Our Opening Song is a Hymn entitled Sitting at the Feet of Jesus

#413

1). Sitting at the feet of Jesus, O what words I hear Him say!
Happy place! so near, so precious! May it find me there each day;
Sitting at the feet of Jesus, I would look upon the past;
For His love has been so gracious, It has won my heart at last.

2). Sitting at the feet of Jesus, Where can mortal be more blest?
There I lay my sins and sorrows, And, when weary, find sweet rest;
Sitting at the feet of Jesus, There I love to weep and pray;
While I from His fullness gather Grace and comfort every day.

3). Bless me, O my Savior, bless me, As *I sit low at Thy feet;
Oh, look down in love upon me, Let me see Thy face so sweet;
Give me, Lord, the mind of Jesus, Make me holy as He is;
May I prove I've been with Jesus, Who is all my righteousness.

Opening Prayer-request one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer.

Our Opening Verses for our Review Lessons is from, Isaiah 42:1-4 (KJV) Margin...

Behold my servant, whom I uphold; Behold mine elect, [in whom] my soul delighteth;
I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

Behold my servant, whom I uphold; He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

I have put my spirit upon him:

A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench:
he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

I have put my spirit upon him:

He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

I have put my spirit upon him:

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

Before we hear your questions dear ones!

Let's take a few minutes to review what you have read last Sabbath from

Part 1 of our Lesson entitled,

“A Servant of Servants” Part 2

in our study book Desire of Ages!

Raise your hands dear ones!

The Desire of Ages, p.643

There was “a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.”

This contention, carried on in the presence of Christ, grieved and wounded Him.

The disciples clung to their favorite idea that Christ would assert His power, and take His position on the throne of David.

And in heart each still longed for the highest place in the kingdom. They had placed their own estimate upon themselves and upon one another, {Next Slide Please}

The Desire of Ages, p.643

Continuing: and, instead of regarding their brethren as more worthy, they had placed themselves first.

The request of James and John to sit on the right and left of Christ's throne had excited the indignation of the others. That the two brothers should presume to ask for the highest position so stirred the ten that alienation threatened.

They felt that they were misjudged, that their fidelity and talents were not appreciated. Judas was the most severe upon James and John. {DA 643.4}

The Desire of Ages, p.644

When the disciples entered the supper room, their hearts were full of resentful feelings. Judas pressed next to Christ on the left side; John was on the right.

If there was a highest place, Judas was determined to have it, and that place was thought to be next to Christ. And Judas was a traitor.

{DA 644.1}

The Desire of Ages, p.644

Another cause of dissension had arisen. At a feast it was customary for a servant to wash the feet of the guests, and on this occasion preparation had been made for the service. The pitcher, the basin, and the towel were there, in readiness for the feet washing; but no servant was present, and it was the disciples' part to perform it. {Next Slide Please}

Mark 9:35 (KJV)

And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, [the same] shall be last of all, and servant of all.

Continuing:
But each of the disciples, yielding to wounded pride, determined not to act the part of a servant. All manifested a stoical unconcern, seeming unconscious that there was anything for them to do. By their silence they refused to humble themselves. {DA 644.2}

The Desire of Ages, p.644

How was Christ to bring these poor souls where Satan would not gain over them a decided victory? How could He show that a mere profession of discipleship did not make them disciples, or insure them a place in His kingdom? How could He show that it is loving service, true humility, which constitutes real greatness? How was He to kindle love in their hearts, and enable them to comprehend what He longed to tell them?
{DA 644.3}

The Desire of Ages, p.644

Continuing:

The disciples made no move toward serving one another. Jesus waited for a time to see what they would do.

Then He, the divine Teacher, rose from the table.

Laying aside the outer garment that would have impeded His movements, He took a towel, and girded Himself.

With surprised interest the disciples looked on, and in silence waited to see what was to follow.

The Desire of Ages, p.644

“After that He poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples’ feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith He was girded.”

This action opened the eyes of the disciples. Bitter shame and humiliation filled their hearts.

They understood the unspoken rebuke, and saw themselves in altogether a new light.

{DA 644.4}

Continuing:
So Christ expressed His love for His disciples. Their selfish spirit filled Him with sorrow, but He entered into no controversy with them regarding their difficulty. Instead He gave them an example they would never forget. His love for them was not easily disturbed or quenched.
(Next Slide Please)

Continuing:

He knew that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He came from God, and went to God.

He had a full consciousness of His divinity;

but He had laid aside His royal crown and kingly robes, and had taken the form of a servant.

One of the last acts of His life on earth was to gird Himself as a servant, and perform a servant's part.

{DA 644.5}

“Little Children, Abide with Him”

Family Bible Lessons year 3, Quarter 4, Lesson 12 – Page 298

Children’s Activity Book, SonLight Education Ministry

Homeschooling from the Bible

1). Children, in Christ abide;
All His commandments do;
Then you He’ll lead and guide,
Safe, life’s dark journey through.
Soon, on clouds to Earth He’ll come,
And take His faithful children home.

3). Children, in Christ abide;
Leave all and follow Him
Lay pride and self aside;
Eternal life to win.
The Bridegroom cometh, Him behold!
His saints to change, and crown with gold.

2). Walk in the narrow way
That leads to Heaven and life;
Shun paths that lead astray---
All worldly care and strife.
Your treasures have in Heaven laid,
Then they’ll endure when Earth shall fade.

4). Temptations may surround;
You should not to then yield.
Be faithful soldiers, found
Upon the battle field.
All, perfect overcomers be,
That eat the fruit of life’s fair tree.

5). Children, in Christ abide;
His words, love and obey,
The world may you deride;
Cease not to watch and pray.
He’ll hide you then, in that dread hour,
When He shall execute His power.
