

This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 4 of our lesson entitled, "The Feast at Simon's House" in our study book Desire of Ages!

Matthew 26:15 (KJV)

And said [unto them], What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

Matthew 26:16 (KJV)

And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

John 12:4 (KJV)

Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's [son], which should betray him,

John 12:7 (KJV)

Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

John 12:8 (KJV)

For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

Isaiah 55:1 (KJV)

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Matthew 2:11 (KJV)

And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

1 Timothy 5:10 (KJV)

Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

But the look which Jesus cast upon Judas convinced him that the Saviour penetrated his hypocrisy, and read his base, contemptible character. And in commending Mary's action, which had been so severely condemned, Christ had rebuked Judas. Prior to this, the Saviour had never given him a direct rebuke. Now the reproof rankled in his heart. He determined to be revenged. From the supper he went directly to the palace of the high priest, where he found the council assembled, and he offered to betray Jesus into their hands. {DA 563.3}

Boys & girls, what was Judas convinced of by the look Jesus cast upon him? And, what did he do after there proof rankled (irritated) in his heart?

The priests were greatly rejoiced. These leaders of Israel had been given the privilege of receiving Christ as their Saviour, without money and without price. But they refused the precious gift offered them in the most tender spirit of constraining love. They refused to accept that salvation which is of more value than gold, and bought their Lord for thirty pieces of silver. {DA 564.1}

Judas had indulged avarice until it overpowered every good trait of his character.

He grudged the offering made to Jesus.

His heart burned with envy that the Saviour should be the recipient of a gift suitable for the monarchs of the earth. For a sum far less than the box of ointment cost, he betrayed his Lord.

{DA 564.2}

Boys & girls, what were the leaders of Israel had been given the privilege of receiving and refused to accept?

Also, how did Judas became overpowered of every good trait of his character by his indulged avarice (greed)?

The disciples were not like Judas. They loved the Saviour. But they did not rightly appreciate His exalted character. Had they realized what He had done for them, they would have felt that nothing bestowed upon Him was wasted. The wise men from the East, who knew so little of Jesus, had shown a truer appreciation of the honor due Him. They brought precious gifts to the Saviour, and bowed in homage before Him when He was but a babe, and cradled in a manger. {DA 564.3}

Boys & girls, were the disciples like Judas, and what did they not rightly appreciate?
Also, who and how had shown a true appreciation of the honor due to our Saviour?

Christ values acts of heartfelt courtesy. When anyone did Him a favor, with heavenly politeness He blessed the actor. He did not refuse the simplest flower plucked by the hand of a child, and offered to Him in love. He accepted the offerings of children, and blessed the givers, inscribing their names in the book of life. (Next Slide)

Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet...

—1 Timothy 5:10

Desire of Ages, p.564

In the Scriptures, Mary's anointing of Jesus is mentioned as distinguishing her from the other Marys. Acts of love and reverence for Jesus are an evidence of faith in Him as the Son of God. And the Holy Spirit mentions, as evidences of woman's loyalty to Christ: "If she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work." 1 Timothy 5:10. {DA 564.4}

Boys & girls, how did Jesus accept the offerings of children, and bless the givers? And, what evidence of faith proves Him to be the Son of God? Also, what evidences did the Holy Spirit mention of woman's loyalty to Christ?

Christ delighted in the earnest desire of Mary to do the will of her Lord. He accepted the wealth of pure affection which His disciples did not, would not, understand. The desire that Mary had to do this service for her Lord was of more value to Christ than all the precious ointment in the world, (Next Slide)

Continuing: because it expressed her appreciation of the world's Redeemer. It was the love of Christ that constrained her. The matchless excellence of the character of Christ filled her soul. That ointment was a symbol of the heart of the giver. It was the outward demonstration of a love fed by heavenly streams until it overflowed. {DA 564.5}

Boys & girls, what did Jesus accept, which His disciples did not, and could not understand?
Also, what and why was of more value to Christ than all the precious ointment in the world?

The work of Mary was just the lesson the disciples needed to show them that the expression of their love for Him would be pleasing to Christ. He had been everything to them, and they did not realize that soon they would be deprived of His presence, that soon they could offer Him no token of their gratitude for His great love. The loneliness of Christ, separated from the heavenly courts, living the life of humanity, (Next Slide)

Continuing: was never understood or appreciated by the disciples as it should have been. He was often grieved because His disciples did not give Him that which He should have received from them. He knew that if they were under the influence of the heavenly angels that accompanied Him, they too would think no offering of sufficient value to declare the heart's spiritual affection. {DA 565.1}

Boys & girls, what was just the lesson the disciples needed the work of Mary to show them?

And, what was never understood or appreciated by the disciples as it should have been?

Answer

It was needed to show them that the expression of their love for Him would be pleasing to Christ. And the loneliness of Christ, separated from the heavenly courts, living the life of humanity. He was often grieved because His disciples did not give Him that which He should have received from them.

Let's learn our last scripture song together dear ones, from the book of Psalms!

Chapter 7-Be Strong, for God is With Us Be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and work: for I am with you, saith the Lord of hosts. Haggai 2:4. {SD 202.1}

Our Lord is cognizant of the conflict of His people in these last days with the satanic agencies combined with evil men who neglect and refuse their great salvation.

With the greatest simplicity and candor, our Saviour, the mighty General of the armies of heaven, does not conceal the stern conflict which they will experience. He points out the dangers, He shows us the plan of the battle, and the hard and hazardous work to be done, and then lifts His voice before entering the conflict to count the cost while at the same time He encourages all {Next Slide}

Continuing: to take up the weapons of their warfare and expect the heavenly host to compose the armies to war in defense of truth and righteousness. Men's weakness shall find supernatural strength and help in every stern conflict to do the deeds of Omnipotence, and perseverance in faith and perfect trust in God will ensure success. {SD 202.2

While the past confederacy of evil is arrayed against them He bids them to be brave and strong and fight valiantly for they have a heaven to win, and they have more than an angel in their ranks, the mighty General of armies leads on the armies of heaven. As on the occasion of the taking of Jericho, not one of the armies of Israel could boast of exercising their finite strength to overthrow the walls of the city, {Next Slide}

Continuing: but the Captain of the Lord's host planned the battle in the greatest simplicity, that the Lord alone should receive the glory and man should not be exalted.

God has promised us all power; for the promise is unto you and your children, and to all that are afar off even as many as the Lord our God shall call. {SD 202.3}

Faith is the living power that presses through every barrier, overrides all obstacles, and plants its banner in the heart of the enemy's camp. {SD 202.4}

Be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and work: for I am with you, saith the Lord of hosts. Haggai 2:4 (KJV)
