38 - More about Jesus

John R. Sweney

- 1). More about Jesus would I know,
More of His grace to others show;
More of His saving fullness see,
More of His love who died for me.

Refrain

More, more about Jesus,
More, more about Jesus;
More of His saving fullness see,
More of His love who died for me.

Chapter 30 —The Lord's Prayer

“After this manner therefore pray ye.” Matthew 6:9.

The Lord's Prayer was twice given by our Saviour, first to the multitude in the Sermon on the Mount, and again, some months later, to the disciples alone. The disciples had been for a short time absent from their Lord, when on their return they found Him absorbed in communion with God.

Seeming unconscious of their presence, He continued praying aloud. The Saviour's face was irradiated with a celestial brightness. He seemed to be in the very presence of the Unseen, and there was a living power in His words as of one who spoke with God. {Pr 289.1}

The hearts of the listening disciples were deeply moved. They had marked how often He spent long hours in solitude in communion with His Father. His days were passed in ministry to the crowds that pressed upon Him, and in unveiling the treacherous sophistry of the rabbis, and this incessant labor often left Him so utterly wearied that His mother and brothers, and even His disciples, had feared that His life would be sacrificed. But as He returned from the hours of prayer that closed the toilsome day, they marked the look of peace upon His face, the sense of refreshment that seemed to pervade His presence. It was from hours spent with God that He came forth, morning by morning, to bring the light of heaven to men. The disciples had come to connect His hours of prayer with the power of His words and works. Now, as they listened to His supplication, their hearts were awed and humbled.

As He ceased praying, it was with a conviction of their own deep need that they exclaimed,

“Lord, teach us to pray.” Luke 11:1. {Pr 289.2}

(Continuing on the next slide)

Jesus gives them no new form of prayer.

That which He has before taught them He repeats, as if He would say, You need to understand what I have already given. It has a depth of meaning you have not yet fathomed. {Pr 290.1}

The Saviour does not, however, restrict us to the use of these exact words.

As one with humanity, He presents His own ideal of prayer, words so simple that they may be adopted by the little child, yet so comprehensive that their significance can never be fully grasped by the greatest minds. We are taught to come to God with our tribute of thanksgiving, to make known our wants, to confess our sins, and to claim His mercy in accordance with His promise. {Prayer 290.2}

“Beloved, now are we the sons of God.”

“And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with Him, that we may be also glorified together.”

“It doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is.” 1 John 3:2; Romans 8:17. {Pr 291.2}

The very first step in approaching God is to know and believe the love that He has to us (1 John 4:16); for it is through the drawing of His love that we are led to come to Him. {Pr 291.3}

The perception of God’s love works the renunciation of selfishness. In calling God our Father, we recognize all His children as our brethren. We are all a part of the great web of humanity, all members of one family. In our petitions we are to include our neighbors as well as ourselves.

No one prays aright who seeks a blessing for himself alone. {Pr 291.4}

(Continuing on the next slide)

Continuing:

The infinite God, said Jesus, makes it your privilege to approach Him by the name of Father.

Understand all that this implies. No earthly parent ever pleaded so earnestly with an erring child as He who made you pleads with the transgressor. No human, loving interest ever followed the impenitent with such tender invitations. God dwells in every abode; He hears every word that is spoken, listens to every prayer that is offered, tastes the sorrows and disappointments of every soul, regards the treatment that is given to father, mother, sister, friend, and neighbor. He cares for our necessities, and His love and mercy and grace are continually flowing to satisfy our need. {Pr 291.5}

But if you call God your Father you acknowledge yourselves His children, to be guided by His wisdom and to be obedient in all things, knowing that His love is changeless.

You will accept His plan for your life. As children of God, you will hold His honor, His character, His family, His work, as the objects of your highest interest. It will be your joy to recognize and honor your relation to your Father and to every member of His family. You will rejoice to do any act, however humble, that will tend to His glory or to the well-being of your kindred. {Pr 292.1}

“Which art in heaven.” He to whom Christ bids us look as “our Father”

“is in the heavens: He hath done whatsoever He hath pleased.”

In His care we may safely rest, saying, “What time I am afraid, I will trust in Thee.”

Psalms 115:3; 56:3. {Pr 292.2}

(On our Next Sabbath Review we will continue to learn more about, “The LORD’s Prayer”

“Hallowed be Thy name.” Matthew 6:9.)

Our Opening Song is a Hymn entitled, “Wonderful, Merciful Saviour”

1). Wonderful, merciful Saviour
Precious Redeemer and Friend
Who would have thought that a Lamb
Could rescue the souls of men
Oh you rescue the souls of men.

2). Counselor, Comforter, Keeper
Spirit we long to embrace
You offer hope when our hearts have Hopelessly lost the way
Oh, we hopelessly lost the way.

3.) Almighty, infinite Father
Faithfully loving Your own
Here in our weakness You find us
Falling before Your throne
Oh, we're falling before Your throne.

4.) You are the One that we praise
You are the One we adore
You give the healing and grace
Our hearts always hunger for
Oh, our hearts always hunger for.

You are the One that we praise
You are the One we adore
You give the healing and grace
Our hearts always hunger for
Oh, our hearts always hunger for.

Our Opening quote for our Review Lessons is from the book, STC-Step to Christ Page 52, Paragraph 2 (SOP) Margin...

Jesus loves to have us come to Him just as we are, (2 xs) sinful, helpless, dependent.

just as we are, (2 xs)

We may come with all our weakness, our folly, our sinfulness, and fall at His feet in penitence.

just as we are, (2 xs)

It is His glory to encircle us in the arms of His love (2 xs) and to bind up our wounds, to cleanses us from all impurity. (2 xs)

Jesus loves to have us come to Him just as we are, (2 xs)
sinful, helpless, dependent.

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

Before we hear your questions dear ones!

what you have read last Sabbath from*

*Part 1 of our Lesson entitled,
“In Remembrance of Me” Part 2
in our study book Desire of Ages!*

Raise your

The Desire of Ages, p.653

“And as they were eating, Jesus took bread,
and blessed it, and brake it,
and gave it to the disciples,
and said, Take, eat;
this is My body.
And He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;
for this is My blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.
But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom.”
{DA 653.3}

The Desire of Ages, p.653

Judas the betrayer was present at the sacramental service.

He received from Jesus
the emblems of His broken body and His spilled blood.

He heard the words,
“This do in remembrance of Me.”

And sitting there in the very presence of the Lamb of God,

the betrayer brooded upon his own dark purposes,

and cherished his sullen,
revengeful thoughts.

{DA 653.4}

The Desire of Ages, p.653

At the feet washing, Christ had given convincing proof that He understood the character of Judas.

“Ye are not all clean” (John 13:11), He said.

These words convinced the false disciple that Christ read his secret purpose.

Now Christ spoke out more plainly. As they were seated at the table He said, looking upon His disciples,

“I speak not of you all:

I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with Me hath lifted up his heel against Me.”

{DA 653.5}

The Desire of Ages, p.654

Even now the disciples did not suspect Judas. But they saw that Christ appeared greatly troubled. A cloud settled over them all, a premonition of some dreadful calamity, the nature of which they did not understand. As they ate in silence, Jesus said, “Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray Me.” At these words amazement and consternation seized them. {Next Slide Please}

The Desire of Ages, p.654

Continuing:
They could not comprehend how any one of them could deal treacherously with their divine Teacher. For what cause could they betray Him? and to whom? Whose heart could give birth to such a design?

Surely not one of the favored twelve, who had been privileged above all others to hear His teachings, who had shared His wonderful love, and for whom He had shown such great regard by bringing them into close communion with Himself!

{DA 654.1}

The Desire of Ages, p.654

As they realized the import of His words, and remembered how true His sayings were, fear and self-distrust seized them.

They began to search their own hearts to see if one thought against their Master were harbored there.

With the most painful emotion, one after another inquired,

“Lord, is it I?”

But Judas sat silent.

John in deep distress at last inquired, “Lord, who is it?”

{Next Slide Please}

Continuing:
And Jesus answered,
“He that dippeth his hand
with Me in the dish,
the same shall betray Me.
The Son of man goeth
as it is written of Him:
but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed!
it had been good for that man
if he had not been born.”
The disciples had searched one another’s faces closely as they asked, “Lord, is it I?”
{Next Slide Please}

Continuing:
And now the silence of Judas drew all eyes to him. Amid the confusion of questions and expressions of astonishment, Judas had not heard the words of Jesus in answer to John's question. But now, to escape the scrutiny of the disciples, he asked as they had done, "Master, is it I?" Jesus solemnly replied, "Thou hast said."
{DA 654.2}

The Desire of Ages, p.654

In surprise and confusion at the exposure of his purpose, Judas rose hastily to leave the room.

“Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly. . . . He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.”

Night it was to the traitor as he turned away from Christ into the outer darkness.

{DA 654.3}

The Lord Jesus is your personal intercessor. . . .
Repeat over and over many times through the day, “Jesus has died for me. He saw me in peril, exposed to destruction, and poured out His life to save me. He does not behold the soul as a trembling suppliant prostrate at His feet without pity, and He will not fail to raise me up.”
He has become the advocate for man. He has lifted up those who believe in Him and placed a treasure house of blessing at their demand. Men cannot bestow one blessing upon their fellows, they cannot remove one stain of sin.
It is only the merit and righteousness of Christ that will avail anything, but this is placed to our account in rich fullness. We may draw upon God every moment.
As we turn to Him, He answers, “Here I am.” {HP 79.2}

Homeschooling from the Bible

1). We love to sing together.
Our hearts and voices one:
To praise our heavenly Father
And His beloved Son.

2). We love to pray together
To Jesus on His throne.
And ask that He will ever Accept us as His own.

3). We love to read together
The Word of saving truth,
Whose light is shining ever.
To guide our early youth.

4). We love to be together
Upon the Sabbath day,
And strive to help each other
Along the heavenly way.

5). We hope to be together
Within that world of light,
Where Jesus reigns forever,
And all His friends unite.

6). Then let us sing together,
Cheerfully to the Son
And pray to God our Father,
Our hearts and voices one.

Have a Blessed and Peaceful Sabbath!

Our God Reigns

Do Good to Everyone

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. Galatians 6:10
