.

{DA 548.3}

“What would ye that I should do for you?”

He questioned.

{DA 548.4}

The mother answered, “Grant that these
my two sons may sit,
the one on Thy right hand,
and the other on the left,
in Thy kingdom.”

{DA 548.5}

Desire of Ages, p.548

Jesus bears tenderly with them, not rebuking their selfishness in seeking preference above their brethren. He reads their hearts, He knows the depth of their attachment to Him. Their love is not a mere human affection; though defiled by the earthliness of its human channel, it is an outflowing from the fountain of His own redeeming love. He will not rebuke, but deepen and purify. (Next Slide Please)

He said,
“Are ye able to drink
of the cup that I shall drink of,
and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?”

They recall His mysterious words, pointing to trial and suffering,
yet answer confidently,
“We are able.”

They would count it highest honor to prove their loyalty by sharing all that is to befall their Lord.

{DA 548.6}

Dinosaurs

The dinosaurs were killed
During Noah's great Flood.
Jesus, with compassion filled,
Kept them from shedding our blood.
Their big bodies turned into oil
Man uses to ease a life of toil.
So God turns terrible things
Into rich, hidden blessings.

"GOD IS THE STRENGTH OF MY HEART."

Advent Review, and Sabbath Herald, Vol. 10 (1857)

{May 7, 1857 UrSe-(Uriah Smith/Resident Editor), ARSH 6.1 – 6.5}

1) WHEN faint and weary is my soul,
And crossed are all my brightest plans,
When disappointment seems enrolled
On every page of life's short span,
I visit then the place of prayer,
And find my God, my portion, there.

2) When light from heaven shines o'er my heart,
Discovering every latent wrong;
I see the wounds and feel the smart,
Th' oppressive burden checks my song -
Fresh beauties in my Saviour see,
And glory that he died for me.

3) My foes are strong, a subtle host;
Combatants in unequal war -
Myself incompetent to boast
One conquest; e'en a weapon bear:
Prayer is my citadel; I fly
To my sure refuge:- God is nigh.

4) My enemies are vanquished all;
Though for a while are not consumed.
While Jesus listens to my call,
Can I once yield or dare presume
To doubt! Trials are morsels from above;
Although He slay me; still I'll trust his love.

5) When I shall tread the gloomy vale,
Or yield my last expiring breath;
My Father's care, that never fails,
Will calm my fears and sweeten death.
My God, my life, will then my portion be;
And grace shall tune my heart eternally.

Chapter 7-To Enjoy Perfect Love

There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. 1 John 4:18. {SD 193.1}

This is an important statement; for there are many who desire to love and serve God, and yet when afflictions comes upon them, they do not discern the love of God in it, but the hand of the enemy. They mourn and murmur and complain; but this is not the fruit of love to God in the soul. If we have perfect love, we shall know that God is not seeking to injure us, but that in the midst of trials, and griefs, and pains, He is seeking to make us perfect, and to test the quality of our faith..

{Next Slide}

When we cease to worry about the future, and begin to believe that God loves us, and means to do us good, we shall trust Him as a child trusts a loving parent. Then our troubles and torments will disappear, and our will be swallowed up in the will of God.

{SD 193.2}

Through an abiding Christ you will become Christlike in character. The Lord desires you to stand by His side, as a kind, patient, humble son of God. The Lord designs that the laborers in His service shall represent His love. . . .

{SD 193.3}

Our relations with one another should be pleasant.

When we do right, the testimony of our own spirit and the testimony of the Spirit of God bear witness that the human mind is under the control of the divine mind....

His Word furnishes evidence from which we may draw the conclusion that we are indeed His sons and daughters. . . . True love for God carries with it true, reverential trust. And he who loves God will love his brother also. {SD 193.4}

"Now abideth faith, hope, and charity, these three,"--faith, which takes hold of Omnipotence and refuses to be baffled; hope, which turns the future triumphs of the good and the true into present encouragement and joy; and love, which consecrates all to God and for God. {SD 193.5}

There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

1 John 4:18 (KJV)
