Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Our Opening Hymn is entitled,
“Near to the Heart of God” #495

- 1). There is a place of quiet rest,
Near to the heart of God,
A place where sin cannot molest,
Near to the heart of God.
- 2). There is a place of comfort sweet,
Near to the heart of God,
A place where we our Savior meet,
Near to the heart of God.
- 3). There is a place of full release,
Near to the heart of God,
A place where all is joy and peace,
Near to the heart of God.

Refrain:

O Jesus, blest Redeemer, Sent from the heart of God, Hold us, who wait before Thee, Near to the heart of God.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #74, Pages 686 – 687

Christ was now standing in a different attitude from that in which He had ever stood before. His suffering can best be described in the words of the prophet, "Awake, O sword, against My shepherd, and against the man that is My fellow, saith the Lord of hosts." Zechariah 13:7. As the substitute and surety for sinful man, Christ was suffering under divine justice. He saw what justice meant. Hitherto He had been as an intercessor for others; now He longed to have an intercessor for Himself. {DA 686.4}

As Christ felt His unity with the Father broken up, He feared that in His human nature He would be unable to endure the coming conflict with the powers of darkness. In the wilderness of temptation the destiny of the human race had been at stake. Christ was then conqueror. Now the tempter had come for the last fearful struggle. For this he had been preparing during the three years of Christ's ministry. Everything was at stake with him. If he failed here, his hope of mastery was lost; the kingdoms of the world would finally become Christ's; he himself would be overthrown and cast out. But if Christ could be overcome, the earth would become Satan's kingdom, and the human race would be forever in his power. With the issues of the conflict before Him, Christ's soul was filled with dread of separation from God. Satan told Him that if He became the surety for a sinful world, the separation would be eternal. He would be identified with Satan's kingdom, and would nevermore be one with God. {DA 686.5}

Psalms 17:4-5 (KJV)

Concerning the works of men,
by the word of thy lips

I have kept [me from] the paths of the destroyer.

Hold up my goings in thy paths,
[that] my footsteps slip not.

Psalms 17:4-5

And what was to be gained by this sacrifice? How hopeless appeared the guilt and ingratitude of men! In its hardest features Satan pressed the situation upon the Redeemer: The people who claim to be above all others in temporal and spiritual advantages have rejected You. They are seeking to destroy You, the foundation, the center and seal of the promises made to them as a peculiar people. One of Your own disciples, who has listened to Your instruction, and has been among the foremost in church activities, will betray You. One of Your most zealous followers will deny You. All will forsake You. Christ's whole being abhorred the thought. That those whom He had undertaken to save, those whom He loved so much, should unite in the plots of Satan, this pierced His soul. The conflict was terrible. Its measure was the guilt of His nation, of His accusers and betrayer, the guilt of a world lying in wickedness. The sins of men weighed heavily upon Christ, and the sense of God's wrath against sin was crushing out His life. {DA 687.1}

Behold Him contemplating the price to be paid for the human soul. In His agony He clings to the cold ground, as if to prevent Himself from being drawn farther from God. The chilling dew of night falls upon His prostrate form, but He heeds it not. From His pale lips comes the bitter cry, "O My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me." Yet even now He adds, "Nevertheless not as I will, but as Thou wilt." {DA 687.2}

Psalms 143:9-11 (KJV) Margin...

Deliver me, O LORD,
from mine enemies:
I flee unto thee (O LORD) to hide me.
Teach me to do thy will;
for thou [art] my God:
thy spirit [is] good;
lead me into the land of uprightness.
Quicken me, O LORD,
for thy name's sake:
(Quicken me, O LORD,)
for thy righteousness' sake
(I flee unto thee to hide me) bring my soul out of trouble.
Psalms 143 verses 9 through 11

The human heart longs for sympathy in suffering. This longing Christ felt to the very depths of His being. In the supreme agony of His soul He came to His disciples with a yearning desire to hear some words of comfort from those whom He had so often blessed and comforted, and shielded in sorrow and distress. The One who had always had words of sympathy for them was now suffering superhuman agony, and He longed to know that they were praying for Him and for themselves. How dark seemed the malignity of sin! Terrible was the temptation to let the human race bear the consequences of its own guilt, while He stood innocent before God. If He could only know that His disciples understood and appreciated this, He would be strengthened. {DA 687.3}

Song Let's learn our last beautiful scripture song together, dear ones, from the book of Psalms!
A Memory Verse Scripture Song,
It will be sung by Acapella!

Psalms 139:23-24 (KJV) Margin...

Search me, O God,
and know my heart:
try me, and know my thoughts:
And see if [there be any] wicked way in me,
and lead me in the way everlasting. (2 x)

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled, “Story of Jesus”
Chapter 6 - Days of Conflict
Luke Chapter 2:52 (KJV)

The Jewish teachers made many rules for the people, and required them to do many things that God had not commanded. Even the children had to learn and obey these rules. But Jesus did not try to learn what the rabbis taught. He was careful not to speak disrespectfully of these teachers, but He studied the Scriptures, and obeyed the laws of God. {SJ 37.1}

Often He was reproved for not obeying what others did. Then He showed from the Bible what was the right way. {SJ 37.2}

Jesus was always trying to make others happy. Because He was so kind and gentle, the rabbis hoped to make Him do as they did. But they could not. When urged to obey their rules He asked what the Bible taught. Whatever that said, He would do. {SJ 37.3}

This made the rabbis angry. They knew that their rules were contrary to the Bible, and yet they were displeased with Jesus for refusing to obey them. {SJ 37.4}

They complained of Him to His parents. Joseph and Mary thought the rabbis good men, and Jesus suffered blame, which was hard to bear. {SJ 37.5}

The brothers of Jesus took sides with the rabbis. The words of these teachers, they said, should be heeded as the word of God. They reproved Jesus for setting Himself above the leaders of the people. {SJ 38.1}

The rabbis thought themselves better than other men, and they would not associate with the common people. The poor and ignorant they despised. Even the sick and suffering they left without hope or comfort. {SJ 38.2}

Jesus showed a loving interest in all men. Every suffering one whom He met, He tried to help. He had little money to give, but He often denied Himself of food in order to help others. {SJ 38.3}

When His brothers spoke harshly to poor, wretched beings, Jesus would go to these very ones and speak words of kindness and encouragement. {SJ 38.4}

To those who were hungry and thirsty, He would bring a cup of cold water, and often would give them the food intended for His own meal. {SJ 38.5}

All this displeased His brothers. They threatened and tried to terrify Him, but He kept right on, doing as God had said. {SJ 38.6}
