Praise The Lord

Philippians 3:14 (KJV)

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Sing A Joyful Song

When The Saved Get To Heaven

Hymn #358 Mrs. J. G. WILSON

- 1.) Sing the wondrous love of Jesus;
sing His mercy and His grace.
In the mansions, bright and blessed,
He'll prepare for us a place.

Refrain: When the saved get to heaven,
what a day of rejoicing that will be!
When the saved see Jesus,
They'll sing and shout the victory!
- 2.) While we walk the pilgrim pathway, clouds will overspread the sky;
but when trav'ling days are over,
not a shadow, not a sigh! [Refrain]
- 3.) Let us then be true and faithful, trusting, serving ev'ry day.
Just one glimpse of Him in glory
will the toils of life repay. [Refrain]
- 4.) Onward to the prize before us!
Soon His beauty we'll behold.
Soon the pearly gates will open;
we shall tread the streets of gold. [Refrain]

This section of our study was inspired by the Lord for all His precious little jewels.
Our book selection is entitled,
"The Story of Jesus!"
Chapter 32 – The Home of the Saved
Part 3

Narrated by
Our Dear Brother Graves

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree:
and it shall be to the LORD
for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.
ISAIAH 55:13

The Bible verses for our lessons are taken from the following books:

Our opening scripture is taken from:

Isaiah 32:18 (KJV)

And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places;

Isaiah 60:18 (KJV) Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders;
but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

Isaiah 65:21 (KJV) And they shall build houses, and inhabit [them]; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

Isaiah 65:22 (KJV) They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree [are] the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

Isaiah 35:1 (KJV) The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

Isaiah 55:13 (KJV) Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign [that] shall not be cut off.

(Continuing the scriptures on the next slide!)

Continuing with the scriptures:

Isaiah 11:6 (KJV)

The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

Isaiah 11:9 (KJV)

They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

Revelation 21:4 (KJV)

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Isaiah 33:24 (KJV)

And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein [shall be] forgiven [their] iniquity

(Next slide)

Chapter 32 – The Home of the Saved, Part 3

Continuing: There are ever-flowing streams, clear as crystal, and beside them waving trees cast their shadows upon the paths prepared for the ransomed of the Lord. There the wide-spreading plains swell into hills of beauty, and the mountains of God rear their lofty summits. On those peaceful plains, beside those living streams, God's people, so long pilgrims and wanderers, shall find a home. {SJ 184.9}

“My people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places.”

“Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.” Isaiah 32:18; 60:18. {SJ 185.1}

“They shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: . . .

mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.” Isaiah 65:21, 22. {SJ 185.2}

{Next Slide}

Continuing: There, “the wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.” “Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the briar shall come up the myrtle tree.” Isaiah 35:1; 55:13. {SJ 185.3}

“The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; . . . and a little child shall lead them.”

“They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain,” saith the Lord. Isaiah 11:6, 9. {SJ 185.4}

There will be no more tears, no funeral trains, no badges of mourning.

“There shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, . . . for the former things are passed away.”

“The inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.”

Revelation 21:4; Isaiah 33:24. {SJ 185.5}

Next Sabbath, we will continue with part 4 of our chapter in our Toddler's Program entitled, “The Home of the Saved” in our Tiny Tot's Lesson book
“The Story of Jesus” May 23, 2026

Our Closing scripture Song of our Toddler's Lesson

Taken from: The Holy Scriptures

Memory Verse

Ezekiel 36:26-28, 38 (KJV) Margin...

A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you:
and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh,
and I will give you an heart of flesh.

And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do [them].

(Margin...And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers;)
and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.
and ye shall know that I [am] the LORD!

Review

1. What do the ever-flowing streams look like?
(Answer: Clear as crystal.)
2. What will God's people find on those peaceful plains?
(Answer: A home.)
3. Instead of thorns and briars, what two trees will come up?
(Answer: The fir tree and the myrtle tree.)

Our Bonus Question:
What three sad things won't be in the new earth?
(Answer: Tears, funeral trains, and badges of mourning.)

And often our merciful Father encourages His children and strengthens their faith by permitting them here to see evidence of the power of His grace upon the hearts and lives of those for whom they labor.

“My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, saith the Lord.

For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts.

For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: so shall My word be that goeth forth out of My mouth:
it shall not return unto Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree:
and it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.“

Lesson 11 — Faith in Canaan

The Bible verses for our Nature Segment REVIEW of Lessons 11 entitled, “Faith in Canaan”

Our opening scripture is taken from:

Matthew 15:25 (KJV)

Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

Mark 7:24 (KJV) And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know [it]: but he could not be hid.

Mark 7:25 (KJV) For a [certain] woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

Mark 7:26 (KJV) The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

III John 2

“What does it mean to be in Health?”

Health, Closely Related to Conscience and Religion.--

Love for God is essential for life and health. . . . In order to have perfect health, our hearts must be filled with love, and hope, and joy.—Ms 24, 1900. {3MR- Manuscript Releases 329.2}

Chapter 8 - Preaching the Distinctive Truths

The body must be kept in a healthy condition in order that the soul may be in health.

The condition of the body affects the condition of the soul.

He who would have physical and spiritual strength must educate his appetite in right lines.

He must be careful not to burden the soul by overtaxing his physical or spiritual powers.

Faithful adherence to right principles in eating, drinking, and dressing is a duty that God has laid upon human beings.

{Ev-Evangelism 261.1}

The Lord desires us to obey the laws of health and life.

He holds each one responsible to care properly for his body, that it may be kept in health.--Letter 123, 1903.

{Ev-Evangelism 261.2}

However,
behind a serious
countenance,
Jesus hides a
smiling face.
He knows God led Him here to meet this woman
and to give her daughter health.

Remind

1. As you work together as a family, let your chores remind you of your lesson.
2. As you can, freeze, or dry food for the winter months, or use preserved food, remember the bear preparing for its winter sleep.
3. Store all the memory verses you can in your mind to feed on during the coming “spiritual winter.”

Reinforce

1. Look for bears! Use your guide book to identify them.

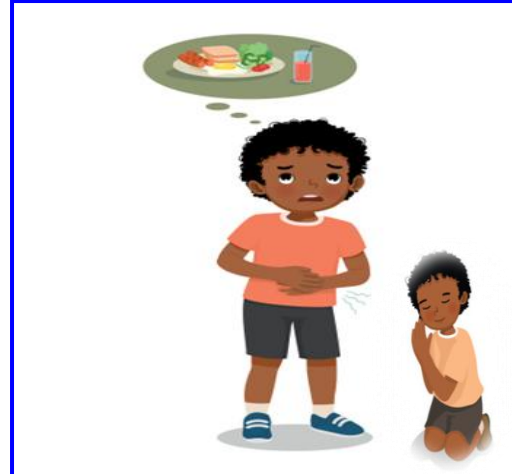

2. Can or dry some fruit to give to someone that is not in good health and cannot do their own.

3. Practice leaving the table this week without that over-full feeling. Eat only a little to practice good health.

4. For individual activities, stories, and poems, use the booklet entitled, Children's Bible Activities, Stories, and Poems, for this quarter.

“The Pharisees had gathered close about Jesus as He answered the question of the scribe. Now turning He put a question to them: ‘What think ye of Christ? whose son is he?’ This question was designed to test their belief concerning the Messiah—to show whether they regarded Him simply as a man or as the Son of God. A chorus of voices answered, “The Son of David.” This was the title which prophecy had given to the Messiah. When Jesus revealed His divinity by His mighty miracles, when He healed the sick and raised the dead, the people had inquired among themselves, ‘Is not this the Son of David?’ The syro-phoenician woman, blind Bartimaeus, and many others had cried to Him for help, ‘Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David’ (Matthew 15:22). While riding into Jerusalem He had been hailed with the joyful shout, ‘hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord’ (Matthew 21:9). And the little children in the temple had that day echoed the glad ascription. But many who called Jesus the Son of David did not recognize His divinity. They did not understand that the Son of David was also the Son of God.” (The Desire of Ages 608-609)

“To The Law and the Testimonies!”
: (KJV)

- 1. Moderation
- 2. Earnestness
- 3. Prejudice

“Moderation” in Scripture & Spirit of Prophecy

Philippians 4:5 (KJV)

Let your moderation be known unto all men.
The Lord [is] at hand.

Provide an Abundance of the Best Foods.--Children and youth should not be underfed in the least degree; they should have an abundance of healthful food, but this does not mean that it is proper to place before them rich cakes and pastries. They should have the best of exercise and the best of food, for these have an important bearing upon the condition of the mental and moral powers. A proper, wholesome diet will be one of the means whereby healthful digestion may be preserved.

{CG- Child Guidance 390.3}

Healthful Living, a Personal Obligation.--What we eat and drink has an important bearing upon our lives and characters, and Christians should bring their habits of eating and drinking into conformity to the laws of nature. We must sense our obligations to God in these matters.

Obedience to the laws of health should be made a matter of earnest study, for willing ignorance on this subject is sin.

Each one should feel a personal obligation to carry out the laws of healthful living.

{CG- Child Guidance 392.4} Chapter Sixty-Two - Eating to Live

“Earnestness” in Scripture & Spirit of Prophecy

“We have now only a little time in which to prepare for eternity.

May the Lord open the closed eyes of His people and quicken their dulled senses, that they may realize that the gospel is the power of God unto salvation to them that believe.

May they see the importance of giving so pure and righteous a representation of God that the world shall see Him in His beauty.

May they be so filled with the Spirit that dwells in Him that the world will have no power to divert them from the work of presenting to men the wonderful possibilities before every soul who receives Christ. {7T 11.4}

“In all lines of our work there is need of greater earnestness. Time is passing.

God's servants are to be "not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord."

People need the truth, and by earnest, faithful effort it is to be communicated to them.

Souls are to be sought for, prayed for, labored for. Earnest appeals are to be made. Fervent prayers are to be offered. Our tame, spiritless petitions are to be changed into petitions of intense earnestness. God's word declares: The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."

{7T- Testimonies for the Church Volume Seven 12.1}

The world is our field of missionary toil, and we are to go forth to labor surrounded with the atmosphere of Gethsemane and Calvary.

“Prejudice” Scripture & Spirit of Prophecy

PREJUDICE v.t.

2. A previous bent or bias of mind for or against any person or thing; prepossession.
There is an unaccountable prejudice to projectors of all kinds.
3. Mischief; hurt; damage; injury. Violent factions are a prejudice to the authority of the sovereign.
How plain this abuse is, and what prejudice it does to the understanding of the sacred Scriptures.

Chapter 2 - The Beatitudes

“It is thus that God's purpose in calling His people, from Abraham on the plains of Mesopotamia to us in this age, is to reach its fulfillment.

He says, “I will bless thee, . . . and thou shalt be a blessing.” Genesis 12:2.

The words of Christ through the gospel prophet, which are but re-echoed in the Sermon on the Mount, are for us in this last generation:

“Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.” Isaiah 60:1.

If upon your spirit the glory of the Lord is risen, if you have beheld His beauty who is “the chiefest among ten thousand” and the One “altogether lovely,” if your souls has become radiant in the presence of

His glory, to you is this word from the Master sent. Have you stood with Christ on the mount of transfiguration? Down in the plain there are souls enslaved by Satan; they are waiting for the word of faith and prayer to set them free. “{MB-Thoughts from the Mount of Blessing 43.1}

THIS SABBATH WE WILL REVIEW MORE ABOUT OUR THIRD TOPIC, “A BEAR’S LIFESTYLE!”

“BEARS IN CAPTIVITY HAVE SIMILAR TASTES TO THOSE IN THE WILD!”

“However, due to the differences in living conditions, captive individuals have distinct lifestyles.

They depend on their captors for their meals and do not face any interference from the weather or environment.

Their meal does vary depending on what their captors determine they need.

Most times, zookeepers regulate what these bears eat to control their weight.

Given their lifestyle, they don't need to go through a process of hibernation.

Bears in captivity feed on berries as their main plant source. Their meat diet comes from salmons, chickens, and rabbits, among others.

Captors often feed whole animals to these bears so they can gain every possible nutrient, including calcium, from the bones.”

“BEARS IN CAPTIVITY HAVE SIMILAR TASTES TO THOSE IN THE WILD!” PART 2

“It is said to be nine times stronger than a bloodhound and 2,100 times stronger than a human!

Not surprisingly, the bear relies on the sense of smell more than others to find prey.

They can smell you miles away but don’t necessarily attack when they do.

The bear forages, spending the bulk of its hours looking for food. Given the need to store fat for winter, feeding is a primary aim.

The foraging tactics and strategies vary based on the species.

Pandas spend up to 16 hours looking for bamboo.

The Black and grizzly bears spend less, prioritizing plants over animals.

Polar bears ambush seals and other prey.

Many bears go fishing, using their mouth as a tool.”

Antarctica Food: What To Eat On The White Continent

Stage 3: Growing up

The cubs stay with their mother for 30 to 36 months. During this period, they learn how to feed, swim, hunt and survive on their own from their mother. Then the cubs reach the subadult age when its time to leave the mother.

Antarctica Food: What To Eat On The White Continent

<https://zoologist.com/polar-bear-life-cycle/>

4. Polar Bear Life Cycle for Kids

“Life cycle is a series of changes in living things from its birth to death. Any living thing including all plants and animals have a life cycle.

Polar bears are born and feed on their mother's milk in a den. When the cubs are ready to come out of the den, they weigh 20 to 25 pounds.

Their mother will ensure their safety and teach them how to hunt seal and fish they like to eat.

Then the cubs reach subadult life stage during which they leave their mother but are still unable to have babies of their own.

During the subadult life the polar bear siblings share their food and live together.

Female polar bears are able to have babies at the age of four and five while the male polar bears reach maturity at age six.

When the polar bears are adult, the male weighs up to 900 pounds while the female weighs between 300 and 600 pounds.”

Antarctica Food: What To Eat On The White Continent

<https://zoologist.com/polar-bear-life-cycle/>

Stage 5: Denning in Fall and Winter

“After mating, the female polar bears feed themselves all the summer to survive the long denning season. They start building maternity den before winter where it will give birth to its cubs and nurse them till March or early April.

The den is usually made in:
snowdrifts near a coast or river
in hills near sea ice
in the snow banks of frozen sea.

The den is about the size of the polar bear with enough space for it to turn around.

After the birth of the cubs the Polar Bear Life Cycle completes and that of cubs began to start.”

IN CONCLUSION:

Antarctica Food: What To Eat On The White Continent

Stage 6: Death

In the wild the polar bears can live up to 25 years while in captivity they can live more. The causes of Polar Bear death includes:

Disease

Accidental

Climate change

Hunting by humans

<https://zoologist.com/polar-bear-life-cycle/>

OUR THIRD TOPIC, FROM OUR LESSON ELEVEN “A BEAR’S LIFESTYLE!”

HOW DO BEARS FIND FOOD?

“Bears have a certain routine each year. During winter, they go into hibernation, which can last for around 7 months.

They don't sleep off during this period but have ways of reducing metabolism to survive, which includes not eating.

Because their mode of hibernation differs from smaller animals like hedgehogs, some experts prefer to term theirs as torpor instead.

In preparation for the period of inactivity, bears in the wild eat a lot during the summer.

They're constantly on the lookout for food from their waking moments till when they sleep.

These creatures are diurnal, so all activities are done in broad daylight.

To help it achieve its eating aim, bears possess strong senses.

Their eyesight is like that of humans and enables them to see food.

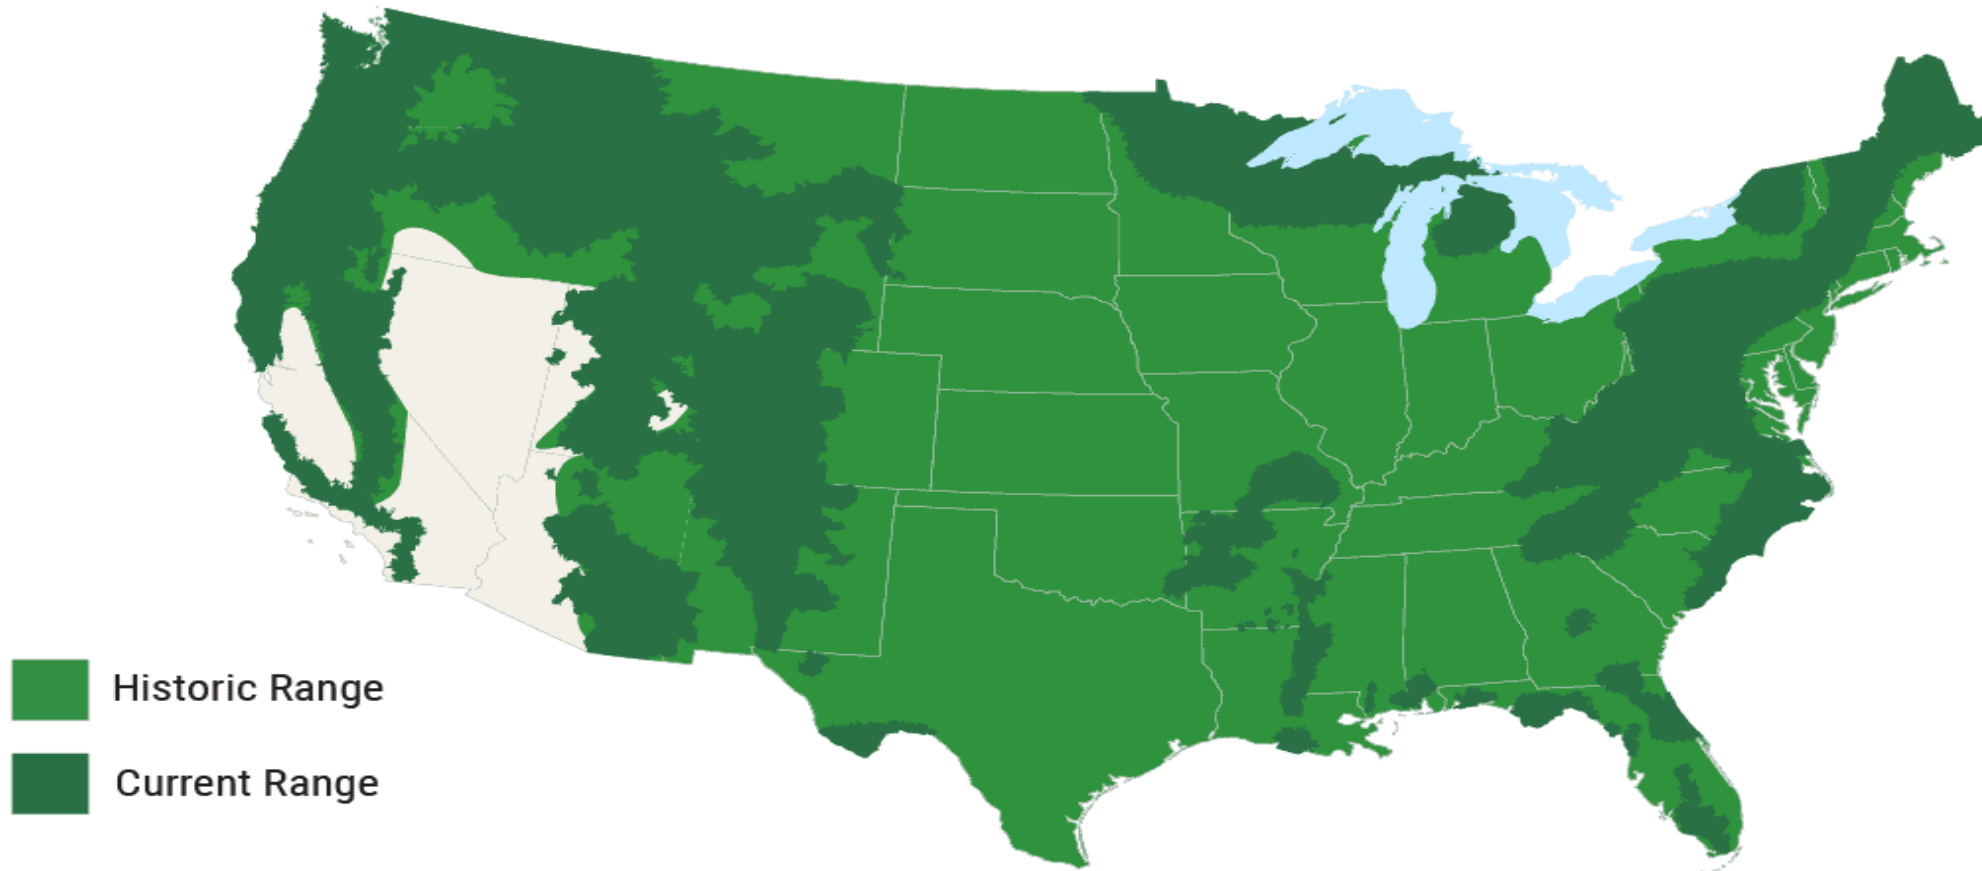

The sense of sound is even better, helping them pick up the frequency from afar.

Having said that, neither sight nor hearing is as strong as the sense of smell.”

American Black Bear Range

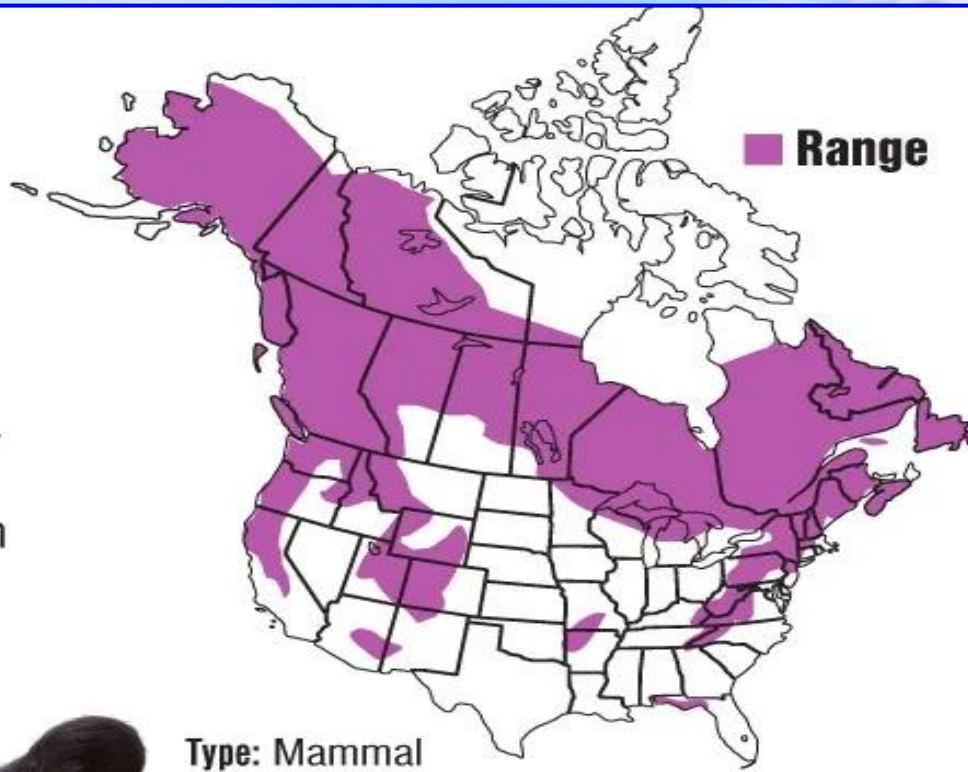

Black bears favor forested environments with fruit- and nut-producing trees and shrubs that thrive in small clearings. Lowland and wetland habitats provide these bears with succulent vegetation, while access to streams and pools is necessary for hydration. Black bears seek refuge in trees, and tend to prefer old growth trees as denning sites, with spring cubs utilizing them as easily climbed refuges.

Black bear

Ursus americanus

Black bears are North America's most familiar and common bears. They typically live in forests and are excellent tree climbers, but are also found in mountains and swamps. Despite their name, black bears can be blue-gray or blue-black, brown, cinnamon, or even (very rarely) white.

Type: Mammal

Diet: Omnivore

Average life span in the wild: 20 years

Size: 5 to 6 ft long

Weight: 200 to 600 lbs

Group name: Sleuth or Sloth

Fun fact: Black bears are not true hibernators. During their winter dormant period, though, they do not eat, drink, urinate, or defecate, but may wake up if disturbed.

What can we learn from our NATURE WALK
experience, dear ones?

Let's use
our listening ears little ones!

Our dear sister Christina's experience!

“Identifying Characteristics:

Adults range from 22.1 to 26.0 inches in length and have a 53.9 to 57.5-inch wingspan.

Breeding adults have light gray backs, white heads, white undersides, and black wingtips and may have dusky marks on their heads during the winter.

They have yellow eyes, dull pink legs, hefty bills, and barrel chests.

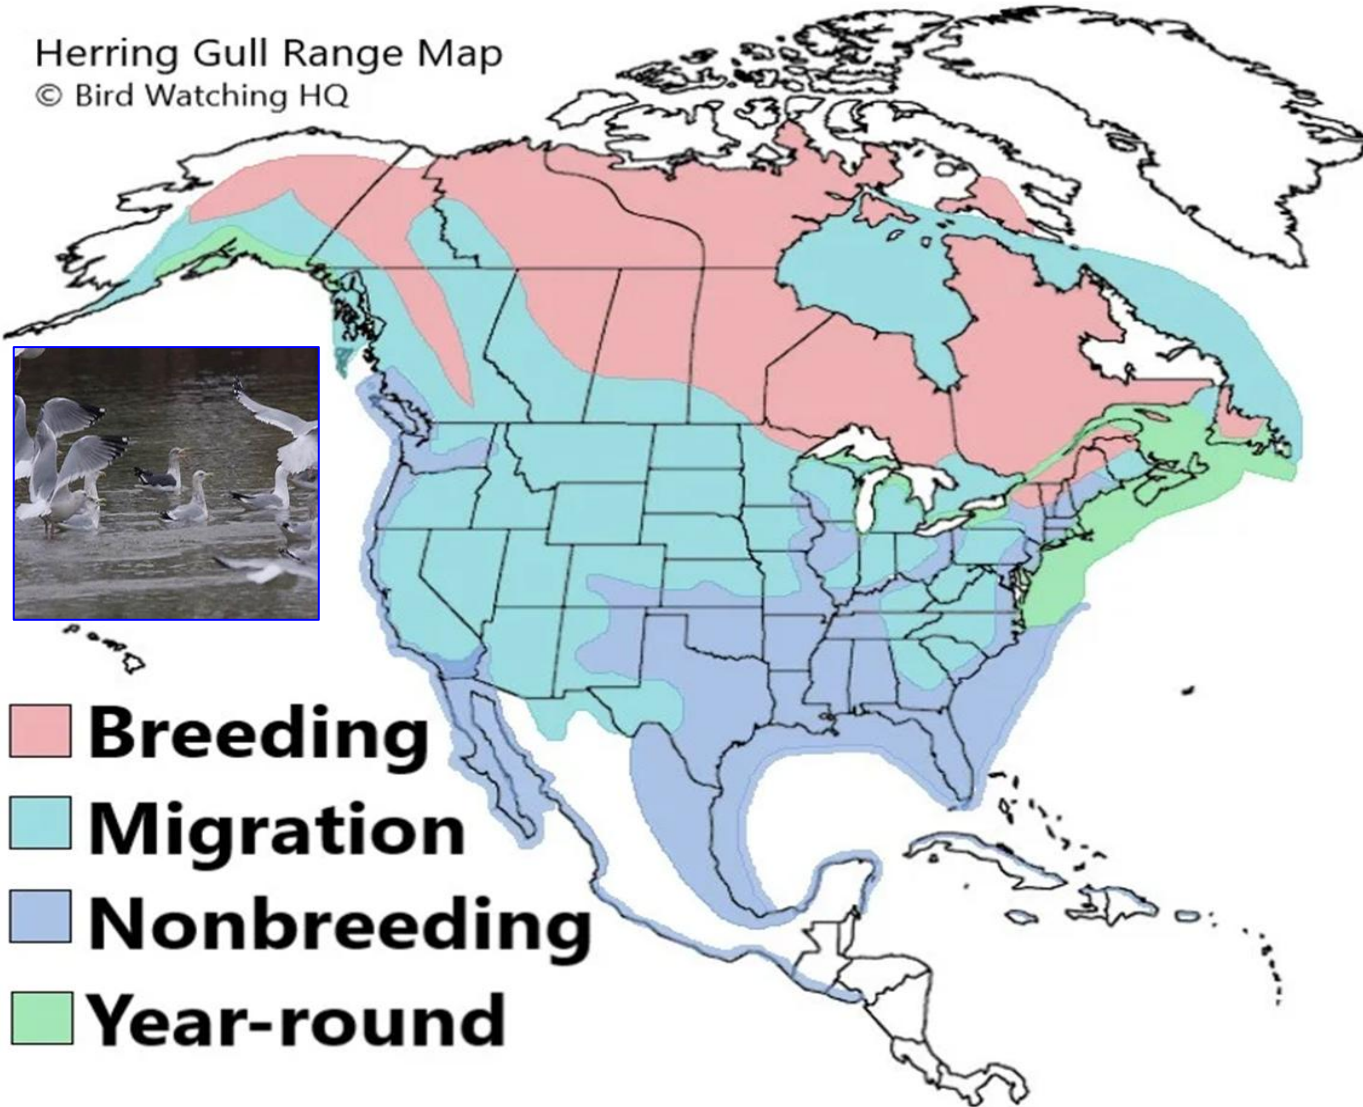

Herring Gulls are the familiar, quintessential “sea-gull” in Ohio.

They occupy farmland, coasts, bays, beaches, lakes, piers, and landfills. They're most abundant on the coast and surrounding large lakes and river systems.

If you spend time at the beach, you've probably noticed Herring Gulls waiting for you to drop your snack! In addition to popcorn and chips from humans, they consume fish, crustaceans, mollusks, sea urchins, marine worms, smaller birds, eggs, carrion, and insects.

Herring Gull Range Map
© Bird Watching HQ

“Herring Gulls will stop at nothing to get a meal! They’ve been observed preying on fish driven to the surface by feeding whales. They also will take hard-shelled items such as crabs and mollusks high into the air and drop them onto rocks to break them open.”

“Individuals have even been observed “fishing.” One individual was recorded dropping pieces of bread into a pond and catching the goldfish that came up to feed. It didn’t eat any bread itself, suggesting the gull was using the bread as a lure!

The population of Herring Gulls declined steeply during the 19th century because of over-hunting. While their range and population recovered during the 20th century, overfishing, oil spills, and pesticide contamination have reduced some populations.”

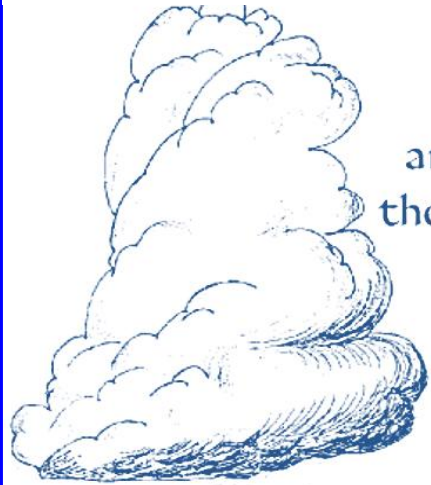

Our dear sister Christina's experience! Cumulonimbus Clouds

Clouds carry rain and snow which help to water the earth. Clouds can also bring destruction and even death with hail or a tornado. Dark clouds hide the sun. They are like trials that come to each of us. When the sun rises higher in the heavens, it melts away the dark clouds, like the love of God. In the east, one little cloud can develop quickly into a raging storm. Even so, one small sin can cause great destruction in a life. How important to have purity of life with every sin confessed and forsaken.

Who gives us strength to deny self?

“The LORD is slow to anger,
and great in power,
and will not at all acquit the wicked:
the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind
and in the storm,
and the clouds are
the dust of his feet.”

Nahum 1:3

REVIEW

Much water is lifted against the force of gravity high into the air, and it is held there until it is carried inland where it can be used. God uses the sun which is 93 million miles (149,730,000 kilometers) away to do this job. Why? Because there is nothing on earth powerful enough to do it. Satan tried to pull Jesus down into sin by tempting Him into letting self rule, but the Holy Spirit drew Him up to the Father. How? by giving Him strength to obey the Word and to deny self. The Holy Spirit is also your Helper. The power of the “Sun of righteousness” draws up the seas of people to a position of victory over the world, the flesh, and the devil.

Our Reference reading of our Lesson, “Mammals of the Bible” REVIEW!

Taken From: - The Desire of Ages

Chapter 31 - The Sermon on the Mount

“Blessed are the peacemakers.” The peace of Christ is born of truth. It is harmony with God.

The world is at enmity with the law of God; sinners are at enmity with their Maker;

and as a result they are at enmity with one another. But the psalmist declares, “Great peace have they which love Thy law: and nothing shall offend them.” Psalms 119:165. Men cannot manufacture peace.

Human plans for the purification and uplifting of individuals or of society will fail of producing peace, because they do not reach the heart.

The only power that can create or perpetuate true peace is the grace of Christ.

When this is implanted in the heart, it will cast out the evil passions that cause strife and dissension.

“Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree;“
and life's desert "shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.” Isaiah 55:13; 35:1. {DA 302.4}

Chapter 42 - The Controversy Ended

A fear of making the future inheritance seem too material has led many to spiritualize away the very truths which lead us to look upon it as our home.

Christ assured His disciples that He went to prepare mansions for them in the Father's house.

Those who accept the teachings of God's word will not be wholly ignorant concerning the heavenly abode.

And yet, “eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him.” 1 Corinthians 2:9.

Human language is inadequate to describe the reward of the righteous.
It will be known only to those who behold it. No finite mind can comprehend the glory of the Paradise of God. {GC 674.4}

In the Bible the inheritance of the saved is called “a country.” Hebrews 11:14-16.

There the heavenly Shepherd leads His flock to fountains of living waters.

The tree of life yields its fruit every month, and the leaves of the tree are for the service of the nations.

There are ever-flowing streams, clear as crystal, and beside them waving trees cast their shadows upon the paths prepared for the ransomed of the Lord.

There the wide-spreading plains swell into hills of beauty, and the mountains of God rear their lofty summits.

On those peaceful plains, beside those living streams, God's people, so long pilgrims and wanderers, shall find a home. {GC 675.1}

“My people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places.”

“Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders;
but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.”

“They shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: . . .

Mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.” Isaiah 32:18; 60:18; Isaiah 65:21, 22. {GC 675.2}

There, “the wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice,
and blossom as the rose.”

“Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree.”

“The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; . . .
and a little child shall lead them.”

“They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain,” saith the Lord.” Isaiah 35:1; 55:13; Isaiah 11:6, 9.

Review

1. What did the woman do?
(Matthew 15:25)
2. What did she say to Jesus?
(Matthew 15:25)
3. What does it mean to be in health?

Our Closing Hymn for our Toddler's study is entitled,
"My faith looks up to Thee"
Hymn #246

2 Corinthians 5:7 (KJV)

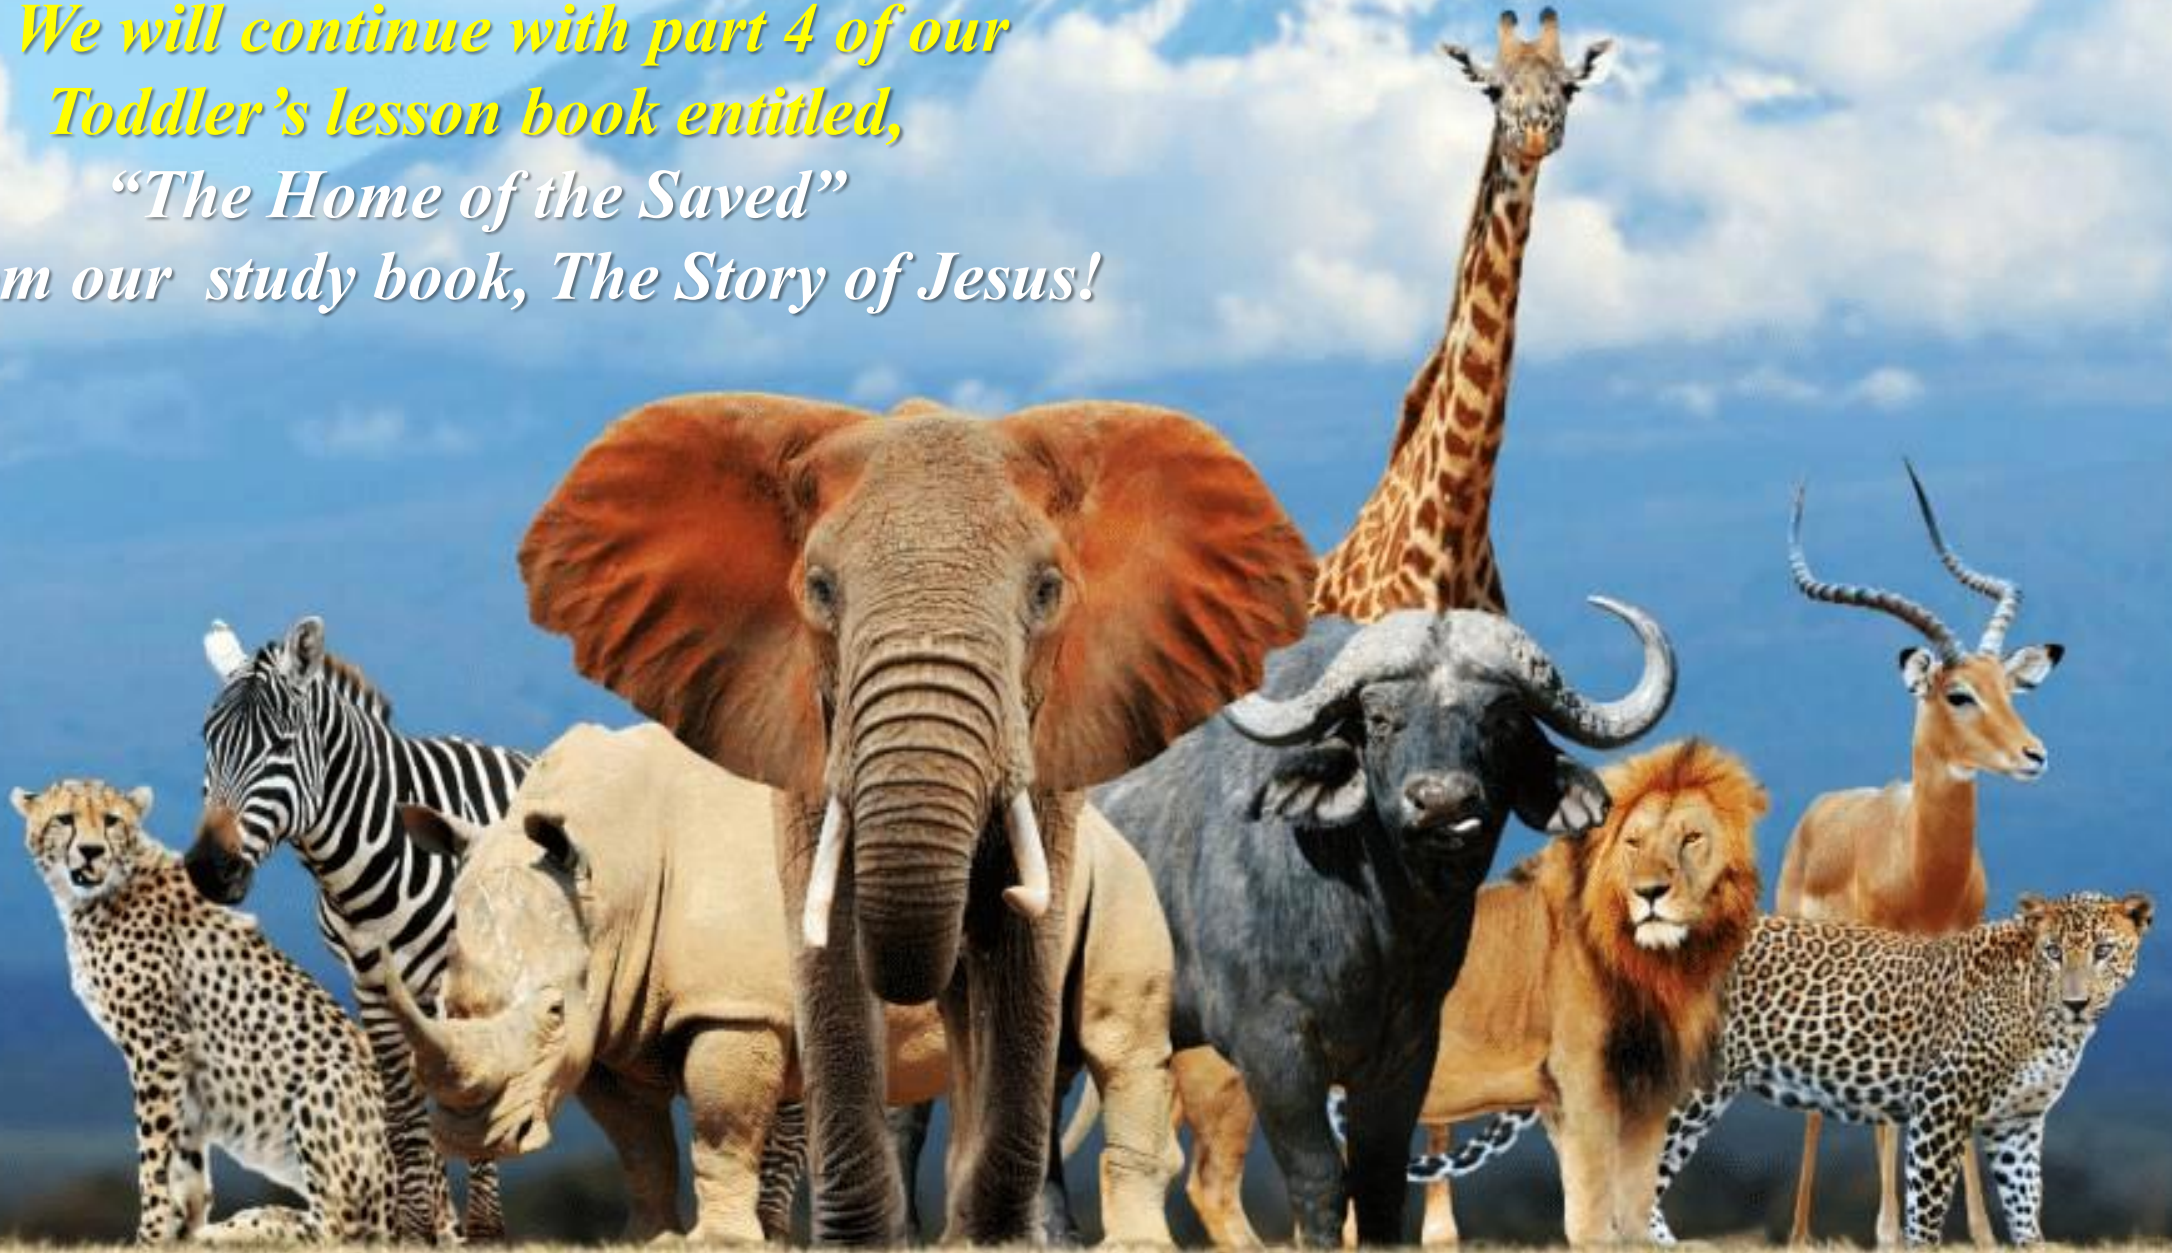

(For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

1. My faith looks up to Thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine;
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away;
O let me from this day
Be wholly Thine.
3. When life's dark maze I tread
And griefs around me spread
Be thou my guide
Bid darkness turn to day
Wipe sorrow's tears away
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside
2. May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O may my love to Thee,
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire!

Closing Prayer-request one of the little ones to give prayer.
