Lesson #362 “Gethsemane” Part 6

Matthew 26:47 (KJV)

And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 6 in of our lesson entitled, “Gethsemane” in our lesson book, Desire of Ages!

Matthew 26:48 (KJV)

Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

Matthew 26:49 (KJV)

And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him.

Matthew 26:50 (KJV)

And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

John 18:4 (KJV)

Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

John 18:5 (KJV)

They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am [he]. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

John 18:6 (KJV)

As soon then as he had said unto them, I am [he], they went backward, and fell to the ground.

John 18:7 (KJV)

Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

John 18:8 (KJV)

Jesus answered, I have told you that I am [he]: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #74, Pages 693 – 694

No traces of His recent agony were visible as Jesus stepped forth to meet His betrayer. Standing in advance of His disciples He said, "Whom seek ye?" They answered, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus replied, "I am He." As these words were spoken, the angel who had lately ministered to Jesus moved between Him and the mob. A divine light illuminated the Saviour's face, and a dovelike form overshadowed Him. In the presence of this divine glory, the murderous throng could not stand for a moment. They staggered back. Priests, elders, soldiers, and even Judas, fell as dead men to the ground. {DA 694.5}

The angel withdrew, and the light faded away. Jesus had opportunity to escape, but He remained, calm and self-possessed. As one glorified He stood in the midst of that hardened band, now prostrate and helpless at His feet. The disciples looked on, silent with wonder and awe. {DA 694.6}

I [am] God:

Psalms 46 verse 10

But quickly the scene changed. The mob started up. The Roman soldiers, the priests and Judas, gathered about Christ. They seemed ashamed of their weakness, and fearful that He would yet escape. Again the question was asked by the Redeemer, "Whom seek ye?" They had had evidence that He who stood before them was the Son of God, but they would not be convinced. To the question, "Whom seek ye?" again they answered, "Jesus of Nazareth." The Saviour then said, "I have told you that I am He: if therefore ye seek Me, let these go their way"--pointing to the disciples. He knew how weak was their faith, and He sought to shield them from temptation and trial. For them He was ready to sacrifice Himself. {DA 695.1}

Judas the betrayer did not forget the part he was to act. When the mob entered the garden, he had led the way, closely followed by the high priest. To the pursuers of Jesus he had given a sign, saying, "Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is He: hold Him fast." Matthew 26:48. Now he pretends to have no part with them. Coming close to Jesus, he takes His hand as a familiar friend. With the words, "Hail, Master," he kisses Him repeatedly, and appears to weep as if in sympathy with Him in His peril. {DA 695.2}

Romans 8:35, 37-39 (KJV) with margin...

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?
[shall] tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine,
or nakedness, or peril, or sword?
Nay, in all these things (2xs)
we are more than conquerors (2 x)
through him that loved us. (2x)

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,
Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature,
shall be able to separate us from the love of God,
which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:35, 37 through 39

Jesus said to him, "Friend, wherefore art thou come?" His voice trembled with sorrow as He added, "Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?" This appeal should have aroused the conscience of the betrayer, and touched his stubborn heart; but honor, fidelity, and human tenderness had forsaken him. He stood bold and defiant, showing no disposition to relent. He had given himself up to Satan, and he had no power to resist him. Jesus did not refuse the traitor's kiss. {DA 696.1}

The mob grew bold as they saw Judas touch the person of Him who had so recently been glorified before their eyes. They now laid hold of Jesus, and proceeded to bind those precious hands that had ever been employed in doing good. {DA 696.2}

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled,
“Story of Jesus”

Chapter 8 – The Temptation, Part 2
Matthew Chapter 4:5 (KJV)

Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

Thus He showed that it is far less important to provide ourselves with food than that we should obey the word of God. Those who obey God's word have the promise of all things needed for the present life, and they have also the promise of future life. {SJ 45.10}

Satan had failed to overcome Christ in the first great temptation; he next carried Him to a pinnacle of the temple at Jerusalem, and said: {SJ 46.1}

“If thou be the Son of God, cast Thyself down: for it is written, He shall give His angels charge concerning Thee: and in their hands they shall bear Thee up, lest at any time Thou dash Thy foot against a stone.” {SJ 46.2}

Satan here followed Christ's example in quoting Scripture. But this promise is not for those who willfully venture into danger. God had not told Jesus to throw Himself down from the temple. Jesus would not do it to please Satan. He said: "It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God." {SJ 46.3}

We should trust in the care of our heavenly Father; but we must not go where He does not send us. We must not do what He has forbidden. {SJ 46.4}

Because God is merciful, and ready to forgive, there are those who say that it is safe to disobey Him. But this is presumption. God will forgive all who seek pardon and turn away from sin. But those who choose to disobey Him He can not bless. {SJ 46.5}

Satan now appeared what he really was--the prince of the powers of darkness. He took Jesus to the top of a high mountain, and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world. {SJ 46.6}

The sunlight lay on splendid cities, marble palaces, fruitful fields, and vineyards. Satan said: {SJ 46.7}

“All these things will I give Thee, if Thou wilt fall down and worship me.” {SJ 46.8}

For a moment Christ looked upon the scene. Then He turned away. Satan had presented the world to Him in the most attractive light; but the Saviour looked beneath the outward beauty. {SJ 47.1}

He saw the world in its wretchedness and sin, apart from God. All this misery was the result of man's turning away from God to worship Satan. {SJ 47.2}

Christ was filled with longing to redeem that which was lost. He longed to restore the world to more than its Eden beauty. He wanted to place men on vantage ground with God. {SJ 47.3}

For sinful man He was withstanding temptation. He was to be an overcomer, that they might overcome, that they might be equal with the angels, and be worthy to be acknowledged as sons of God. {SJ 47.4}

Next Week: We will be reviewing our chapter 8 our new lesson entitled, “The Temptation” Part 2, of our story book, “The Story of Jesus!”

Protection

Answer these questions and color the picture: Will God protect us if we put ourselves in harms way? Are we always protected from evil? (See the answer key.)

You have made the LORD your refuge,
God Most High your dwelling place;
Nothing evil shall befall you;
In your tent no scourge you'll face.

He will angels charge to keep you,
Guard you well in all your ways.
In their hands they will uphold you
Lest your foot a stone should graze.

—Unknown

Evaporation means to change liquid into vapor.
Color the picture and explain the following statement.

Christ is the only One who can empower us to overcome
the gravity of our sinful natures.
Nothing upon earth is powerful enough to translate us
from the kingdom of this world
to the heavenly atmosphere.
