

Children Sabbath School Lesson #75 for 5-10-2014
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

“Alleluia Salvation and Glory”
The Book of Revelation 19:1

And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying
Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:
For the Lord thy God He is MIGHTY!
Ye the Lord our God He is OMNIPOTENT!
The Lord our God He is WONDERFUL!
All Praises Be to the KING OF KINGS, AND the LORD OF LORDS.
He is Wonderful!

Opening Prayer – requesting one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer
Lesson #75: “The Victory”

Psalms 37:24 (KJV)

Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth [him with] his hand.

This week boys and girls, we will begin a new chapter in our lesson book, entitle “The Victory”!

Matthew 4:5 (KJV)

Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

Matthew 4:6 (KJV)

And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in [their] hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Exodus 17:7 (KJV)

And he called the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

Hebrew 11:6 (KJV)

But without faith [it is] impossible to please [him]: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and [that] he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Mark 14:38 (KJV)

Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly [is] ready, but the flesh [is] weak.

1 Corinthians 10:13 (KJV)

There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God [is] faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear [it].

Psalms 50:14 (KJV)

Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High:

Psalms 50:15(KJV)

And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #13, pages 124 – 126

"Then the devil taketh Him up into the holy city, and setteth Him on a pinnacle of the temple, and saith unto Him, If Thou be the Son of God, cast Thyself down: for it is written,--

"He shall give His angels charge concerning Thee: And in their hands they shall bear Thee up, Lest at any time Thou dash Thy foot against a stone." {DA 124.1}

Satan now supposes that he has met Jesus on His own ground. The wily foe himself presents words that proceeded from the mouth of God. He still appears as an angel of light, and he makes it evident that he is acquainted with the Scriptures, and understands the import of what is written. As Jesus before used the word of God to sustain His faith, the tempter now uses it to countenance his deception. He claims that he has been only testing the fidelity of Jesus, and he now commends His steadfastness. As the Saviour has manifested trust in God, Satan urges Him to give still another evidence of His faith. {DA 124.2}

Question: Boys & girls, as Jesus before used the word of God to sustain His faith; in what way did the tempter now uses it against him? And As the Saviour has manifested trust in God, what did Satan urges Him to give still?

Answer: He uses it to countenance his deception. And, Satan would have urged Jesus to give another evidence of His faith.

Song: Let's learn beautiful scripture song together dear ones!

Proverbs 3:5-7, 11 (KJV)

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.
In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.
Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.
In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.
My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:
In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

But again the temptation is prefaced with the insinuation of distrust, "If Thou be the Son of God." Christ was tempted to answer the "if;" but He refrained from the slightest acceptance of the doubt. He would not imperil His life in order to give evidence to Satan.
{DA 124.3}

The tempter thought to take advantage of Christ's humanity, and urge Him to presumption. But while Satan can solicit, he cannot compel to sin. He said to Jesus, "Cast Thyself down," knowing that he could not cast Him down; for God would interpose to deliver Him. Nor could Satan force Jesus to cast Himself down. Unless Christ should consent to temptation, He could not be overcome. Not all the power of earth or hell could force Him in the slightest degree to depart from the will of His Father. {DA 125.1}

The tempter can never compel us to do evil. He cannot control minds unless they are yielded to his control. The will must consent, faith must let go its hold upon Christ, before Satan can exercise his power upon us. But every sinful desire we cherish affords him a foothold. Every point in which we fail of meeting the divine standard is an open door by which he can enter to tempt and destroy us. And every failure or defeat on our part gives occasion for him to reproach Christ. {DA 125.2}

Question: Boys & girls, while Satan can solicit, can he compel Jesus to sin? And, can he compel us to do evil?

Answer: No! Unless Christ should consent to temptation, He could not be overcome. Not all the power of earth or hell could force Him in the slightest degree to depart from the will of His Father. No! He cannot control minds unless they are yielded to his control.

When Satan quoted the promise, "He shall give His angels charge over Thee," he omitted the words, "to keep Thee in all Thy ways;" that is, in all the ways of God's choosing. Jesus refused to go outside the path of obedience. While manifesting perfect trust in His Father, He would not place Himself, unbidden, in a position that would necessitate the interposition of His Father to save Him from death. He would not force Providence to come to His rescue, and thus fail of giving man an example of trust and submission. {DA 125.3}

Jesus declared to Satan, "It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God." These words were spoken by Moses to the children of Israel when they thirsted in the desert, and demanded that Moses should give them water, exclaiming, "Is the Lord among us, or not?" Exodus 17:7. God had wrought marvelously for them; yet in trouble they doubted Him, and demanded evidence that He was with them. In their unbelief they sought to put Him to the test. And Satan was urging Christ to do the same thing. God had already testified that Jesus was His Son; and now to ask for proof that He was the Son of God would be putting God's word to the test,--tempting Him. And the same would be true of asking for that which God had not promised. It would manifest distrust, and be really proving, or tempting, Him. We should not present our petitions to God to prove whether He will fulfill His word, but because He will fulfill it; not to prove that He loves us, but because He loves us. "Without faith it is impossible to please Him: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him." Hebrews 11:6. {DA 125.4}

Question: Boys & girls, what led Jesus to refuse to go outside the path of obedience?

Answer: When Satan quoted the promise, "He shall give His angels charge over Thee," he omitted the words, "to keep Thee in all Thy ways;" that is, in all the ways of God's choosing.

Song: Let's learn another Scripture song us together dear ones!

Colossians 3:20 (KJV)

Children, obey [your] parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

Obedience is the very best way that shows that you believe
When you do exactly as the Lord commands but you do it happily action is the key to obedience it show that you believe, obedience is the very best way that shows that you believe
How you spell it O- B- E- D- I- E- N- C- E,
Obedience is the very best way that shows that you believe

But faith is in no sense allied to presumption. Only he who has true faith is secure against presumption. For presumption is Satan's counterfeit of faith. Faith claims God's promises, and brings forth fruit in obedience. Presumption also claims the promises, but uses them as Satan did, to excuse transgression. Faith would have led our first parents to trust the love of God, and to obey His commands. Presumption led them to transgress His law, believing that His great love would save them from the consequence of their sin. It is not faith that claims the favor of Heaven without complying with the conditions on which mercy is to be granted. Genuine faith has its foundation in the promises and provisions of the Scriptures. {DA 126.1}

Often when Satan has failed of exciting distrust, he succeeds in leading us to presumption. If he can cause us to place ourselves unnecessarily in the way of temptation, he knows that the victory is his. God will preserve all who walk in the path of obedience; but to depart from it is to venture on Satan's ground. There we are sure to fall. The Saviour has bidden us, "Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation." Mark 14:38. Meditation and prayer would keep us from rushing unbidden into the way of danger, and thus we should be saved from many a defeat. {DA 126.2}

Question: Boys & girls, who alone is secure against presumption? And how does Satan succeeds in leading us to presumption often when he has failed of exciting distrust?

Answer: He who has true faith. For presumption is Satan's counterfeit of faith. Faith claims God's promises, and brings forth fruit in obedience. And if he can cause us to place ourselves unnecessarily in the way of temptation, he knows that the victory is his.

Yet we should not lose courage when assailed by temptation. Often when placed in a trying situation we doubt that the Spirit of God has been leading us. But it was the Spirit's leading that brought Jesus into the wilderness to be tempted by Satan. When God brings us into trial, He has a purpose to accomplish for our good. Jesus did not presume on God's promises by going unbidden into temptation, neither did He give up to despondency when temptation came upon Him. Nor should we. "God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it." He says, "Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the Most High: and call upon Me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify Me." 1 Corinthians 10:13; Psalm 50:14, 15. {DA 126.3}

Solution

Hebrew 11:6 (KJV)

But without faith [it is] impossible to please [him]: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and [that] he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

1 Corinthians 10:13 (KJV)

There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God [is] faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear [it].
