Our Opening Scripture Song is entitle, “For the Love of Christ”

2 Corinthians 5:14-15 (KJV)

Taken from Scripture Song Singer- God’s Love

For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

And [that] he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him (2 xs) which died for them, (2 xs) and rose again.

14 and 15 of 2 Corinthians 5

For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

And [that] he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him (2 xs) which died for them, (2 xs) and rose again. (2 xs)

14 and 15 of 2 Corinthians 5

but unto him (2 xs) which died for them, (2 xs)
and rose again.

Lesson #318 “In the Outer Court”

Matthew 8:11 (KJV)

And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

This Sabbath boys and girls, we will begin a new chapter of our lesson entitled,
“In the Outer Court” in our lesson book, Desire of Ages!

John 12:19 (KJV)

The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

John 12:20 (KJV)

And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:

John 12:21 (KJV)

The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

John 12:22 (KJV)

Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

John 12:23 (KJV)

And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

John 1:29 (KJV)

The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. .

Matthew 27:22

Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? [They] all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

John 12:24 (KJV)

Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #68, pages 621-622

“And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast: the same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.”
{DA 621.1}

At this time Christ's work bore the appearance of cruel defeat. He had been victor in the controversy with the priests and Pharisees, but it was evident that He would never be received by them as the Messiah. The final separation had come. To His disciples the case seemed hopeless. But Christ was approaching the consummation of His work. The great event which concerned not only the Jewish nation, but the whole world, was about to take place. When Christ heard the eager request, “”echoing the hungry cry of the world, His countenance lighted up, and He said, “The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.” In the request of the Greeks He saw an earnest of the results of His great sacrifice. {DA 621.2}

Isaiah 61:1-3 (KJV) Margin....

The spirit of the Lord GOD [is] upon me;
because the LORD hath anointed me
to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to [them that are] bound;
To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD,
and the day of vengeance of our God; (2 xs)
to comfort all that mourn;
To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, (2 xs)
the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;
that they might be called trees of righteousness,
the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified. (2 xs)
The spirit of the Lord GOD [is] upon me;
because the LORD hath anointed me
to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted,
to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to [them that are] bound;
To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD,
and the day of vengeance of our God; (2 xs)
Isaiah 61 verses 1 through 3
to proclaim liberty to the captives,

These men came from the West to find the Saviour at the close of His life, as the wise men had come from the East at the beginning. At the time of Christ's birth the Jewish people were so engrossed with their own ambitious plans that they knew not of His advent. The magi from a heathen land came to the manger with their gifts, to worship the Saviour. So these Greeks, representing the nations, tribes, and peoples of the world, came to see Jesus. So the people of all lands and all ages would be drawn by the Saviour's cross. So shall many “come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.”
Matthew 8:11. {DA 621.3}

Song *Let's learn our next beautiful scripture song together from our lesson book Isaiah!
Scripture Songs from: The Desire of Ages Memory Verse CD vol. 1

Isaiah 60:1-3 (KJV)

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee. (3 xs)

For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people:

but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. (3 xs)

And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. (2 xs)

Isaiah 60 verses 1, 2 and 3

The Greeks had heard of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Some supposed, and had circulated the report, that He had driven the priests and rulers from the temple, and that He was to take possession of David's throne, and reign as king of Israel. The Greeks longed to know the truth in regard to His mission. "We would see Jesus," they said. Their desire was granted. When the request was brought to Jesus, He was in that part of the temple from which all except Jews were excluded, but He went out to the Greeks in the outer court, and had a personal interview with them. {DA 622.1}

The hour of Christ's glorification had come. He was standing in the shadow of the cross, and the inquiry of the Greeks showed Him that the sacrifice He was about to make would bring many sons and daughters to God. He knew that the Greeks would soon see Him in a position they did not then dream of. They would see Him placed beside Barabbas, a robber and murderer, who would be chosen for release before the Son of God. They would hear the people, inspired by the priests and rulers, making their choice. And to the question, "What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?" the answer would be given, "Let Him be crucified." Matthew 27:22. By making this propitiation for the sins of men, Christ knew that His kingdom would be perfected, and would extend throughout the world. He would work as the Restorer, and His Spirit would prevail. For a moment He looked into futurity, and heard the voices proclaiming in all parts of the earth, "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." John 1:29. In these strangers He saw the pledge of a great harvest, when the partition wall between Jew and Gentile should be broken down, and all nations, tongues, and peoples should hear the message of salvation. The anticipation of this, the consummation of His hopes, is expressed in the words, "The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified." But the way in which this glorification must take place was never absent from Christ's mind. The gathering in of the Gentiles was to follow His approaching death. Only by His death could the world be saved. Like a grain of wheat, the Son of man must be cast into the ground and die, and be buried out of sight; but He was to live again. {DA 622.2}

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he [was] wounded for our transgressions, [he was] bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace [was] upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

CHAPTER 1

IN THE BEGINNING - PART 3

Continuing: But as yet there was no creature on all the earth, not a bird, or a fish, or a four-footed animal. If you had been there, you wouldn't have heard a sound except the soft swish of the water, and you wouldn't have seen anything move except the grass and the leaves on the trees as the wind ran through. Still! So still in the great garden God had made of this earth.

Then God said: "Let there be fishes in the sea. Let there be creatures in both sea and land. Let there be birds in the air." And it was so. All the waters swarmed with fishes that could swim. And out of the water came the frogs and the toads and the newts and the salamanders. And on the land and on the water and in the air came the birds with wings, some that flew low, and some that flew middling high, and some that soared away in the blue, blue sky. The fishes swam, and the toads hopped, and the frogs leaped, and the birds flew; so, there was motion everywhere. And the little peeping frogs twittered, and the big bullfrogs croaked, and the chickens cackled, and the bluebirds and larks and orioles sang, and the eagles whistled away up in the sky. So, there were motion and music everywhere. And that was the fifth day.

Then came the sixth day. And God said: "Let there be living creatures on the earth, four-footed creatures, such as cattle and horses and sheep and goats. Let there be creeping things, like caterpillars and worms and all sorts of creatures, little and great." And it was so. There were the little cats and the big cats, and the mice and the elephants, and the rabbits and the horses, and ever and ever and ever so many animals, all in the great park that God had made the earth to be.

And now it was the middle of the sixth day, but creation was not yet finished. For there was no one to rule over all the earth, over the fishes and the frogs and the birds and the animals. There wasn't any man or any woman or any boy or any girl, not anyone.

There was a hush, while everything waited for what God would do next. And that is the next story.
