

Children Sabbath School Lesson #360 for 7-9-2022
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Our Opening Hymn is entitled,
“Near to the Heart of God” #495

- 1). There is a place of quiet rest,
Near to the heart of God,
A place where sin cannot molest,
Near to the heart of God.
- 2). There is a place of comfort sweet,
Near to the heart of God,
A place where we our Savior meet,
Near to the heart of God.
- 3). There is a place of full release,
Near to the heart of God,
A place where all is joy and peace,
Near to the heart of God.

Refrain:

O Jesus, blest Redeemer, Sent from the heart of God, Hold us, who wait before Thee, Near to the heart of God.

Lesson #360 “Gethsemane” Part 4

Isaiah 52:14 (KJV)

As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:

This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 4 in of our lesson entitled, “Gethsemane” in our lesson book, Desire of Ages!

Matthew 26:42 (KJV)

He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

Matthew 26:43 (KJV)

And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

Matthew 26:44 (KJV)

And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

Matthew 26:45 (KJV)

Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take [your] rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Mark 14:40 (KJV)

And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

Mark 14:41 (KJV)

And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take [your] rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #74, Pages 689 – 690

A short time before, Jesus had stood like a mighty cedar, withstanding the storm of opposition that spent its fury upon Him. Stubborn wills, and hearts filled with malice and subtlety, had striven in vain to confuse and overpower Him. He stood forth in divine majesty as the Son of God. Now He was like a reed beaten and bent by the angry storm. He had approached the consummation of His work a conqueror, having at each step gained the victory over the powers of darkness. As one already glorified, He had claimed oneness with God. In unfaltering accents He had poured out His songs of praise. He had spoken to His disciples in words of courage and tenderness. Now had come the hour of the power of darkness. Now His voice was heard on the still evening air, not in tones of triumph, but full of human anguish. The words of the Saviour were borne to the ears of the drowsy disciples, "O My Father, if this cup may not pass away from Me, except I drink it, Thy will be done." {DA 689.4}

Ministry of Healing (Page 58)

When every other voice is hushed, and in quietness we wait before Him, (2 xs)
the silence of the soul makes more distinct the voice of God.

He bids us, "Be still, Be still and know that I am God."

Ministry of Healing page 58

Be still and know

The first impulse of the disciples was to go to Him; but He had bidden them tarry there, watching unto prayer. When Jesus came to them, He found them still sleeping. Again He had felt a longing for companionship, for some words from His disciples which would bring relief, and break the spell of darkness that well-nigh overpowered Him. But their eyes were heavy; "neither wist they what to answer Him." His presence aroused them. They saw His face marked with the bloody sweat of agony, and they were filled with fear. His anguish of mind they could not understand. "His visage was so marred more than any man, and His form more than the sons of men." Isaiah 52:14. {DA 690.1}

Isaiah 52:13-15 (KJV)

Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:

So shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him:

for [that] which had not been told them shall they see;

and [that] which they had not heard shall they consider.

Isaiah 52 verses 13 through 15

Through 15!

Turning away, Jesus sought again His retreat, and fell prostrate, overcome by the horror of a great darkness. The humanity of the Son of God trembled in that trying hour. He prayed not now for His disciples that their faith might not fail, but for His own tempted, agonized soul. The awful moment had come--that moment which was to decide the destiny of the world. The fate of humanity trembled in the balance. Christ might even now refuse to drink the cup apportioned to guilty man. It was not yet too late. He might wipe the bloody sweat from His brow, and leave man to perish in his iniquity. He might say, Let the transgressor receive the penalty of his sin, and I will go back to My Father. Will the Son of God drink the bitter cup of humiliation and agony? Will the innocent suffer the consequences of the curse of sin, to save the guilty? The words fall tremblingly from the pale lips of Jesus, "O My Father, if this cup may not pass away from Me, except I drink it, Thy will be done." {DA 690.2}

Song Let's learn yet another lovely scripture song together, dear ones, from the book of Isaiah!

Isaiah 65:24 (KJV) Margin...

And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; (2 xs)
it shall come to pass, that before they call, answer (2 xs) and while they are yet speaking,
I will hear.
Isaiah 65:24

Three times has He uttered that prayer. Three times has humanity shrunk from the last, crowning sacrifice. But now the history of the human race comes up before the world's Redeemer. He sees that the transgressors of the law, if left to themselves, must perish. He sees the helplessness of man. He sees the power of sin. The woes and lamentations of a doomed world rise before Him. He beholds its impending fate, and His decision is made. He will save man at any cost to Himself. He accepts His baptism of blood, that through Him perishing millions may gain everlasting life. He has left the courts of heaven, where all is purity, happiness, and glory, to save the one lost sheep, the one world that has fallen by transgression. And He will not turn from His mission. He will become the propitiation of a race that has willed to sin. His prayer now breathes only submission: "If this cup may not pass away from Me, except I drink it, Thy will be done." {DA 690.3}

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled, “Story of Jesus”

Chapter 7 - The Baptism

Mark 1:15 (KJV)

And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand:
repent ye, and believe the gospel.

When the time for Christ's public ministry had come, His first act was to go to the river Jordan, and be baptized by John the Baptist. {SJ 41.1}

John had been sent to prepare the way for the Saviour. He had preached in the wilderness, saying: {SJ 41.2}

"The kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." Mark 1:15. {SJ 41.3}

Multitudes flocked to hear him. Many were convicted of their sins, and were baptized by him in the Jordan. {SJ 41.4}

God had made known to John that some day the Messiah would come to him and ask to be baptized. He had also promised that a sign should be given him, so that he might know who it was. {SJ 41.5}

When Jesus came, John saw in His face such signs of His holy life, that he forbade Him, saying: "I have need to be baptized of Thee, and comest Thou to me?" {SJ 41.6}

"And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness." Matthew 3:14, 15. {SJ 41.7}

And as He said this, there was seen upon His face the same heavenly light that Simeon had beheld. {SJ 42.1}

So John led the Saviour down into the waters of the beautiful Jordan, and there he baptized Him in the sight of all the people. {SJ 42.2}

Jesus was not baptized to show repentance for His own sins; for He had never sinned. He did it to set an example for us. {SJ 42.3}

When He came up out of the water, He kneeled on the riverbank, and prayed. Then the heavens were opened, beams of glory streamed forth, "and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon Him." Matthew 3:16. {SJ 42.4}

His face and form were all aglow with the light of the glory of God. And from Heaven the voice of God was heard saying: {SJ 42.5}

"This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." Matthew 3:16, 17. {SJ 42.6}

The glory that rested upon Christ was a pledge of the love of God for us. The Saviour came as our example; and just as surely as God heard His prayer, He will hear ours. {SJ 42.7}

The most needy, the most sinful, the most despised, may find access to the Father. When we come to Him in Jesus' name, the voice which spoke to Jesus speaks to us, saying; "This is My beloved child, in whom I am well pleased." {SJ 42.8}

Next Week: We will be reviewing our chapter 7 our new lesson entitled, “The Baptism” of our story book, “The Story of Jesus!”

Next Sabbath: Review Part 1 of Chapter 7 “The Baptism” July 16, 2022.

Jesus Leaves Home

"In Nazareth it was told in the carpenter shop that had been Joseph's, and One recognized the call. His time had come.
Turning from His daily toil, He bade farewell to His mother, and followed in the steps of His countrymen who were flocking to the Jordan."
