“The Temple Cleansed Again” Part 7*

Sabbath June 6, 2020

*Our Opening Hymn is Entitle,
"Jesus Paid It All"
#184*

1. I hear the Savior say, "Thy strength indeed is small;
Child of weakness, watch and pray, Find in Me thine all in all.

2. Lord, now indeed I find Thy power and Thine alone,
Can change the leper's spots And melt the heart of stone.

3. Since nothing good have I Whereby Thy grace to claim,
I'll wash my garments white In the blood of Calv'ry's Lamb.

4. And when before the throne I stand in Him complete,
I'll lay my trophies down All down at Jesus' feet.

[Refrain]

Jesus paid it all,
All to Him I owe;
Sin had left a crimson stain,
He washed it white as snow..

James 1:17-20 (KJV)*

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. (2 xs)

Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:
For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

Christ is a rock of offense

“To them which stumble at the word, being disobedient,” Christ is a rock of offense.
But “the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner.”

Like the rejected stone, Christ in His earthly mission had borne neglect and abuse.
He was “despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: . . .

He was despised,
and we esteemed Him not.”

Isaiah 53:3.

Continuing:

But the time was near when
He would be glorified.
By the resurrection from the dead He would be declared
“the Son of God with power”

Romans 1:4.

At His second coming He would be revealed as Lord of heaven and earth.

Those who were now about to crucify Him would recognize His greatness.

Before the universe the rejected stone would become the head of the corner.

{DA 600.1}

The Desire of Ages, p.600

And on “whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.”

The people who rejected Christ were soon to see their city and their nation destroyed.

Their glory would be broken, and scattered as the dust before the wind. And what was it that destroyed the Jews?

It was the rock which,
had they built upon it,
would have been their security.

It was the goodness of God despised, the righteousness spurned, the mercy slighted.

The Desire of Ages, p.600

Men set themselves in opposition to God, and all that would have been their salvation was turned to their destruction.

All that God ordained unto life they found to be unto death.

In the Jews' crucifixion of Christ was involved the destruction of Jerusalem.

The blood shed upon Calvary was the weight that sank them to ruin for this world and for the world to come.

So it will be in the great final day,
when judgment shall fall
upon the rejecters of God's grace.

Christ, their rock of offense, will then appear to them
as an avenging mountain.
The glory of His countenance, which to the righteous is life,
will be to the wicked
a consuming fire.
Because of love rejected,
grace despised,
the sinner will be destroyed.

The Desire of Ages, p.600

By many illustrations and repeated warnings, Jesus showed what would be the result to the Jews of rejecting the Son of God.

In these words He was addressing all in every age who refuse to receive Him as their Redeemer. Every warning is for them.

The desecrated temple, the disobedient son, the false husbandmen, the contemptuous builders, have their counterpart in the experience of every sinner. Unless he repent, the doom which they foreshadowed will be his.

{DA 600.3}

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou [art] God. Psalms 90:1-2 (KJV)

1). BEGONE vain world, from me begone,
Let my religious hours alone;
I have no pleasure in your toys,
I never found your promised joys,
Your honors I'll no more pursue,
A better world I have in view;
Your riches are no more to me
Than bubbles rising on the sea.

2). Oh! had I wings how would I fly,
I'd soar above earth's vanity,
I'd leave this world with all its cares,
Which takes me often in its snares;
Sometimes by faith I soar aloft,
And view this world as nothing worth:
But oh! again ere I'm aware,
I am surrounded with its care.

3). Arise, my soul, be not cast down,
The name of Jesus, that sweet sound,
That precious name doth me revive,
I shall yet praise him, I believe.
Rejoice not over me, my foe,
For I shall rise again, I know;
Methinks I hear my Saviour say.
Strength shall be equal to your day..

4). It is enough: why should I fear,
Or doubt my dear Redeemer's care?
Though I am weak and much despised,
His ears are open to my cries:
He is my Rock, my fortress be,
My comfort in distress he'll be,
My refuge and my righteousness,
My safeguard through this wilderness.

Chapter 8-All Who Look to the Cross will Live

And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived. Numbers 21:9. {SD 222.1}

The Lord Jesus had protected the children of Israel from the venomous serpents in the wilderness, but this part of their history they did not know. Angels from heaven had accompanied them, and in the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night Christ had been their protection through all their journeying. But they became selfish and discontented, and in order that they might not forget His great care over them, the Lord gave them a bitter lesson.

He permitted them to be bitten by the fiery serpents, yet in His great mercy

He did not leave them to perish. Moses was bidden to lift the brazen serpent on the pole, and make the proclamation that whosoever should look upon it should live. And all who looked, did live. They recovered health at once. . . . What a strange symbol of Christ was that likeness of the serpents which stung them. This symbol was lifted on a pole, and they were to look to it, and be healed. So Jesus was made in the likeness of sinful flesh. He came as the sin-bearer. . . .

{SD 222.2} The same healing, life-giving message is now sounding. It points to the uplifted Saviour upon the shameful tree. Those who have been bitten by that old serpent, the devil, are bidden to look and live. . . . Look alone to Jesus as your righteousness and your sacrifice.

As you are justified by faith, the deadly sting of the serpent will be healed. {SD 222.3}

Without the cross, man could have no union with the Father. On it depends our every hope.

From it shines the light of the Saviour's love; and when at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned. Kneeling in faith at the cross, he has reached the highest place to which man can attain.

{SD 222.4}

And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man,
when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

Numbers 21:9 (KJV)

“Me dice el Salvador”
#123

1. Me dice El Salvador, Es poco tu poder
Hijo débil, halla en mí ,Todo cuanto has menester

2. Señor, hallado he, Que solo tu poder
A mi duro corazón, Es capaz de enternecer

3. Nada bueno hay en mí: Tu gracia buscaré, En la sangre de Jesús, Mis pecados lavaré.

4. Cuando ante el trono esté, Completo ante Él
A los pies de mi Jesús, Mi trofeos echaré.

[Coro]
Todo debo a Él
Pues ya lo pagó;
De las manchas del pecar
Cuál nieve me lavó.
