Voice of Nature

Sweet child, look upward to the sky,
Yon twinkling stars behold,
That gild the night with beaming eye
Like lamps of burrished gold.

And look upon the streams that flow,
To cheer the fruitful plain;
The mightier rivers deep and slow,
That swell the unfathomed train.

Then, shouldest thou, little one, inquire,
How came these things to be?
Who woke the stars unfading fire?
Who poured the surging sea?

The youngest star amid the throng,
Would with its pencil write,
God made me, as it rolls along
Through fields of boundless light.

Our Opening Song is a Hymn entitled Sitting at the Feet of Jesus

#413

1). Sitting at the feet of Jesus, O what words I hear Him say!
Happy place! so near, so precious! May it find me there each day;
Sitting at the feet of Jesus, I would look upon the past;
For His love has been so gracious, It has won my heart at last.

2). Sitting at the feet of Jesus, Where can mortal be more blest?
There I lay my sins and sorrows, And, when weary, find sweet rest;
Sitting at the feet of Jesus, There I love to weep and pray;
While I from His fullness gather Grace and comfort every day.

3). Bless me, O my Savior, bless me, As *I sit low at Thy feet;
Oh, look down in love upon me, Let me see Thy face so sweet;
Give me, Lord, the mind of Jesus, Make me holy as He is;
May I prove I've been with Jesus, Who is all my righteousness.

The quill pen is a single feather with a sharp point, resting on the scroll. The background is a light, warm color, possibly a parchment or a soft glow.

And they said unto him,
Where wilt thou that we prepare?

Luke 22:10 (KJV)

And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

Luke 22:12 (KJV)

And he shall show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

Luke 22:13 (KJV)

And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

The Desire of Ages, p.642

In the upper chamber of a dwelling at Jerusalem, Christ was sitting at table with His disciples.

They had gathered to celebrate the Passover.

The Saviour desired to keep this feast alone with the twelve. He knew that His hour was come; He Himself was the true paschal lamb, and on the day the Passover was eaten He was to be sacrificed.

He was about to drink the cup of wrath; He must soon receive the final baptism of suffering. But a few quiet hours yet remained to Him, and these were to be spent for the benefit of His beloved disciples. {DA 642.1}

The Desire of Ages, p.642

The whole life of Christ had been a life of unselfish service. “Not to be ministered unto, but to minister,” (Matthew 20:28), had been the lesson of His every act. But not yet had the disciples learned the lesson. At this last Passover supper, Jesus repeated His teaching by an illustration that impressed it forever on their minds and hearts. {DA 642.2}

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
Who, being in the form of God,
thought it not robbery to be equal with God:
But made himself of no reputation,
and took upon him the form of a servant,
and was made in the likeness of men:
And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself,
and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.
Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him,
and given him a name which is above every name:
That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow,
of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;
And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:5-11

The Desire of Ages, p.642

The interviews between Jesus and His disciples were usually seasons of calm joy, highly prized by them all. The Passover suppers had been scenes of special interest; but upon this occasion Jesus was troubled. His heart was burdened, and a shadow rested upon His countenance. As He met the disciples in the upper chamber, they perceived that something weighed heavily upon His mind, and although they knew not its cause, they sympathized with His grief.

{DA 642.3}

The Desire of Ages, p.643

As they were gathered about the table, He said in tones of touching sadness, “With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer: for I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And He took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: for I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.”

Behold, my servant shall deal prudently,
he shall be exalted and extolled,
and be very high.

his visage was so marred more than any man,
and his form more than the sons of men:

So shall he sprinkle many nations;

and [that] which they had not heard shall they consider.

through 15

The Desire of Ages, p.643

Christ knew that the time had come for Him to depart out of the world, and go to His Father. And having loved His own that were in the world, He loved them unto the end. He was now in the shadow of the cross, and the pain was torturing His heart. He knew that He would be deserted in the hour of His betrayal. He knew that by the most humiliating process to which criminals were subjected He would be put to death. (Next Slide Please)

He knew the ingratitude and cruelty of those
He had come to save.
He knew how great the
sacrifice that He must make,
and for how many it
would be in vain.
Knowing all that was before
Him, He might naturally
have been overwhelmed
with the thought of His own humiliation and suffering.

Him as His own,
and who, after His shame

His thoughts of what He

He did not think of Himself.

The Desire of Ages, p.643

On this last evening with His disciples, Jesus had much to tell them.

If they had been prepared to receive what He longed to impart, they would have been saved from heartbreaking anguish, from disappointment and unbelief.

But Jesus saw that they could not bear what He had to say. As He looked into their faces, the words of warning and comfort were stayed upon His lips. (Next Slide Please)
