

Children Sabbath School Lesson #288 for 10-5-2019
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Our Opening Hymn is entitle, “I’d Rather Have Jesus!”
1. I’d rather have Jesus than silver or gold; I’d rather be His than have riches untold; I’d rather have Jesus than houses or lands. I’d rather be led by His nail pierced hand, 2. I’d rather have Jesus than men's applause; I’d rather be faithful to His dear cause; I’d rather have Jesus than worldwide fame. I’d rather be true to His holy name	3. He’s fairer than lilies of rarest bloom; He’s sweeter than honey from out the comb; He’s all that my hungering spirit needs. I’d rather have Jesus and let Him lead. [Chorus] Than to be the king of a vast domain Or be held in sin's dread sway. I’d rather have Jesus than anything This world affords today.

Romans 8:33 (KJV)

Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? [It is] God that justifieth.

Romans 8:34 (KJV)

Who [is] he that condemneth? [It is] Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

Romans 8:35 (KJV)

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? [shall] tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Romans 8:37 (KJV)

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

Romans 8:38 (KJV)

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

Romans 8:39 (KJV)

Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #62, pages 568- 568

Mary had been looked upon as a great sinner, but Christ knew the circumstances that had shaped her life. He might have extinguished every spark of hope in her soul, but He did not. It was He who had lifted her from despair and ruin. Seven times she had heard His rebuke of the demons that controlled her heart and mind. She had heard His strong cries to the Father in her behalf. She knew how offensive is sin to His unsullied purity, and in His strength she had overcome. {DA 568.1}

Question: Did Jesus look upon Mary as a great sinner as others did? Also, what did she hear Jesus do towards the Father on her behalf? What did she know and could do in His strength?

Answer: No! Christ knew the circumstances that had shaped her life. He might have extinguished every spark of hope in her soul, but He did not. And, she had heard His strong cries to the Father in her behalf. She knew how offensive is sin to His unsullied purity, and in His strength she had overcome.

{Step to Christ page 52}

When to human eyes her case appeared hopeless, Christ saw in Mary capabilities for good. He saw the better traits of her character. The plan of redemption has invested humanity with great possibilities, and in Mary these possibilities were to be realized. Through His grace she became a partaker of the divine nature. The one who had fallen, and whose mind had been a habitation of demons, was brought very near to the Saviour in fellowship and ministry. It was Mary who sat at His feet and learned of Him. It was Mary who poured upon His head the precious anointing oil, and bathed His feet with her tears. Mary stood beside the cross, and followed Him to the sepulcher. Mary was first at the tomb after His resurrection. It was Mary who first proclaimed a risen Saviour. {DA 568.2}

Question: What did Jesus see in Mary when to human eyes her case appeared hopeless? Also, who was this soul that was brought very near to the Saviour in fellowship and ministry?

Philippians 1:6

Jesus knows the circumstances of every soul. You may say, I am sinful, very sinful. You may be; but the worse you are, the more you need Jesus. He turns no weeping, contrite one away. He does not tell to any all that He might reveal, but He bids every trembling soul take courage. Freely will He pardon all who come to Him for forgiveness and restoration. {DA 568.3}

COL-Christ Object Lesson 159

Paragraph 3 Margin

Lord, take my heart; for I cannot give it.

It is Thy property.

Keep it pure, for I cannot keep it for Thee. (2 xs)

Save me in spite of myself, my weak, unchristlike self.

Mold me, fashion me, raise me (2 xs)

into a pure and holy atmosphere,

where the rich current of Thy love (2 xs) can flow through my soul.

{Christ Object Lesson 159}

Christ might commission the angels of heaven to pour out the vials of His wrath on our world, to destroy those who are filled with hatred of God. He might wipe this dark spot from His universe. But He does not do this. He is today standing at the altar of incense, presenting before God the prayers of those who desire His help. {DA 568.4}

Question: What might have Christ done on our world by commission of angels to those who are filled with hatred for God? Also, where is He today and what is He doing?

Answer: He could have commission the angels to pour out the vials of His wrath on our world. And, He is today standing at the altar of incense, presenting before God the prayers of those who desire His help.

The souls that turn to Him for refuge, Jesus lifts above the accusing and the strife of tongues. No man or evil angel can impeach these souls. Christ unites them to His own divine-human nature. They stand beside the great Sin Bearer, in the light proceeding from the throne of God. "Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us." Romans 8:33, 34. {DA 568.5}

Question: What will Jesus do for the souls that turn to Him for refuge and what can man or evil angles do to them? Also, how are they able to stand beside Him blameless before the throne of God?

Answer: Jesus lifts above the accusing and the strife of tongues. No man or evil angel can impeach these souls. And, Christ unites them to His own divine-human nature. They stand beside the great Sin Bearer, in the light proceeding from the throne of God.

Chapter 7-Courage of Obedience Demonstrated

And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him:
for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me. Genesis 22:12. {SD 205.1}

Abraham, . . . in obedience to the divine command, . . . pursues his journey with Isaac by his side. He sees before him the mountain which God had told him He would signalize as the one upon which he was to sacrifice. He removes the wood from the shoulder of his servant and lays it upon Isaac, the one to be offered. He girds up his soul with firmness and agonizing sternness, ready for the work which God requires him to do. With a breaking heart and unnerved hand, he takes the fire, while Isaac inquires: Father, here is the fire and the wood; but where is the offering? But, oh, Abraham cannot tell him now! Father and son build the altar, and the terrible moment comes for Abraham to make known to Isaac that which had agonized his soul all that long journey, that Isaac himself is the victim. Isaac is not a lad; he is a full-grown young man. He could have refused to submit to his father's design had he chosen to do so. He does not accuse his father of insanity, nor does he even seek to change his purpose. He submits. He believes in the love of his father and that he would not make this terrible sacrifice of his only son if God had not bidden him to do so. {SD 205.2}

Isaac is bound by the trembling, loving hands of his pitying father because God has said it. The son submits to the sacrifice because he believes in the integrity of his father. But when everything is ready, when the faith of the father and the submission of the son are fully tested, the angel of God stays the uplifted hand of Abraham that is about to slay his son and tells him that it is enough. {SD 205.3}

In order to obey God willingly under all circumstances, great courage is needful. {SD 205.4}

We can know Christ only by loving and obeying Him. The Lord calls for valiant men, who will not fail or be discouraged. {SD 205.5}
