Our Tiny-Tots Song

Little Feet Be Careful!

1. I washed my hands this morning,
So very clean and white,
And lent them both to Jesus,
To work for Him till night.
2. I told my ears to listen
Quite closely all day through,
For any act of kindness
Such little hands can do.
3. My eyes are set to watch them
About their work or play,
To keep them out of mischief
For Jesus' sake all day.

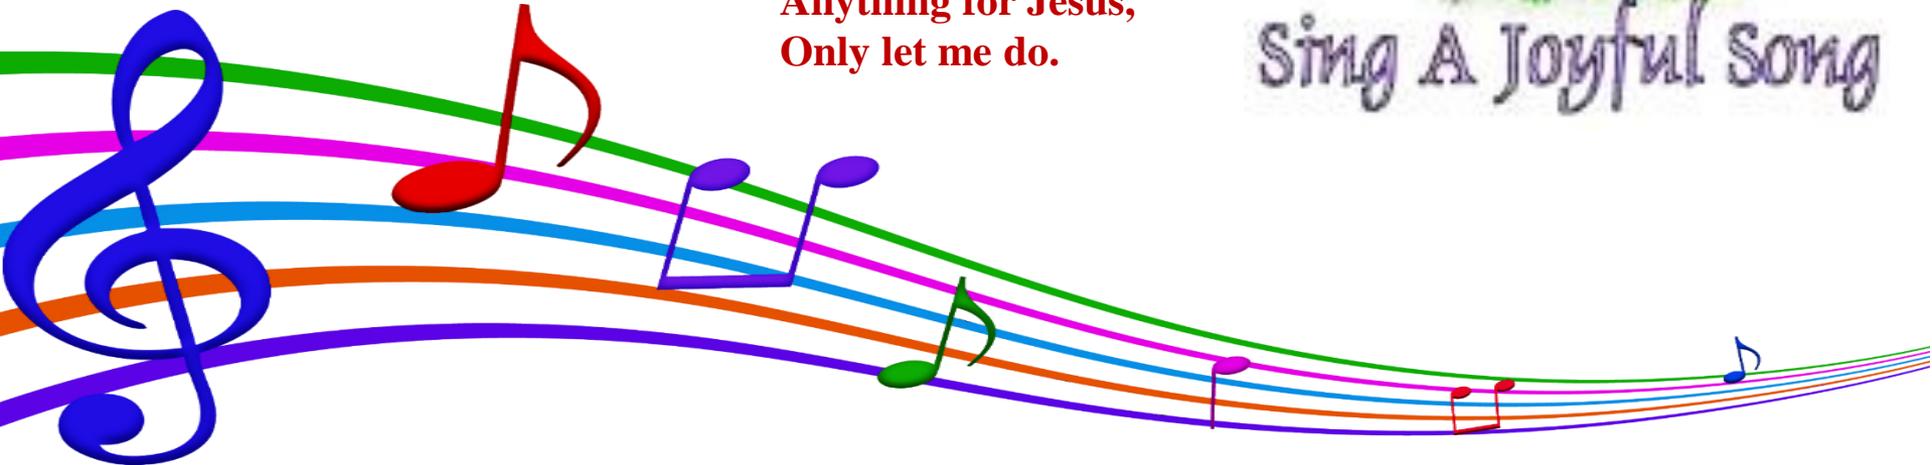

Refrain:

Little feet, be careful,
Where you take me to,
Anything for Jesus,
Only let me do.

Praise The Lord

Golden Treasures

Bible Stories

Malachi 4:2 (KJV)

But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

In many passages God is related to a planet or star

See: (Psalms 84:11, Isaiah 60:19, Revelation 22:16, Numbers 24:17).

Here, the Messiah is not only a Sun, but also the Sun of Righteousness which brings salvation.

God Is the Source of Man's Life

I am the root and the offspring of David, [and] the bright and morning star. Revelation 22:20 (KJV) Margin

Jesus is both the morning star and the sun of righteousness.

Christ returns in glory and He will bring his light to this world. In that day those who have waited for him will rejoice with joy.

“He who testifies to these things says: I certainly come shortly! Amen; yes, come, Lord Jesus

Revelation 21:23 (KJV)

And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it:
for the glory of God did lighten it,
and the Lamb [is] the light thereof.

CHAPTER 2 - GOD’S CHILDREN

ALL was still. It was the middle of the sixth day.

And God had made everything beautiful in its place. There was the green earth, with its grass and its flowers and its trees. And there was the blue sea, with its little waves lapping on the shore.

There were the rivers and the brooks and the springs, sparkling in the sunlight.

And in the sea and the rivers and the lakes were the finny fishes. Overhead and in the trees and on the ground and even on the water were the feathered birds. And on the earth were the sheep and the cows and the horses and all the four-footed animals. Up until now, on this sixth day, there were motion and music: the fishes swimming, and the birds flying, and all the animals going about and talking in their own ways. But now it was noon, and everything hushed and waited for what God was going to do.

For as yet there was no one to be the head of everything in the world. And all the fishes and birds and animals knew that God was going to give them someone to love them and guide them and rule over them.

Then in the silence God spoke: “Let us make man and woman in our image, to be like us. And let them rule over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth.” And He did.

But, you know, this first man and woman in the world were never babies at all.

Everybody since then has started out as a baby. You did, and I did, and daddy and mother did, and uncle and auntie, and grandmother and granddaddy, and kings and queens and news-boys.

Every one of us and every one of them was a baby once. And then we grew, or are growing, into men and women.

But it wasn’t that way with this first man and woman, Adam and Eve. They were children of God, made in His image. I suppose God said, “Let us start them out full grown, for there will not be any father and mother to take care of them as babies.”

Our Opening Scripture Song Entitled,

“For The LOVE of Christ”

2 Corinthians 5:14-15

God’s LOVE

(KJV)

*For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge,
that if one died for all, then were all dead:
And [that] he died for all, that they which live
should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him (2 xs) which died for them, (2 xs)
and rose again.*

14 and 15 of 2 Corinthians 5

*For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge,
that if one died for all, then were all dead:
And [that] he died for all, that they which live
should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him (2 xs) which died for them, (2 xs) and rose again.*

14 and 15 of 2 Corinthians 5

*but unto him (2 xs) which died for them, (2 xs)
and rose again.*

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

*Before we hear your questions dear ones!

Inner Courts

Outer Court (Court of the Gentiles)

Christ presented His future, illustrating it by the things of nature,
that the disciples
might understand.

The true result of His mission was to be reached by His death.

“Verily, verily,
I say unto you,”

He said,

“Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die,
it abideth alone:

but if it die,

(Next Slide Please)

Continuing: it bringeth forth much fruit.”
When the grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it springs up, and bears fruit.
So the death of Christ would result in fruit for the kingdom of God.
In accordance with the law of the vegetable kingdom, life was to be the result of His death.
{DA 623.1}

The Desire of Ages, p.623

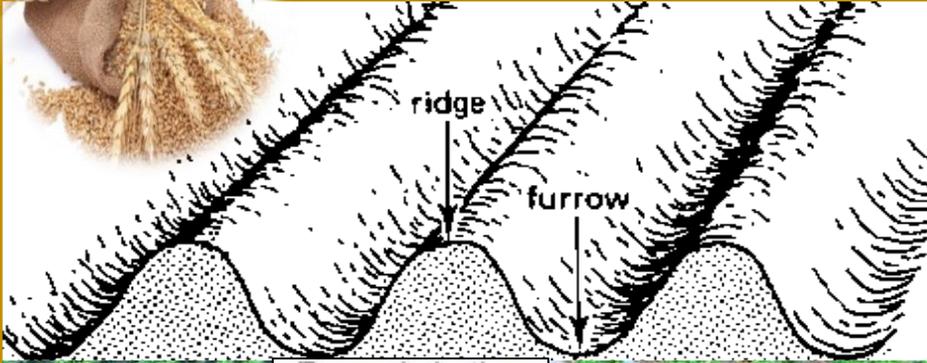

Those who till the soil have the illustration ever before them. Year by year man preserves his supply of grain by apparently throwing away the choicest part.

For a time it must be hidden under the furrow, to be watched over by the Lord.

Then appears the blade, then the ear, and then the corn in the ear.

But this development cannot take place unless the grain is buried out of sight, hidden, and to all appearance, lost.

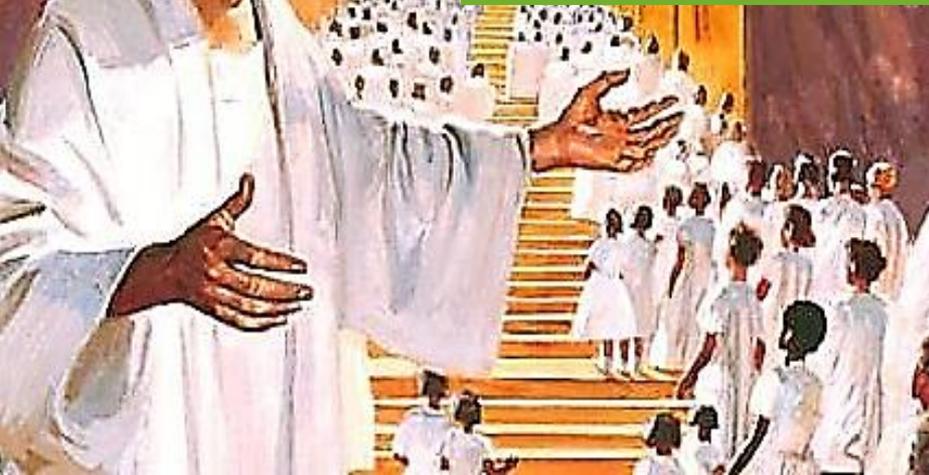

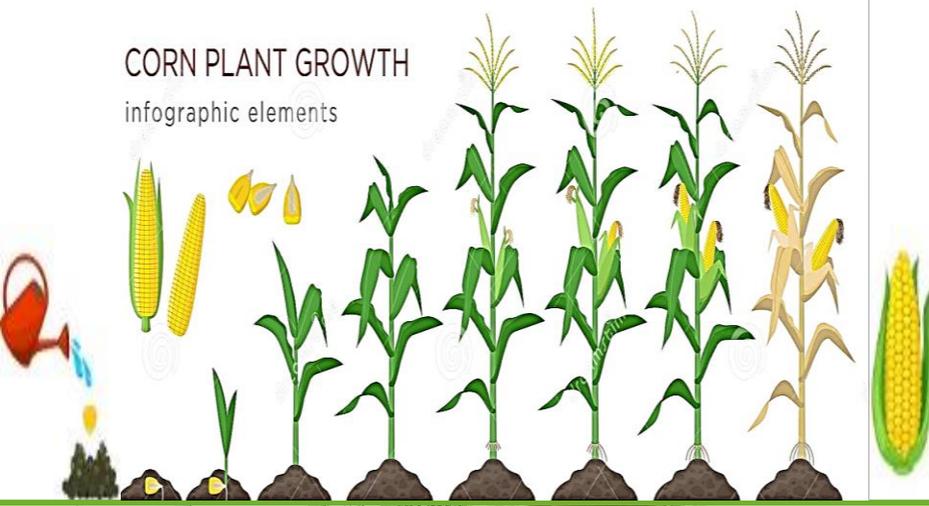

{DA 623.2}

CORN PLANT GROWTH
infographic elements

CORN PLANT GROWTH
infographic elements

The seed buried in the ground produces fruit, and in turn this is planted. Thus the harvest is multiplied. So the death of Christ on the cross of Calvary will bear fruit unto eternal life. The contemplation of this sacrifice will be the glory of those who, as the fruit of it, will live through the eternal ages. {DA 623.3}

The Desire of Ages, p.623

The grain of wheat that preserves its own life can produce no fruit.

It abides alone.

Christ could, if He chose, save Himself from death.

But should He do this, He must abide alone.

He could bring no sons and daughters to God.

Only by yielding up His life could He impart life to humanity.

Only by falling into the ground to die could He become the seed of that vast harvest,—the great multitude that out of every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, are redeemed to God.

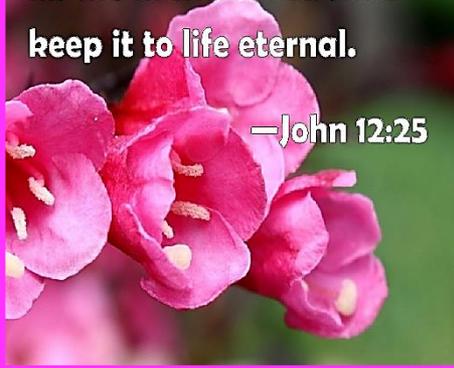

{DA 623.4}

The Desire of Ages, p.623

He that loves his life shall lose it; and he that hates his life in this world shall keep it to life eternal.

—John 12:25

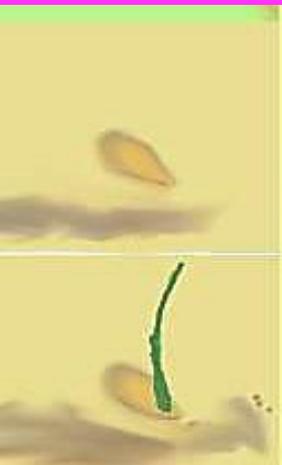

With this truth Christ connects the lesson of self-sacrifice that all should learn: “He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.”

All who would bring forth fruit as workers together with Christ must first fall into the ground and die. The life must be cast into the furrow of the world’s need. Self-love, self-interest, must perish.

Galatians 2:20
(KJV)

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

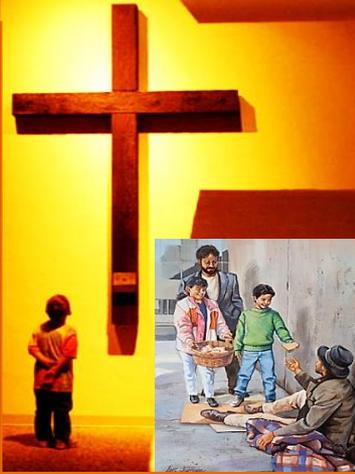

LOVE

Herein is love,
not that we loved God,
but that he loved us,
and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

1 John 4:10 KJV

Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.
Matthew 20:28 KJV

The Desire of Ages, p.623

Continuing:

And the law of self-sacrifice is the law of self-preservation.

The husbandman preserves his grain by casting it away.

So in human life.

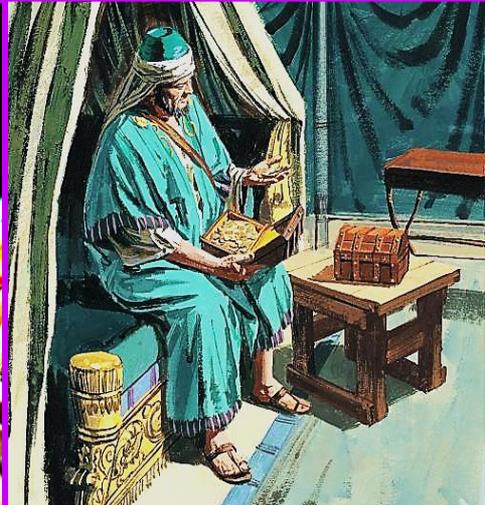

To give is to live.

The life that will be preserved is the life that is freely given in service to God and man.

Those who for Christ's sake sacrifice their life in this world will keep it unto life eternal.

{DA 623.5}

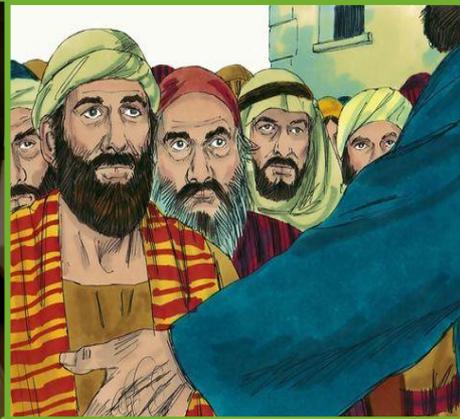

The Desire of Ages, p.624

The life spent on self is like the grain that is eaten. It disappears, but there is no increase. A man may gather all he can for self; he may live and think and plan for self; but his life passes away, and he has nothing. The law of self-serving is the law of self-destruction. {DA 624.1}

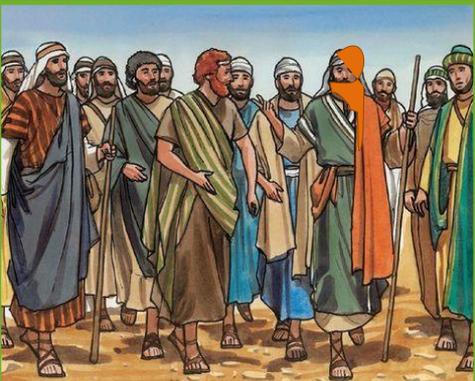

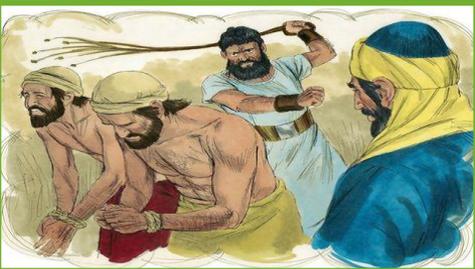

If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honor.

—John 12:26

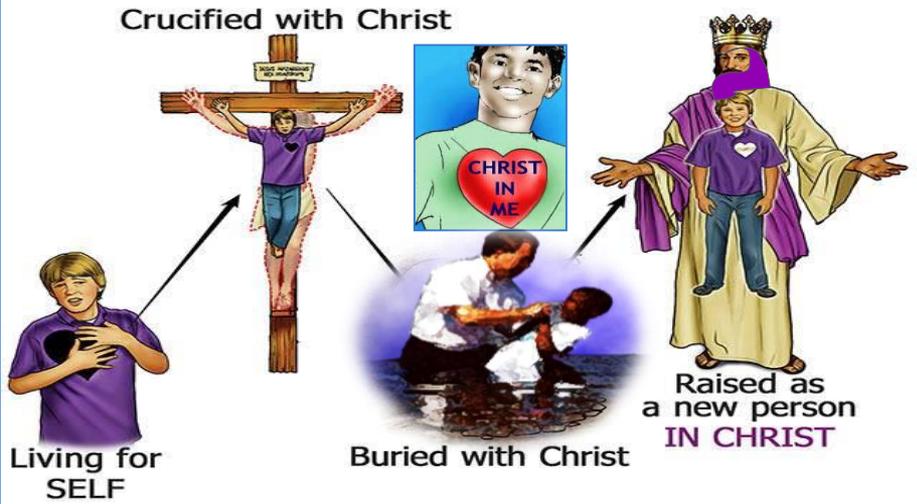

The Desire of Ages, p.624

“If any man serve Me,”
said Jesus, “let him follow Me;
and where I am,
there shall also My servant be:
if any man serve Me,
him will My Father honor.”
All who have borne with Jesus the cross of sacrifice will be sharers with Him of His glory.
It was the joy of Christ in His humiliation and pain that His disciples should be glorified with Him.
(Next Slide Please)

The Desire of Ages, p.624

Continuing:
They are the fruit of His self-sacrifice. The outworking in them of His own character and spirit is His reward, and will be His joy throughout eternity. This joy they share with Him as the fruit of their labor and sacrifice is seen in other hearts and lives. They are workers together with Christ, and the Father will honor them as He honors His Son. {DA 624.2}

Children’s Activity Book, SonLight Education Ministry
Homeschooling from the Bible

1)

Oh, that the Lord would guide my ways.
To Keep His statutes still:
Oh, that my God would grant me grace
To know and do His will.

3)

Conduct my footsteps by Thy word,
And make my heart sincere;
Let sin have no dominion, Lord.
But keep my conscience clear.

Oh, send Thy Spirit down to write
Thy law upon my heart:
Nor let my tongue indulge deceit,
Nor act the liar’s part.

4)

Make me to walk in Thy commands;
“Tis a delightful road;
Nor let my head, nor heart, nor hands
Offend against my God.
