

Children Sabbath School Lesson #374 for 1-21-2023
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Our Opening Hymn is #623 entitled, “I Will Follow Thee”
1). I will follow Thee, my Savior, Wheresoe'er my lot may be. Where thou goest I will follow; Yes, my Lord, I'll follow Thee. 2). Though the road be rough and thorny, Trackless as the foaming sea, Thou hast trod this way before me, And I'll gladly follow Thee.	3). Though I meet with tribulations, Sorely tempted though I be; I remember Thou wast tempted, And rejoice to follow Thee. 4). Though Thou leadest me through affliction, Poor, forsaken though I be; Thou wast destitute, afflicted, And I only follow Thee.
5). Though to Jordan's rolling billows, Cold and deep, Thou leadest me, Thou hast crossed the waves before me, And I still will follow Thee.
Refrain: I will follow Thee, my Saviour, Thou didst shed Thy blood for me; And though all men should forsake Thee; By Thy grace I'll follow Thee.

Lesson #374 “Judas”

John 6:70 (KJV)

Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

This Sabbath boys and girls, we will begin a new chapter of our lesson entitled, “Judas” in our lesson book, Desire of Ages!

Luke 22:1 (KJV)

Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

Luke 22:2 (KJV)

And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

Luke 22:3 (KJV)

Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

Luke 22:4 (KJV)

And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

Luke 22:5 (KJV)

And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

Luke 22:6 (KJV)

And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude

Matthew 26:15 (KJV)

And said [unto them], What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

Matthew 26:16 (KJV)

And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #76, Pages 716

The history of Judas presents the sad ending of a life that might have been honored of God. Had Judas died before his last journey to Jerusalem he would have been regarded as a man worthy of a place among the twelve, and one who would be greatly missed. The abhorrence which has followed him through the centuries would not have existed but for the attributes revealed at the close of his history. But it was for a purpose that his character was laid open to the world. It was to be a warning to all who, like him, should betray sacred trusts. {DA 716.1}

Ezekiel 33:15 (KJV)

[If] the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity;
he shall surely live, he shall not die.

Ezekiel 33:15

A little before the Passover, Judas had renewed his contract with the priests to deliver Jesus into their hands. Then it was arranged that the Saviour should be taken at one of His resorts for meditation and prayer. Since the feast at the house of Simon, Judas had had opportunity to reflect upon the deed which he had covenanted to perform, but his purpose was unchanged. For thirty pieces of silver--the price of a slave--he sold the Lord of glory to ignominy and death. {DA 716.2}

Psalms 1:1, 2 and 3

Judas had naturally a strong love for money; but he had not always been corrupt enough to do such a deed as this. He had fostered the evil spirit of avarice until it had become the ruling motive of his life. The love of mammon overbalanced his love for Christ. Through becoming the slave of one vice he gave himself to Satan, to be driven to any lengths in sin. {DA 716.3}

James 4:7-10 (KJV) Margin...

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. (2 xs)

Cleanse [your] hands, [ye] sinners; and purify [your] hearts, [ye] double minded. (2 xs)

Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and [your] joy to heaviness.

Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord,

and he shall lift you up. (2 xs)

and he shall lift you up. (2 xs)

Judas had joined the disciples when multitudes were following Christ. The Saviour's teaching moved their hearts as they hung entranced upon His words, spoken in the synagogue, by the seaside, upon the mount. Judas saw the sick, the lame, the blind, flock to Jesus from the towns and cities. He saw the dying laid at His feet. He witnessed the Saviour's mighty works in healing the sick, casting out devils, and raising the dead. He felt in his own person the evidence of Christ's power. He recognized the teaching of Christ as superior to all that he had ever heard. He loved the Great Teacher, and desired to be with Him. He felt a desire to be changed in character and life, and he hoped to experience this through connecting himself with Jesus. The Saviour did not repulse Judas. He gave him a place among the twelve. He trusted him to do the work of an evangelist. He endowed him with power to heal the sick and to cast out devils. But Judas did not come to the point of surrendering himself fully to Christ. He did not give up his worldly ambition or his love of money. While he accepted the position of a minister of Christ, he did not bring himself under the divine molding. He felt that he could retain his own judgment and opinions, and he cultivated a disposition to criticize and accuse. {DA 716.4}

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled,
“Story of Jesus”
Chapter 11 – Sabbathkeeping
Exodus 20:8 (KJV)
Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

The Saviour kept the Sabbath, and taught His disciples to keep it. He knew how it should be kept, for He Himself had made it holy. {SJ 67.1}

The Bible says, “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.” “The seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God.” “For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.” Exodus 20:8, 10, 11; 31:16, 17. Christ had worked with His Father in creating the earth, and He had made the Sabbath. The Bible says that “all things were made by Him.”

John 1:3. {SJ 67.2}

When we look on the sun and the stars, the trees and the beautiful flowers, we should remember that Christ made them all. And He made the Sabbath to help us keep in mind His love and power. {SJ 67.3}

The Jewish teachers had made many rules about the way to keep the Sabbath, and they wanted every one to obey their rules. So they watched the Saviour, to see what He would do. {SJ 67.4}

One Sabbath, as Christ and His disciples were going home from the synagogue, they passed through a field of grain. It was late, and the disciples were hungry. So they broke off some of the heads of grain, rubbed them in their hands, and ate the kernels. {SJ 69.1}

On any other day, one passing through a field or an orchard was allowed to gather what he wanted to eat. But it was not so on the Sabbath. Christ's enemies saw what the disciples were doing, and they said to the Saviour: {SJ 69.2}

“Behold, Thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the Sabbath day.” Matthew 12:2. {SJ 69.3}

Next Week: We will be reviewing Part 1 of our lesson entitled, “Sabbathkeeping” of our story book, “The Story of Jesus!”
