“The Temple Cleansed Again” Part 5

Sabbath May 2, 2020

*Our Opening Hymn is Entitle,
"Jesus Paid It All"
#184*

1. I hear the Savior say, "Thy strength indeed is small;
Child of weakness, watch and pray, Find in Me thine all in all.

2. Lord, now indeed I find Thy power and Thine alone,
Can change the leper's spots And melt the heart of stone.

3. Since nothing good have I Whereby Thy grace to claim,
I'll wash my garments white In the blood of Calv'ry's Lamb.

4. And when before the throne I stand in Him complete,
I'll lay my trophies down All down at Jesus' feet.

[Refrain]

Jesus paid it all,
All to Him I owe;
Sin had left a crimson stain,
He washed it white as snow..

Isaiah 5:4 (KJV)

What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 5 of our lesson entitled, “The Temple Cleansed Again” in our study book Desire of Ages!

Matthew 21:38 (KJV)

But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

Matthew 21:40 (KJV)

When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

Matthew 21:41 (KJV)

They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out [his] vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

Matthew 21:42 (KJV)

Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

Matthew 21:43 (KJV)

Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

Matthew 21:44 (KJV)

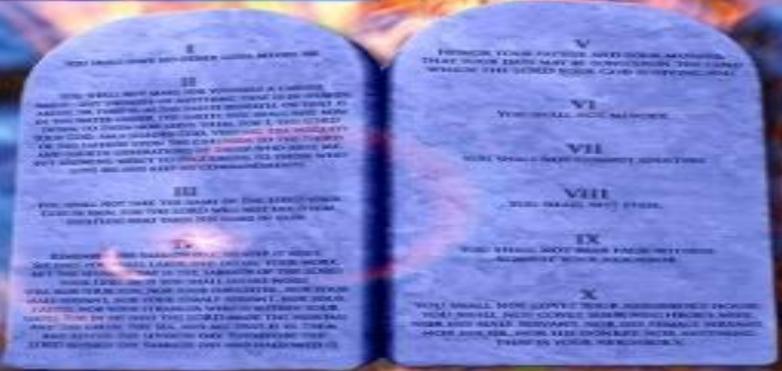

And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

Matthew 21:45 (KJV)

And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

Matthew 21:46 (KJV)

But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

{Continuing from our Part 4}
 and the hedge the divine law which was their protection.
 The tower was a symbol of the temple.
 The lord of the vineyard had done everything needful for its prosperity.
 “What could have been done
 more to my vineyard,”
 he says, “that I have not done in it.”

Isaiah 5:4.

Thus was represented God’s unwearied care for Israel.
 And as the husbandmen were to return to the lord a due proportion of the fruits of the vineyard, so God’s people were to honor Him
 by a life corresponding to their sacred privileges. {Please Next Slide}

The Desire of Ages, p.596

Continuing:

Messenger after messenger had been slain. Thus far the application of the parable could not be questioned, and in what followed it was not less evident. In the beloved son whom the lord of the vineyard finally sent to his disobedient servants, and whom they seized and slew, the priests and rulers saw a distinct picture of Jesus and His impending fate. Already they were planning to slay Him whom the Father had sent to them as a last appeal.

In the retribution inflicted upon the ungrateful husbandmen was portrayed the doom of those who should put Christ to death.

Answer

God's people were to honor Him by a life corresponding to their sacred privileges. And, the Jews had put to death the prophets whom God sent to call them to repentance. Also, messenger after messenger had been slain. They were planning to slay Him (Jesus) whom the Father had sent to them as a last appeal.

him shall ye hear

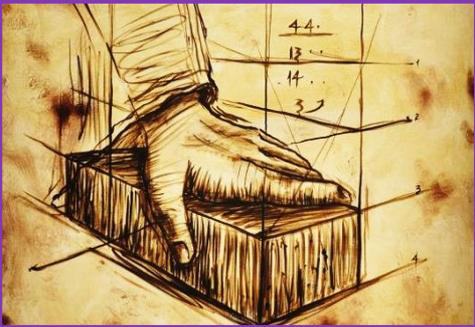

The Desire of Ages, p.597

Looking with pity upon them,
the Saviour continued, “Did ye never read in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord’s doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?”

Therefore say I unto you,
The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken:
but on whomsoever it shall fall,
it will grind him to powder.”

{DA 597.1}

Therefore say I to you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

—Matthew 21:43

The Desire of Ages, p.597

This prophecy the Jews had often repeated in the synagogues, applying it to the coming Messiah. Christ was the cornerstone of the Jewish economy, and of the whole plan of salvation. This foundation stone the Jewish builders, the priests and rulers of Israel, were now rejecting. The Saviour called their attention to the prophecies that would show them their danger. By every means in His power He sought to make plain to them the nature of the deed they were about to do.

{DA 597.2}

Question:

Boys & girls, what did Jesus reveal to the Jews by looking upon them with pity for their rejection of Him and why? Also, who was the cornerstone of the Jewish economy, and of the whole plan of salvation?

If you know the answers to these questions,
*Please unmute your mic dear one!

Answer

The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. And, Christ is the cornerstone, this was the prophecy the Jews had often repeated in the synagogues, applying it to the coming Messiah.

The Desire of Ages, p.597

And His words had another purpose. In asking the question, “When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?”

Christ designed that the Pharisees should answer as they did.

He designed that they should condemn themselves.

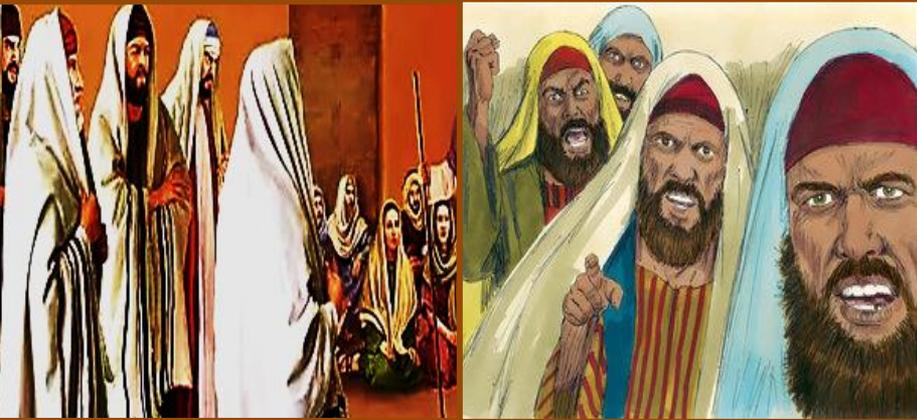

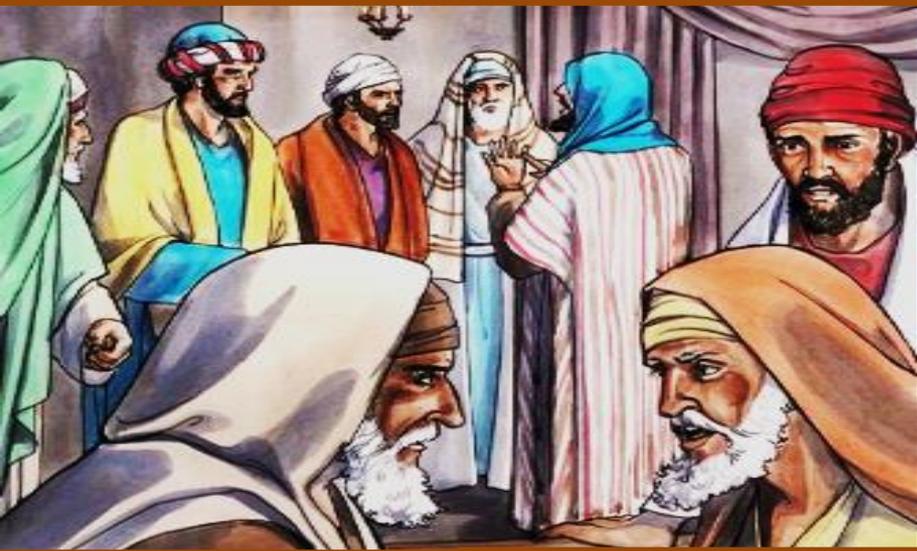

His warnings, failing to arouse them to repentance, would seal their doom, and He wished them to see that they had brought ruin on themselves.

He designed to show them the justice of God in the withdrawal of their national privileges, which had already begun, and which would end, not only in the destruction of their temple and their city, but in the dispersion of the nation.

{DA 597.3}

The Desire of Ages, p.597

The hearers recognized the warning. But notwithstanding the sentence they themselves had pronounced, the priests and rulers were ready to fill out the picture by saying, “This is the heir; come, let us kill him.” “But when they sought to lay hands on Him, they feared the multitude,” for the public sentiment was in Christ’s favor.

{DA 597.4}

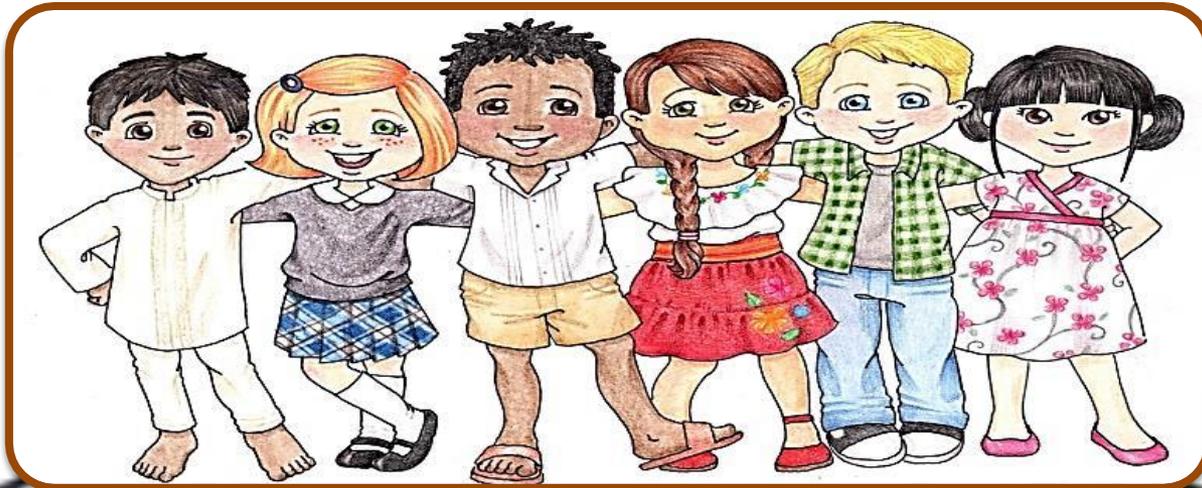

Question:

Boys & girls, what other purpose did Jesus' words have in asking the question, "When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?"

Answer

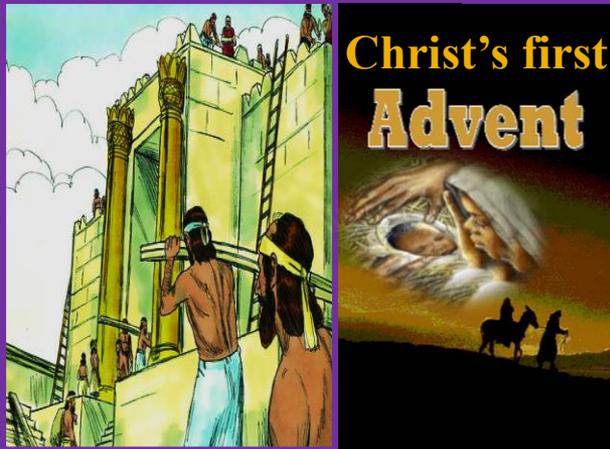

Christ designed that the Pharisees should answer as they did, they had condemned and brought ruin on themselves, to show them the justice of God in the withdrawal of their national privileges which would end, not only in the destruction of their temple and their city, but in the dispersion of the nation.

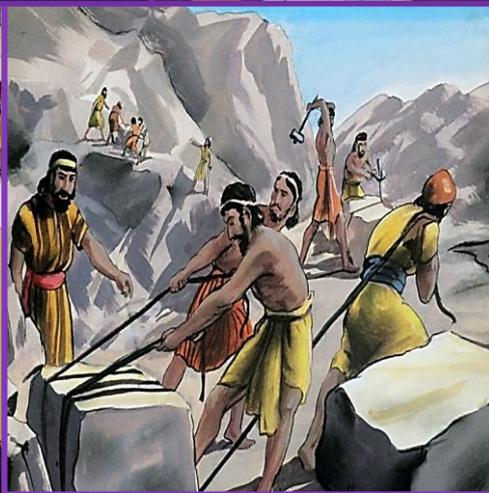

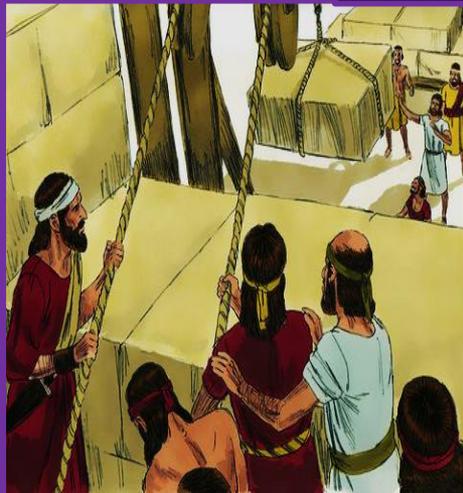

The Desire of Ages, p.597

In quoting the prophecy of the rejected stone, Christ referred to an actual occurrence in the history of Israel. The incident was connected with the building of the first temple.

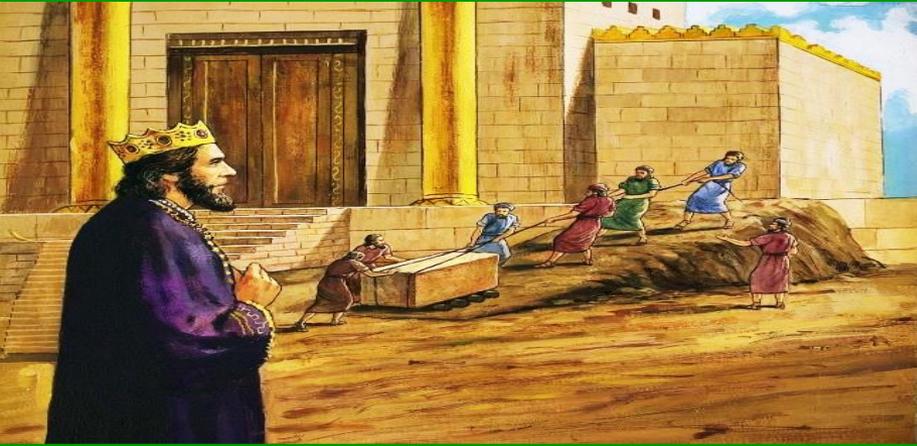

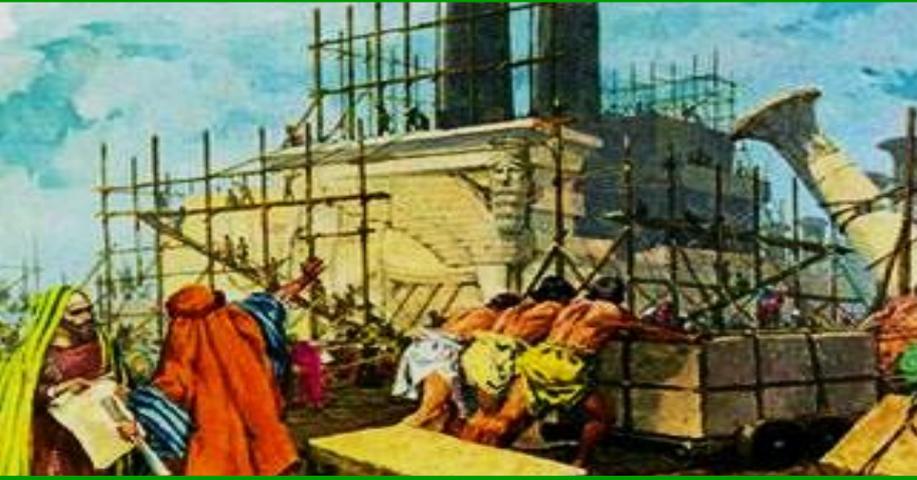

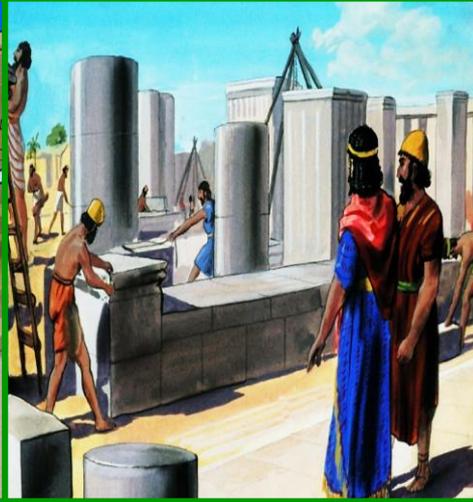

While it had a special application at the time of Christ's first advent, and should have appealed with special force to the Jews, it has also a lesson for us. When the temple of Solomon was erected, the immense stones for the walls and the foundation were entirely prepared at the quarry; {Next Slide Please}

Christ's first Advent

The Desire of Ages, p.597

Continuing: after they were brought to the place of building, not an instrument was to be used upon them; the workmen had only to place them in position.

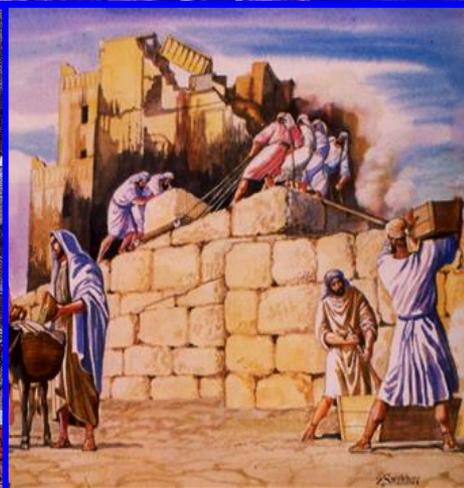

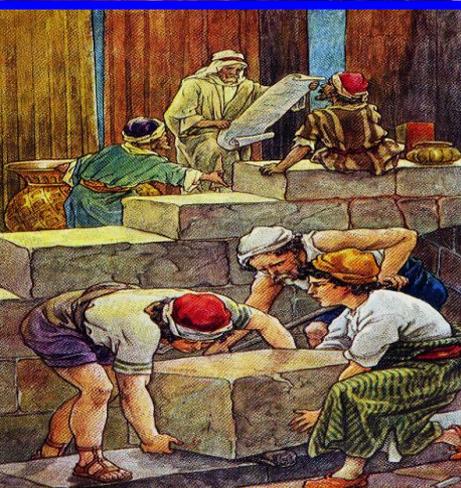

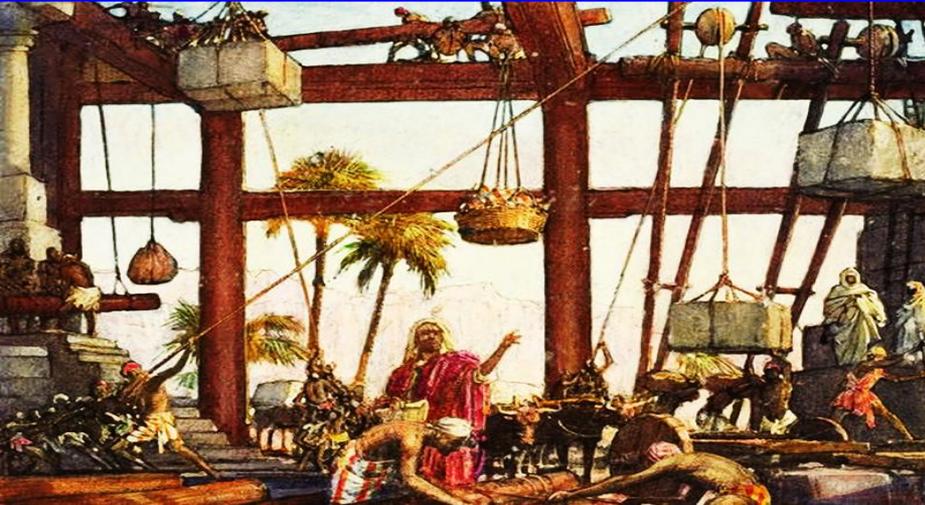

For use in the foundation, one stone of unusual size and peculiar shape had been brought; but the workmen could find no place for it, and would not accept it.

It was an annoyance to them as it lay unused in their way.

Long it remained a rejected stone. But when the builders came to the laying of the corner, they searched for a long time to find a stone of sufficient size and strength,

Continuing: and of the proper shape,
to take that particular place,
and bear the great weight
which would rest upon it.
Should they make an unwise
choice for this important place, the safety of the entire building would be endangered.
They must find a stone capable of resisting the influence of the sun,
of frost, and of tempest.
Several stones had at different times been chosen,
but under the pressure of immense weights they had crumbled to pieces.
Others could not bear the test of the sudden atmospheric changes.

The Desire of Ages, p.597

But at last attention was called to the stone so long rejected. It had been exposed to the air, to sun and storm, without revealing the slightest crack. The builders examined this stone. It had borne every test but one. If it could bear the test of severe pressure, they decided to accept it for the cornerstone.

The trial was made. The stone was accepted, brought to its assigned position, and found to be an exact fit.

In prophetic vision, Isaiah was shown that this stone was a symbol of Christ. He says:

Chapter 8-We Glory in the Cross of Christ

We See Christ on the Cross

And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

Mark 15:25. {SD 220.1}

The spotless Son of God hung upon the cross, His flesh lacerated with stripes; those hands so often reached out in blessing, nailed to the wooden bars; those feet so tireless on ministries of love, spiked to the tree; that royal head pierced by the crown of thorns; those quivering lips shaped to the cry of woe. And all that He endured--the blood drops that flowed from His head, His hands, His feet, the agony that racked His frame, and the unutterable anguish that filled His soul at the hiding of His Father's face--speaks to each child of humanity, (Next Slide)

Continuing: declaring, It is for thee that the Son of God consents to bear this burden of guilt; for thee He spoils the domain of death, and opens the gates of Paradise. He ... offers Himself upon the cross as a sacrifice, and this from love to thee. He, the Sin-Bearer, endures the wrath of divine justice, and for thy sake becomes sin itself. {SD 220.2}

In silence the beholders watched for the end of the fearful scene. The sun shone forth; but the cross was still enveloped in darkness. Priests and rulers looked toward Jerusalem; and lo, the dense cloud had settled over the city, and the plains of Judea. The Sun of Righteousness, the Light of the world, was withdrawing His beams from the once favored city of Jerusalem. The fierce lightnings of God's wrath were directed against the fated city. {SD 220.3}

Continuing: Suddenly the gloom lifted from the cross, and in clear, trumpetlike tones, that seemed to resound throughout creation, Jesus cried, “It is finished.”

“Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit.”

A light encircled the cross, and the face of the Saviour shone with a glory like the sun.

He then bowed His head upon His breast, and died. {SD 220.4}

And it was the third hour, and they crucified him. Mark 15:25 (KJV)
