

Children Sabbath School Lesson #60 for 1-25-2014
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

“Trust in the Lord with all thine heart”

(A Song from Proverbs 3:5-6, 11)

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.
In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD;
neither be weary of his correction:

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Opening Prayer – requesting one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer

Lesson #60: ” The Passover Visit, Part 3 ”

Luke 1:32 (KJV)

He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

This week boys and girls, we will continue our lesson with part 3 of our study book,
“The Passover Visit”!

Luke 1:33 (KJV)

And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

Isaiah 60:1 (KJV)

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

Luke 2:40 (KJV)

And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

Luke 2:50 (KJV)

And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

Luke 2:51 (KJV)

And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

Luke 2:52 (KJV)

And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

2 Corinthians 3:18 (KJV)

But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, [even] as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #8, pages 81 –83

In the answer to His mother, Jesus showed for the first time that He understood His relation to God. Before His birth the angel had said to Mary, "He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of His father David: and He shall reign over the house of Jacob forever." Luke 1:32, 33. These words Mary had pondered in her heart; yet while she believed that her child was to be Israel's Messiah, she did not comprehend His mission. Now she did not understand His words; but she knew that He had disclaimed kinship to Joseph, and had declared His Sonship to God. {DA 81.6}

Jesus did not ignore His relation to His earthly parents. From Jerusalem He returned home with them, and aided them in their life of toil. He hid in His own heart the mystery of His mission, waiting submissively for the appointed time for Him to enter upon His work. For eighteen years after He had recognized that He was the Son of God, He acknowledged the tie that bound Him to the home at Nazareth, and performed the duties of a son, a brother, a friend, and a citizen. {DA 82.1}

As His mission had opened to Jesus in the temple, He shrank from contact with the multitude. He wished to return from Jerusalem in quietness, with those who knew the secret of His life. By the paschal service, God was seeking to call His people away from their worldly cares, and to remind them of His wonderful work in their deliverance from Egypt. In this work He desired them to see a promise of deliverance from sin. As the blood of the slain lamb sheltered the homes of Israel, so the blood of Christ was to save their souls; but they could be saved through Christ only as by faith they should make His life their own. There was virtue in the symbolic service only as it directed the worshipers to Christ as their personal Saviour. God desired that they should be led to prayerful study and meditation in regard to Christ's mission. But as the multitudes left Jerusalem, the excitement of travel and social intercourse too often absorbed their attention, and the service they had witnessed was forgotten. The Saviour was not attracted to their company. {DA 82.2}

Question: Boys & girls, what did the blood of the slain lamb sheltering the homes of the Israel symbolized and teach?

Answer: There was virtue in the symbolic service only as it directed the worshipers to Christ as their personal Saviour, so the blood of Christ was to save their souls; but they could be saved through Christ only as by faith they should make His life their own.

Song: Let's learn a beautiful hymn together dear ones!

Isaiah 60:1-3 (KJV)

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.
For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.
And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

As Joseph and Mary should return from Jerusalem alone with Jesus, He hoped to direct their minds to the prophecies of the suffering Saviour. Upon Calvary He sought to lighten His mother's grief. He was thinking of her now. Mary was to witness His last agony, and Jesus desired her to understand His mission, that she might be strengthened to endure, when the sword should pierce through her soul. As Jesus had been separated from her, and she had sought Him sorrowing three days, so when He should be offered up for the sins of the world, He would again be lost to her for three days. And as He should come forth from the tomb, her sorrow would again be turned to joy. But how much better she could have borne the anguish of His death if she had understood the Scriptures to which He was now trying to turn her thoughts! {DA 82.3}

If Joseph and Mary had stayed their minds upon God by meditation and prayer, they would have realized the sacredness of their trust, and would not have lost sight of Jesus. By one day's neglect they lost the Saviour; but it cost them three days of anxious search to find Him. So with us; by idle talk, evilspeaking, or neglect of prayer, we may in one day lose the Saviour's presence, and it may take many days of sorrowful search to find Him, and regain the peace that we have lost. {DA 83.1}

Question: Boys & girls, what should Joseph and Mary have kept their minds on in order to realize sacredness of their trust of Jesus, as well as not lose sight of Him? And, what kind of behavior of us today will make us lose the Saviour's presence as His parents did?

Answer: If they had stayed their minds upon God by meditation and prayer. And, So with us; by idle talk, evilspeaking, or neglect of prayer, we may in one day lose the Saviour's presence, and it may take many days of sorrowful search to find Him, and regain the peace that we have lost.

In our association with one another, we should take heed lest we forget Jesus, and pass along unmindful that He is not with us. When we become absorbed in worldly things so that we have no thought for Him in whom our hope of eternal life is centered, we separate ourselves from Jesus and from the heavenly angels. These holy beings cannot remain where the Saviour's presence is not desired, and His absence is not marked. This is why discouragement so often exists among the professed followers of Christ. {DA 83.2}

Many attend religious services, and are refreshed and comforted by the word of God; but through neglect of meditation, watchfulness, and prayer, they lose the blessing, and find themselves more destitute than before they received it. Often they feel that God has dealt hardly with them. They do not see that the fault is their own. By separating themselves from Jesus, they have shut away the light of His presence. {DA 83.3}

Question: Boys & girls, what things will separate us from Jesus and from the heavenly angels? And how do we lose our blessings and find ourselves feeling more destitute than before we received them.

Answer: When we become absorbed in worldly things so that we have no thought for Him in whom our hope of eternal life is centered. And, through neglect of meditation, watchfulness and prayer we lose our blessings.

It would be well for us to spend a thoughtful hour each day in contemplation of the life of Christ. We should take it point by point, and let the imagination grasp each scene, especially the closing ones. As we thus dwell upon His great sacrifice for us, our confidence in Him will be more constant, our love will be quickened, and we shall be more deeply imbued with His spirit. If we would be saved at last, we must learn the lesson of penitence and humiliation at the foot of the cross. {DA 83.4}

As we associate together, we may be a blessing to one another. If we are Christ's, our sweetest thoughts will be of Him. We shall love to talk of Him; and as we speak to one another of His love, our hearts will be softened by divine influences. Beholding the beauty of His character, we shall be "changed into the same image from glory to glory." 2 Corinthians 3:18. {DA 83.5}

Question: Boys & girls, what would be well to do for an hour each day, concerning the life of Christ? And, how should we go about doing this?

Answer: It would be well for us to spend a thoughtful hour each day in contemplation of the life of Christ. And, we should take it point by point, and let the imagination grasp each scene, especially the closing ones.

In Times like these you Need a Savior

In times like these you need a Savior
In times like these you need an anchor;
Be very sure, be very sure
Your anchor holds and grips the Solid, Solid Rock
In times like these you need the Bible,
O be not idle;
Be sure your anchor holds and grips the Solid Rock
Ooo. This Rock is Jesus, Yes, He's the One;
This Rock is Jesus, the only One!
Be very sure, be very sure
your anchor holds and grips the Solid, Solid Rock Solid Rock.....
