Our Tiny-Tots Song

508 - Anywhere With Jesus

Praise The Lord

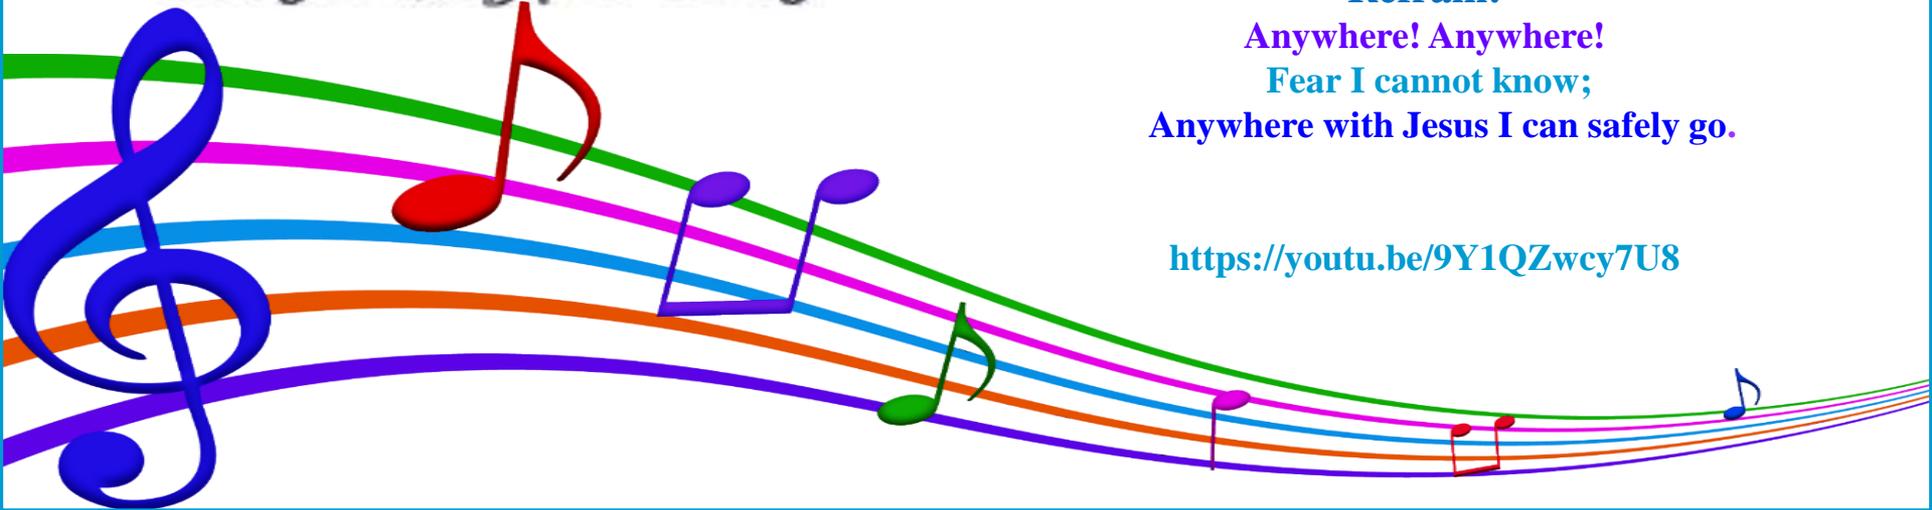

Sing A Joyful Song

- 1). Anywhere with Jesus I can safely go,
Anywhere He leads me in this world below;
Anywhere without Him, dearest joys would fade;
Anywhere with Jesus I am not afraid.
- 2). Anywhere with Jesus I am not alone;
Other friends may fail me, He is still my own;
Though His hand may lead me over dreary ways,
Anywhere with Jesus is a house of praise.
- 3). Anywhere with Jesus I can go to sleep,
When the gloomy shadows round about me creep,
Knowing I shall waken never more to roam;
Anywhere with Jesus will be home sweet home.

Refrain:

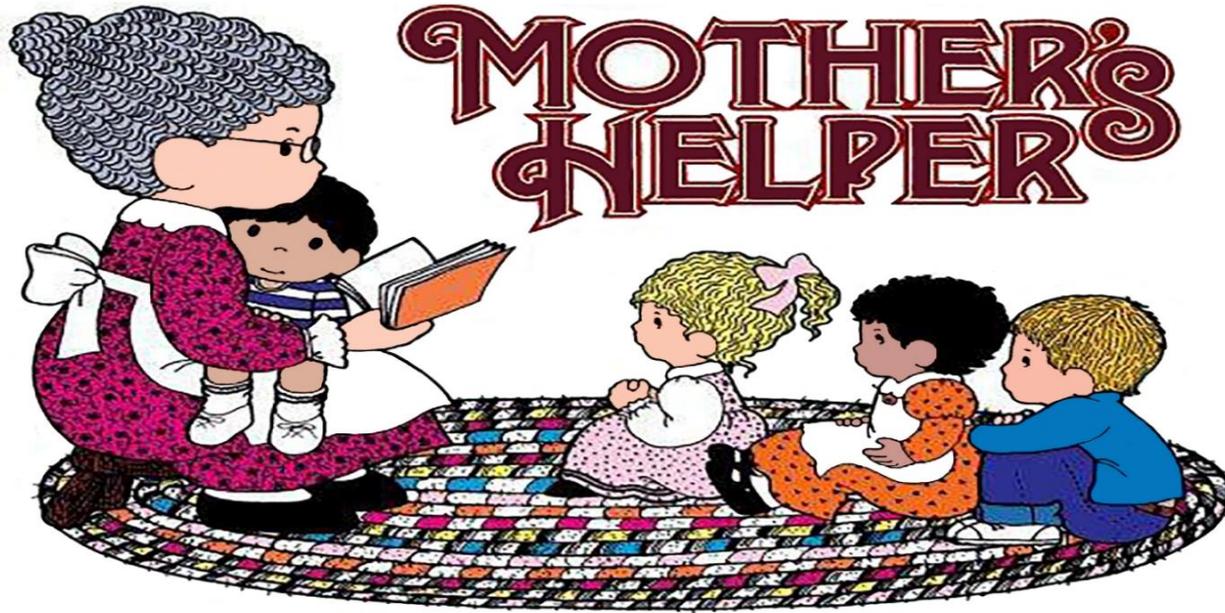

Anywhere! Anywhere!
Fear I cannot know;
Anywhere with Jesus I can safely go.

Chapter 2 - Jesus Presented in the Temple

Narrated by Our Dear Brother Graves

Chapter 2 - Jesus Presented in the Temple, (Luke Chapter 2:22)

Joseph and Mary were Jews, and followed the customs of their nation. When Jesus was six weeks old, they brought Him to the Lord in the temple at Jerusalem.

This was according to the law which God had given to Israel, and Jesus was to be obedient in all things.

So God's own Son, the Prince of Heaven, by His example teaches that we should obey.

Only the first-born son of each family was thus presented at the temple.

This ceremony was to keep in memory an event that had taken place long before.

When the children of Israel were slaves in Egypt,
the Lord sent Moses to set them free.

He bade Moses go to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and say:

“Thus saith the Lord, Israel is My son, even My firstborn: and I say unto thee, Let My son go, that he may serve Me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even thy firstborn.”

Exodus 4:22, 23.

(Next Slide)

Continuing:

Moses carried this message to the king.

But Pharaoh's answer was, “Who is the Lord, that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go.” Exodus 5:2.

Then the Lord sent fearful plagues upon the Egyptians.

The last of these plagues was the slaying of the first-born son of every family, from that of the king to the lowliest in the land.

The Lord told Moses that every family of the Israelites must kill a lamb, and put some of the blood upon the door-posts of their dwellings.

This was a sign, that the angel of death might pass over all the houses of the Israelites, and destroy none but the proud and cruel Egyptians.

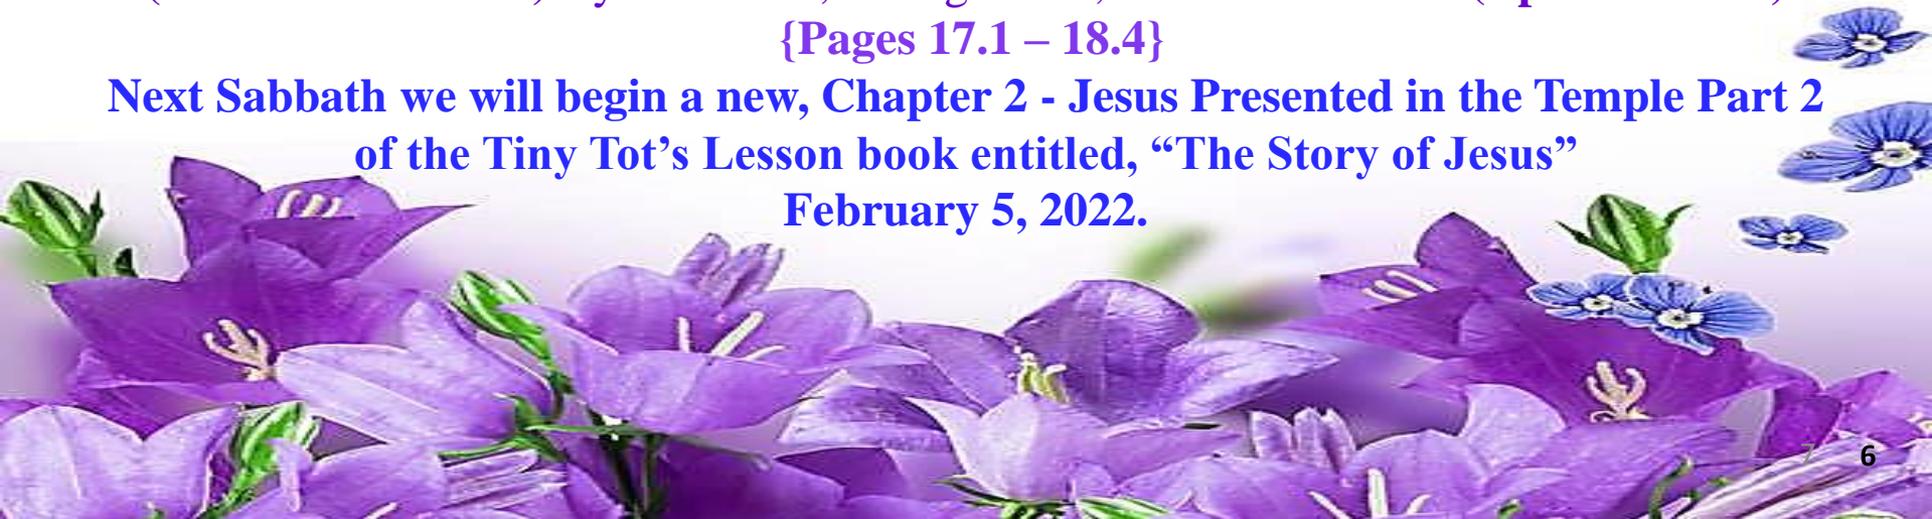

This blood of the “Passover” represented to the Jews the blood of Christ. For in due time, God would give His dear Son to be slain as the lamb had been slain; so that all who should believe in Him might be saved from everlasting death. Christ is called our Passover.

(1 Corinthians 5:7.) By His blood, through faith, we are redeemed. (Ephesians 1:7)

REVIEW!

Chapter. 5 - The Dedication

About forty days after the birth of Christ, Joseph and Mary took Him to Jerusalem, to present Him to the Lord, and to offer sacrifice. This was according to the Jewish law, and as man's substitute Christ must conform to the law in every particular. He had already been subjected to the rite of circumcision, as a pledge of His obedience to the law. {DA 50.1}

As an offering for the mother, the law required a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtledove for a sin offering. But the law provided that if the parents were too poor to bring a lamb, a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt offering, the other for a sin offering, might be accepted. {DA 50.2}

The offerings presented to the Lord were to be without blemish. These offerings represented Christ, and from this it is evident that Jesus Himself was free from physical deformity. He was the "lamb without blemish and without spot." 1 Peter 1:19. His physical structure was not marred by any defect; His body was strong and healthy. And throughout His lifetime He lived in conformity to nature's laws. Physically as well as spiritually, He was an example of what God designed all humanity to be through obedience to His laws.

{DA 50.3}

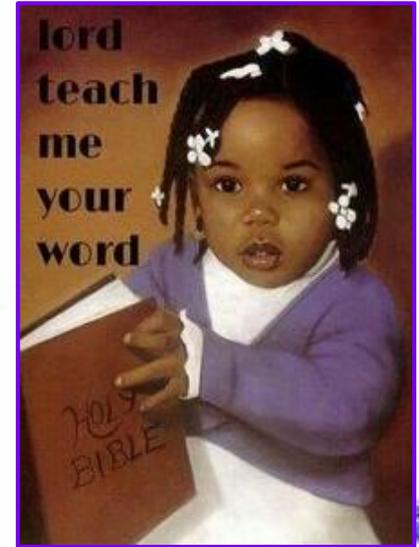

The dedication of the first-born had its origin in the earliest times. God had promised to give the First-born of heaven to save the sinner. This gift was to be acknowledged in every household by the consecration of the first-born son. He was to be devoted to the priesthood, as a representative of Christ among men.

The Water of LIFE Part 2
REVIEW

Wisdom
from Above

Nature

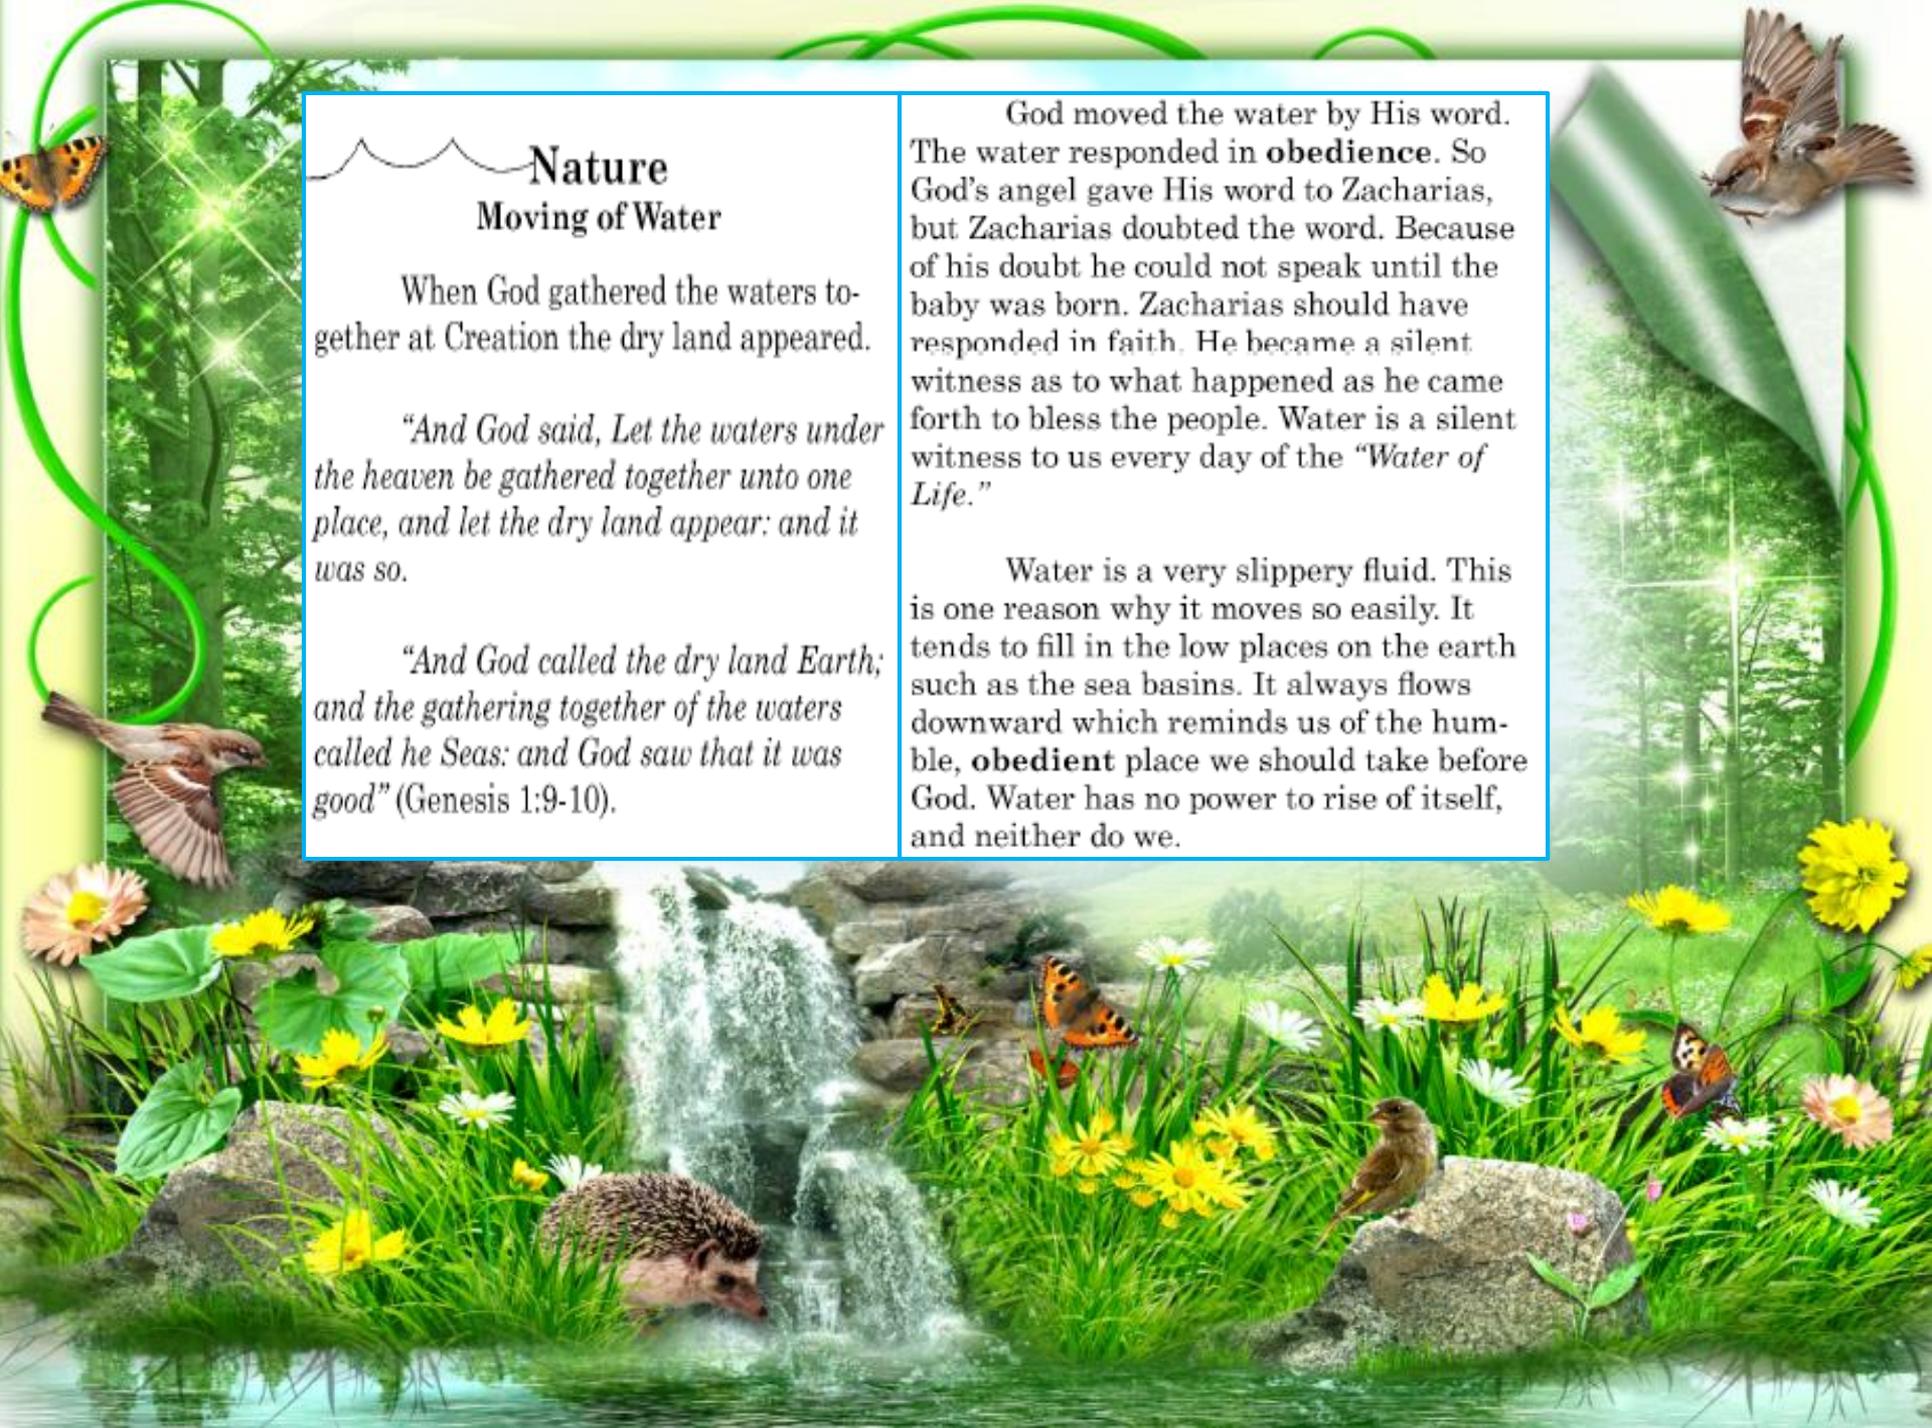

Water is Everywhere

The most common substance on this earth is water. It appears to be just a colorless, odorless tasteless liquid. It is actually a chemical whose reactions with others substances are vital to life. It is a compound of hydrogen and oxygen. Its chemical formula H_2O shows that each molecule of water contains two atoms of hydrogen and one atom of oxygen.

Water covers about 70 percent of this earth. You will find it in oceans, rivers, lakes, streams, under the ground and even in the air we breath. Water is everywhere! It is even inside us as well. Water carries nutrients to your cells and waste products from your body.

In Genesis we find that water covered the earth when it was first created. "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth...And the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters" (Genesis 1:1-2). In the Bible water also symbolizes people. "The waters which thou sawest...are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues" (Revelation 17:15). The Spirit of God was moving among the sea of priests and it chose Zacharias to burn incense.

To burn incense was to offer prayers before God for all of Israel. The Holy Spirit chose Zacharias for this sacred duty because he was "righteous before God." "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16). A righteous man is an obedient man. God can answer the prayers of such a man for it is written, "The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth" (Psalm 34:17).

Nature

Moving of Water

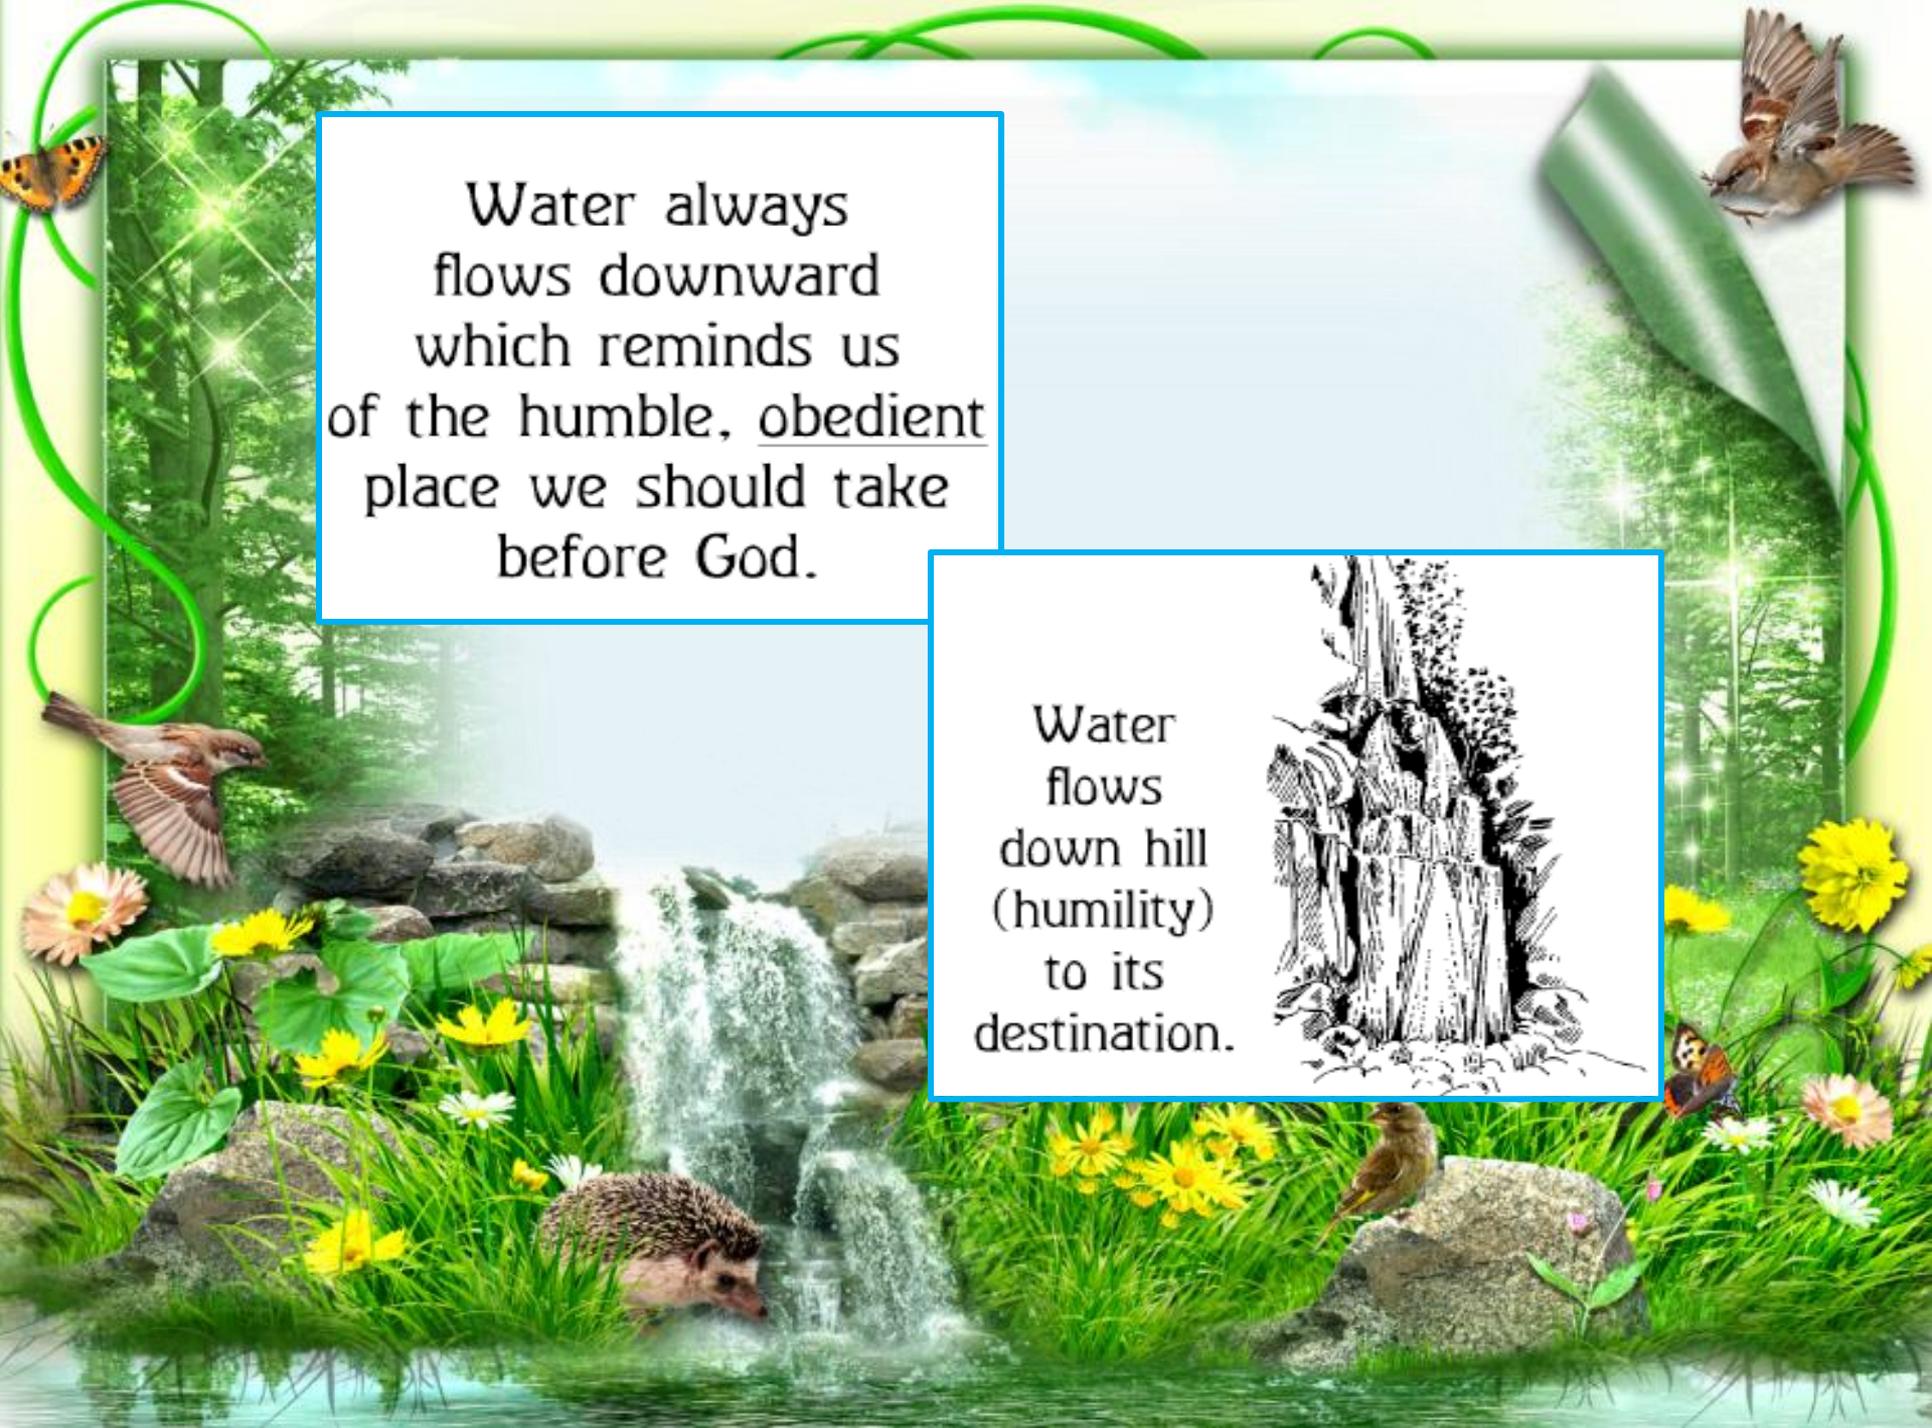

When God gathered the waters together at Creation the dry land appeared.

“And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

“And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good” (Genesis 1:9-10).

God moved the water by His word. The water responded in obedience. So God’s angel gave His word to Zacharias, but Zacharias doubted the word. Because of his doubt he could not speak until the baby was born. Zacharias should have responded in faith. He became a silent witness as to what happened as he came forth to bless the people. Water is a silent witness to us every day of the “Water of Life.”

Water is a very slippery fluid. This is one reason why it moves so easily. It tends to fill in the low places on the earth such as the sea basins. It always flows downward which reminds us of the humble, obedient place we should take before God. Water has no power to rise of itself, and neither do we.

Water always flows downward which reminds us of the humble, obedient place we should take before God.

destination.

1). I am Thine, O Lord, I have heard Thy voice,
And it told Thy love to me;
But I long to rise in the arms of faith,
And be closer drawn to Thee.

2). Consecrate me now to Thy service, Lord,
By the power of grace divine;
May my soul look up with a steadfast hope
And my will be lost in Thine.

3). O the pure delight of a single hour
That before Thy throne I spend,
When I kneel in prayer, and with Thee, my God,
I commune as friend with friend!

Draw me nearer, nearer, blessed Lord,
To the cross where Thou hast died;
Draw me nearer, nearer, nearer, blessed Lord,
To Thy precious, bleeding side.

In my Father's house are many mansions:
if [it were] not [so], I would have told you.

I go to prepare a place for you.

The Desire of Ages, p.668

As Christ lived the law in humanity, so we may do if we will take hold of the Strong for strength. But we are not to place the responsibility of our duty upon others, and wait for them to tell us what to do. We cannot depend for counsel upon humanity. The Lord will teach us our duty just as willingly as He will teach somebody else. (Next Slide Place)

FAITH:

The substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. It cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

If we come to Him in faith,

us as He did with Enoch.

Those who decide to do

Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

John 16:7

Before offering Himself as the sacrificial victim, Christ sought for the most essential and complete gift to bestow upon His followers, a gift that would bring within their reach the boundless resources of grace. “I will pray the Father,” He said, {Next Slide Please}

The Spirit of Truth

Continuing: “and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him: but ye know Him; for He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

I will not leave you orphans: I will come to you.”

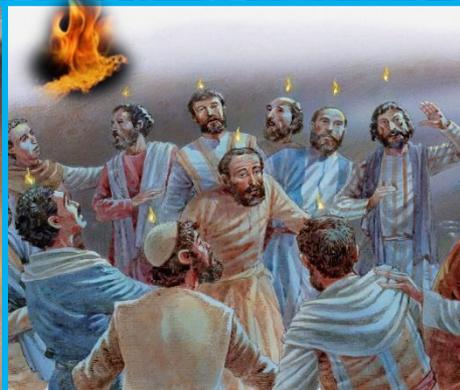

John 14:16-18, margin.

{DA 668.5}

IN THE BEGINNING GOD

GENESIS 1:1

He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name.
- Psalms 111:9 (KJV) -

Before this the Spirit had been in the world; from the very beginning of the work of redemption He had been moving upon men's hearts. But while Christ was on earth, the disciples had desired no other helper. Not until they were deprived of His presence would they feel their need of the Spirit, and then He would come.
{DA 669.1}

The Desire of Ages, p.669

The Holy Spirit is Christ's representative, but divested of the personality of humanity, and independent thereof. Cumbered with humanity, Christ could not be in every place personally. Therefore it was for their interest that He should go to the Father, and send the Spirit to be His successor on earth. No one could then have any advantage because of his location or his personal contact with Christ. By the Spirit the Saviour would be accessible to all. In this sense He would be nearer to them than if He had not ascended on high.

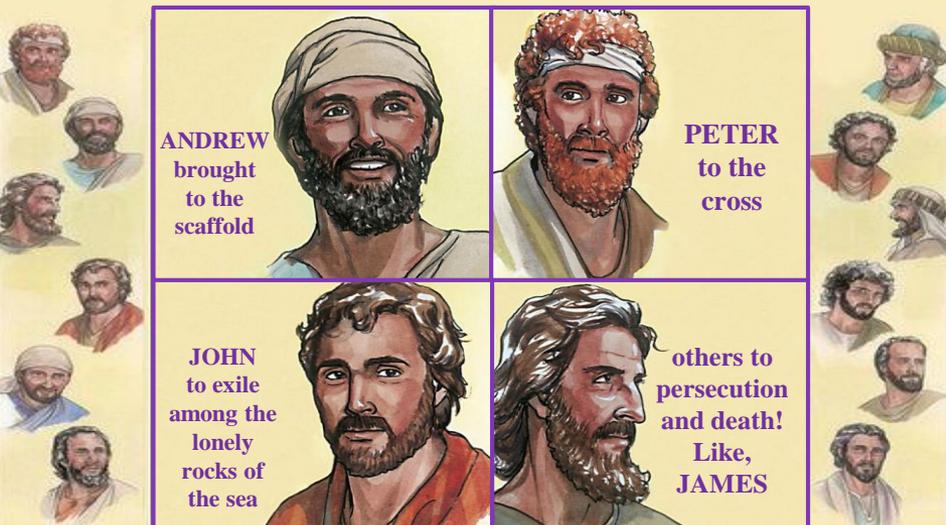

{DA 669.2}

The Desire of Ages, p.669

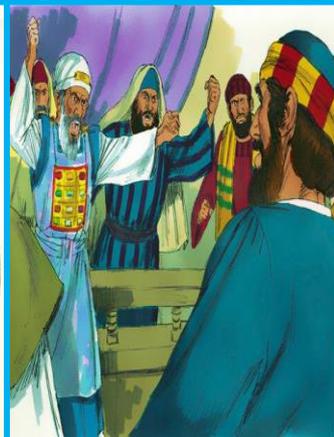

“He that loveth Me shall be loved of My Father, and I will love him, and will manifest Myself to him.”

Jesus read the future of His disciples.

He saw one brought to the scaffold, one to the cross, one to exile among the lonely rocks of the sea, others to persecution and death. He encouraged them with the promise that in every trial He would be with them. That promise has lost none of its force. {Next Slide Please}

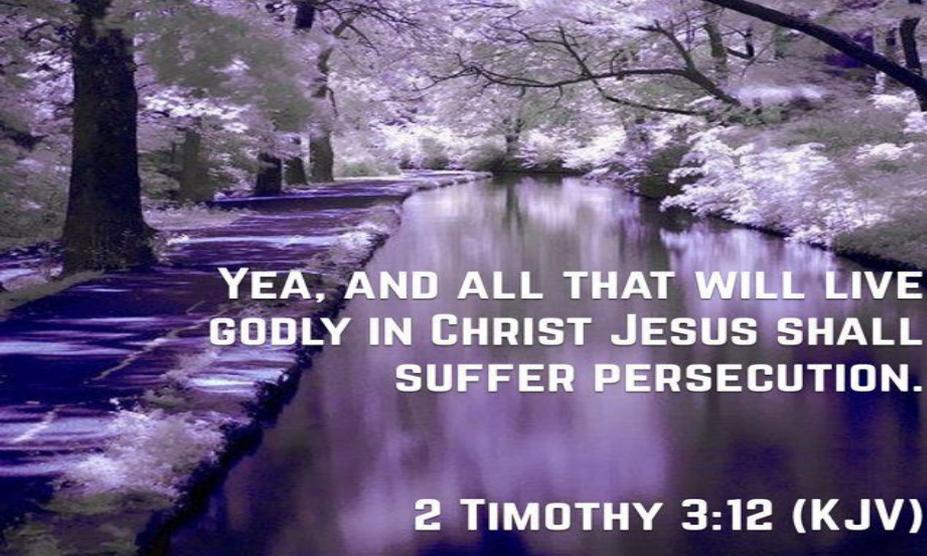

Romans 8:38-39 KJV
For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Continuing:
The Lord knows all about His faithful servants who for His sake are lying in prison or who are banished to lonely islands.
He comforts them with
His own presence.
When for the truth's sake
the believer stands at the Christ stands by his side.

fall upon Christ.

Continuing:
Christ is condemned over again
in the person of His disciple.
When one is incarcerated in prison walls, Christ ravishes
the heart with His love.
When one suffers death
for His sake, Christ says,
“I am He that liveth,

RH - The Review and Herald*

All things are possible to those that believe.
No one coming to the Lord in sincerity of heart will be disappointed.

How wonderful it is that we can pray effectually, that unworthy, erring mortals possess the power of offering their requests to God! What higher power can man require than this,—to be linked with the infinite God? Feeble, sinful man has the privilege of speaking to his Maker.

We utter words that reach the throne of the Monarch of the universe.
We pour out our heart's desire in our closets.
Then we go forth to walk with God as did Enoch.
{RH, October 30, 1900 par. 15}

We speak with Jesus Christ as we walk
by the way, and he says,
“I am at thy right hand.”

We may walk in daily companionship with Christ.
When we breathe out our desire,
it may be inaudible to any human ear,
but that word can not die away into silence, nor can it be lost, though the activities of business are going on.

Nothing can drown the soul's desire.
It rises above the din of the street, above the noise of machinery, to the heavenly courts. It is God to whom we are speaking, and the prayer is heard.
Ask then; "ask, and it shall be given you."
{RH, October 30, 1900 par. 16}

1). I’ve found the straight and narrow way,
A pleasant path from day to day;
Come, children, choose this blessed road,
It leads to glory---leads to God.

2). The broad road once was my delight,
Before my Saviour gave me sight;
And though the world may pleasures bring,
Yet worldly pleasures leave a sting.

3). But peace there is in this bright way,
The world gives not, nor takes away;
O keep me humble at Thy feet,
Diligently Thy law I’d keep.

4). Come, children---Jesus pleading stands,
Holds out to you His nail-scarred hands
For you He suffered on the cross,
O now for Him count all things loss.

5). O come, the angels wait today.
To bear the glorious news away;
Great joy in heaven will there be
O’er every child from sin set free.

6). Children! Your parents weep and pray
And mourn to see you go astray.
O come, no longer grieve your God,
Accept His Son---obey His word.

7). Yea come---and now---no longer wait,
Another hour may be too late;
The Saviour’s work will soon be done,
The Spirit cease to whisper, “Come,”

4). This way is not a dreary way,
With Jesus near us every day;
O come and try it---taste His love---
Be faithful---and there’s rest above.

Psalms 119:45

And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts. The youth have an inborn love of liberty; they desire freedom; and they need to understand that these inestimable blessings are to be enjoyed only in obedience to the law of God. This law is the preserver of true freedom and liberty. It points out and prohibits those things that degrade and enslave, and thus to the obedient it affords protection from the power of evil. {ED-Education 291.2}
