“The Temple Cleansed Again” Part 2

Sabbath March 21, 2020

*Our Opening Hymn is Entitle,
"Jesus Paid It All"
#184*

1. I hear the Savior say, "Thy strength indeed is small;
Child of weakness, watch and pray, Find in Me thine all in all.

2. Lord, now indeed I find Thy power and Thine alone,
Can change the leper's spots And melt the heart of stone.

3. Since nothing good have I Whereby Thy grace to claim, I'll wash my garments white In the blood of Calv'ry's Lamb.

4. And when before the throne I stand in Him complete, I'll lay my trophies down All down at Jesus' feet.

[Refrain]

Jesus paid it all,
All to Him I owe;
Sin had left a crimson stain,
He washed it white as snow..

This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 2 of our lesson entitled, “The Temple Cleansed Again” in our study book Desire of Ages!

Matthew 21:13 (KJV)

And said unto them, It is written,
My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

Luke 19:46 (KJV)

Saying unto them, It is written,
My house is the house of prayer:
but ye have made it a den of thieves.

Luke 19:47 (KJV)

And he taught daily in the temple.
But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him,

Luke 19:48 (KJV)

And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

Matthew 21:15 (KJV)

And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David;

they were sore displeased,

Matthew 21:16 (KJV)

And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

Psalms 118:26 (KJV)

Blessed [be] he that cometh in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.

Zachariah 9:9 (KJV)

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem:
behold, thy King cometh unto thee:
he [is] just, and having salvation;
lowly, and riding upon an ass,
and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

The Desire of Ages, p.590

Again the piercing look of Jesus swept over the desecrated court of the temple. All eyes were turned toward Him. Priest and ruler, Pharisee and Gentile, looked with astonishment and awe upon Him who stood before them with the majesty of heaven's King. Divinity flashed through humanity, investing Christ with a dignity and glory He had never manifested before. Those standing nearest Him drew as far away as the crowd would permit.

The Desire of Ages, p.590

Continuing:

Except for a few of His disciples, the Saviour stood alone.

Every sound was hushed.

The deep silence seemed unbearable.

Christ spoke with a power that swayed the people

like a mighty tempest:

“It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.”

His voice sounded like a trumpet through the temple.

The displeasure of His countenance seemed like consuming fire.

With authority He commanded, “Take these things hence.”

John 2:16. {DA 590.4}

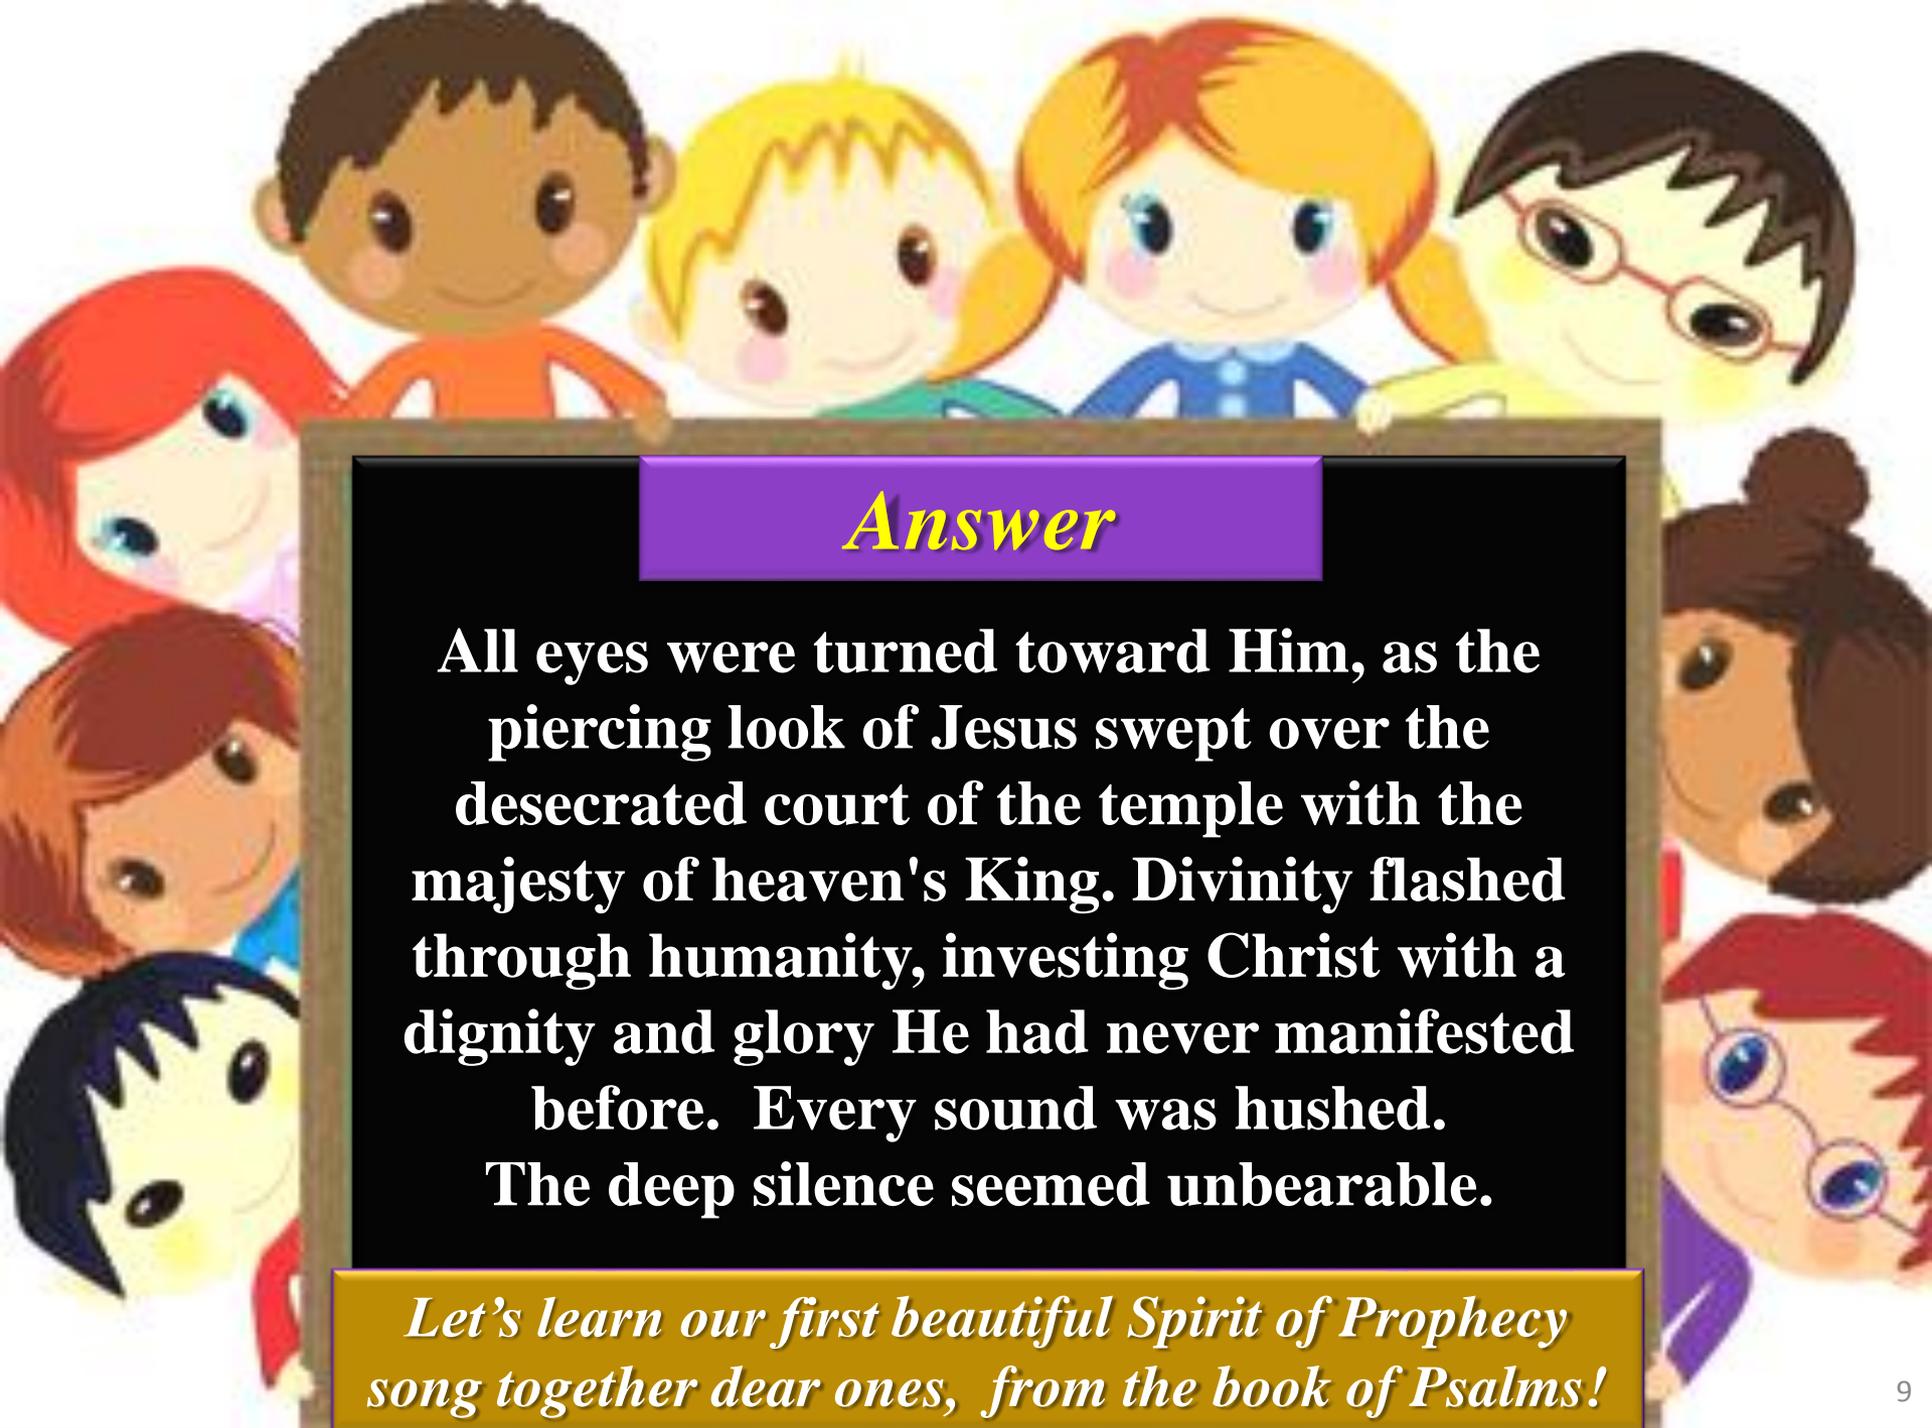

Question:

Boys & girls, why did the Priests, rulers, Pharisee and Gentiles, look at Christ with such astonishment and awe as He stood before them?
Also, what was the reaction on the Saviour's actions on the scene?

A group of diverse, cartoon-style children of various ethnicities and ages are gathered around a large sign. The children are smiling and looking towards the sign. The sign has a purple header with the word 'Answer' in yellow, a black body with white text, and a yellow footer with black text.

Answer

All eyes were turned toward Him, as the piercing look of Jesus swept over the desecrated court of the temple with the majesty of heaven's King. Divinity flashed through humanity, investing Christ with a dignity and glory He had never manifested before. Every sound was hushed. The deep silence seemed unbearable.

Psalms 46:10 (KJV)

When every other voice is hushed, and in quietness we wait before Him, (2 xs)
the silence of the soul makes more distinct the voice of God.

He bids us,
“Be still, and know that I am God.”

The Desire of Ages, p.591

Three years before, the rulers of the temple had been ashamed of their flight before the command of Jesus. They had since wondered at their own fears, and their unquestioning obedience to a single humble Man. They had felt that it was impossible for their undignified surrender to be repeated. Yet they were now more terrified than before, and in greater haste to obey His command. There were none who dared question His authority. Priests and traders fled from His presence, driving their cattle before them. {DA 591.1}

Question:

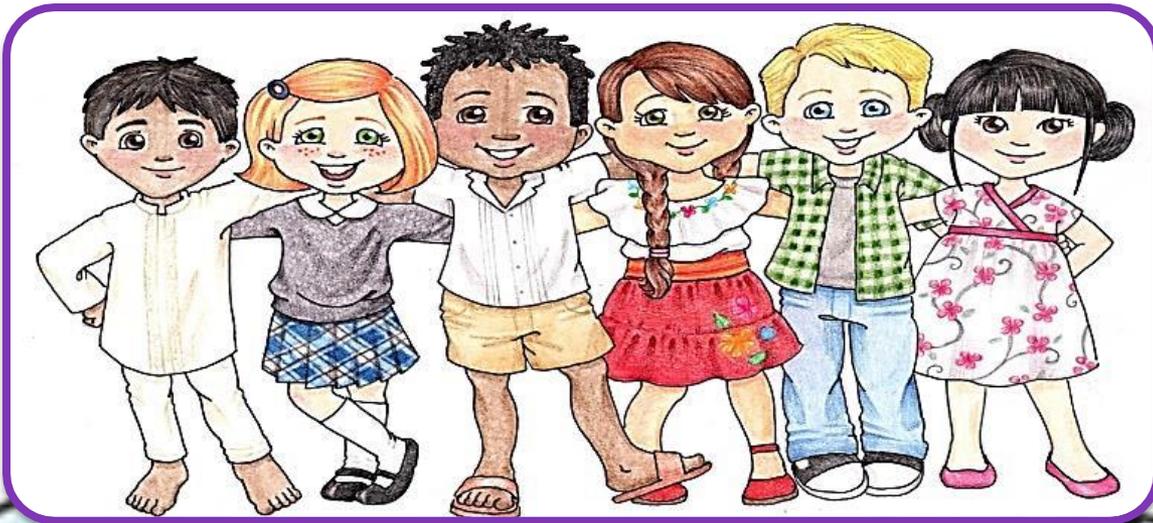

Boys & girls, why were the rulers of the temple ashamed of their flight before the command of Jesus three years prior? Also, why did they feel as though it was impossible for their undignified surrender to be repeated?

Answer

They had since wondered at their own fears, and their unquestioning obedience to a single humble Man. Yet they were now more terrified than before, and in greater haste to obey His command.

The Desire of Ages, p.592

On the way from the temple they were met by a throng who came with their sick inquiring for the Great Healer.

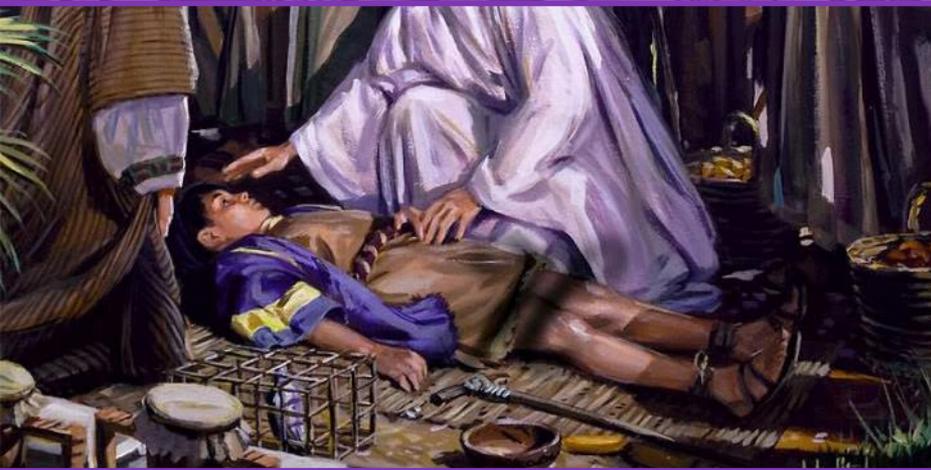

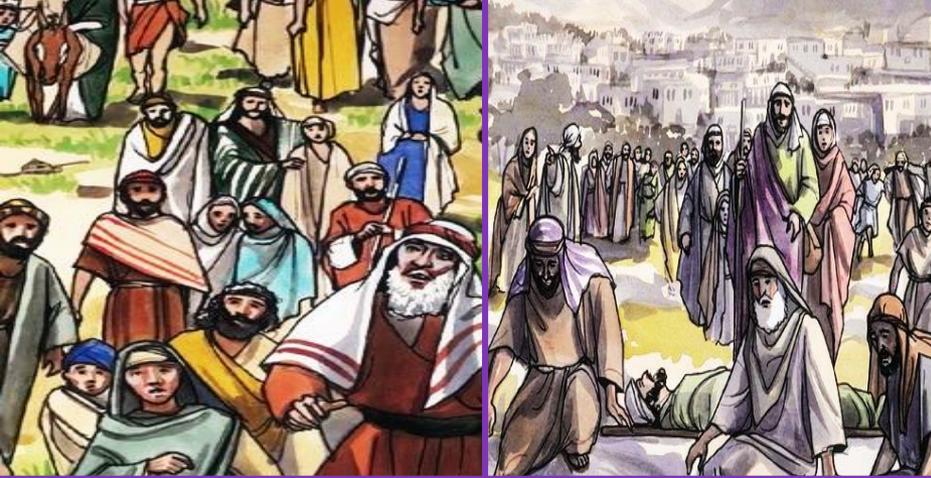

The report given by the fleeing people caused some of these to turn back.

They feared to meet

One so powerful, whose very look had driven the priests and rulers from His presence.

Continuing:
But a large number pressed through the hurrying crowd, eager to reach Him who was their only hope.
When the multitude fled from the temple,
many had remained behind.
These were now joined by the newcomers.
Again the temple court was filled by the sick and the dying, and once more Jesus ministered to them.

{DA 592.1}

Question:

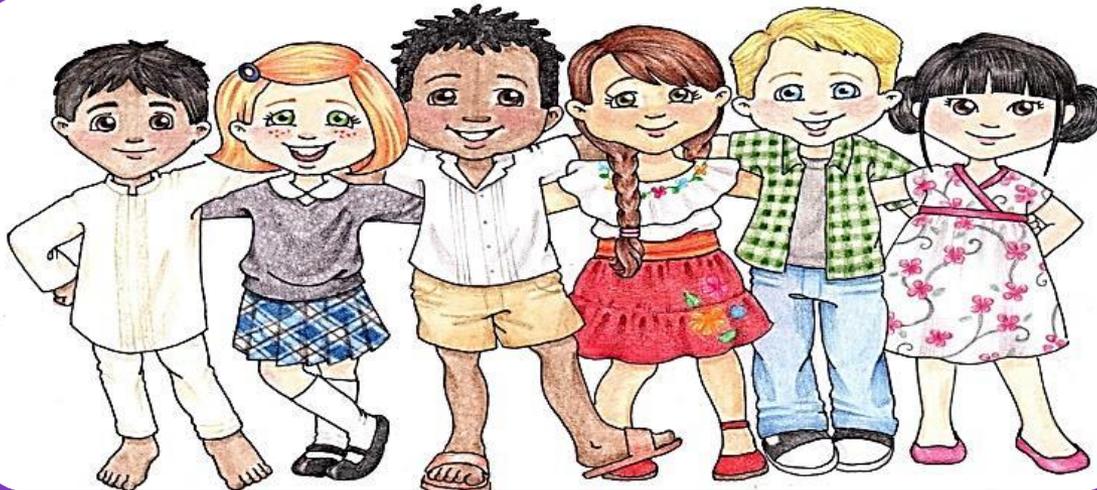

Boys & girls, what did the throng that met them on the way from the temple come with and what did they set out to do? Also, what did not stop them from filling the temple courts with the sick and the dying and what did Jesus do?

Answer

A throng who came with their sick inquiring for the Great Healer pressed through the hurrying crowd, eager to reach Him who was their only hope.

The report given by the fleeing people that feared to meet One so powerful, whose very look had driven the priests and rulers from His presence. Jesus ministered to them.

An Acapella- Bilingual Scripture Song

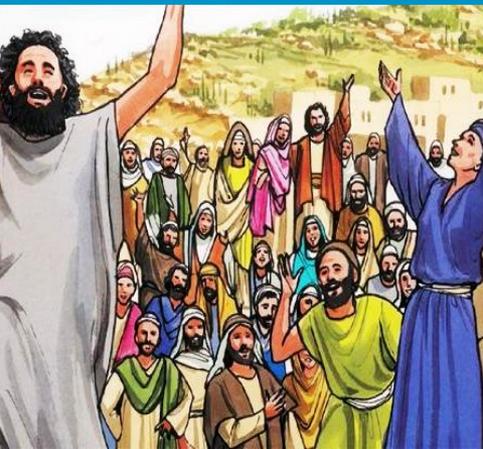

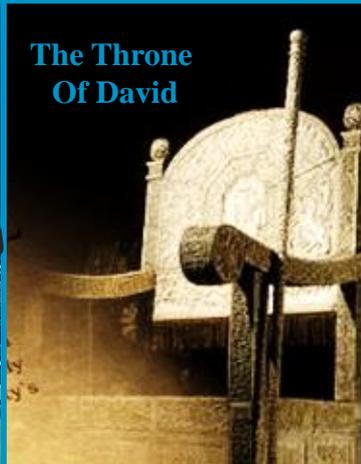

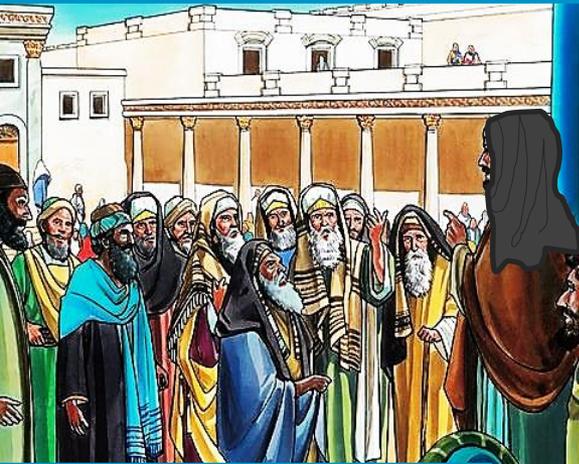

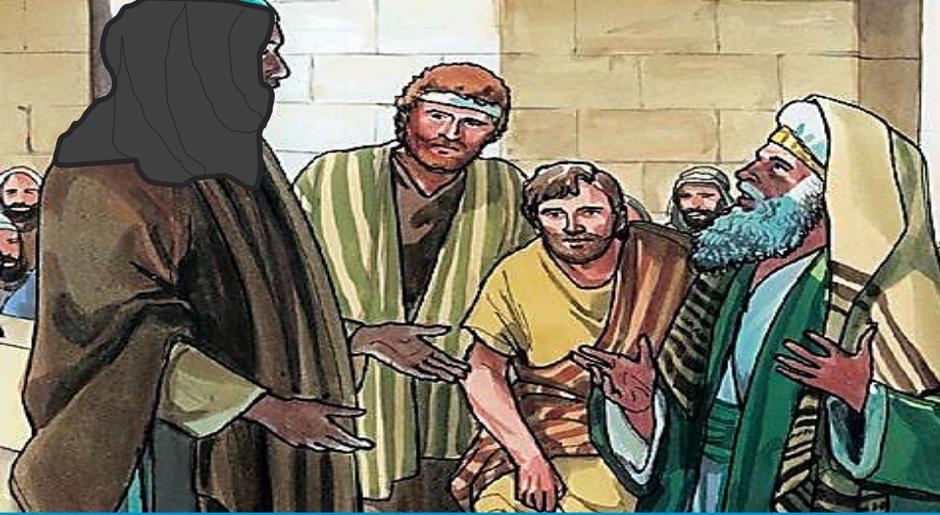

Jeremiah 17:14 (KJV)

Heal me, O LORD,
and I shall be healed;
save me, and I shall be saved:
for thou [art] my praise. (2xs)

Sáname, oh Jehová,
y seré sano; sálvame,
y seré salvo;
porque tú eres mi alabanza. (2xs)

The Desire of Ages, p.592

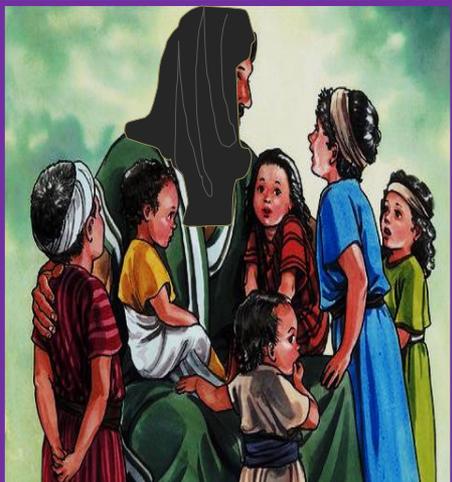

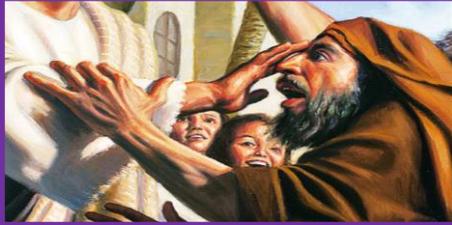

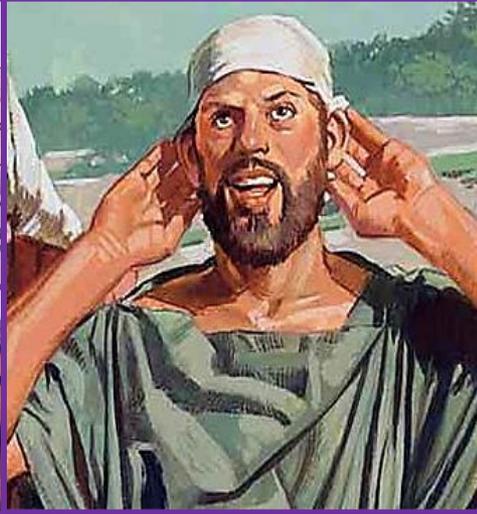

After a season the priests and rulers ventured back to the temple. When the panic had abated, they were seized with anxiety to know what would be the next movement of Jesus. They expected Him to take the throne of David. Quietly returning to the temple, they heard the voices of men, women, and children praising God. Upon entering, they stood transfixed before the wonderful scene. (Next Slide Please) and the crippled leap for joy.

The children were foremost in the rejoicing.
Jesus had healed their maladies;
He had clasped them in His arms, received their kisses of grateful affection,

He is just, and having salvation!”

The Desire of Ages, p.592

The sound of these happy, unrestrained voices was an offense to the rulers of the temple. They set about putting a stop to such demonstrations. They represented to the people that the house of God was desecrated by the feet of the children and the shouts of rejoicing. Finding that their words made no impression on the people, the rulers appealed to Christ: “Hearest Thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, (Next Slide Please) should be proclaimed as king, and that word must be fulfilled.

The priests and rulers of Israel of the temple would have sounded the Saviour's praise.

Chapter 7-The Courageous Among God's Jewels

And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

Malachi 3:17. {SD 217.1}

Great is the work of the Lord. Men are choosing sides. Even those supposed to be heathen will choose the side of Christ, while those who become offended, as did the disciples, will go away and walk no more with Him. . . . {SD 217.2}

What effect will the attempt of men to make void the law of God have upon the righteous? Will they be intimidated because of the universal scorn that is put upon the holy law of God?

Will the true believers in the,

Continuing: "Thus saith the Lord," become wavering and ashamed because the whole world seems to despise His righteous law? Will they be carried away by the prevalence of evil?--No; to those who have consecrated themselves to God to serve Him, the law of God becomes more precious when the contrast is shown between the obedient and the transgressor. In proportion as the attributes of Satan are developed in the despisers and transgressors of the law of God, to the faithful adherent the holy precept will become more dear and valuable. He will declare, "They have made void thy law. Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold." It is the ones who have been faithful stewards of the grace of God whose love of God's commandments grows with the contempt which all around them would put upon them.

{SD 217.3}

Continuing: Wicked men and the church harmonize in this hatred of the law of God, and then the crisis comes. . . . But while they are murmuring and complaining, and falsely accusing, and doing Satan's work most zealously, another class is brought to our notice:

"Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another:
and the Lord hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name." {SD 217.4}

And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.
