Our Tiny-Tots Song

Praise The Lord

Sing A Joyful Song

378 – Don't Forget the Sabbath

- 1). Don't forget the Sabbath, The Lord our God hath blest,
Of all the week the brightest, Of all the week the best;
It brings repose from labor, It tells of joy divine,
Its beams of light descending, With heav'nly beauty shine.

Chorus:

Welcome, welcome, ever welcome,
Blessed Sabbath day.
Welcome, welcome, ever welcome,
Blessed Sabbath day.

- 2). Keep the Sabbath holy, And worship him today,
Who said to his disciples "I am the Living Way;"
And if we meekly follow Our Saviour here below,
He'll give us of the Fountain Whose streams eternal flow.

[Chorus]

- 3). Day of sacred pleasure! Its golden hours we'll spend
In thankful hymns to Jesus, The children's dearest friend;
O gentle, loving Saviour, How good and kind thou art,
How precious is thy promise To dwell in ev'ry heart!

[Chorus]

“The Story of Jesus”
Chapter 11 – Sabbathkeeping
Part 6 (final)

By: [Adapted from EGW material] (1896, 1900)

Narrated by
Our Dear Brother Graves

The Bible verses for our lessons are taken from the book of:

John 5:17 (KJV)

But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

John 5:18-21 (KJV)

- 5:18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.
- 5:19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.
- 5:20 For the Father loveth the Son, and showeth him all things that himself doeth: and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.
- 5:21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth [them]; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

Chapter 11 – Sabbathkeeping, Part 6 (final)

Continuing:

The Saviour declared that His action was in harmony with the Sabbath law.

It was in harmony with the will and the work of God.

“My Father worketh hitherto,” He said, “and I work.” John 5:17. {SJ 73.3}

God works continually in sustaining every living thing. Was His work to cease upon the Sabbath day? Should God forbid the sun to fulfill its office on the Sabbath?

Should He cut off its rays from warming the earth and nourishing vegetation? {SJ 73.4}

Should the brooks stay from watering the fields, and the waves of the sea still their ebbing and flowing?

Must the wheat and maize stop growing, and the trees and flowers put forth no bud or blossom on the Sabbath? {SJ 73.5}

Then man would miss the fruits of the earth, and the blessings that sustain his life.

Nature must continue her work, or man would die.

And man also has a work to do on this day.

(Next Slide)

Continuing:

The necessities of life must be attended to, the sick must be cared for, the wants of the needy must be supplied. God does not desire His creatures to suffer an hour's pain that may be relieved on the Sabbath or any other day. {SJ 74.1}

Heaven's work never ceases, and we should never rest from doing good.

Our own work the law forbids us to do on the rest day of the Lord.

The toil for a livelihood must cease; no labor for worldly pleasure or profit is lawful upon that day. But the Sabbath is not to be spent in useless inactivity.

As God ceased from His labor of creating, and rested upon the Sabbath, so we are to rest.

He bids us lay aside our daily occupations,
and devote those sacred hours to healthful rest,
to worship, and to holy deeds. {SJ 74.2}

Next Sabbath we will begin a new chapter 12 of our lesson entitled,
“The Good Shepherd” in our Tiny Tot’s Lesson book “The Story of Jesus”
April 15, 2023.

The Water of LIFE Part 33 REVIEW

Day #5

Read Luke 4:20-26 and
The Desire of Ages page 237.

The Bible verses for our 33rd Water lessons are taken from the book of Luke 4 Chapter (KJV)

- 4:20 And he closed the book, and he gave [it] again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.
- 4:21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.
- 4:22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?
- 4:23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.
- 4:24 And he said, Verily, I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.
- 4:25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;
- 4:26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, [a city] of Sidon, unto a woman [that was] a widow.
- 4:27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

“And he closed the book, and he gave [it] again to the minister, . . . And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him. . . . And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth.”

Luke 4:20-22, KJV margin.

“Jesus stood before the people as a living expositor of the prophecies concerning Himself. Explaining the words He had read, He spoke of the Messiah as the reliever of the oppressed, a liberator of captives, a healer of the afflicted, restoring sight to the blind, and revealing to the world the light of truth. His impressive manner and the wonderful import of His words thrilled the hearers with a power they had never felt before. The tide of divine influence broke every barrier down; like Moses, they beheld the Invisible. As their hearts were moved upon by the Holy Spirit, they responded with fervent amens and praises to the Lord.

‘But when Jesus announced, ‘This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears,’ they were suddenly recalled to think of themselves, and of the claims of Him who had been addressing them. They, Israelites, children of Abraham, had been represented as in bondage. They had been addressed as prisoners to be delivered from the power of evil; as in darkness, and needing the light of truth. Their pride was offended, and their fears were roused.

The words of Jesus indicated that His work for them was to be altogether different from what they desired. Their deeds might be investigated too closely. Notwithstanding their exactness in outward ceremonies, they shrank from inspection by those clear, searching eyes.” (The Desire of Ages 237)

Jesus persevered in trying to open the eyes of the misled people by explaining the words of Isaiah to them.

Perseverance

An old man in Watton, whom Pastor Thornton had in vain urged to come to church, was taken ill and confined to his bed. Mr. Thornton went to the cottage, and asked to see him. The old man, hearing his voice below, answered, in a rude tone, "I don't want you here; you may go away."

The following day the pastor was again at the foot of the stairs. "Well, my friend, may I come up today and sit beside you?"

Again he received the same reply, "I don't want you here."

Twenty-one days successively Mr. Thornton paid his visit to the cottage, and on the twenty-second his perseverance was rewarded. He was permitted to enter the room of the aged sufferer, to read the Bible, and pray by his bedside. The poor man recovered, and became one of the most regular attendants at the house of God.

REVIEW!

But when Jesus announced, “This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears,” they were suddenly recalled to think of themselves, and of the claims of Him who had been addressing them.

They, Israelites, children of Abraham, had been represented as in bondage. They had been addressed as prisoners to be delivered from the power of evil; as in darkness, and needing the light of truth. Their pride was offended, and their fears were roused.

The words of Jesus indicated that His work for them was to be altogether different from what they desired. Their deeds might be investigated too closely.

Notwithstanding their exactness in outward ceremonies, they shrank from inspection by those clear, searching eyes. {DA 237.3}

Who is this Jesus? they questioned.

He who had claimed for Himself the glory of the Messiah was the son of a carpenter, and had worked at His trade with His father Joseph.

They had seen Him toiling up and down the hills, they were acquainted with His brothers and sisters, and knew His life and labors.

They had seen Him develop from childhood to youth, and from youth to manhood.

Although His life had been spotless, they would not believe that He was the Promised One.

"I Will Follow Thee"
#266*

1). I will follow Thee, my Savior,
Wheresoe'er my lot may be.
Where thou goest I will follow;
Yes, my Lord, I'll follow Thee.

3). Though I meet with tribulations,
Sorely tempted though I be;
I remember Thou wast tempted,
And rejoice to follow Thee.

2). Though the road be rough and thorny,
Trackless as the foaming sea,
Thou hast trod this way before me,
And I'll gladly follow Thee.

4). Though Thou leadest me through affliction,
Poor, forsaken though I be;
Thou wast destitute, afflicted,
And I only follow Thee.

5). Though to Jordan's rolling billows,
Cold and deep, Thou leadest me,
Thou hast crossed the waves before me,
And I still will follow Thee.

Refrain: I will follow Thee, my Saviour,
Thou didst shed Thy blood for me;
And though all men should forsake Thee;
By Thy grace I'll follow Thee.

Judas now cast himself
at the feet of Jesus,
acknowledging Him
to be the Son of God,
and entreating Him
to deliver Himself.
The Saviour did not reproach His betrayer.
He knew that Judas did not repent; his confession was forced from his guilty soul by an awful sense of condemnation

but he felt no deep,
heartbreaking grief
that he had betrayed
the spotless Son of God, and denied the

Yet Jesus spoke no
word of condemnation.
He looked pityingly
upon Judas, and said,
For this hour came
I into the world.

{DA 722.2}

The Desire of Ages, p.722

A murmur of surprise ran through the assembly. With amazement they beheld the forbearance of Christ toward His betrayer.

Again there swept over them the conviction that this Man was more than mortal. But if He was the Son of God, they questioned, why did He not free Himself from His bonds and triumph over His accusers?
{DA 722.3}

Judas saw that his entreaties were in vain, and he rushed from the hall exclaiming, It is too late! It is too late! He felt that he could not live to see Jesus crucified, and in despair went out and hanged himself. {DA 722.4}

Later that same day, on the road from Pilate's hall to Calvary,
there came an interruption to the shouts and jeers
of the wicked throng who were leading
Jesus to the place
of crucifixion.
As they passed

"The Divine Shepherd"
(DA-The Desire of Ages, pg.479.1- 480.2)
Margin...

"He Shall Gather the Lambs With His Arm"

"As the shepherd leads his flock over the rocky hills, through forest and wild ravines, to grassy nooks by the riverside; as he watches them on the mountains through the lonely night, shielding from robbers, caring tenderly for the sickly and feeble, his life comes to be one with theirs. A strong and tender attachment unites him to the objects of his care. However large the flock, the shepherd knows every sheep. Every one has its name, and responds to the name at the shepherd's call.

As an earthly shepherd knows his sheep, so does the divine Shepherd know His flock that are scattered throughout the world. "Ye My flock, the flock of My pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God." Jesus says, "I have called thee by thy name; thou art Mine." "I have graven thee upon the palms of My hands." Ezekiel 34:31; Isaiah 43:1; 49:16.

Jesus knows us individually, and is touched with the feeling of our infirmities. He knows us all by name. He knows the very house in which we live, the name of each occupant. He has at times given directions to His servants to go to a certain street in a certain city, to such a house, to find one of His sheep.

(Chap. 2 - Days of Ministry)

{M.H. - The Ministry of Healing 41.4 - 43.1}

Continuing with our quotes:

“Every soul is as fully known to Jesus as if he were the only one for whom the Saviour died. The distress of every one touches His heart.

The cry for aid reaches His ear. He came to draw all men unto Himself.

He bids them, "Follow Me," and His Spirit moves upon their hearts to draw them to come to Him. Many refuse to be drawn. Jesus knows who they are. He also knows who gladly hear His call, and are ready to come under His pastoral care. He says, "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me." He cares for each one as if there were not another on the face of the earth.”

“He calleth His own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. . . . And the sheep follow Him: for they know His voice." The Eastern shepherd does not drive his sheep. He depends not upon force or fear; but going before, he calls them. They know his voice, and obey the call. So does the Saviour-Shepherd with His sheep.”

Further Reflection:

When Jesus calls me,
do I come to Him?

When He asks me to do something,
do I hasten or hesitate to obey?

1). God who this world in six days made
On the seventh day from labor stayed---
All things on earth His praises sang.
And high Heaven’s courts with anthems rang
Like them may I
With childish cry.
Sing praise to Him who dwells on high.

2). When God His “chosen people” led
And sent from Heaven their “daily bread,”
Each Sabbath day to Him they turned,
And alters built and incense burned,
O Lord, let me
An altar be
Whose incense shall be praise to Thee.

3). Oh, may this day that comes to me
Rich with so many a memory
This Sabbath which my God has given.
Prepare me for the rest in Heaven.
Lord grant that I may
This evening say
That I have lived with Thee today.

Have a Blessed and Peaceful Sabbath!

1 Corinthians 12:10 (KJV)

Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

We are to take up the burdens that God appoints, bearing them for His sake, and ever going to Him for rest. Whatever our work, God is honored by wholehearted, cheerful service. He is pleased when we take up our duties with gratitude, rejoicing that we are accounted worthy to be co-laborers with Him. {COL-Christ Object Lesson 363.4}
