All His jewels, precious jewels,
His loved and His own.

The gems for His kingdom;
All the pure ones, all the bright ones,
His loved and His own.
- 3. Little children, little children,
Who love their Redeemer,
Are the jewels, precious jewels,
His loved and His own.

[Refrain]

Like the stars of the morning,
His brightness adorning,
They shall shine in their beauty,
Bright gems for His crown.

Matthew 21:11 (KJV)

And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

Luke 19:37 (KJV)

And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

Luke 19:38 (KJV)

Saying, Blessed [be] the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

Luke 19:39 (KJV)

And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

John 12:16 (KJV)

These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and [that] they had done these things unto him.

John 12:19 (KJV)

The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

John 12:20 (KJV)

And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:

John 12:23 (KJV)

And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

As they proceeded,
the multitude was continually increased by those who had heard of the coming of Jesus and hastened
to join the procession.
Spectators were constantly
mingling with the throng,
and asking,
Who is this?
What does all this
commotion signify?

John 18:36 (KJV)

Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

Boys & girls, why were spectators mingling with the throng, and asking, Who is this? What does all this commotion signify?

They were greatly astonished to learn that this was He. They wondered what could have wrought this change in Him who had declared that His kingdom was not of this world.

Their questionings are silenced by a shout of triumph. Again and again it is repeated by the eager throng; it is taken up by the people afar off, and echoed from the surrounding hills and valleys. The Desire of Ages, p.571

Never before in His earthly life had Jesus permitted such a demonstration. He clearly foresaw the result. It would bring Him to the cross. But it was His purpose thus publicly to present Himself as the Redeemer. He desired to call attention to the sacrifice that was to crown His mission to a fallen world.

Philippians 2:5-11 (KJV)

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
Who, being in the form of God,
thought it not robbery to be equal with God:
But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:
And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself,
and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.
Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him,
and given him a name which is above every name:
That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow,
of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;
And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:5-11

The Desire of Ages, p.571

The events connected with this triumphal ride would be the talk of every tongue, and would bring Jesus before every mind. After His crucifixion, many would recall these events in their connection with His trial and death. They would be led to search the prophecies, and would be convinced that Jesus was the Messiah; and in all lands converts to the faith would be multiplied. {DA 571.3}

Boys & girls, what would the events connected with Jesus' triumphal ride be and what would it bring to everyone? Also, what did the series of events lead them to do with the prophecies and what be the outcome in all the lands?

1 Peter 2:24 (KJV)

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

In this one triumphant scene of His earthly life, the Saviour might have appeared escorted by heavenly angels, and heralded by the trump of God; but such a demonstration would have been contrary to the purpose of His mission, contrary to the law which had governed His life. He remained true to the humble lot He had accepted. The burden of humanity He must bear until His life was given for the life of the world.

{DA 571.4}

Question:

Boys & girls, why in this one triumphant scene of His earthly life Jesus did not allow himself to be escorted by heavenly angels and be heralded by the trump of God?
Also, why did He remain true to the humble lot He had accepted?

For, such a demonstration would have been contrary to the purpose of His mission, contrary to the law which had governed His life. And, the burden of humanity He must bear until His life was given for the life of the world.

This day, which seemed to the disciples the crowning day of their lives, would have been shadowed with gloomy clouds had they known that this scene of rejoicing was but a prelude to the suffering and death of their Master.

Although He had repeatedly told them of His certain sacrifice, yet in the glad triumph of the present they forgot His sorrowful words, and looked forward to His prosperous reign on David's throne.

Chapter 7-We Need More Calebs and Joshuas

And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

Numbers 13:30 {SD 207.1}

The third angel is flying in the midst of heaven, heralding the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus. This represents the work which is to be done in these last days. The message loses none of its power in its onward flight. John sees the work increasing in power till the whole earth is filled with the glory of God. The message, "Fear God and keep his commandments; for the hour of his judgment is come," is to go with a loud voice. With intensified zeal and energy human beings are to carry forward the work of the Lord.

{Next Slide}

Continuing: In the home, in the school, and in the church men, women, and youth are to be prepared to give the message to the world. . . . Now, just now, we need Calebs and Joshuas.

We need strong, devoted, self-sacrificing young men and young women, who will press to the front. {SD 207.2}

Today we need men of thorough fidelity, men who follow the Lord fully, men who are not disposed to be silent when they ought to speak, who are as true as steel to principle, who do not seek to make a pretentious show, but who walk humbly with God, patient, kind, obliging, courteous men, who understand that the science of prayer is to exercise faith and show works that will tell to the glory of God and the good of His people. . . . {Next Slide}

Continuing: To follow Jesus requires wholehearted conversion at the start, and a repetition of this conversion every day. {SD 207.3}

It was Caleb's faith in God that gave him courage, that kept him from the fear of man, and enabled him to stand boldly and unflinchingly in the defense of the right.
Through reliance on the same power, the mighty General of the armies of heaven, every true soldier of the cross may receive strength and courage to overcome the obstacles that seem insurmountable. {SD 207.4}
