Our Tiny-Tots Song

508 - Anywhere With Jesus

- 1). Anywhere with Jesus I can safely go,
Anywhere He leads me in this world below;
Anywhere without Him, dearest joys would fade;
Anywhere with Jesus I am not afraid.
- 2). Anywhere with Jesus I am not alone;
Other friends may fail me, He is still my own;
Though His hand may lead me over dreary ways, Anywhere with Jesus is a house of praise.
- 3). Anywhere with Jesus I can go to sleep,
When the gloomy shadows round about me creep,
Knowing I shall waken never more to roam;
Anywhere with Jesus will be home sweet home.

Refrain:

Anywhere! Anywhere!

Fear I cannot know;

Anywhere with Jesus I can safely go.

“The Story of Jesus”

Chapter 4 -The Flight Into Egypt

By: [Adapted from EGW material] (1896, 1900)

Narrated by Our Dear Brother Graves

The Bible verses for the second part of our lessons are taken from the book of:
Matthew Chapter 2:13-16, 20 (KJV)

- 2:13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.
- 2:14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:
- 2:15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.
- 2:16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.
- 2:20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

Chapter 4 – The Flight Into Egypt

Herod had not been honest in saying that he wanted to go and worship Jesus. He feared that the Saviour would grow up to be a king, and take his kingdom from him.

He wanted to find the child, that he might have Him put to death.

The wise men prepared to return and tell Herod. But the angel of the Lord appeared to them in a dream, and sent them home another way.

“And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and His mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy Him.” Matthew 2:13.

Joseph did not wait till morning; he rose at once, and with Mary and the child, started by night on the long journey.

The wise men had given costly presents to Jesus, and in this way God provided for the expenses of the journey and their stay in Egypt, until they should return to their own land.

Herod was very angry when he found that the wise men had gone home another way.

He knew what God by His prophet had said about Christ's coming.

(Next Slide)

Continuing:

He knew how the star had been sent as a guide to the wise men. Yet he was determined to destroy Jesus.
In his wrath he sent soldiers to kill “all the children that were in Bethlehem, . . .
from two years old and under.” Matthew 2:16.

How strange that a man should fight against God! What an awful scene this slaying of the innocent children must have been! Herod had before done many cruel things; but his wicked life was soon to end.

He died a terrible death. Joseph and Mary remained in Egypt till after the death of Herod.

Then the angel appeared to Joseph, and said, “Arise, and take the young child and His mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.” Matthew 2:20.

Joseph had hoped to make his home in Bethlehem, where Jesus was born; but on coming near to Judea, he learned that a son of Herod was reigning in place of his father.

This made Joseph afraid to go there, and he did not know what to do; so God sent an angel to instruct him. Following the directions of the angel, Joseph returned to his old home in Nazareth.

Chapter 6 – “We Have Seen His Star” Part 3

Satan was bent on shutting out the divine light from the world, and he used his utmost cunning to destroy the Saviour. But He who never slumbers nor sleeps was watching over His beloved Son. He who had rained manna from heaven for Israel and had fed Elijah in the time of famine provided in a heathen land a refuge for Mary and the child Jesus. And through the gifts of the magi from a heathen country, the Lord supplied the means for the journey into Egypt and the sojourn in a land of strangers. {DA 65.1}

The magi had been among the first to welcome the Redeemer. Their gift was the first that was laid at His feet. And through that gift, what privilege of ministry was theirs! The offering from the heart that loves, God delights to honor, giving it highest efficiency in service for Him.

If we have given our hearts to Jesus, we also shall bring our gifts to Him. Our gold and silver, our most precious earthly possessions, our highest mental and spiritual endowments, will be freely devoted to Him who loved us, and gave Himself for us. {DA 65.2}

Herod in Jerusalem impatiently awaited the return of the wise men. As time passed, and they did not appear, his suspicions were roused. The unwillingness of the rabbis to point out the Messiah's birthplace seemed to indicate that they had penetrated his design, and that the magi had purposely avoided him. He was maddened at the thought

Craft had failed, but there was left the resort to force.

He would make an example of this child-king. Those haughty Jews should see what they might expect in their attempts to place a monarch on the throne. {DA 65.3}

Soldiers were at once sent to Bethlehem, with orders to put to death all the children of two years and under. The quiet homes of the city of David witnessed those scenes of horror that, six hundred years before, had been opened to the prophet.

"In Ramah was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not." {DA 65.4}

This calamity the Jews had brought upon themselves. If they had been walking in faithfulness and humility before God, He would in a signal manner have made the wrath of the king harmless to them. But they had separated themselves from God by their sins, and had rejected the Holy Spirit, which was their only shield. They had not studied the Scriptures with a desire to conform to the will of God.

They had searched for prophecies which could be interpreted to exalt themselves, and to show how God despised all other nations. It was their proud boast that the Messiah was to come as a king, conquering His enemies, and treading down the heathen in His wrath. Thus they had excited the hatred of their rulers. Through their misrepresentation of Christ's mission, Satan had purposed to compass the destruction of the Saviour; but instead of this, it returned upon their own heads.

Wisdom

Research

Herod

The wise men of the east were truly wise men!

"Herod in Jerusalem impatiently awaited the return of the wise men. As time passed, and they did not appear, his suspicions were roused. The unwillingness of the rabbis to point out the Messiah's birthplace seemed to indicate that they had penetrated his design, and that the magi had purposely avoided him. He was maddened at the thought. Craft had failed, but there was left the resort to force. He would make an example of this child-king. Those haughty Jews should see what they might expect in their attempts to place a monarch on the throne.

"Soldiers were at once sent to Bethlehem, with orders to put to death all the children of two years and under. The quiet homes of the city of David witnessed those scenes of horror that, six hundred years before, had been opened to the prophet. 'In Ramah was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.'

"This act of cruelty was one of the last that darkened the reign of Herod. Soon after the slaughter of the innocents, he was himself compelled to yield to that doom which none can turn aside. He died a fearful death." (The Desire of Ages 65-66) Herod was not a man of integrity! He was jealous that Christ might take his place. "Jealousy is cruel as the grave" (Song of Solomon 8:6).

"Evil men understand not judgment:
but they that seek the Lord understand all things."

Proverbs 28:5

Research Dreams

"The wise men had not penetrated Herod's design toward Jesus. When the object of their journey was accomplished, they prepared to return to Jerusalem, intending to acquaint him with their success. But in a dream they received a divine message to hold no further communication with him. Avoiding Jerusalem, they set out for their own country by another route.

"In like manner Joseph received warning to flee into Egypt with Mary and the child. And the angel said, 'Be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.' Joseph obeyed without delay, setting out on the journey by night for greater security." (The Desire of Ages 64)

The wise men were men of integrity. Herod was not a man of integrity. He was a stranger to the voice of God.

Nature Snow and Sleet

Snowflakes are made of tiny ice crystals. Characters are made of little daily acts. Ice crystals are formed from water vapor in cold clouds. They bump against one another, stick together and form snow flakes. Correct little acts can form into good habits. The soft, light snow can also be very powerful. During a snowstorm, roads are covered and homes are cut off from the world. Avalanches of snow can sweep down a mountainside and cause fearful destruction in their paths. These things teach us the power in little things.

The quietly falling snowflakes coming from above can remind us of the silent ways instructions from Heaven can come to people, like the dreams that the wise men and Joseph had.

Snow crystals grow into plate-like and columnar patterns depending on the temperature and other things. Remember, plate-like crystals are flat, and six-sided. They can also grow in the shape of six-pointed stars with each point looking like a fern. Columnar crystals look like long needles of ice.

Some snow crystals are hollow inside. A snow crystal's shape may change from one shape to another as the crystal passes through the varying temperatures in each layer of air. The temperature change causes the change in the snowflake. The wise men had to change their plans when the angel told them what Herod planned to do. So did Joseph!

When snow crystals or raindrops fall through cold air we call this sleet. It freezes into small particles of clear ice as it falls.

Falling ice crystals that collide with very cold water droplets become snow pellets (graupel). When they hit one another again and again, the pellets grow until they form hail. This reminds us of what will happen to those who do not form right characters (integrity). (Read Revelation 16:21.) Jesus came to show us how to develop integrity.

Snowflakes come in many sizes. One snowflake can have as many as 100 ice crystals forming a snowflake no larger than one inch (2.5 Centimeters) across! Snowflakes have many different shapes but all have six sides. Snow has much less water than rain. The number six in the Bible reminds us of man. The lovely snowflakes with six sides can remind us of man and the beautiful character traits like integrity he can have through Christ.

Men do not look individually at very many of the billions of lovely snowflakes that fall each year. But just the same, the Heavenly Artist forms each one with such delicate beauty as though it were to be displayed before the universe. Many people who live humble lives sometimes feel that whatever they do is not worth anything. But God notices and appreciates the beauty of their characters even though they go unnoticed by the world.

After the early frosts of wintertime have killed the living green carpet of the earth, the snow comes along to cover the brown, barren earth with its mantle of perfect purity. This reminds us of why Jesus came. He would cover the ugly damage made by the chilling frosts of sin in our lives with the snowy mantle of His righteousness. “Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow” (Isaiah 1:18).

And it told Thy love to me;
But I long to rise in the arms of faith,
And be closer drawn to Thee.
- 2). Consecrate me now to Thy service, Lord,
By the power of grace divine;
May my soul look up with a steadfast hope
And my will be lost in Thine.

That before Thy throne I spend,
When I kneel in prayer, and with Thee, my God,
I commune as friend with friend!

Draw me nearer, nearer, blessed Lord,
To the cross where Thou hast died;
Draw me nearer, nearer, nearer, blessed Lord,

ABIDING IN CHRIST

I am the vine, you are the branches. John 15:5

The Desire of Ages, p.676

This union with Christ, once formed, must be maintained.

Christ said,
“Abide in Me,
and I in you.
As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself,
except it abide in the vine;

no more can ye,
except ye abide in Me.”

This is no casual touch, no off-and-on connection.
The branch becomes a part of the living vine.
{Next Slide Please}

The Desire of Ages, p.676

Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me.

JOHN 15:4

Continuing:
The communication of life, strength, and fruitfulness from the root to the branches is unobstructed and constant.
Separated from the vine,
the branch cannot live.
No more, said Jesus, can you live apart from Me.
The life you have received from Me can be preserved only by continual communion.
Without Me you cannot overcome one sin,
or resist one temptation.
{DA 676.1}

Remain In Me

HELPING YOUR CHILD
CONNECT WITH GOD
THROUGH NATURE

The Desire of Ages, p.676

“Abide in Me, and I in you.”

Abiding in Christ means a constant receiving of His Spirit, a life of unreserved surrender to His service.

The channel of communication must be open continually between man and his God.

As the vine branch constantly draws the sap from the living vine, so are we to cling to Jesus, and receive from Him by faith the strength and perfection of His own character.

{DA 676.2}

The root sends its nourishment through the branch to the outermost twig.
So Christ communicates the current of spiritual strength to every believer.

So long as the soul is united to Christ, there is no danger that it will wither or decay.
{DA 676.3}

The Desire of Ages, p.676

The life of the vine will be manifest in fragrant fruit on the branches.
“He that abideth in Me,
“said Jesus,” and I in him,
the same bringeth forth much fruit:
for without Me ye can do nothing.”
When we live by faith
on the Son of God, the fruits of the Spirit will be seen in our lives;
not one will be missing.
{DA 676.4}

The Desire of Ages, p.676

“My Father is the husbandman.
Every branch in Me that beareth not fruit He taketh away.”

While the graft is outwardly united with the vine, there may be no vital connection.

Then there will be no growth or fruitfulness.

So there may be an apparent connection with Christ without a real union with Him by faith.

A profession of religion places men in the church, but the character and conduct show whether they are in connection with Christ.

John 15:6 (KJV)
If a man abide not in me,
he is cast forth as a branch,
and is withered; and men gather them, and cast [them] into the fire,
and they are burned.

Continuing:
If they bear no fruit,
they are false branches.
Their separation from Christ involves a ruin as complete as that represented by the dead branch.
“If a man abide not in Me,”
said Christ,
“he is cast forth as a branch,
and is withered;
and men gather them,
and cast them into the fire,
and they are burned.”

{DA 676.5}

...every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. —John 15:2

“And every branch that beareth fruit,
He purgeth [pruneth] it, that it may bring forth more fruit.”

From the chosen twelve who had followed Jesus, one as a withered branch was about to be taken away;
the rest were to pass under the pruning knife of bitter trial.
Jesus with solemn tenderness explained the purpose of the husbandman.

you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.
Herein is My Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be My disciples.
John 15:7-8

The Desire of Ages, p.676

Continuing:
The pruning will cause pain, but it is the Father who applies the knife.

He works with no wanton hand or indifferent heart.

There are branches
trailing upon the ground;
these must be cut loose from the earthly supports to which their tendrils are fastening.

They are to reach heavenward, and find their support in God.

The Desire of Ages, p.676

Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

John 15:2 (KJV)

Continuing:
The excessive foliage that draws away the life current from the fruit must be pruned off.
The overgrowth must be cut out, to give room for the healing beams of the Sun of Righteousness.
The husbandman prunes away the harmful growth, that the fruit may be richer and more abundant.

Sharing a Thought taking from YI - The Youth's Instructor

The created works of God are a pictured history of ministry. The sun is doing its appointed work in ministering to all animate and inanimate nature. It causes the trees to grow, and yield their blessings in fruit. It causes vegetation to flourish for the benefit of man. The moon also has its mission. It makes light in the night-time for our happiness, and the stars also are marshaled in the heavens to minister to the enjoyment of the world. None of us can fully understand the appointment of these silent watchers, but they all have their work of ministry. The deep waters, too, have their place in God's great plan.

{YI, August 19, 1897 par. 4}

The mountains and the rocks are subjects for meditation, and contain lessons for the student. Everything in nature—the humblest flower, and the grass that carpets the earth with its covering of green—proclaims the goodness and love of God to man.
{YI, August 19, 1897 par. 4}

Sharing a Thought taking from YI - The Youth's Instructor

"These things of God's creation have their foundation in the plans and methods of the Deity. His thoughts and works are so connected with one another that we can read in nature the great love of God for a fallen world. The universe contains one great masterpiece of infinite Wisdom in the innumerable diversities of his great works, which, in their matchless variety, form a perfect whole.

{YI, August 19, 1897 par. 5}

By close investigations, God's innumerable providences in the natural world are found to have connection one with another; and in tracing these links in the chain of Providence, we are led to become better acquainted with the great Center. This is a truth worthy of our careful study. Jesus Christ is the one great Unity; he possesses the attributes that harmonize all diversities. And he, the Gift above all others, was given to our world to give expression to the mind and character of God, that every intelligent being, if he will, may see God in the revelation of his Son.

{YI, August 19, 1897 par. 5- 6}
