Our Tiny-Tots Song

Jesus Loves Even Me!

I am so glad that our Father in heav'n
Tells of His love in the Book He has giv'n;
Wonderful things in the Bible I see -
This is the dearest, that Jesus loves me.

Refrain:

I am so glad that Jesus loves me,
Jesus loves me, Jesus loves me;
I am so glad that Jesus loves me,
Jesus loves even me.

“Golden Treasures of Bible Stories”

IN THE BEGINNING of this world there wasn't any boy and there wasn't any girl.

And there wasn't any father or any mother. There just wasn't anybody at all upon the earth. Not in the beginning. And there weren't any animals. There wasn't any kitten to frisk about, or any doggie to run and bark, or any pony, or any cows, or any lambs. And there wasn't a single bird, not a canary, or a mockingbird, or a bluebird, or a crow.

And there weren't any chickens. Not back there in the beginning. More than that, there wasn't any sun, or any moon, or any star. You couldn't see a thing. And there wasn't anything to see.

No grass, no flowers, and no trees. There weren't even any stones, or any ground, or rivers, or lakes.

There just wasn't anything at all, in the beginning.

But up in heaven, and everywhere, there was God. God is the maker of all things, and nobody made God. For God has always been living and always will be living. Of course, we can't understand that, but it is true.

From eternity to eternity, there is God. God made the angels in heaven.

Heaven is a wonderful place. It is God's home, more beautiful than you can think.

And there the angels were. But the angels went everywhere, wherever God sent them on errands.

And God went everywhere. He is everywhere at once. So, God came down with His angels to where this world was to be, and that was the beginning.

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

All was dark, and there was nothing that had any shape.

Then God sang because He was happy for what He was going to do.

And the angels sang with Him. And God spoke. He said, “Let there be light.”

And suddenly there was light, so that you could see whatever there was to see.

But there was nothing to see, only a great lot of water, all mixed up. Then God set that water to whirling, so that it made a great ball, which is this earth. While it was turned toward the light, everything was light.

And God called that the Day. But when it was turned away the light, everything was dark.

God called that the Night. It took quite a while to go around once. It took twenty-four hours of light and darkness. That made the first day of the beginning of creation.

Isaiah 40:26 (KJV)

Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these [things], that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that [he is] strong in power; not one faileth.

Let me more of their beauty see, wonderful words of life;
Words of life and beauty teach me faith and duty.

Sinner, list to the loving call, wonderful words of life;
All so freely given, wooing us to heaven.

3. Sweetly echo the Gospel call, wonderful words of life;
Offer pardon and peace to all, wonderful words of life;
Jesus, only Savior, sanctify forever.

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

*Before we hear your questions dear ones!
Let's take a few minutes to review
what you have read last Sabbath from Part 1 of our Lesson entitled,
“Woes on the Pharisees” Part 6
in our study book *Desire of Ages!

Raise your hands dear ones!

The Desire of Ages, p.618

In the days of Christ a superstitious regard was cherished for the resting places of the dead, and vast sums of money were lavished upon their decoration.

In the sight of God this was idolatry.

In their undue regard for the dead, men showed that they did not love God supremely, nor their neighbor as themselves.

{Next Slide Please}

The Desire of Ages, p.618

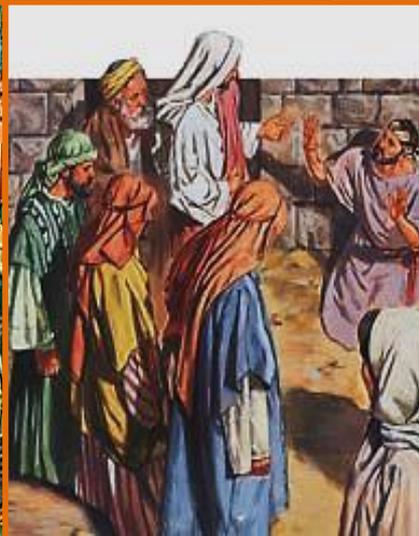

Continuing:

The same idolatry is carried to great lengths today.

Many are guilty of neglecting the widow and the fatherless, the sick and the poor, in order to build expensive monuments for the dead.

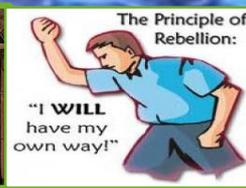

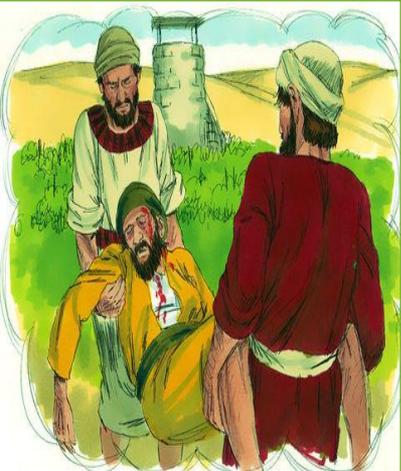

Time, money, and labor are freely spent for this purpose, while duties to the living—duties which Christ has plainly enjoined--are left undone.

{DA 618.1}

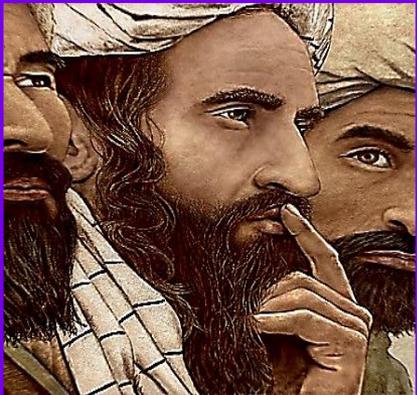

The Desire of Ages, p.618

The Pharisees built the tombs of the prophets, and adorned their sepulchers, and said one to another, If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have united with them in shedding the blood of God's servants. At the same time they were planning to take the life of His Son. This should be a lesson to us. It should open our eyes to the power of Satan to deceive the mind that turns from the light of truth. (Next Slide Please)

Continuing:
Many follow in the track
of the Pharisees.
They revere those who have died for their faith.
They wonder at the blindness
of the Jews in rejecting Christ.
Had we lived in His day,
they declare,
we would gladly have
received His teaching;
we would never have been partakers in the guilt of those who rejected the Saviour.
{Next Slide Please}

Continuing:
But when obedience
to God requires
self-denial and humiliation,
these very persons
stifle their convictions,
and refuse obedience.
Thus they manifest
the same spirit as did the Pharisees whom Christ condemned.
{DA 618.2}

Little did the Jews realize the terrible responsibility involved in rejecting Christ. From the time when the first innocent blood was shed, when righteous Abel fell by the hand of Cain, the same history had been repeated, with increasing guilt. In every age prophets had lifted up their voices against the sins of kings, rulers, and people, speaking the words which God gave them, and obeying His will at the peril of their lives.

{Next Slide Please}

The Desire of Ages, p.619

Continuing:

They were about to fill to overflowing their cup of iniquity. And soon it was to be poured upon their heads in retributive justice.

Of this, Jesus warned them:

{DA 618.3}

“That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.”

{DA 619.1}

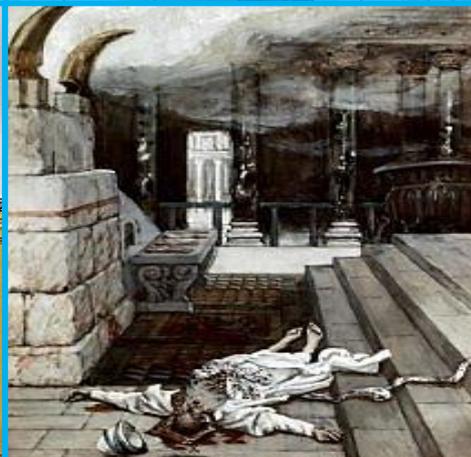

The Desire of Ages, p.619

The scribes and Pharisees who listened to Jesus knew that His words were true.

They knew how the prophet Zacharias had been slain.

While the words of warning from God were upon his lips, a satanic fury seized the apostate king, and at his command the prophet was put to death.

Satan and the demons

The Desire of Ages, p.619

Continuing:
His blood had imprinted itself upon the very
stones of the temple court,
and could not be erased;
it remained to bear testimony
against apostate Israel.
As long as the temple should stand, there would be the stain
of that righteous blood,
crying to God to be avenged.
As Jesus referred to these fearful sins,
a thrill of horror
ran through the multitude.
{DA 619.2}

Homeschooling from the Bible

The disciples helped Jesus spread the good news

Of the gospel and children can, too.

1) Children by our Lord were honored.
When on this poor earth He stayed;
Fondly He embraced and blessed them,
Though a frowning throng forbade.

2) To His side a child He summoned,
Placed him in the midst, and told
Those that simple guide to follow,
Who God’s kingdom would behold.

3) Still His Gospel honors children,
Bids them to Christ’s service move,
And their little rills of beauty
Swell the ocean of His love:

4) Bids them strive with zealous pity
For the desolate and sad,
Til’ the dark and desert places
Are for them exceeding glad.

5) Children, to our dear Redeemer
Yield the grateful homage due,
And by love to every creature,
Pay the love He bears for you.

1. Oh, cantádmelas otra vez, bellas palabras de vida;
hallo en ellas mi gozo y luz, bellas palabras de vida.
Sí, de luz y vida; son sostén y guía.

2. Jesucristo a todos da bellas palabras de vida;
hoy escúchalas pecador, bellas palabras de vida.
Bondadoso te salva, y al cielo te llama.

3. Grato el cántico sonará: bellas palabras de vida;
tus pecados perdonará, bellas palabras de vida.
Sí, de luz y vida; son sostén y guía.

[Coro]

¡Qué bellas son! ¡Qué bellas son!
Bellas palabras de vida.
¡Qué bellas son! ¡Qué bellas son!
