The gems for His kingdom;
All the pure ones, all the bright ones,
His loved and His own.

Who love their Redeemer,
Are the jewels, precious jewels,
His loved and His own.

His brightness adorning,
They shall shine in their beauty,
Bright gems for His crown.

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

*Before we hear your questions dear ones!
Let's take a few minutes to review
what you have read last Sabbath from Part 1 of our Lesson entitled,
"Thy King Cometh" Part 2
in our study book Desire of Ages!*

The Desire of Ages, p.570

As they proceeded,
the multitude was continually increased by those who had heard of the coming of Jesus and hastened
to join the procession.
Spectators were constantly mingling with the throng,
and asking,
Who is this?
What does all this commotion signify?
They had all heard of Jesus,

Continue: and expected Him to go to Jerusalem; but they knew that He had heretofore discouraged all effort to place Him on the throne, and they were greatly astonished to learn that this was He. They wondered what could have wrought this change in Him who had declared that His kingdom was not of this world.

{DA 570.2}

John 18:36 (KJV)

Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

The Desire of Ages, p.571

Their questionings are silenced by a shout of triumph. Again and again it is repeated by the eager throng; it is taken up by the people afar off, and echoed from the surrounding hills and valleys. And now the procession is joined by crowds from Jerusalem. From the multitudes gathered to attend the Passover, {Next Slide}

Continuing: thousands go forth to welcome Jesus. They greet Him with the waving of palm branches and a burst of sacred song. The priests at the temple sound the trumpet for evening service, but there are few to respond, and the rulers say to one another in alarm. “The world is gone after Him.” {DA 571.1}

The Desire of Ages, p.571

Never before in His earthly life had Jesus permitted such a demonstration. He clearly foresaw the result. It would bring Him to the cross. But it was His purpose thus publicly to present Himself as the Redeemer. He desired to call attention to the sacrifice that was to crown His mission to a fallen world. While the people were assembling at Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover, {Next Slide}

Continuing:
He, the antitypical Lamb,
by a voluntary act set Himself apart as an oblation.
It would be needful for His church in all succeeding ages to make His death for the sins of the world a subject of deep thought and study.
Every fact connected with it should be verified beyond a doubt.

Continuing:

It was necessary, then, that the eyes of all people should now be directed to Him; the events which preceded His great sacrifice must be such as to call attention to the sacrifice itself. After such a demonstration as that attending His entry into Jerusalem, all eyes would follow His rapid progress to the final scene.

{DA 571.2}

The Desire of Ages, p.571

The events connected with this triumphal ride would be the talk of every tongue, and would bring Jesus before every mind. After His crucifixion, many would recall these events in their connection with His trial and death. They would be led to search the prophecies, and would be convinced that Jesus was the Messiah; and in all lands converts to the faith would be multiplied. {DA 571.3}

The Desire of Ages, p.571

1 Peter 2:24 (KJV)

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

In this one triumphant scene of His earthly life, the Saviour might have appeared escorted by heavenly angels, and heralded by the trump of God; but such a demonstration would have been contrary to the purpose of His mission, contrary to the law which had governed His life. He remained true to the humble lot He had accepted. The burden of humanity He must bear until His life was given for the life of the world.

{DA 571.4}

The Desire of Ages, p.571

This day, which seemed to the disciples the crowning day of their lives, would have been shadowed with gloomy clouds had they known that this scene of rejoicing was but a prelude to the suffering and death of their Master.

Although He had repeatedly told them of His certain sacrifice, yet in the glad triumph of the present they forgot His sorrowful words, and looked forward to His prosperous reign on David's throne.

{DA 571.5}

Chapter 7-We Need More Calebs and Joshuas

And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

Numbers 13:30 {SD 207.1}

The third angel is flying in the midst of heaven, heralding the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus. This represents the work which is to be done in these last days.

The message loses none of its power in its onward flight. John sees the work increasing in power till the whole earth is filled with the glory of God. The message, "Fear God and keep his commandments; for the hour of his judgment is come," is to go with a loud voice. With intensified zeal and energy human beings are to carry forward the work of the Lord.

In the home, in the school, and in the church men, women, and youth are to be prepared to give the message to the world. . . . Now, just now, we need Calebs and Joshuas. We need strong, devoted, self-sacrificing young men and young women, who will press to the front. {SD 207.2}

Today we need men of thorough fidelity, men who follow the Lord fully, men who are not disposed to be silent when they ought to speak, who are as true as steel to principle, who do not seek to make a pretentious show, but who walk humbly with God, patient, kind, obliging, courteous men, who understand that the science of prayer is to exercise faith and show works that will tell to the glory of God and the good of His people. . . . To follow Jesus requires wholehearted conversion at the start, and a repetition of this conversion every day. {SD 207.3}

It was Caleb's faith in God that gave him courage, that kept him from the fear of man, and enabled him to stand boldly and unflinchingly in the defense of the right.

Through reliance on the same power, the mighty General of the armies of heaven, every true soldier of the cross may receive strength and courage to overcome the obstacles

And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

Numbers 13:30 (KJV)

Walk with Jesus

*Our Closing Hymn will be the Spanish, version “ Cuando venga Jesucristo”
#600*

1. Cuando venga Jesucristo en busca de joyas, todo niño redimido
su gema será.
2. Quiere Cristo en su corona brillantes estrellas;
cada gema que le adorna
con sangre compró.
3. Él escoge por tesoros los niños amados,
y en su seno a los corderos recibe Jesús.
4. Si los niños y las niñas acuden a Cristo,
bellas joyas, escogidas,
serán para él.

[Coro]

Como estrellas que brillan
son los niños que le aman;
son tesoros que adornan
al Rey y Señor.
