Chapter 8-Christ Has Delivered Us from Eternal Death

Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver:
in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us. 2 Corinthians 1:10. {SD 230.1}

Our Saviour came to this world to endure in human nature all the temptations wherewith man is beset.

In His life He measured the power of the wily foe to deceive, to allure, and to destroy. As the Redeemer of the race, He warns humanity against seeking after those things that will lead away from the narrow path. He has cast up a glorious highway for those who are traveling toward the heavenly mansions that He has gone to prepare for all who will prepare themselves to become members of the royal family. . . . {SD 230.2}

With His life Christ has purchased every human being. He died a cruel death to save human beings from eternal death. He gave His sinless life to obtain for the sinner a life that measures with the life of God. Through His death, He provided a way whereby man may break with Satan, return to his allegiance to God, and through faith in the Redeemer obtain pardon. . . . {SD 230.3}

He who has all power in heaven and earth will restore every repenting, believing soul. To as many as receive Him He gives power to become the sons of God. He has a deep interest in every soul, for He paid the price of His own life that no one should be eternally lost. {SD 230.4}

Christ's servants can and should be able to meet and overcome every temptation.

They should say, "I am not my own; I have been bought with a price.

By the infinite sacrifice Christ has made for me, He has put it out of my power to give Him more than He demands. All is His. He has purchased me, body, soul, and spirit.

He calls for all my time, all my capabilities." {SD 230.5}

Those who receive Him and believe in Him become the spiritual children of God. They are adopted into the royal family, and as they seek to do the will of God, they become conformed into His image. {SD 230.6}

Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver:
in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us.
2 Corinthians 1:10 (KJV)

All so freely given, wooing us to heaven.

*Before we hear your questions dear ones!

what you have read last Sabbath from

in our study book Desire of Ages!*

The Lord Jesus Rebukes
the Scribes and Pharisees

“Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites,” said Jesus; “for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.” By perverting the Scriptures, the priests and lawyers blinded the minds of those who would otherwise have received a knowledge of Christ’s kingdom, and that inward, divine life which is essential to true holiness. {DA 614.1}

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees,
hypocrites!

The Desire of Ages, p.61

“Woe unto you, scribes
and Pharisees,
hypocrites!
for ye devour widows’
houses, and for a pretense
make long prayer:
therefore ye shall receive the
greater damnation.”

The Pharisees had great influence with the people,
and of this they took advantage
to serve their own interests.
They gained the confidence
of pious widows,

Continuing: and then represented it as a duty for them to devote their property to religious purposes.

Having secured control of their money, the wily schemers used it for their own benefit.

To cover their dishonesty, they offered long prayers in public, and made a great show of piety.

This hypocrisy Christ declared would bring them the greater damnation.

The Desire of Ages, p.614

Continuing:
The same rebuke falls upon many in our day who make a high profession of piety. Their lives are stained by selfishness and avarice, yet they throw over it all a garment of seeming purity, and thus for a time deceive their fellow men. But they cannot deceive God. He reads every purpose of the heart, and will judge every man according to his deeds.
{DA 614.2}

The Desire of Ages, p.614

Christ unsparingly condemned abuses, but He was careful not to lessen obligation. He rebuked the selfishness that extorted and misapplied the widow's gifts. At the same time He commended the widow who brought her offering for God's treasury. Man's abuse of the gift could not turn God's blessing from the giver.
{DA 614.3}

The Desire of Ages, p.614

Jesus was in the court where were the treasure chests, and He watched those who came to deposit their gifts. Many of the rich brought large sums, which they presented with great ostentation. Jesus looked upon them sadly, but made no comment on their liberal offerings. Presently His countenance lighted as He saw a poor widow approach hesitatingly, as though fearful of being observed. As the rich and haughty swept by, to deposit their offerings, {Next Slide Please}

Continuing: she shrank back as if hardly daring to venture farther. And yet she longed to do something, little though it might be, for the cause she loved. She looked at the gift in her hand. It was very small in comparison with the gifts of those around her, yet it was her all. Watching her opportunity, she hurriedly threw in her two mites, and turned to hasten away. But in doing this she caught the eye of Jesus, which was fastened earnestly upon her. {DA 614.4}

The Saviour called His disciples to Him, and bade them mark the widow's poverty. Then His words of commendation fell upon her ear:

“Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all.”

Tears of joy filled her eyes as she felt that her act was understood and appreciated.

Continuing:

Many would have advised her to keep her pittance for her own use; given into the hands of the well-fed priests, it would be lost sight of among the many costly gifts brought to the treasury.

But Jesus understood her motive.

She believed the service of the temple to be of God's appointment, and she was anxious to do her utmost to sustain it.

A monument to
her memory through
all time!”

Continuing:
She did what she could,
and her act was to be
a monument to
her memory through
all time,
and her joy in eternity.
Her heart went with her gift;
its value was estimated,
not by the worth of the coin,
but by the love to God
and the interest in His work that had prompted the deed.

of the hope that is in you

Homeschooling from the Bible

1)

What blest examples do I find Writ in the Word of Truth.
Of children that began to mind
Religion in their youth!

4)

Children a sweet hosanna sung,
And blest their Saviour’s name;
They gave Him honour with their tongue,
While scribes and priest blaspheme.

Jesus who reigns above the sky.
And keeps the world in awe,
Was once a child as young as I,
And kept His Father’s law.

5)

Samuel the child was weaned and brought
To wait upon the Lord:
Young Timothy betimes was taught
To know His holy Word.

3)

At twelve years old he talked with me.
(The Jews all wondering stand;)
Yet He obeyed His Mother then,
And came at her command.

Then why should I so long delay
What others learnt so soon?
I would not pass another day
Without this work begun.

tus pecados perdonará, bellas palabras de vida.
