

Children Sabbath School Lesson #376 for 2-18-2023
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

Our Opening Hymn is #623 entitled, “I Will Follow Thee”
1). I will follow Thee, my Savior, Wheresoe'er my lot may be. Where thou goest I will follow; Yes, my Lord, I'll follow Thee.	3). Though I meet with tribulations, Sorely tempted though I be; I remember Thou wast tempted, And rejoice to follow Thee.
2). Though the road be rough and thorny, Trackless as the foaming sea, Thou hast trod this way before me, And I'll gladly follow Thee.	4). Though Thou leadest me through affliction, Poor, forsaken though I be; Thou wast destitute, afflicted, And I only follow Thee.
5). Though to Jordan's rolling billows, Cold and deep, Thou leadest me, Thou hast crossed the waves before me, And I still will follow Thee.
Refrain: I will follow Thee, my Saviour, Thou didst shed Thy blood for me; And though all men should forsake Thee; By Thy grace I'll follow Thee.

Lesson #376 “Judas” Part 3

John 6:53 (KJV)

Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

This Sabbath boys and girls, we will continue with part 3 of our lesson entitled, “Judas” in our lesson book, Desire of Ages!

Luke 9:14 (KJV)

For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

John 6:54 (KJV)

Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

John 6:55 (KJV)

For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

John 6:56 (KJV)

He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

John 6:57 (KJV)

As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

John 6:58 (KJV)

This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #76, Pages 717 - 718

Continuing: Notwithstanding the Saviour's own teaching, Judas was continually advancing the idea that Christ would reign as king in Jerusalem. At the feeding of the five thousand he tried to bring this about. On this occasion Judas assisted in distributing the food to the hungry multitude. He had an opportunity to see the benefit which it was in his power to impart to others. He felt the satisfaction that always comes in service to God. He helped to bring the sick and suffering from among the multitude to Christ. He saw what relief, what joy and gladness, come to human hearts through the healing power of the Restorer. He might have comprehended the methods of Christ. But he was blinded by his own selfish desires. Judas was first to take advantage of the enthusiasm excited by the miracle of the loaves. It was he who set on foot the project to take Christ by force and make Him king. His hopes were high. His disappointment was bitter. {DA 718.2}

Luke 12:2 (KJV)

For there is nothing covered,
that shall not be revealed;
neither hid, that shall not be known.

Luke 12:2

For there is nothing covered,
that shall not be revealed

Christ's discourse in the synagogue concerning the bread of life was the turning point in the history of Judas. He heard the words, "Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood, ye have no life in you." John 6:53. He saw that Christ was offering spiritual rather than worldly good. He regarded himself as farsighted, and thought he could see that Jesus would have no honor, and that He could bestow no high position upon His followers. He determined not to unite himself so closely to Christ but that he could draw away. He would watch. And he did watch. {DA 719.1}

Song Let's learn another beautiful scripture together, dear ones, from the book of James!

James 4:7-8 (KJV) Margin...

Submit yourselves therefore to God.
Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Draw nigh to God, (2 x)

and he will draw nigh to you. (2 x)

Cleanse [your] hands, [ye] sinners; and purify [your] hearts, [ye] double minded.

James Chapter 4 verses 7 and 8

Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

From that time he expressed doubts that confused the disciples. He introduced controversies and misleading sentiments, repeating the arguments urged by the scribes and Pharisees against the claims of Christ. All the little and large troubles and crosses, the difficulties and the apparent hindrances to the advancement of the gospel, Judas interpreted as evidences against its truthfulness. He would introduce texts of Scripture that had no connection with the truths Christ was presenting. These texts, separated from their connection, perplexed the disciples, and increased the discouragement that was constantly pressing upon them. Yet all this was done by Judas in such a way as to make it appear that he was conscientious. And while the disciples were searching for evidence to confirm the words of the Great Teacher, Judas would lead them almost imperceptibly on another track. Thus in a very religious, and apparently wise, way he was presenting matters in a different light from that in which Jesus had given them, and attaching to His words a meaning that He had not conveyed. His suggestions were constantly exciting an ambitious desire for temporal preferment, and thus turning the disciples from the important things they should have considered. The dissension as to which of them should be greatest was generally excited by Judas. {DA 719.2}

Song *Let's learn yet another beautiful scripture together, dear ones, from the book of Hebrews!
Taken from: The Desire of All Ages, Memory Verse CD Volume III

Hebrews 11:6 (KJV)

But without faith [it is] impossible to please [him]: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and [that] he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Hebrews Chapter 11 and verse 6

When Jesus presented to the rich young ruler the condition of discipleship, Judas was displeased. He thought that a mistake had been made. If such men as this ruler could be connected with the believers, they would help sustain Christ's cause. If Judas were only received as a counselor, he thought, he could suggest many plans for the advantage of the little church. His principles and methods would differ somewhat from Christ's, but in these things he thought himself wiser than Christ. {DA 719.3}

Song *Let's learn our last song together dear ones, dear ones, from the book of Jeremiah!
Taken from: Scripture Singer Songs-Character Building

Jeremiah 9:23, 24 (KJV)

Let not the wise [man] glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty [man] glory in his might, let not the rich [man] glory in his riches: Thus saith the LORD (2 xs)

But let him that glorieth glory in this, (2 xs)

Let he understandeth and knoweth me, that I [am] the LORD (2 xs)

I [am] the LORD which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these [things] I delight, saith the LORD. (2 xs)

Jeremiah chapter 9:23 and 24

Thus saith the LORD (2 xs)

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled,
“Story of Jesus”

Chapter 11 – Sabbathkeeping, Part 3
Matthew 5:17 (KJV)

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets:
I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

Continuing: The Saviour showed how unreasonable they were, by asking them a question. “And He said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the Sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?” {SJ 70.4}

This they could not answer. So He said, “How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the Sabbath days.” Matthew 12:11, 12. {SJ 70.5}

“It is lawful;” that is, it is according to law. Christ never reproved the Jews for keeping the law of God, or for honoring the Sabbath. On the contrary, He ever upheld the law in all its completeness. {SJ 70.6}

Isaiah prophesied of Christ, “He will magnify the law, and make it honorable.” Isaiah 42:21. To magnify is to make larger, to raise to a higher position. {SJ 70.7}

Christ magnified the law by showing in every part its wonderful meaning. He showed that it is to be obeyed, not only in the actions, which are seen by men, but in the thoughts, which are known only to God. {SJ 70.8}

To those who claimed that He came to set aside the law, He said, “Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.” Matthew 5:17. {SJ 70.9}

To fulfill means to keep, or perform. (James 2:8.) So when He came to be baptized by John the Baptist, He said, “Thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness.” Matthew 3:15. To fulfill the law is to obey it perfectly. {SJ 71.1}

God's law can never be changed; for Christ said, “Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.” Matthew 5:18. {SJ 71.2}

Next Week: We will be reviewing Part 1 of our lesson entitled, “Sabbathkeeping” Part 3 of our story book, “The Story of Jesus!”

Next Sabbath: Review Part 1 of Chapter 10 “Sabbathkeeping” on February 25, 2023.

Have a Blessed Sabbath dear one, and enjoy your activities. God Bless!

Nature: Our Water Topic Activity!

Water Movements

Read the information and color the picture.

Plants need a continual supply of water.
The drier the ground is, the deeper roots must go down.
Jesus was like a "root out of a dry ground" (Isaiah 53:2).
He went very deep into spiritual truth at a time when there was spiritual drought in Israel.
The nobleman became "rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith" (Colossians 2:7).

Precious Lessons in God's creation through Nature!
