A Little Walk With Jesus makes it Right, all Right!

Our Opening Song is a Hymn entitled Sitting at the Feet of Jesus

#413

1). Sitting at the feet of Jesus, O what words I hear Him say!
Happy place! so near, so precious! May it find me there each day;
Sitting at the feet of Jesus, I would look upon the past;
For His love has been so gracious, It has won my heart at last.

2). Sitting at the feet of Jesus, Where can mortal be more blest?
There I lay my sins and sorrows, And, when weary, find sweet rest;
Sitting at the feet of Jesus, There I love to weep and pray;
While I from His fullness gather Grace and comfort every day.

3). Bless me, O my Savior, bless me, As *I sit low at Thy feet;
Oh, look down in love upon me, Let me see Thy face so sweet;
Give me, Lord, the mind of Jesus, Make me holy as He is;
May I prove I've been with Jesus, Who is all my righteousness.

*Opening Prayer-

Our Opening Verses for our Review Lessons is from, Isaiah 42:1-4 (KJV) Margin...

Behold my servant, whom I uphold; Behold mine elect, [in whom] my soul delighteth;
I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

Behold my servant, whom I uphold; He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

I have put my spirit upon him:

A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench:
he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

I have put my spirit upon him:

He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

I have put my spirit upon him:

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

Before we hear your questions dear ones!

Let's take a few minutes to review what you have read last Sabbath from

Part 1 of our Lesson entitled,

“A Servant of Servants” Part 3 in our study book Desire of Ages!

Raise your hands dear ones!

The Desire of Ages, p.645

Before the Passover Judas had met a second time with the priests and scribes, and had closed the contract to deliver Jesus into their hands. Yet he afterward mingled with the disciples as though innocent of any wrong, and interested in the work of preparing for the feast. The disciples knew nothing of the purpose of Judas. Jesus alone could read his secret. Yet He did not expose him. Jesus hungered for his soul. {Next Slide Please}

The Desire of Ages, p.645

Continuing:
He felt for him such a burden as for Jerusalem when He wept over the doomed city.
His heart was crying,
How can I give thee up?
The constraining power of that love was felt by Judas.
When the Saviour's hands were bathing those soiled feet, and wiping them with the towel, the heart of Judas thrilled through and through with the impulse then and there to confess his sin.

The Desire of Ages, p.645

Continuing:
But he would not humble himself.
He hardened his heart against repentance;
and the old impulses,
for the moment put aside,
again controlled him.
Judas was now offended at Christ's act in washing the feet of His disciples.
If Jesus could so humble Himself, he thought,
He could not be Israel's king.
{Next Slide Please}

The Desire of Ages, p.645

Continuing:

All hope of worldly honor in a temporal kingdom was destroyed.

Judas was satisfied that there was nothing to be gained by following Christ.

After seeing Him degrade

Himself, as he thought, he was confirmed in his purpose to disown Him, and confess himself deceived.

He was possessed by a demon,

and he resolved to complete the work he had agreed to do in betraying his Lord.

{DA 645.1}

The Desire of Ages, p.645

Judas, in choosing his position at table, had tried to place himself first, and Christ as a servant served him first. John, toward whom Judas had felt so much bitterness, was left till the last.

But John did not take this as a rebuke or slight. As the disciples watched Christ's action, they were greatly moved.

When Peter's turn came, he exclaimed with astonishment, "Lord, dost Thou wash my feet?"

Christ's condescension broke his heart.

{Next Slide Please}

The Desire of Ages, p.645

Continuing:

He was filled with shame to think that one of the disciples was not performing this service.

“What I do,” Christ said,

“thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.”

Peter could not bear to see his Lord, whom he believed to be the Son of God, acting the part of a servant. His whole soul rose up against this humiliation. He did not realize that for this Christ came into the world.

With great emphasis he exclaimed, “Thou shalt never wash my feet.” {DA 645.2}

The Desire of Ages, p.646

Continuing:
Solemnly Christ
said to Peter,
“If I wash thee not,
thou hast no part with Me.”

The service which Peter refused was the type of a higher cleansing.
Christ had come to wash the heart
from the stain of sin.
In refusing to allow Christ
to wash his feet,

My sins
were laid on Christ

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows:
yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

-Isaiah 53:4

Continuing:
Peter was refusing the higher cleansing included in the lower.
He was really rejecting his Lord.

It is not humiliating to the Master to allow Him to work for our purification.

The truest humility is to receive with thankful heart any provision made in our behalf, and with earnestness do service for Christ.

{DA 646.1}

They have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb and made them white.

Let this mind be in you which was in Christ Jesus

Jesus answered him,
If I wash thee not,
thou hast no part with me.

He that is washed needeth not save
to wash his feet,
but is clean every whit!

John 13:10

Have YOU been 'washed'?

The Desire of Ages, p.646

At the words,
“If I wash thee not,
thou hast no part with Me,” Peter surrendered his pride and self-will.
He could not endure
the thought of separation from Christ; that would have been death to him.
“Not my feet only,” he said, “but also my hands and my head.
Jesus saith to him,
He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet,
but is clean every whit.”
{DA 646.2}

*Remember, “Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed [thereto] according to thy word.”
Psalm 119:9 (KJV)*

1). How shall the young from folly flee,
Or cleanse their ways from guilt and sin?
How shall they e’er be brought to see The wickedness that reigns within?

2). By taking heed unto their ways.
According to the Word of God.
And walking with Him all their days.
Despising not the chastening rod.

3). O, then, improve the present time,
While youth its vigor doth bestaw;
Seek far a home in that pure clime,
Where peace and joy forever flow.
