

Children Sabbath School Lesson #98 for 10-18-2014
Song for opening the Sabbath School:

A Song of degrees
From the Book of Psalms Chapters 134:1-2 and 1 John 3:1

Behold, bless ye the LORD, all [ye] servants of the LORD
Lift up your hands [in] the sanctuary, and bless the LORD.
Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God:

Opening Prayer – requesting one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer

Lesson #98: Except Ye See Signs and Wonder, Part 2

John 4:50 (KJV)

Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

This week boys and girls, we will continue with part 2 in our lesson entitled, “Except Ye See Signs and Wonder” of our study book!

John 4:51 (KJV)

And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told [him], saying, Thy son liveth.

John 4:52 (KJV)

Then inquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

John 4:53 (KJV)

So the father knew that [it was] at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

John 4:54 (KJV)

This [is] again the second miracle [that] Jesus did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee.

Ephesians 3:16 (KJV)

That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

Ephesians 3:20 (KJV)

Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

Ephesians 1:19 (KJV)

And what [is] the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,

Let's continue in our book Desire of Ages, Chapter #20, pages 198 – 200

Like Jacob he prevailed. The Saviour cannot withdraw from the soul that clings to Him, pleading its great need. "Go thy way," He said; "thy son liveth." The nobleman left the Saviour's presence with a peace and joy he had never known before. Not only did he believe that his son would be restored, but with strong confidence he trusted in Christ as the Redeemer. {DA 198.5}

At the same hour the watchers beside the dying child in the home at Capernaum beheld a sudden and mysterious change. The shadow of death was lifted from the sufferer's face. The flush of fever gave place to the soft glow of returning health. The dim eyes brightened with intelligence, and strength returned to the feeble, emaciated frame. No signs of his malady lingered about the child. His burning flesh had become soft and moist, and he sank into a quiet sleep. The fever had left him in the very heat of the day. The family were amazed, and great was the rejoicing. {DA 199.1}

Question: Boys & girls, what can the Saviour not do to the soul that clings to Him? And how did the nobleman leave the Saviour's presence?

Answer: Withdraw Him from souls pleading its great need. And, with a peace and joy he had never known before. With strong confidence he trusted in Christ as the Redeemer.

Cana was not so far from Capernaum but that the officer might have reached his home on the evening after his interview with Jesus; but he did not hasten on the homeward journey. It was not until the next morning that he reached Capernaum. What a homecoming was that! When he went to find Jesus, his heart was heavy with sorrow. The sunshine seemed cruel to him, the songs of the birds a mockery. How different his feelings now! All nature wears a new aspect. He sees with new eyes. As he journeys in the quiet of the early morning, all nature seems to be praising God with him. While he is still some distance from his own dwelling, servants come out to meet him, anxious to relieve the suspense they are sure he must feel. He shows no surprise at the news they bring, but with a depth of interest they cannot know he asks at what hour the child began to mend. They answer, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him." At the very moment when the father's faith grasped the assurance, "Thy son liveth," divine love touched the dying child. {DA 199.2}

Question: Boys & girls, how was the officer's spirit when he went to seek the Saviour for help? And what was his feeling after meeting with the Saviour?

Answer: His heart was heavy with sorrow, the sunshine seemed cruel to him, the songs of the birds a mockery. And, all nature wears a new aspect. He sees with new eyes. As he journeys in the quiet of the early morning, all nature seems to be praising God with him.

The father hurries on to greet his son. He clasps him to his heart as one restored from the dead, and thanks God again and again for this wonderful restoration. {DA 200.1}

The nobleman longed to know more of Christ. As he afterward heard His teaching, he and all his household became disciples. Their affliction was sanctified to the conversion of the entire family. Tidings of the miracle spread; and in Capernaum, where so many of His mighty works were performed, the way was prepared for Christ's personal ministry. {DA 200.2}

Question: Boys & girls, after the restoration of the nobleman's son, what did he wanted to do? And what did he do after he heard His teaching?

Answer: The nobleman longed to know more of Christ. And, he and all his household became disciples.

Song: Let's learn a beautiful hymn, "More about Jesus" together dear ones!

More about Jesus
More about Jesus would I know, More of His grace to others show; More of His saving fullness see, More of His love Who died for me. Refrain More about Jesus let me learn, More of His holy will discern; Spirit of God, my teacher be, Showing the things of Christ to me. Refrain	More about Jesus; in His Word, Holding communion with my Lord; Hearing His voice in every line, Making each faithful saying mine. Refrain More about Jesus; on His throne, Riches in glory all His own; More of His kingdom's sure increase; More of His coming, Prince of Peace. Refrain
More, more about Jesus, More, more about Jesus; More of His saving fullness see, More of His love Who died for me.

He who blessed the nobleman at Capernaum is just as desirous of blessing us. But like the afflicted father, we are often led to seek Jesus by the desire for some earthly good; and upon the granting of our request we rest our confidence in His love. The Saviour longs to give us a greater blessing than we ask; and He delays the answer to our request that He may show us the evil of our own hearts, and our deep need of His grace. He desires us to renounce the selfishness that leads us to seek Him. Confessing our helplessness and bitter need, we are to trust ourselves wholly to His love. {DA 200.3}

Question: Boys & girls, what more does the Saviour longs to give us? And what does He desires from us?

Answer: A greater blessing than we ask; and He delays the answer to our request that He may show us the evil of our own hearts, and our deep need of His grace. And, to renounce the selfishness that leads us to seek Him. Confessing our helplessness and bitter need, we are to trust ourselves wholly to His love.

The nobleman wanted to see the fulfillment of his prayer before he should believe; but he had to accept the word of Jesus that his request was heard and the blessing granted. This lesson we also have to learn. Not because we see or feel that God hears us are we to believe. We are to trust in His promises. When we come to Him in faith, every petition enters the heart of God. When we have asked for His blessing, we should believe that we receive it, and thank Him that we have received it. Then we are to go about our duties, assured that the blessing will be realized when we need it most. When we have learned to do this, we shall know that our prayers are answered. God will do for us "exceeding abundantly," "according to the riches of His glory," and "the working of His mighty power." Ephesians 3:20, 16; 1:19. {DA 200.4}

Question: Boys & girls, what is the lesson that we also have to learn? And, how should we come to Him and ask for His blessing?

Answer: Not because we see or feel that God hears us are we to believe. We are to trust in His promises. And, in faith, we should believe that we receive it, and thank Him that we have received it. Then we are to go about our duties, assured that the blessing will be realized when we need it most.

Song: Let's learn a scripture song dear one to, Trust in the Lord with all thine heart!

Proverbs 3:5-7, 11 (KJV)

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

It's Story Time!

Our book selection this Sabbath is entitled,
"Sons and Daughters of God"

Chapter 1-That the Church Is the Object of God's Supreme Regard

Narrated by our dear Brother Grave!

That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

Ephesians 5:27. {SD 13.1}

The church, enfeebled and defective though it be, is the only object on earth on which Christ bestows His supreme regard. He is constantly watching it with solicitude, and is strengthening it by His Holy Spirit. Will we, as members of His church, allow Him to impress our minds and to work through us to His glory? {SD 13.2}

Christ loves His church. He will give all needed help to those who call upon Him for strength for the development of Christlike character. But His love is not weakness. He will not serve with their sins or give them prosperity while they continue to follow a wrong course of action. Only by faithful repentance will their sins be forgiven; for God will not cover evil with the robe of His righteousness. He will honor faithful service. He will abundantly bless those who reveal to their fellowmen His justice, mercy, and love. Let those who are engaged in His service walk before Him in true humility, following faithfully in His footsteps, cherishing the holy principles which will live through the eternal ages. Let them in word and action show that they obey the laws which are obeyed in heaven. {SD 13.3}

The church is the repository of the riches of the grace of Christ; and through the church will eventually be made manifest, even to "the principalities and powers in heavenly places," the final and full display of the love of God.... The church is God's fortress, His city of refuge, which He holds in a revolted world.... It is the theater of His grace, in which He delights to reveal His power to transform hearts. {SD 13.4}

God's love for His church is infinite. His care over His heritage is unceasing.
{SD 13.5}

Next Week: We will begin new chapter in our study entitled, "Bethesda and the Sanhedrin" in our lesson book Desire of Ages!

Closing Prayer – request one of the little ones or mommies or daddies to give prayer.

Next Sabbath: Chapter 21 "Bethesda and the Sanhedrin", Sabbath October 25, 2014.

*Have a Blessed Sabbath dear one, and enjoy your activities. God Bless!
