

Children Sabbath School Lesson #359 for 6-25-2022
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Our Opening Hymn is entitled,
“Near to the Heart of God” #495

- | | | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1). There is a place of quiet rest,
Near to the heart of God,
A place where sin cannot molest,
Near to the heart of God. | 2). There is a place of comfort sweet,
Near to the heart of God,
A place where we our Savior meet,
Near to the heart of God. | 3). There is a place of full release,
Near to the heart of God,
A place where all is joy and peace,
Near to the heart of God. |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Refrain: O Jesus, blest Redeemer, Sent from the heart of God, Hold us, who wait before Thee, Near to the heart of God.

Opening Prayer – requesting one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer

Lesson #358 “Gethsemane” Part 3

Mark 14:27 (KJV)

And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 3 in of our lesson entitled, “Gethsemane” in our lesson book, Desire of Ages!

Mark 14:29 (KJV)

But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet [will] not I.

Mark 14:37 (KJV)

And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldst not thou watch one hour?

Mark 14:38 (KJV)

Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly [is] ready, but the flesh [is] weak.

Mark 14:39 (KJV)

And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

Mark 14:40 (KJV)

And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

Mark 14:41 (KJV)

And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take [your] rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Mark 14:42 (KJV)

Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

Matthew 20:22 (KJV)

But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #74, Pages 688 – 689

Rising with painful effort, He staggered to the place where He had left His companions. But He “findeth them asleep.” Had He found them praying, He would have been relieved. Had they been seeking refuge in God, that satanic agencies might not prevail over them, He would have been comforted by their steadfast faith. But they had not heeded the repeated warning, “Watch and pray.” At first they had been much troubled to see their Master, usually so calm and dignified, wrestling with a sorrow that was beyond comprehension. They had prayed as they heard the strong cries of the sufferer. They did not intend to forsake their Lord, but they seemed paralyzed by a stupor which they might have shaken off if they had continued pleading with God. They did not realize the necessity of watchfulness and earnest prayer in order to withstand temptation. {DA 688.1}

Isaiah 40:31 (KJV)

But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew [their] strength;
they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary;
[and] they shall walk, and not faint.

Isaiah 40 verse 31

Just before He bent His footsteps to the garden, Jesus had said to the disciples, “All ye shall be offended because of Me this night.” They had given Him the strongest assurance that they would go with Him to prison and to death. And poor, self-sufficient Peter had added, “Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.” Mark 14:27, 29. But the disciples trusted to themselves. They did not look to the mighty Helper as Christ had counseled them to do. Thus when the Saviour was most in need of their sympathy and prayers, they were found asleep. Even Peter was sleeping. {DA 688.2}

Psalms 42:1, 2 (KJV)

As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.
My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God:
My soul thirsteth for the living God

Psalms 42:1 and 2

And John, the loving disciple who had leaned upon the breast of Jesus, was asleep. Surely, the love of John for his Master should have kept him awake. His earnest prayers should have mingled with those of his loved Saviour in the time of His supreme sorrow. The Redeemer had spent entire nights praying for His disciples, that their faith might not fail. Should Jesus now put to James and John the question He had once asked them, “Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?” they would not have ventured to answer, “We are able.” Matthew 20:22. {DA 689.1}

The disciples awakened at the voice of Jesus, but they hardly knew Him, His face was so changed by anguish. Addressing Peter, Jesus said, "Simon, sleepest thou? couldst not thou watch one hour? Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak." The weakness of His disciples awakened the sympathy of Jesus. He feared that they would not be able to endure the test which would come upon them in His betrayal and death. He did not reprove them, but said, "Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation." Even in His great agony, He was seeking to excuse their weakness. "The spirit truly is ready," He said, "but the flesh is weak." {DA 689.2}

Watch ye and pray, (2 x)

lest ye enter into temptation.

The spirit truly [is] ready, but the flesh [is] weak.

Mark chapter 14:38

Again the Son of God was seized with superhuman agony, and fainting and exhausted, He staggered back to the place of His former struggle. His suffering was even greater than before. As the agony of soul came upon Him, "His sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground." The cypress and palm trees were the silent witnesses of His anguish. From their leafy branches dropped heavy dew upon His stricken form, as if nature wept over its Author wrestling alone with the powers of darkness. {DA 689.3}

Isaiah 42:1-4 (KJV) Margin...

Behold my servant, whom I uphold;

Margin...Behold mine elect, [in whom] my soul delighteth; I have put my spirit upon him:
he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

Behold my servant, whom I uphold;

He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

Margin...I have put my spirit upon him:

A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench:
he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

Margin...I have put my spirit upon him:

He shall not fail nor be discouraged,
till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

Margin...I have put my spirit upon him:

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled, “Story of Jesus”

Chapter 6 - Days of Conflict, Part 2

Chapter Job 28:28 (KJV)

And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that [is] wisdom;
and to depart from evil [is] understanding.

Jesus did not contend for His rights. When roughly used, He bore it patiently. Because He was so willing and uncomplaining, His work was often made needlessly hard. Yet He was not discouraged for He knew that God smiled upon Him. {SJ 39.4}

His happiest hours were found when alone with nature and with God. When His work was done, He loved to go into the fields, to meditate in the green valleys, to pray to God on the mountainside, or amid the trees of the forest. {SJ 39.5}

He listened to the lark caroling forth music to its Creator, and His voice joined the song of joyful praise and thanksgiving. {SJ 39.6}

With the voice of singing He welcomed the morning light. The break of day often found Him in some quiet place, thinking about God, studying the Bible, or in prayer. {SJ 39.7}

From these peaceful hours He would return to His home to take up His duties again, and to give an example of patient toil. Wherever He was, His presence seemed to bring the angels near. The influence of His pure, holy life was felt by all classes of people. {SJ 40.1}

Harmless and undefiled, He walked among the thoughtless, the rude, the uncourteous; amid the unjust taxgatherers, the reckless prodigals, the unrighteous Samaritans, the heathen soldiers, and the rough peasants. {SJ 40.2}

He spoke a word of sympathy here, and a word there, as He saw men weary, yet compelled to bear heavy burdens. He shared their burdens, and repeated to them the lessons He had learned from nature, of the love, the kindness, the goodness of God. {SJ 40.3}

He taught them to look upon themselves as having precious talents, which if rightly used would gain for them eternal riches. By His own example He taught that every moment of time is of value, and should be put to some good use. {SJ 40.4}

He passed by no human being as worthless, but tried to encourage the roughest and most unpromising. He told them that God loved them as His children, and that they might become like Him in character. {SJ 40.5}

So in a quiet way Jesus from His very childhood worked for others. This work none of the learned teachers, nor even His own brothers, could make Him give up. With an earnest purpose He carried out the design of His life, for He was to be the light of the world. {SJ 40.6}

Next Week: We will be reviewing our chapter 6 our new lesson entitled, “Days of Conflict”

Lesson #359

Walking In God's Way

How blessed the upright in the way,
They who Jehovah's law pursue.
Blessed they who seek Him with whole heart
And keep His testimonies true.
And they do no unrighteousness,
But in His way they onward press.
