And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

Luke 21:20 (KJV)

And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

Luke 21:21 (KJV)

Hosea 13:9 (KJV)

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #63, pages 576-577

Jesus raised His hand,--that had so often blessed the sick and suffering,--and waving it toward the doomed city, in broken utterances of grief exclaimed: "If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace!--" Here the Saviour paused, and left unsaid what might have been the condition of Jerusalem had she accepted the help that God desired to give her,--the gift of His beloved Son. If Jerusalem had known what it was her privilege to know, and had heeded the light which Heaven had sent her, she might have stood forth in the pride of prosperity, the queen of kingdoms, free in the strength of her God-given power. There would have been no armed soldiers standing at her gates, no Roman banners waving from her walls. The glorious destiny that might have blessed Jerusalem had she accepted her Redeemer rose before the Son of God. He saw that she might through Him have been healed of her grievous malady, liberated from bondage, and established as the mighty metropolis of the earth. From her walls the dove of peace would have gone forth to all nations. She would have been the world's diadem of glory. {DA 576.3}

Question: Why did Jesus raise His hand, which had so often blessed the sick and suffering? And, what did He exclaim in His broken utterances of grief?

Answer: He had waving it toward the doomed city, in broken utterances of grief exclaimed: "If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace!"

Song: Let's learn our first beautiful scripture song dear ones, from the book of Psalms!

Scripture Singer Songs-Character Building

Psalms 24:3-6 (KJV)

Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD?

or who shall stand in his holy place?

He that hath clean hands, (2 xs)

and a pure heart; (2 xs) who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive the blessing from the LORD,
and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This [is] the generation of them that seek him,
that seek thy face, O Jacob.

Psalms 24:3 through 6

Question: What would have been the glorious destiny that might have blessed Jerusalem had she accepted her Redeemer rose before the Son of God? And, what other description is mentioned in the paragraph?

Answer: He saw that she might through Him have been healed of her grievous malady, liberated from bondage, and established as the mighty metropolis of the earth. From her walls the dove of peace would have gone forth to all nations. She would have been the world's diadem of glory.

But the bright picture of what Jerusalem might have been fades from the Saviour's sight. He realizes what she now is under the Roman yoke, bearing the frown of God, doomed to His retributive judgment. He takes up the broken thread of His lamentation: "But now they are hid from thine eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation." {DA 577.1}

Question: Why did the bright picture of what Jerusalem might have been faded from the Saviour's sight? Also, what shall come upon her because she knew not the time of His (the Saviour's) visitation?

Answer: He realizes what she now is under the Roman yoke, bearing the frown of God, doomed to His retributive judgment. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; not leave in thee one stone upon another;

Song: Let's learn another beautiful scripture song dear one, from the book of Hosea!

Hosea 14:4 (KJV)

I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely:
for mine anger is turned away from him. I will heal their backsliding,
I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him. (2 x)

Hosea 14:4

I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely:
for mine anger is turned away from him. I will heal their backsliding,
I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him. (2 x)

Hosea 14:4

Christ came to save Jerusalem with her children; but Pharisaical pride, hypocrisy, jealousy, and malice had prevented Him from accomplishing His purpose. Jesus knew the terrible retribution which would be visited upon the doomed city. He saw Jerusalem encompassed with armies, the besieged inhabitants driven to starvation and death, mothers feeding upon the dead bodies of their own children, and both parents and children snatching the last morsel of food from one another, natural affection being destroyed by the gnawing pangs of hunger. He saw that the stubbornness of the Jews, as evinced in their rejection of His salvation, would also lead them to refuse submission to the invading armies. He beheld Calvary, on which He was to be lifted up, set with crosses as thickly as forest trees. He saw the wretched inhabitants suffering torture on the rack and by crucifixion, the beautiful palaces destroyed, the temple in ruins, and of its massive walls not one stone left upon another, while the city was plowed like a field. Well might the Saviour weep in agony in view of that fearful scene. {DA 577.2}

Question: What prevented Jesus from accomplishing His purpose for which He came to save Jerusalem with her children? Also, why did the Saviour weep in agony in view of that fearful scene?

Answer: The Pharisaical pride, hypocrisy, jealousy, and malice had prevented Him from accomplishing His purpose. He saw the wretched inhabitants suffering torture on the rack and by crucifixion, the beautiful palaces destroyed, the temple in ruins, and of its massive walls not one stone left upon another, while the city was plowed like a field.

Jerusalem had been the child of His care, and as a tender father mourns over a wayward son, so Jesus wept over the beloved city. How can I give thee up? How can I see thee devoted to destruction? Must I let thee go to fill up the cup of thine iniquity? One soul is of such value that, in comparison with it, worlds sink into insignificance; but here was a whole nation to be lost. When the fast westering sun should pass from sight in the heavens, Jerusalem's day of grace would be ended. While the procession was halting on the brow of Olivet, it was not yet too late for Jerusalem to repent. The angel of mercy was then folding her wings to step down from the golden throne to give place to justice and swift-coming judgment. But Christ's great heart of love still pleaded for Jerusalem, that had scorned His mercies, despised His warnings, and was about to imbrue her hands in His blood. If Jerusalem would but repent, it was not yet too late. While the last rays of the setting sun were lingering on temple, tower, and pinnacle, would not some good angel lead her to the Saviour's love, and avert her doom? Beautiful and unholy city, that had stoned the prophets, that had rejected the Son of God, that was locking herself by her impenitence in fetters of bondage,--her day of mercy was almost spent! {DA 577.3}

Question: What was Jerusalem to Jesus? Also, what did He say as He wept over the beloved city? And, how much does a soul value in comparison with it?

Answer: Jerusalem had been the child of His care, and as a tender father mourns over a wayward son. How can I give thee up? How can I see thee devoted to destruction? Must I let thee go to fill up the cup of thine iniquity? One soul is of such value that, in comparison with it, worlds sink into insignificance; but here was a whole nation to be lost.

Question: Even after what events did Christ's great heart of love still pleads for Jerusalem? Also, why was Jerusalem day of mercy was almost spent?

Answer: After she had scorned His mercies, despised His warnings, and was about to imbrue her hands in His blood. Beautiful and unholy city, that had stoned the prophets, that had rejected the Son of God, that was locking herself by her impenitence in fetters of bondage.

Chapter 7-Too Much Is at Stake to Waver Now

Let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. James 1:6. {SD 210.1}

Some men have no firmness of character. They are like a ball of putty and can be pressed into any conceivable shape. . . . This weakness, indecision, and inefficiency must be overcome. There is an indomitableness about true Christian character which cannot be molded or subdued by adverse circumstances. Men must have moral backbone, an integrity which cannot be flattered, bribed, or terrified. {SD 210.2}

We have a powerful enemy. . . . When men give themselves over to be the slaves of Satan, he does not manifest the enmity toward them which he does to those who bear the name of Christ, and give themselves to the service of God. He hates them with a deadly hatred. He knows that he can grieve Jesus by bringing them under the power of his deceptions, by injuring them, by weakening their faith. . . . Satan will permit those to have a degree of rest who are bound as slaves to his chariot, for they are his willing captives; but his enmity is aroused when the message of mercy reaches his bond slaves, and they seek to wrench themselves away from his power, that they may follow the true Shepherd. . . . The conflict between the soul and Satan begins when the captive begins to tug at the chain, and longs to be free. . . . {SD 210.3}

Those who really desire to be taught of God, and to walk in His way, have the sure promise that if they feel their lack of wisdom and ask of God, He will give liberally, and upbraid not. The apostle says, "Let him ask in faith, nothing wavering." . . . Believe; believe that God will do just what He has promised. Keep your prayers ascending, and watch, work, and wait. Fight the good fight of faith. {SD 210.4}

As long as we sail with the current of the world we need neither canvas nor oar. It is when we turn squarely about to stem the current that our labors begin. {SD 210.5}

Next Week: We will be reviewing our lesson, “Thy King Cometh” Part 5 of our book “Desire of Ages”
