Our Opening Song is a Hymn entitled Sitting at the Feet of Jesus

#413

1). Sitting at the feet of Jesus, O what words I hear Him say!
Happy place! so near, so precious! May it find me there each day;
Sitting at the feet of Jesus, I would look upon the past;
For His love has been so gracious, It has won my heart at last.

2). Sitting at the feet of Jesus, Where can mortal be more blest?
There I lay my sins and sorrows, And, when weary, find sweet rest;
Sitting at the feet of Jesus, There I love to weep and pray;
While I from His fullness gather Grace and comfort every day.

3). Bless me, O my Savior, bless me, As *I sit low at Thy feet;
Oh, look down in love upon me, Let me see Thy face so sweet;
Give me, Lord, the mind of Jesus, Make me holy as He is;
May I prove I've been with Jesus, Who is all my righteousness.

Our Opening Verses for our Review Lessons is from, Isaiah 42:1-4 (KJV) Margin...

Behold my servant, whom I uphold; Behold mine elect, [in whom] my soul delighteth;
I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

Behold my servant, whom I uphold; He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

I have put my spirit upon him:

A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench:
he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

I have put my spirit upon him:

He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

I have put my spirit upon him:

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

Before we hear your questions dear ones!

Let's take a few minutes to review what you have read last Sabbath from

Part 1 of our Lesson entitled,

“A Servant of Servants” Part 5

in our study book Desire of Ages!

Raise your hands dear ones!

The Desire of Ages, p.649

Christ would have His disciples understand that although He had washed their feet, this did not in the least detract from His dignity. “Ye call Me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.” And being so infinitely superior, He imparted grace and significance to the service. No one was so exalted as Christ, and yet He stooped to the humblest duty.

That His people might not be misled by the selfishness which dwells in the natural heart, and which strengthens by self-serving, {Next Slide Please}

Ye call Me
Master and Lord and ye say well
for so I am
John 13:13

The graphic features a wooden cross with a white cloth draped over it and a red flame rising from the top. To the right of the cross is a circular inset showing a close-up of hands, one appearing to be washing the other. The background is a light blue sky with soft white clouds.

And I give unto them eternal life;
and they shall never perish,
neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.
My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.
I and my Father are one.

John 10:28-30

Continuing: Christ Himself set the example of humility.
He would not leave this great subject in man's charge.
Of so much consequence did
He regard it, that He Himself,
One equal with God,
acted as servant to His disciples.
While they were contending for the highest place, He to whom every knee shall bow, He whom the angels of glory count it honor to serve, bowed down to wash the feet of those who called Him Lord.
He washed the feet of His betrayed. {DA 649.3}

The Desire of Ages, p.649

In His life and lessons, Christ has given a perfect exemplification of the unselfish ministry which has its origin in God. God does not live for Himself. By creating the world, and by upholding all things,
He is constantly ministering for others.

“He maketh His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.” Matthew 5:45.

This ideal of ministry
God has committed to His Son.

{Next Slide Please}

The Desire of Ages, p.649

Continuing:
This ideal of ministry God has committed to His Son. Jesus was given to stand at the head of humanity, that by His example He might teach what it means to minister. His whole life was under a law of service. He served all, ministered to all. Thus He lived the law of God, and by His example showed how we are to obey it.
{DA 649.4}

The Desire of Ages, p.650

This ordinance is Christ's appointed preparation for the sacramental service.

While pride, variance, and strife for supremacy are cherished, the heart cannot enter into fellowship with Christ.

We are not prepared to receive the communion of His body and His blood.

Therefore it was that Jesus appointed the memorial of His humiliation to be first observed.

{DA 650.3}

The Desire of Ages, p.650

Again and again Jesus had tried to establish this principle among His disciples. When James and John made their request for pre-eminence, He had said, “Whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister.”

Matthew 20:26.

In My kingdom the principle of preference and supremacy has no place. The only greatness is the greatness of humility. The only distinction is found in devotion to the service of others.

{DA 650.1}

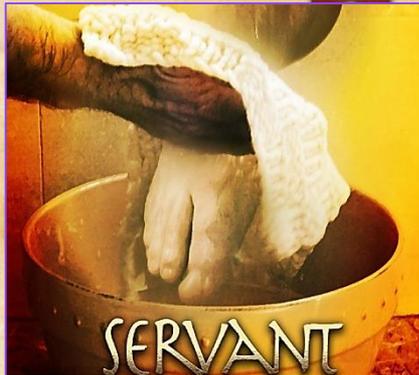

If I then, Your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

John 13:14

Hospitality & Humility Our Culture?

- Washing the feet is linked to kindness & hospitality
- Traveling collected dirt in the feet.
- Freshening up after a travel involved washing the feet. (An alternate to a complete bath)
- Touching another's feet involves Humility.

Now, having washed the disciples' feet, He said, "I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you." In these words Christ was not merely enjoining the practice of hospitality. More was meant than the washing of the feet of guests to remove the dust of travel. Christ was here instituting a religious service.

By the act of our Lord this humiliating ceremony was made a consecrated ordinance. It was to be observed by the disciples, that they might ever keep in mind His lessons of humility and service. {DA 650.2}

The Desire of Ages, p.650

As they come to this ordinance, the children of God should bring to remembrance the words of the Lord
of life and glory:

“Know ye what I have done to you?

Ye call Me Master and Lord:
and ye say well;
for so I am.

If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

I have done to you?

The Desire of Ages, p.650

Continuing:

For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.
Verily, verily, I say unto you,
The servant is not greater than his lord;
neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.
If ye know these things,
happy are ye if ye do them.”
There is in man a disposition to esteem himself more highly than his brother,
{Next Slide Please}

The Desire of Ages, p.650

Continuing: to work for self,
to seek the highest place;
and often this results in evil surmisings and bitterness of spirit.
The ordinance preceding the Lord's Supper is to clear away these misunderstandings, to bring man out of his selfishness, down from his stilts of self-exaltation, to the humility of heart that will lead him to serve his brother.

Family Bible Lessons year 3 , Quarter 4 , Lesson 1 – Page 8 Children’s Activity Book, SonLight Education Ministry Homeschooling from the Bible

1). On a bridge I was standing one morning,
And watching the current roll by,
When suddenly in to the water
There fell an unfortunate fly.

4). No sooner the sentence was spoken,
Than lo, like an angel of love,
I saw, to the waters beneath me,
A leaflet descend from above.

2). The fishes that swam to the surface,
Were looking for something to eat,
And I thought that the hapless young insect
Would surely afford them a treat.

5). It glided serene on the streamlet, “Twas an ark to the poor little fly,
Which soon to the land re-ascending,
Spread its wings to the breezes to dry.

3). “Poor thing!” I exclaimed with compassion.
“Thy trials and dangers abound;
For if thou escap’st being eaten,
Thou canst not escape being drowned.”

6). Oh! Sweet was the truth that was whispered,
That mortals should never despair;
For He who takers care of an insect,
Much more for His children will care.

7). And though, to our short-sighted vision,
No way of escape may appear,
Let us trust; for when least we expect it,
The help of “our Father” is near.
