Lesson #278 “The Law of the New Kingdom” Part 3

2 Corinthians 4:15 (KJV)

For all things [are] for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

*This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 3 of our lesson entitle,
“The Law of the New Kingdom” in our lesson book, Desire of Ages!*

Matthew 20:28 (KJV) Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

1 Corinthians 9:19 (KJV) For though I be free from all [men], yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

1 Corinthians 10:33 (KJV) Even as I please all [men] in all [things], not seeking mine own profit, but the [profit] of many, that they may be saved.

Romans 14:5 (KJV) One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day [alike]. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

Romans 14:12 (KJV) So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

1 John 3:11 (KJV) For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

1 John 3:16 (KJV) Hereby perceive we the love [of God], because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down [our] lives for the brethren.

Acts 4:32 (KJV) And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any [of them] that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

Acts 4:33 (KJV) And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.

Acts 4:34 (KJV) neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #60, pages 550- 551

Christ was establishing a kingdom on different principles. He called men, not to authority, but to service, the strong to bear the infirmities of the weak. Power, position, talent, education, placed their possessor under the greater obligation to serve his fellows. To even the lowliest of Christ's disciples it is said, "All things are for your sakes." 2 Corinthians 4:15. {DA 550.3}

Question: On what different principles was Christ establishing a kingdom and how? And, what did He say it is to even the lowliest of His disciples?

Answer: He called men, not to authority, but to service, the strong to bear the infirmities of the weak. Power, position, talent, education, placed their possessor under the greater obligation to serve his fellows. And, "All things are for your sakes."

Song: Let's learn our first scripture song together dear ones, from the book of 2 Corinthians!

DA Memory Verse CD vol. 2

2 Corinthians 8:9 (KJV)

For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
that, though he was rich,
yet for your sakes he became poor,
that ye through his poverty might be rich. (2 xs)

2 Corinthians 8 verse 9

For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
that, though he was rich,
yet for your sakes he became poor,
that ye through his poverty might be rich. (2 xs)

2 Corinthians 8 verse 9

"The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many." Among His disciples Christ was in every sense a caretaker, a burden bearer. He shared their poverty, He practiced self-denial on their account, He went before them to smooth the more difficult places, and soon He would consummate His work on earth by laying down His life. The principle on which Christ acted is to actuate the members of the church which is His body. The plan and ground of salvation is love. In the kingdom of Christ those are greatest who follow the example He has given, and act as shepherds of His flock. {DA 550.4}

Question: How did the Son of man show that He came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many? And, what is the plan and ground of salvation?

Answer: Among His disciples Christ was in every sense a caretaker, a burden bearer. He shared their poverty, He practiced self-denial on their account, He went before them to smooth the more difficult places, and soon He would consummate His work on earth by laying down His life. And, love.

Song: Let's learn another beautiful scripture song together dear ones, from the book of Isaiah!

DA Memory Verse CD vol. 3

Isaiah 52:13-15 (KJV)

Behold, my servant shall deal prudently,
he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.
As many were astonished at thee;
his visage was so marred more than any man,
and his form more than the sons of men:
So shall he sprinkle many nations;
the kings shall shut their mouths at him:
for [that] which had not been told them shall they see;
and [that] which they had not heard shall they consider.

Isaiah 52 verses 13 through 15

Through 15

The words of Paul reveal the true dignity and honor of the Christian life: "Though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all," "not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved." 1 Corinthians 9:19; 10:33. {DA 550.5}

Question: What do the words of Paul reveal? And, how did he show true dignity and honor in his Christian life in his words?

Answer: The true dignity and honor of the Christian life. And, "Though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all," "not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved."

In matters of conscience the soul must be left untrammelled. No one is to control another's mind, to judge for another, or to prescribe his duty. God gives to every soul freedom to think, and to follow his own convictions. "Every one of us shall give account of himself to God." No one has a right to merge his own individuality in that of another. In all matters where principle is involved, "let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind." Romans 14:12, 5. In Christ's kingdom there is no lordly oppression, no compulsion of manner. The angels of heaven do not come to the earth to rule, and to exact homage, but as messengers of mercy, to co-operate with men in uplifting humanity. {DA 550.6}

Question: What does this paragraph states the soul must be left in matters of conscience and why? And, what is involved in all matters where principle is concerned?

Answer: Untrammelled! No one is to control another's mind, to judge for another, or to prescribe his duty. God gives to every soul freedom to think, and to follow his own convictions. "Every one of us shall give account of himself to God." And, "let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind." No one has a right to merge his own individuality in that of another.

The principles and the very words of the Saviour's teaching, in their divine beauty, dwelt in the memory of the beloved disciple. To his latest days the burden of John's testimony to the churches was, "This is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another." "Hereby perceive we the love of God, because He laid down His life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren." 1 John 3:11, 16. {DA 551.1}

Question: To his latest days, what was the burden of John's testimony to the churches? And, why and how do we hereby perceive we the love of God?

Answer: This is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another." And, because He laid down His life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

Song: Let's learn yet another scripture song together dear ones, from the book of 1 Peter!

Scripture Singer Songs-Prayer

1Peter 4:7, 8 (KJV)

But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, (2 xs) and watch unto prayer.
And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: (2 xs) for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.
be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer

1Peter 4:7, 8

This was the spirit that pervaded the early church. After the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, "the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that aught of the things which he possessed was his own." "Neither was there any among them that lacked." "And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all." Acts 4:32, 34, 33. {DA 551.2}

Question: What was after the spirit that pervaded the early church? And, were there any among them that lacked and what two things were the apostles able to witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus as well was upon them all?

Answer: The outpouring of the Holy Spirit, "the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that aught of the things which he possessed was his own." And, neither! But, was given them great power and great grace.

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled,
“Sons and Daughters of God”
Chapter 7-To Keep the Sabbath

And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not. Exodus 20:20. {SD 195.1}

It requires moral courage to take a position to keep the commandments of the Lord. An opposer of the truth once said that it was only weak-minded people . . . who would turn away from the churches to keep the seventh day as the Sabbath. But a minister who had embraced the truth replied, "If you think it takes weak-minded persons, just try it." It takes moral courage, firmness, decision, perseverance and very much prayer to step out on the unpopular side. . . . {SD 195.2}

Standing under the broad shield of Omnipotence, we do not feel that we are in the minority. God is a majority. . . . We are to consider that Christ has set us to be a light amid the moral darkness of the world. We are not to misinterpret the character of God, we are not to be fretful, to speak out what we think, to blame and criticize and censure others; but we are to let the Holy Spirit fashion the character after the similitude of Christ. {SD 195.3}

Now let us see what Jesus will do for us if we let Him. In His prayer for His disciples He said, "And now I come to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves." Is it possible to have joy in obeying Christ? It is the only real joy that any soul can have. {SD 195.4}

Will the Saviour ever turn away to leave you to struggle alone? No, never. . . . Poverty is coming upon this world, and there will be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation. There will be wars and rumors of wars, and the faces of men will gather paleness. You may have to suffer distress; you may go hungry sometimes; but God will not forsake you in your suffering. He will test your faith. . . . We are here to manifest Christ to the world, to represent Him and His power to mankind. {SD 195.5}

Next Week: We will be reviewing our lesson, “The Law of the New Kingdom” Part 3 of our book “Desire of Ages”

Closing Prayer – request one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer.

Next Sabbath: Review Part 1 of Chapter 60 “The Law of the New Kingdom” Pt3 May 25, 2019.

Have a Blessed Sabbath dear one, and enjoy your activities. God Bless!
