CHAPTER 3-GOD'S CHILDREN-Part 4

Then, when they had watched and listened to the choir, then they saw—and He had been there all the while—they saw their heavenly Father, God.

You might call Him the Preacher, but He was more than that.

He was their Teacher. For on this Sabbath day they didn't just sit and listen to a sermon. Their Father, God, came and took them by the hand and led them out through the garden, the beautiful, wonderful home He had made for them.

It was His first inspection of this world He had made, and He shared it with His children.

(Next Slide)

CONTINUING: It would take us all day to tell of the things He showed them and taught them:
the flowers with all the colors of the rainbow, and the trees with their leafy branches waving a welcome in the breeze, and the brooklets dancing their ripples over the precious stones of their beds—the diamonds and rubies and sapphires and emeralds, and the gold and silver ledges.

And the birds singing, and the fishes leaping, flinging the pearly water drops from their shining coats of mail.

And the animals walking and running and leaping, or grazing quietly in the meadows by the river and the sea.

And the blue waters lapping with low sounds on the shore. And the heavenly odors that they smelled, and the many luscious fruits borne on the trees, and the mosses and the shells and the jewel-encrusted rocks.

CONTINUING:

Why, this was a Sabbath school, the very first Sabbath school that ever was held, with God and the angels and all creation. And I suppose they didn't just walk with solemn steps all the way.

They were not afraid of God; for they were His children, and they loved Him.

And the angels loved them, and they loved the angels, too.

So sometimes, I suppose, just like children today, they took the hands of the angels and ran and laughed with them. And when they came to the brooks or to the seashore, they waded right in with their bare feet and laughed at the waters rippling over them.

They climbed the green hills and swung on the long vines and played with all the animals and had the happiest time.

*This Sabbath boys and girls, we will begin with a new chapter our lesson entitled, “On the Mount of Olives” in our study book Desire of Ages!

Matthew 24:1 (KJV)

And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to [him] for to show him the buildings of the temple.

Matthew 24:2 (KJV)

And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

Matthew 24:3 (KJV)

And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what [shall be] the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

Matthew 24:4 (KJV)

And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

Matthew 24:5 (KJV)

For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

Matthew 24:6 (KJV)

And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all [these things] must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

Matthew 24:7 (KJV)

For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

Matthew 24:8 (KJV)

All these [are] the beginning of sorrows.

The Desire of Ages, p.627

“Behold, your house is being left to you desolate!”
(Matthew 23:38)

“Jesus came out from the temple and was going away when His disciples came up to point out the temple buildings to Him. And He said to them, “Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, not one stone here will be left upon another, which will not be torn down.””
(Matthew 24:1-2)

Christ’s words to the priests and rulers, “Behold, your house is left unto you desolate” (Matthew 23:38),

had struck terror to their hearts.

They affected indifference, but the question kept rising in their minds as to the import of these words.

An unseen danger seemed to threaten them.

Could it be that the magnificent temple, which was the nation’s glory, was soon to be a heap of ruins?

The foreboding of evil was shared by the disciples, and they anxiously waited for some more definite statement from Jesus.

Continuing:

As they passed with Him out of the temple, they called His attention to its strength and beauty.

The stones of the temple were of the purest marble, of perfect whiteness, and some of them of almost fabulous size.

A portion of the wall had withstood the siege by Nebuchadnezzar's army.

In its perfect masonry it appeared like one solid stone dug entire from the quarry.

How those mighty walls could be overthrown the disciples could not comprehend.

The Desire of Ages, p.627

As Christ's attention was attracted to the magnificence of the temple, what must have been the unuttered thoughts of that Rejected One!

The view before Him was indeed beautiful, but He said with sadness, I see it all. The buildings are indeed wonderful.

You point to these walls as apparently indestructible; but listen to My words: The day will come when "there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down." {DA 627.2}<sup>19</sup>

"And Jesus said unto them,

See ye not all these things?

verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here

one stone upon another,

that shall not be thrown down." Matthew 24:2 (KJV)

The Desire of Ages, p.626

Christ's words had been spoken in the hearing of a large number of people; but when He was alone, Peter, John, James, and Andrew came to Him as He sat upon the Mount of Olives.

“Tell us,” they said, “when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of Thy coming, and of the end of the world?” Jesus did not answer His disciples by taking up separately the destruction of Jerusalem and the great day of His coming.

Continuing:
His prophetic words reached beyond that event to the final conflagration in that day
when the Lord shall rise out of His place to punish the world for their iniquity, when the earth shall
disclose her blood,
and shall no more
cover her slain.

This entire discourse was given,
not for the disciples only,
but for those who
should live in the last scenes
of this earth's history.

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you,
saith the LORD, (2 xs)

thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.
Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me,
and I will hearken unto you.

And ye shall seek me, and find [me],
when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

And I will be found of you, saith the LORD: (2 xs)

and I will turn away your captivity,
and I will gather you from all the nations,
and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD;
and I will bring you again into the place
whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

Jeremiah 29:11 through 14

The Desire of Ages, p.628

He mingled the description of these two events.

Had He opened to His disciples future events as He beheld them, they would have been unable to endure the sight.

In mercy to them He blended the description of the two great crises, leaving the disciples to study out the meaning for themselves.

When He referred to the destruction of Jerusalem, (Next Slide Please)

Turning to the disciples,
Christ said,
“Take heed that no man
deceive you.

For many shall come
in My name, saying,
I am Christ;
and shall deceive many.”

Many false messiahs will appear,
claiming to work miracles,
and declaring that the time
of the deliverance of the Jewish nation has come.
These will mislead many.
Christ’s words were fulfilled

Continuing:
Between His death and the siege of Jerusalem many false messiahs appeared. But this warning was given also to those who live in this age of the world. The same deceptions practiced prior to the destruction of Jerusalem have been practiced through the ages, and will be practiced again.
