“A Doomed People”

Sabbath January 11, 2020

A background image showing several hands of different skin tones raised in prayer, with fingers spread and palms facing up, set against a white background with a dark, wavy border at the top.

Our Opening Hymn is Entitled,
“I Need Thee Every Hour
#483

1. I need thee every hour, most gracious Lord;
no tender voice like thine can peace afford.

2. I need thee every hour; stay thou nearby;
temptations lose their power when thou art nigh.

3. I need thee every hour, in joy or pain;
come quickly and abide, or life is vain.

4. I need thee every hour; teach me thy will;
and thy rich promises in me fulfill.

[Refrain]

I need thee, O I need thee;
every hour I need thee;
O bless me now, my Savior, I come to thee.

Zechariah 12:10 (KJV)

And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for [his] only [son], and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for [his] firstborn.

Matthew 21:10 (KJV)

And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

Mark 13:26 (KJV)

And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

Matthew 24:30 (KJV)

And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

Matthew 24:31 (KJV)

And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Mark 11:11 (KJV)

And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

The Desire of Ages, p.580

The triumphal ride of Christ into Jerusalem was the dim foreshadowing of His coming in the clouds of heaven with power and glory, amid the triumph of angels and the rejoicing of the saints. —Zechariah 12:10

Mine eyes have seen the salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people, a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.
—Zechariah 9:8 (King James Version)

Continuing: as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for Him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.”
Zechariah 12:10.

This scene Christ foresaw when He beheld the city and wept over it. In the temporal ruin of Jerusalem He saw the final destruction of that people who were guilty of the blood of the Son of God.

The Desire of Ages, p.580

The disciples saw the hatred of the Jews to Christ, but they did not yet see to what it would lead. They did not yet understand the true condition of Israel, nor comprehend the retribution that was to fall upon Jerusalem. This Christ opened to them by a significant object lesson.

Jeremiah 29:11-14 (KJV)

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, (2 xs)
saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil,
to give you an expected end.

Then shall ye call upon me,
and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

And ye shall seek me, and find [me],
when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

And I will be found of you, (2 xs)
saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity,
and I will gather you from all the nations,
and from all the places whither I have driven you,
saith the LORD;

and I will bring you again into the place whence
I caused you to be carried away captive.

Jeremiah 29:11 through 14

The Desire of Ages, p.580

But the calm voice of Jesus hushed for a moment the clamorous throng as He again declared that He had not come to establish a temporal rule; He should soon ascend to His Father, and His accusers would see Him no more until He should come again in glory. Then, too late for their salvation, they would acknowledge Him. {Next Slide}

The Desire of Ages, p.580

These words Jesus spoke with sadness and with singular power. The Roman officers were silenced and subdued. Their hearts, though strangers to divine influence, were moved as they had never been moved before. In the calm, solemn face of Jesus they read love, benevolence, and quiet dignity. They were stirred by a sympathy they could not understand. {Next Slide}

Instead of arresting Jesus, they were more inclined to pay Him homage.

Turning upon the
priests and rulers,
they charged them with creating the disturbance.

These leaders,
chagrined and defeated,
turned to the people
with their complaints,
and disputed angrily
among themselves.

Boys & girls, what were the words spoken by Jesus with sadness and with singular power? Also, what did they (The Roman officers) see in Jesus calm and solemn face?

Meanwhile Jesus passed unnoticed to the temple. All was quiet there, for the scene upon Olivet had called away the people.

For a short time Jesus remained at the temple, looking upon it with sorrowful eyes.

Then He withdrew with His disciples, and returned to Bethany. When the people sought for Him to place Him on the throne, He was not to be found.

Chapter 7-To Take a Decided Stand for Temperance

And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things.
Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible.

1 Corinthians 9:25. {SD 212.1}

In the family circle and in the church we should place Christian temperance on an elevated platform. It should be a living, working element, reforming habits, dispositions, and characters.

Intemperance lies at the foundation of all the evil in our world. {SD 212.2}

The children need to be given lessons that will nurture in them courage to resist evil. . . . Parents should exercise great care in regard to the food placed before their children. Drunkards are only too often made by lessons of intemperance learned in the home. {Next Slide}

Continuing: Let the children be given food that will build up mind and body, but keep away from them the highly seasoned dishes that would arouse a desire for still stronger stimulants.

{SD 212.3}

The use of tobacco and strong drink has a great deal to do with the increase of disease and crime. Tobacco is a slow, insidious, but most malignant poison, and its use is working untold harm. . . . {SD 212.4}

No argument is needed to show the evils of the use of intoxicating drink. The bleared, besotted wrecks of humanity,--souls for whom Christ died, and over whom angels weep,--are everywhere. They are a blot on our boasted civilization. . . . {SD 212.5}

Those who in ancient times ran for a prize realized the importance of temperate habits, and how much more should we, who are running a race for a heavenly crown.

We should put forth every effort to overcome evil. {SD 212.6}

At all times and on all occasions it requires moral courage to adhere to the principles of strict temperance. {SD 212.7}

Remember that you are daily weaving for yourself a web of habits. . . . The better you observe the laws of health, the more clearly can you discern temptations, and resist them, and the more clearly can you discern the value of eternal things. {SD 212.8}

And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. 1 Corinthians 9:25 (KJV)
