

Children Sabbath School Lesson #335 for 7-24-2021
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Our Opening Hymn is entitled
413 - Sitting at the Feet of Jesus

- 1). Sitting at the feet of Jesus, O what words I hear Him say!
Happy place! so near, so precious! May it find me there each day;
Sitting at the feet of Jesus, I would look upon the past;
For His love has been so gracious, It has won my heart at last.
- 2). Sitting at the feet of Jesus, Where can mortal be more blest?
There I lay my sins and sorrows, and, when weary, find sweet rest;
Sitting at the feet of Jesus, There I love to weep and pray;
While I from His fullness gather Grace and comfort every day.
- 3). Bless me, O my Savior, bless me, As I sit low at Thy feet;
Oh, look down in love upon me, Let me see Thy face so sweet;
Give me, Lord, the mind of Jesus, Make me holy as He is;
May I prove I've been with Jesus, Who is all my righteousness.

Lesson #335 “A Servant of Servants” Part 3

John 13:5 (KJV)

After that he poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe [them] with the towel wherewith he was girded.

*This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 3 of our lesson entitled,
“A Servant of Servants” in our lesson book, Desire of Ages!*

John 13:6 (KJV)

Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

John 13:7 (KJV)

Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

John 13:8 (KJV)

Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

John 13:9 (KJV)

Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also [my] hands and [my] head.

John 13:10 (KJV)

Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash [his] feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

John 13:11 (KJV)

For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #71, page 645 - 646

Before the Passover Judas had met a second time with the priests and scribes, and had closed the contract to deliver Jesus into their hands. Yet he afterward mingled with the disciples as though innocent of any wrong, and interested in the work of preparing for the feast. The disciples knew nothing of the purpose of Judas. Jesus alone could read his secret. Yet He did not expose him. Jesus hungered for his soul. He felt for him such a burden as for Jerusalem when He wept over the doomed city. His heart was crying, How can I give thee up? The constraining power of that love was felt by Judas. When the Saviour's hands were bathing those soiled feet, and wiping them with the towel, the heart of Judas thrilled through and through with the impulse then and there to confess his sin. But he would not humble himself. He hardened his heart against repentance; and the old impulses, for the moment put aside, again controlled him. Judas was now offended at Christ's act in washing the feet of His disciples. If Jesus could so humble Himself, he thought, He could not be Israel's king. All hope of worldly honor in a temporal kingdom was destroyed. Judas was satisfied that there was nothing to be gained by following Christ. After seeing Him degrade Himself, as he thought, he was confirmed in his purpose to disown Him, and confess himself deceived. He was possessed by a demon, and he resolved to complete the work he had agreed to do in betraying his Lord. {DA 645.1}

Song *Let's learn our first beautiful scripture song together dear ones from the book of Isaiah!
Taken from: The Desire of All Nations Memory Verse CD Volume III*

Isaiah 52:13-15 (KJV)

Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.
As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man,
and his form more than the sons of men:
So shall he sprinkle many nations;
the kings shall shut their mouths at him:
for [that] which had not been told them shall they see;
and [that] which they had not heard shall they consider.

Isaiah 52:13-15

Judas, in choosing his position at table, had tried to place himself first, and Christ as a servant served him first. John, toward whom Judas had felt so much bitterness, was left till the last. But John did not take this as a rebuke or slight. As the disciples watched Christ's action, they were greatly moved. When Peter's turn came, he exclaimed with astonishment, "Lord, dost Thou wash my feet?" Christ's condescension broke his heart. He was filled with shame to think that one of the disciples was not performing this service. "What I do," Christ said, "thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter." Peter could not bear to see his Lord, whom he believed to be the Son of God, acting the part of a servant. His whole soul rose up against this humiliation. He did not realize that for this Christ came into the world. With great emphasis he exclaimed, "Thou shalt never wash my feet." {DA 645.2}

Song *Let's learn another beautiful scripture song together dear ones from the book of Malachi!
Taken from: The Desire of All Nations Memory Verse CD vol. III*

Malachi 3:1-3 (KJV)

Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in:

    behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

    But who may abide the day of his coming?

    and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he [is] like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:

    And he shall sit [as] a refiner and purifier of silver:

    and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

Malachi 3 chapter 1 through 3

Solemnly Christ said to Peter, "If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with Me." The service which Peter refused was the type of a higher cleansing. Christ had come to wash the heart from the stain of sin. In refusing to allow Christ to wash his feet, Peter was refusing the higher cleansing included in the lower. He was really rejecting his Lord. It is not humiliating to the Master to allow Him to work for our purification. The truest humility is to receive with thankful heart any provision made in our behalf, and with earnestness do service for Christ. {DA 646.1}

Isaiah 49:6 (KJV)

And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

Isaiah Chapter 49 verse 6

At the words, "If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with Me," Peter surrendered his pride and self-will. He could not endure the thought of separation from Christ; that would have been death to him. "Not my feet only," he said, "but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit." {DA 646.2}
